STUDENTS'
HANDBOOK

PRESENTED BY

*THE STUDENT
SELF-GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION*

of

EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE

DEAR GIRLS:

This is a warm welcome to all students who register for this year's work. Not only is it a pleasure to welcome those of you who have learned to love East Carolina Teachers College, but it is also a pleasure to welcome into our family those of you who have not yet learned to know us well.

We are trying in every way to make a stronger, better, more useful institution for you and those who come after you. We need your help.

I am wishing for each of you the happiest year you have known. May I urge you to call on me if in any way I can help you!

Most sincerely yours,

ANNIE L. MORTON.

COLLEGE SONG

Hurrah for our college so free!
May her banner sweep onward forever,
The college for you and for me,
With standards of the right.
Then we'll cheer for our college always
As she fights with a mighty endeavor.
From the depths of our hearts we will say,
That by her right and by her might,
She'll live forever!

HONOR

"The greatest thing in the world is Honor. For it men die that the heritage of the future may be kept clean. To say that a person is honorable is the highest tribute that can be paid to a human being—it is crowning one's character with the brightest laurels. 'It is Honor that keeps us clean, clean so that we can face our mothers and our fathers and our God without shame, and say that we played the game square.'"

PLEDGE

Believing that the true greatness of any college is largely dependent upon the honor of the students, I hereby pledge the Student Self-Government Association of East Carolina Teachers College my hearty support and promise to be loyal to the letter and the spirit of all college regulations. I shall do all I can to help create a spirit of honesty for its own sake and to develop in every student a fine feeling of personal honor.

Not only shall I endeavor to conform to every regulation and to refrain from every form of dishonesty, but I shall consider it my duty to speak to any student who is not abiding by these rules and ideals, and to report her to the Council if she ignores the warning. If I fail at any time to act in accordance with these regulations and ideals, I shall accept without complaint or bitterness any penalty imposed by the Student Council or the College.

control;

Would come uncall'd for) but to live
by law,
Acting the law we live by without fear;
And, because right is right, to follow right
Were wisdom in the scorn of consequence.”—Tennyson.

Ten points are the maximum number any student may carry during one school year.

The Library

The purpose of the library is to give the best service possible to all who wish to use it. To do this, there must be a spirit of cooperation among the borrowers, and a willingness to abide by the rules of the library. The library is for the use of all, and the students are placed on their honor in regard to the use of the books, magazines, etc. It is also requested that the students take care in the use of the building, books, magazines, etc. In order to make the best of the library, the following rules have been adopted:

The books in the reference room, as encyclopedias, dictionaries, yearbooks, etc., are not to be taken from the library, and are to be used in that room as much as possible. The magazines, both back files and current issues, are to be used in the library.

The books on the reserve shelf, which are books used by classes for special work, are to be used in the room during the day, but may be taken out when the library closes at night, and over the week-end. They must be returned by 9:00 in the morning.

The books, not on the reserve shelf, may be taken for one or two weeks according to the demand for the books. Most books of fiction are issued for one week, but may be renewed unless there is a demand for the books. Students are allowed to go into the stack room and use the books, but they must sign at the desk for all books they take out of the stack room, even for those they use in the reading room. It is requested that students try to keep the books in order in the stack room.

The books on the reserve shelf which are not returned by 9:00 in the morning will be subject to a fine of 5 cents an hour, for the first five hours they are out of the library. The books not on the reserve desk will be subject to a fine of two cents a day for each day they are kept overtime.

All books must be returned and all fines paid before the end of each school term, or the grades of the student will be withheld until the fines are paid. All lost books must be paid for. Any student who cuts, tears, or otherwise mutilates a magazine will be held responsible for the price of the magazine.

It is expected that order be observed in the library at all times.

The College Supply Store

The college supply store carries all kinds of school supplies, including college stationery, college stickers, pennants, and pillow tops. All supplies are sold at minimum prices for the benefit of the college girls.

The Postoffice

The college postoffice is under the supervision of the college and not the national government. Mail is brought to the college three times a day—before breakfast, before lunch, and about 3:30 P.M. Special deliveries are carried to the dormitories. The college handles in outgoing packages only parcel post. It does not handle insured or registered mail. That is handled directly by the Greenville U. S. Postoffice.

The college has a local service within the college postoffice in order that students and faculty members may communicate with each other readily by this means.

Postoffice boxes are assigned, free of charge, to students at the beginning of the year, or whenever they matriculate. More than one student is assigned to a box, because of the large number of students in school.

Stamps and post cards may be purchased at the P. O. at delivery hours.

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the Knights, in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain heights,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night.

Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled o'er all the world.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the chalice that is Grail.

And we who would serve the King,
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today.

Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Standard of worth o'er all the earth;
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

Welcome to our college, Little Sisters! We are anxiously waiting for the time to come when you will arrive in Greenville. We want to help you, in every way, to make your life at our college a pleasant one.

When you get a note from your "Big Sister," answer it and become acquainted with her. With your help, we can make the coming year the very best year of all.

Sincerely,

Your Big Sisters.

YOUNG WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Association of the East Carolina Teachers College was organized the opening year of the school's history, 1909. Since its organization, this Association has done much toward promoting high ideals among the students. Regular devotional meetings are held and several courses in Bible and Mission Study are given.

