

[ESTABLISHED IN 1838.]

JAMES H. ENNISS,

PUBLISHER OF THE OLD RELIABLE

Turner's North Carolina Almanac.

OFFICE No. 119 N. SALISBURY STREET.

Raleigh, N.C., Sept 11th 1899

took 1/8 page 34 $5⁰⁰

Guinea Real Estate Co,
Washington, N.C.

Gents:

Yours 7th not received. He will be pleased to have your adventure in "Turner's N.C. Almanac for 1900", and will offer you special inducements as follows: Whole page $30⁰⁰, Half page $15⁰⁰, One fourth page $10⁰⁰. One Eight-page $5⁰⁰.

You will see from enclosed Table of rates of advertising that we make you a very liberal offer. By a careful reading of the enclosed circular letter you will see the great advantage to be derived from using this Old Old State Almanac to reach the people.

We send you a copy of Almanac for 1899 to such space &c. Awaiting your favorable reply we remain

Yours Very respectfully
James H. Ennis, Pub

JH E