

Oct 31.

6

Mr Gerald Kendrick

Dear Sir:

I feel sure you are not aware of the injustice you are doing my daughter Eleanor by your attention and therefore deem it my duty ^{to} speak plainly and frankly with you. She is but a school girl and my wish is that her studies shall not be interrupted. Looking to her welfare she is forbidden to receive the attentions of young men, so I must ask you to discontinue