

Au- Revoir Ma

Just as Apostle Peter said
To the lame who bent his head,
I do say the same to you,
Miss Brooks, even to you too,
That "Silver and gold I have none",
But this prayer I give without fur;-
That our kind and good God may be
Your Alpha and Omega: Even the Beginning and the end.
That peace to you may be sent,
All through your journey home.
And may the Lord never leave you alone.
We thank you for the infirmary,
For your kindness not cloudy,
And for your advice about our health
Which is now our own wealth.
Once more, Miss Brooks, my prayer is
That we may meet with bliss
After our good God should have granted you
Travelling mercies and peaceful rest too.
