

October 15th. 1892.

Mr. T. Anderson, G.P.A.
Portsmouth, Va.

Dear Sir:-

Sometime, I think in the Spring of 1892, I asked your Agent here, Mr. R.A. Cook to send to Mr. James B. Somerville at Warrenton two tickets from that point to Baltimore and paid him $13.00 for same. Mr. W.S. Terrell, Agent at Warrenton was instructed by Mr. Cook to deliver them to Mr. Somerville when called for. They were never called for, Mr. S. having died and the money has not been returned although asked for repeatedly.

Please answer if the Railroad is responsible and will the money be returned and oblige.

Respectfully yours,

Wm. B. ...
