The Landsberger lecture, sponsored by the ECU Dept. of Geography, is scheduled for 11 a.m. in Brewster B-102. It is open to all interested persons.

A well known authority who has published extensively on conditions in Chile, Dr. Landsberger lived in Chile for several years and visited there most recently this past summer, since the overthrow of the Allende government.

In September Dr. Landsberger testified in Washington before a Congressional Committee as an expert witness on conditions in Chile.

An informal question and answer session will follow the lecture. The public is also invited to attend the session, in Brewster C-206, at 3:30 p.m.

Outward Bound

Anyone interested in working on a project to determine the desirability of an Outward Bound type program at ECU? This work will involve conducting research, interviews and surveys or typing. PRC 200 students will be rewarded with G.B.R.'s and others esthetically. If you are interested or have any ideas or suggestions on this type of program contact Mary Kelly at 758-5653 or come by 305 E. 14th Street.

Seminar

The North Carolina Association of Non-Dailies will hold a seminar on "Advertising in Non-Daily Newspapers" on Friday, October 11 in Mendenhall.

The program will begin at 10 a.m., will break for lunch, and will continue until approximately 4 p.m.

Participating in the seminar will be Mr. George McMath, publisher, Accomac (Va.) Eastern Shore News, and Mr. George Weisse, with Metro Advertising Services, New York City.

The seminar is primarily for people working in advertising on a day-to-day basis.

ECU Day

Saturday, October 12, the climatic day of Bicentennial activities has been designated ECU Day. Amidst the highlighted events of the final day of celebration commemorating Greenville's 200th birthday, various activities and programs for the public will take place on the ECU campus.

The East Carolina Music Department will feature a Chamber Music Recital at 3:15 p.m. in the A.J. Fletcher Recital Hall. This will be a combined chamber music program by members of the School of Music faculty. Works to be performed will be Duo for Violin and Cello by Zoltan Kodaly and several numbers by the newly organized School of Music Faculty Woodwind Quintet.

The School of Art's participation in the celebration takes the form of two senior shows located in the display cases in Rawl Building, the Baptist Student Union, and the professional Spring Mills Travel Show located in the Kate Lewis Gallery in Whichard Building.

Joyner Library contributes to the ECU Bicentennial activities with a historical display of materials featuring early photos of the Greenville area and the ECU's history. The display is located in the lobby of the Library.

ECU administrative officials, as well as student representatives, will participate in the Bicentennial Parade Saturday morning. The ECU Student Government Association is sponsoring a float, designed and constructed by the Inter-Fraternity Council.

The public is encouraged to join in ECU's efforts to commemorate Greenville's 200th birthday.

Free flick

Friday night's free flick will be "Child's Play", starring James Mason, Beau Bridges and Robert Preston. If you liked the mystery of "The Other", the paranoia of "Rosemary's Baby", and the suspense of any Hitchcock then you can't miss this thriller. Seven and 9 p.m. at Mendenhall. I.D. and Activity Card admission.

WED-THUR. MORNINGSONG

FRI.-SAT GLASS MOON

If you like Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young; Seals and Croft; and America, then you'll love Morningsong. Billboard Magazine chose their album "Listen to a Sunrise" as a top album pick of the month. If you're up for an evening of easy listening and a side order of dance music, go to The Attic this Wed. and Thurs. to hear Morningsong. And on Fri. and Sat., the best English Rock group in the state, Glass Moon, will provide the entertainment from 9:00 to 1:00.
