COMMEMORATING
THE RETURN OF

"THE KITTY HAWK"
WRIGHT BROTHERS' PLANE

After 20 years of exile in England, the Wright Brothers' historic plane, which was the first heavier-than-air machine to fly, was returned to America and reached its final resting place in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, Nov. 22, 1948. Wilbur and Orville Wright made their first successful flight at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina on December 17, 1903