Each year delegates from our school are sent to the Southern Students' Conference, formerly at Asheville, now at Blue Ridge. There methods are decided upon for the prosecution of the ensuing year's work.

ASSOCIATION MOTTO

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit saith the Lord of Hosts."

NATIONAL OBJECTIVE

"We unite in the determination to live unreservedly Jesus' Law of Love in every relationship, and so to know God."

CHURCHES

Each girl has the privilege of attending her own church. Pastors of all the churches extend a hearty welcome.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN THE YOUNG WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

1. It stands for "Practical Christianity," rendering assistance in every way possible.

2. It will strengthen and deepen your own spiritual life, and will afford you good training in Christian work.

3. If you think you have no time to be a member, it is a very strong reason why you should join. You are in peril if you persuade yourself to believe there is no time to do something for Him.

4. Again, one is brought into closer touch with the whole work of the Association. A girl's outlook is broadened by coming in contact with her fellow students, as all work together for the good of the whole.

HOW YOU CAN HELP OUR Y. W. C. A.

1. Attend all Y. W. C. A. services.
2. Take your friends with you.
3. Join the Y. W. C. A. and give it your loyal support.
4. Attend all business meetings and take part in them. Offer any suggestion that you think will help.

the conference is held mid such surroundings leads to a deeper appreciation of the higher things of life, and a quickening of those sources of love and fellowship. It is an inspiration never to be forgotten to find God in these "mountain-top" experiences, and surely this is the real end and aim of all the motives which uphold the Y. W. C. A.

SOCIETIES

We know each one of you, new girls, is anxious to belong to a society, as you have heard how much pleasure we gain from such an organization. What fun we have at our parties and entertainments!

You will enjoy, too, the spirit shown on initiation day and at our inter-society debates. You will just naturally "bubble over" with "pep"; for the former occasion each society desires to get more members than the others, and on the latter, each wants to win the cup.

We are anxiously awaiting you, girls, and each society extends to you a hearty welcome!

EMERSON SOCIETY

The charter members of the Emerson Society are volunteers from the two older societies. In 1925 the need of a new and third society was poignantly felt. The result is our own Emerson Society—founded on truth and reliance. We have begun the blazing of a trail into new fields of literary endeavors, and to every new girl we say, "Will you not go with us on our adventure?" We welcome you in a most hearty manner to our college and to our society.

SONG

Oh, Emerson Society,
Dear old White and Blue,
For you our hearts beat merrily,
As we sing this song to you;
And when we see our colors there,
Blue and White everywhere,
We know that they mean only you,
And all you hold so true.
So here we are, the Emersons,
 hosting for our clan.
Oh, Emerson, Oh, Emerson,
For you we'll always stand.

SIDNEY LANIER SOCIETY

We ,the members of the Sidney Lanier Society, extend a willing and helping hand to every new girl who comes to our campus next year. Especially do we welcome you, new girls, to our society, a society that stands for truth, purity, fellowship and all things great and good.

Come, come, join the crowd and add to our merriment. We will have fun at work or at play if you will "stick" by us. We know that your membership will add much to our society; and we welcome you again, new friends.

SONG

Let us sing a song of praise to our Society,
Hail to thee, oh, Sidney Lanier!
Loyal members ever proving your sobriety,
Tho, our fun to us e'er will be dear;
Then let us to our banner each a tribute pay,
Let us ever our motto uphold,
Always faithful, true and loyal to thee, night
and day,
Hurrah for the Green and Gold! ——— ———
(Whistle—Tra la, la)

POE SOCIETY

The purpose of the Poe Society is to instill in the hearts of the girls a love for more worthwhile things. Society spirit, ideals, and activities are a large part of a college girl's life; and those things are what our society wishes to uphold. We welcome you, new girls! Even "Felix," our mascot, anxiously awaits the future members of our society.

SONG

Oh, Edgar, Oh, Edgar Allan!
We are the Edgar Allan Poes.
We are the Society,
Choice and picked variety.
Oh, Edgar, Oh, Edgar Allan!
We are the Edgar Allan Poes.
March on! March on!
Beneath the red and white,
For we will conquer all our foes,
And we're sure to win in every fight.

MARSHALS

The Marshals who are elected every spring from the three literary societies serve at all important public functions and entertainments. The Chief Marshal, who comes from each respective society every third year, is head of the regular marshals at all times. For marshals high standards of scholarship and deportment are upheld and are the basis for election along with charm of personality and willingness to serve.

The Athletic Association believes in the spirit of play for its own sake. It works for the promotion of physical activities among the students under the leadership and environmental conditions that foster health, physical efficiency, and the development of good citizenship.

The Association has a membership of about one-third of the student body, girls who are representative of the college. The members are divided into two groups, Olympians and Athenians. These compete against each other for honors in athletics and for points won by participation in hiking and in health habits.

and by athletic stunts as specified in the school point system.

Each girl who scores five hundred points during the school year is awarded a school monogram.

The intramural athletic contests of the college are sponsored by the Athletic Association. The contests consist of interclass basketball, tennis tournaments, baseball, and field day activities. Loving cups are awarded by the Association on Thanksgiving Day to the winning basketball teams, and on field day to the winning group of the Athletic Association. Medals are awarded to the winners in the tennis tournaments.

Rights to enter school athletics and to use the courts are reserved for members of the Association only. The membership fee is one dollar.
