NOMINATING COMMITTEE FOR FACULTY OFFICERS REPORT
ELECTION OF FACULTY OFFICERS

Candidate for Chair of the Faculty

Jan Tovey, Department of English

As I stood before you last year to ask for your support as your leader for 2008-09, no one anticipated the budget crisis that faces not only the university and the state but all nations as well. I stand again as a candidate to provide continuing leadership as we attempt to preserve our academic mission in spite of the budget issues. Shared governance remains a primary goal as I work with the administration to ensure that faculty and students have the best experience at a very poor financial time.

In addition to this past year as chair of the faculty, I served as a senator and alternate representing the English department for 7 years including 2 years as faculty secretary while also serving as a member and officer of several Senate committees and as Faculty Assembly delegate. I have also served my unit in leadership positions. My administrative experience reaches outside ECU as a founding member of the Outreach Network and service as its first coordinator. I am currently President for The Council for Programs in Technical and Scientific Communication.

I recognize the role of the faculty and the Senate in the success of this university and will continue to be a spokesperson for them. If you choose to reelect me, I will continue to advocate for faculty members in all departments, schools and colleges, as I work with the university administration to accomplish our academic, research, and strategic goals. I pledge to be a problem-solver working on your behalf.

Candidate for Vice Chair of the Faculty

Marianna Walker, College of Allied Health Sciences

For the past two years, I have served as Secretary and Vice-Chair of the Faculty. I would like to continue in my role as Vice Chair during the 2009-2010 academic year. During this time of uncertainty at the university, is it imperative that the faculty leadership be comprised of individuals who value faculty advocacy and representation in all situations. Faculty should receive ongoing communication and should trust the faculty officers to communicate their requests and questions to the administration. It is important for the faculty officers to represent the entire faculty (tenured, tenure-track and fixed-term) and faculty senate while engaging in constructive dialogue with the Executive Council and the Chancellor, especially in making decisions regarding the budget and possible cuts, in the establishment of the university policies manual, and in all university initiatives, and strategic planning involving academic policies and curriculum issues. If elected for my second term as Vice Chair, I would pledge to represent and communicate with the faculty regarding these important issues.

In shared governance, a faculty officer also has an important role in soliciting faculty support and involvement with important university initiatives. It is imperative that faculty across divisions must be represented on committees that make policy decisions and process implementation guidelines. My experiences as a faculty officer, senator, and Health Sciences faculty member would be beneficial in making appropriate recommendations for faculty involvement for campus-wide committees during this next year. I would appreciate your continued support as Vice-Chair of the Faculty.

Candidates for Secretary of the Faculty

Hunt McKinnon, Department of Interior Design and Merchandising

I would like to be re-elected as Secretary of the Faculty for three straightforward reasons-

- 1) Continuity: I think the lean budget period we are now experiencing makes it very important to keep our faculty officers working without interruption through the summer. This is no time for a summer recess because; administrative decision will be made with or without the voice of the faculty being heard.
- 2) Capability: The job of the Secretary is more than keeping the minutes. He or she meets with the other officers and with administrators on a weekly basis; there is a responsibility to be clear and often to do as the Quaker phrase requires of its members: to speak truth to power.
- 3) Diversity: The position of Secretary is the only office that can be filled by a fixed term faculty member. Currently there are 507 Fixed term full time faculty; this number is only 64 faculty members fewer than the tenured full time faculty. (1) However, it is this 33.5 % of the faculty that is currently the most vulnerable to being unemployed as we heard in the last Faculty Senate meeting. I believe in the notion that East Carolina University should be a true Community of Scholars and thus that people with different academic interests and levels of scholarship should be welcomed as more than casual labor. Monoculture only makes us more vulnerable. Thus, I am running for re-election based upon the difference that my perspective brings to the job, and my interest and proven ability.

Mario Rey, School of Music

I am an Associate Professor of Ethnomusicology at the School of Music. My research and teaching interests include focus on the vernacular and art musics of Latin America and the Caribbean, including issues of bimusicality/biculturalism, musical acculturation and immigrant identities. I believe that service is an integral component of academic performance, and in that spirit, I have served on numerous university-wide, faculty, and departmental committees since joining East Carolina University in 1999. I have also worked for many external organizations, which includes being Past President of the Society for Ethnomusicology Southeast and Caribbean Chapter.

I have served on standing Academic and Appellate committees of Senate, including two terms on the Student Academic Appellate Committee (Vice-Chair 2007-2008), and the Grievance Appellate Board. Since 2003, I have been a member of the SAAC, which functions as an appeals board involving students' academic standing and standards. This environment has allowed me to appreciate policy and student issues from multiple perspectives. My interest with student concerns and academic excellence has also fueled my participation as member of the Undergraduate Research and Creative Activities Committee (since 2003), the Ethnic Studies Committee (since 1999), and several Student Union Committees and other student organizations. I am currently interested in working with the Senate, and look forward to the opportunity and privilege to serve as a Faculty Officer.
