To do this, there must be a spirit of co-operation among the borrowers, and a willingness to abide by the rules of the library. The library is for the use of all, and the students are placed on their honor in regard to the use of the books, magazines, etc. It is also requested that the students take care in the use of the building, books, magazines, etc. In order that the best use be made of the library, the following rules have been adopted.

The books in the reference room, as encyclopaedias, dictionaries, yearbooks, etc., are not to be taken from the library, and are to be used in that room as much as possible. The magazines, both back files and current issues, are to be used in the library.

The books, not on the reserve shelf, may be taken for one or two weeks according to the demand for the books. Most books of fiction are issued for one week, but may be renewed, unless there is a demand for the books.

The books on the reserve shelf which are not returned by 9:00 in the morning will be subject to a fine of 5 cents an hour, for the first five hours they are out of the library. The books not on the reserve desk will be subject to a fine of two cents a day for each day they are kept overtime.

All books must be returned and all fines paid before the end of each school term, or the grades of the student will be withheld until the fines are paid. All lost books must be paid for. Any student who cuts, tears, or otherwise mutilates a magazine will be held responsible for the price of the magazine.

It is expected that order be observed in the library at all times.

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the knights in the days of old
Keeping watch on the mountain heights
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night.

Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled o'er all the world,
Follow, follow the gleam,
Of the chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King,
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know,
That the challenge still hold today.

Follow, follow the gleam,
Standards of worth o'er all the earth,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

WELCOME to our college, Little Sisters! We are anxiously waiting for the time to come when you will arrive in Greenville. We want to help you, in every way, to make your life at our college a pleasant one.

When you get a note from your "Big Sister," answer it and become acquainted with her. With your help, we can make the coming year the very best year of all.

Sincerely,
Your Big Sisters.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION
OUR ASSOCIATION

The Association of the East Carolina Teachers College was organized the opening year of the school's history, 1909. Since its organization, this association has done effective work in promoting high ideals among the students. Regular devotional meetings are held and several different courses in Bible and Mission Study are given.

Each year delegates from our School are sent to the Southern Students' Conference, formerly at Asheville, now at Blue Ridge. There methods are decided upon for the prosecution of the ensuing year's work.

ASSOCIATION MOTTO

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of Hosts."

NATIONAL OBJECTIVE

"We determine to live unreservedly Jesus' Law of Love in every relationship, and so to know God."

CHURCHES

Each girl has the privilege of attending her own church. Pastors of all the churches extend a hearty welcome.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

1. It stands for "Practical Christianity," rendering assistance in every way possible.

2. It will strengthen and deepen your own spiritual life, and will afford you good training in Christian work.

3. If you think you have no time to be a member, it is a very strong reason why you should join. You are in peril if you persuade yourself to believe there is no time to do something for Him.

4. Again, one is brought into closer touch with the whole work of the association. A girl's outlook is broadened by coming in contact with her fellow students, as all work together for the good of the whole.

HOW YOU CAN HELP OUR Y. W. C. A.

1. Attend all Y. W. C. A. services.

2. Take your friends with you.

3. Join the Y. W. C. A. and give it your loyal support.

4. Attend all business meetings and take part in them. Offer any suggestion that you think will help.

BLUE RIDGE

The greatest outstanding feature of the year's work in the Y. W. C. A. is the joy and privilege of attending the Southern Conference of this association held each year in the early days of June, at Blue Ridge, near Asheville.

Here are gathered all the delegates from the Southern Colleges, and it is especially essential that all new cabinet members be present, for it is here that the coming year's work is outlined, problems on every campus are discussed, and in all we receive the strength to make our Y. W. effective on our own campus.

Aside from this value, however, there are others gained at Blue Ridge. It is just in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains in our state, and the ten days' stay is worth much in acquainting one with the beauties and scenery of our Old North State.

But probably the greatest value of all is the spiritual good we receive. The very fact that the Conference is held mid such surroundings, lends to a deeper appreciation of the higher things of life, and a quickening of those sources of love and fellowship. It is an inspiration never to be forgotten to find God on these "mountain top" experiences and surely this is the real end and aim of all the motives which uphold the Y. W. C. A.

SOCIETIES

We know each one of you, new girls, is anxious to belong to a society, as you have heard how much fun and pleasure we gain from them. They are our main outlet for social life here at school, and what fun we do have at our parties and entertainments, both separate and joint.

