THE LEGISLATURE.

FRIDAY.

In the Senate bills and resolutions were introduced as follows: Carver, a bill for the protection of owners of cattle; Hamrick, a bill to abolish the geological survey; Ammons, a bill to amend chap. 143, laws of 1893, to provide inspectors for Buncombe, Madison, Mitchell and Yancey counties; also a bill to amend the constitution of North Carolina. This bill adds a section forbidding corporations to give free passes and forbids franking privileges by telegraph and telephone companies; Dolby, bill to authorize J. A. Cruse, late sheriff of Greenville, to collect arrears of taxes; Sharpe, to compel the attendance of witnesses in certain cases; Moody, of Haywood, to authorize the appointment of certain subcommittees; Paddison, bill to amend the constitution of North Carolina, reducing the homestead exemptions, on real property from $1,000 to $500, and personal property exemptions from $500 to $200; Hamrick, bill for the relief of L. Reynolds, a Confederate soldier; Dowd, bill to amend chap. 343, laws of 1893, incorporating the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company; Fowler, bill to regulate the rate of interest; Stevens, bill to reduce the marriage license fee to $1.50; Grant, bill to amend chap. 180, laws of 1885, changing the time of holding Jones and Pender Superior Courts; also to amend chap. 117, laws of 1879, creating State Board of Health.

The calendar was then taken up and bills and resolutions were disposed of as follows: Bill to amend chap. 258, laws of 1891, to protect owners of stock in Hyde county. Passed second and third reading. Bill to amend the charter of the town of Mount Airy, passed second reading. Bill to reduce the official bond of the sheriff of Pitt county. This brought on a long debate in which Senators Adams, Dowd, Forbes, Carver, and others participated.

In the House bills were introduced as follows: By Mr. McClammy, to extend time of sheriffs in settling State and county taxes; by Mr. Yates, to raise revenue for public schools from dealers in pistols and pistol cartridges; by Mr. Spears, to protect life and fire insurance policies; by Mr. Walker, to clear the channel of Big Troublesome creek, in Rockingham county; by Mr. Flack, to relieve ex sheriff Long, of Rutherford; by Mr. Vickers, to incorporate the trustees of Watts Hospital; by Mr. Pool, to appropriate for the Colored Normal School at Elizabeth City, and to pay the clerk of the shell fish commission; by Mr. Peebles to allow Northampton to appoint special tax collectors (extending a former law); by Mr. Lineback, to change the time of holding court in Forsyth; by Mr. McKenzie, to protect travel on roads against barbed wire fences; by Mr. Wooten to amend section 3749 of The Code, reducing notaries' fees, in cases of protest of notes, from $1 to 25 cents.

Our Girls.

A gentleman who has travelled much takes occasion to say in a letter to the editor: "I have been about all over the State, and seen the girls, and affirm that Greenville has some young ladies who will compare with any in North Carolina. I would like to call a few names, but might leave out some and spoil it all." He is a good judge of the fair sex, too.

The colored man who carries the mail between the postoffice and the depot lost one of the pouches Saturday night. Mr. J. S. Jenkins found the pouch and delivered it at the postoffice.

In the National Senate on Thursday there were introduced two financial bills—one by Mr. Pugh and the other by Mr. Sherman. The title of the first was "To meet deficiencies in the revenue of the Treasury of the United States; to regulate the redemption of Treasury and coin notes of the United States; to restore silver to coinage; to amend the national banking and currency laws, and for other purposes."

That of the second "To provide for a temporary deficiency of revenue."

Mr. Pugh's bill provides for the issue of not exceeding $100,000,000 in legal-tender notes to meet deficiencies and to be redeemable in gold and silver standard coins; for the coinage of silver bullion in the Treasury, to be used in the payment of public expenses; for the issue of certificates for silver, to be deposited to the amount of its market value; for the reserve of $100,000,000 in equal amounts of gold and silver, and for the payment of custom duties—one half in gold and the other half in other currency.

Mr. Sherman's bill authorizes the issue of 3 per cent. bonds for the redemption of United States Treasury notes and to pay current expenses; also, the issue of 3 per cent. certificates, to be sold at public depositories and at post-offices, and allows the issue of national bank currency of the par value of the bonds deposited therefor.

The Democrats held a caucus last Friday night to nominate candidates for the United States Senate, Hon. Thos. W. Mason was nominated for the long term and Hon. Lee S. Overman for the short term. There was an agreement before taking a vote that Senators Ransom and Jarvis would be eliminated from the contest. The above nominations were both made on the first ballot. It is a great pity that these two gentlemen cannot be elected.

Speaking of the two men who have been named by the Fusion Legislature as United States Senators for this State, the Charlotte Observer says:

It is not for Democrats to kick. We could have wished, for the honor of the State, that the two ablest men the Democrats had—Ransom and Vance—were supplanted, since the tide has turned, by the two ablest men of the opposition. We wish that Judge Bynum, Capt. Price, Col. Boyd or Dr. Mott had been elected. None of these would have reflected the North Carolina sentiment in the Senate, but in point of ability they would have measured up creditably with their predecessors. Butler and Pritchard do not rank above mediocrity. Neither of them will make any impression in the Senate."

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Miss Mary L. Stevenson, daughter of Vice-President Stevenson, died at Asheville Friday evening. The remains were taken to Bloomington, Ill., for burial.

Three boys ran away from St. Vincent's Industrial School at Utica, N. Y., and froze to death in the woods.

Sam Hotelling, a farmer near Fairmount, Minn., killed his wife and both her parents and then shot himself to prevent officers from arresting him.

A big fire occurred in Macon, Ga., destroying property to the amount of $700,000.

The street car strikers in Brooklyn grew so turbulent that the militia had to be called out.

A SUCCESSFUL FIRM.

Yesterday the stockholders of Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., at 2 o'clock met in annual meeting in their handsome offices in this city.

The President of the Company, Col. Julian S. Carr, submitted a most gratifying report to the stockholders, showing that the year '94 was the next largest in volume of business, and largest in point of profits, since the organization of the Company.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors by the stockholders: Col. Julian S. Carr, North Carolina, Sam'l H. Austin Jr., Jno. A. McDowell, J. M. Duncan and M. E. McDowell, Jr., of Pennsylvania. Col. Julian S. Carr was unanimously chosen President, at a salary of ten thousand dollars a year, which by the way, is probably the largest salary paid by any North Carolina institution, or received by any North Carolinian living in the State.

The capital stock of Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., is $4,000,000.00, upon which a dividend, payable at once in cash, was declared. The stockholders were justly very enthusiastic over the prosperous condition of the Company and warmly thanked Col. Carr for his wise and successful management.

People of all shades in our community rejoice in the good fortune that comes to Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., and we all feel that in a measure it is "our company," and are proud to have such an institution in our midst. Whatever may be said about corporations, the Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Co., we will assert under seal, is not one of the soulless sorts, but is liberal, open-handed and just in all its dealings, and always shows a soft spot and a warm side for the interest and welfare of all its operatives and the community generally. Hence its marvelous success. Long live the "Bull" and its owners to enjoy the love, confidence and respect of its neighbors, the state and the nation.—Durham Sun.
