

sacrificed, but betrayed by unworthy leaders. I believe old Wood was the friend of the people when he first came into office, but that environment and continuance in office have debauched him, until today he is little less than a robber. In fact I will admit, rather than get up an argument with you, he is a thief. But why abandon a party with the fewest number of thieves or one numerically weaker but all thieves, so far as N.C. is concerned.