You will enjoy too, the spirit shown at our inter-society debates and on initiation day. You will just naturally "bubble over" with "pep," for on the former occasion each society desires to win the cup and on the latter, each wants to get more society members than the others.

We are all anxiously awaiting you, girls, and each society extends to you a hearty welcome!

EMERSON SOCIETY

The charter members of the Emerson Society are volunteers from the two older societies. In 1926 the need of a new and third society was poignantly felt. The result is our own Emerson Society—founded on truth and reliance. We have begun the blazing of a trail into new fields of literary endeavors, and to the new girls we say, "Will you not go with us on our adventure?" We welcome you in a most hearty manner to our college and to our society.

OFFICERS

President	Ethel Spratt
Vice President	Blanche Wood
Secretary	Ruby Hazel Jackson
Treasurer	Marcella Deal

Song

O, Emerson!
In your praise, we always raise a song to your veracity.
O, Emerson!
You have won our hearts forever by your firm
tenacity.
O, Emerson!
How your name in newest fame thrills us
to carry on anew.
We love you,
And with hand and heart for right
We pledge to fight—to you We're true.

SIDNEY LANIER SOCIETY

The Lanier Society, since it was formed, has held a high place in the life of those girls who are members. It has been the purpose of the members to uphold its ideals, to participate in the activities of their society, and to co-operate with the followers of the Poes and Emersons. The Laniers await the coming of the new friends who will help them build a better and firmer organization.

OFFICERS

President Catharine Clark
Vice President Nancy Hinson
Secretary Julia Minor Wood
Treasurer Goldie Harrell

Song

Let us sing a song of praise to our Society,
Hail to thee, oh, Sidney Lanier!
Loyal members ever proving your sobriety,
'Tho' our fun to us e'er will be dear;
Then let us to our banner each a tribute pay,
Let us ever our motto uphold
Always faithful, true and loyal to thee, night
and day,
Hurrah for the Green and Gold!
(Whistle—Tra la, la)

POE SOCIETY

The purpose of the Poe Society is to instill in the hearts of the girls a love for more worthwhile things. Society spirit, ideals, and activities are a large part of a college girl's life, and these things are what our society wishes to uphold. We welcome you, new girls! Even "Felix," our mascot, anxiously awaits the future members of our society.

OFFICERS

President Vera Wester
Vice President Mary Cummings
Secretary Elizabeth Deal
Treasurer Sonia Belle Lamm

Song

Oh, Edgar, Oh Edgar Allan
We are the Edgar Allan Poes
We are the Society
Choice and picked variety
Oh, Edgar, Oh Edgar Allan
We are the Edgar Allan Poes.
March on! March on!
Beneath the red and white,
For we will conquer all our foes,
And we're sure to win in every fight.

Each organization and club on the campus has a reporter on the Teco-Echo staff.

The Teco-Echo is only two years old, but in that time the newspaper has had a rapid and prosperous growth. Its purpose is to help lead the students toward self-expression, and to create and advance the highest and noblest college spirit.

THE TECOAN

Since the first volume of "The Tecoan" was published in 1920, it has been the aim of each staff to surpass the one preceding in issuing a greater and finer annual.

It is the hope of the present staff that the 1928 Tecoan will vividly and truthfully present our college life in its every phase, and that each girl will cherish her annual as a characteristic portrayal and a pleasant reminder.

For the wholesome frolic and fun as well as real sport the Athletic Association stands. The fee for membership is only fifty cents, while the privilege are numerous. The holding of a membership in the association entitles one to use the tennis courts, basket ball courts, base ball courts, to try out for the tennis teams, and base ball teams.

The division of the Athletic Association into two equal forces, Athenians and Olympians, adds strength and vigor to all activities. A loving cup is awarded the side which excels in the tennis tournament, in the big base ball game of the season played on field day in the spring term, and in the number of points won by individual members according to the point system of the association. The point system scores individual triumph as well; the girl scoring five hundred points in leadership on the campus, participation in athletic activities, athletic stunts, hiking and health habits, is awarded the college monogram.

Besides field day, Thanksgiving Day represents the high water mark in athletic history. The classes hail forth in their colors to witness the finals in basket ball. Two loving cups are awarded—one to the winner of the championship series of the college classes and the other to the winner of the normal classes. Thus a keep spirit in Athletics is brought about among the classes.
