

BECAUSE HE HATH INCLINED HIS EAR UNTO ME; THEREFORE WILL I CALL
UPON HIM AS LONG AS I LIVE. Psalm 116:2

Dear Prayer Partners:

Let me share with you some of God's answers, and assure you of gratitude for your co-operation in this great task.

1. SOULS SAVED. Praise God for the eight in one of the outstations recently buried with Christ in baptism by Mr. Alex Herring. One of these was a Mohammedan, the head of the Sugar Factory. Mohammedans believe that Jesus is only a prophet, but praise to God His Holy Spirit revealed Jesus the Son of God.
2. LAND PURCHASED. In my January letter prayer was requested for land for church buildings at two outstations. The Lord has heard and enabled us to buy a suitable place in the corner of a banana field near the high school and hospital. Investigation is still going on for a place in the other outstation.
3. LABORERS. You will rejoice with us that the Lord of the Harvest has sent during 1958 six new missionaries to Taiwan. Miss Jennie Alderman has been reappointed and is expected to arrive soon. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hix, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Spurgeon, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morris are all now studying in the Language School in Taipei. We are grateful that the Morrises are beginning the study of Taiwanese that they may be able to minister among the six million who speak this language. Lest you think we are really increasing our missionaries in Taiwan, let me remind you that Miss Addie Cox and the Larsons have already retired and in a few weeks Misses Bertha Smith, Mary Demarest, and Irene Jeffers will join them. Still we need to pray, "Lord send forth laborers."
4. TODAY'S DISAPPOINTMENT. Yes, we have disappointments, too. My heart was grieved this morning when I heard that one of our fine young boys of about 18 years is a member of a gang of 17 boys whose names have been turned in to the police. The gangster spirit is growing here. The Christian man reporting this to me said, "This is what they get from American movies." Pray that this young man break with bad company and come back to his first love for God.
5. TODAY'S ENCOURAGEMENT. A former member of English Bible Class wrote, "Thank God He leads you to open English Bible Class in the church. I have the great joy in my heart all the time."
6. FORMOSA STREETS. Daily papers have given you the news. Our work is not affected. Pray for those in authority as God commanded.

Yours in Christ,

Katie Murray
