A Strong Law Firm.

In to-day's paper appears the professional card of Blount & Fleming, attorneys-at-law. This firm is composed of J. H. Blount, formerly of Hertford and ex-Solicitor of the first district, and J. L. Fleming, of Greenville. They are both lawyers of reputation and ability.

Mr. Blount was admitted to the bar at the age of 22 and four years later was elected Solicitor, which position he filled acceptably for twelve years. He also built up a lucrative civil practice that covered seven counties. This practice coupled with his duties as Solicitor kept him so constantly from home that he decided to locate in a larger town where his practice could be more concentrated, and with that purpose in view he moved to Greenville.

Mr. Fleming was raised in Pitt county within five miles of Greenville, and is well known to all our people. He graduated first at Wake Forest college and then at the University law school. He has been practicing nearly three years and has met with remarkable success. No lawyer here has ever built himself up and extended his practice more rapidly than Mr. Fleming. He has also been Mayor of Greenville for two years.

The REFLECTOR feels safe in predicting a prosperous career for this firm. They will receive a large practice.

MONDAY.

There was a rush of bills in the Legislature to-day, the following being the most important: To so amend the insurance law that an appeal from a State to a Federal court by a company shall cause forfeiture of charter; to add $5,000 to the annual appropriation for the Colored Agricultural and Mechanical College at Greensboro'; to forbid any State officer from travelling on a free pass; to pay solicitors salaries; to make it a crime for a person in this State to injure a person in other States. (This is to cure a defect in the Constitution. A man standing in this State killed one in Tennessee, yet cannot be punished in either State.) To incorporate a North Carolina Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to children, to repeal the act appropriating $10,000 annually to the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Bills abolishing the death penalty and to establish courts ofoyer and terminer were tabled.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Forty-four lives were lost in a mine explosion in France.

Ice in the harbor is delaying the sailing of vessels from Baltimore.

Nine famous Tennessee moonshiners have been captured and jailed at Memphis.

Three men were killed and sixteen others injured by a boiler explosion at Providence, R. I.

A blizzard is raging throughout the west. At St. Louis people are using the frozen river for a bridge and passing too and fro over the ice.

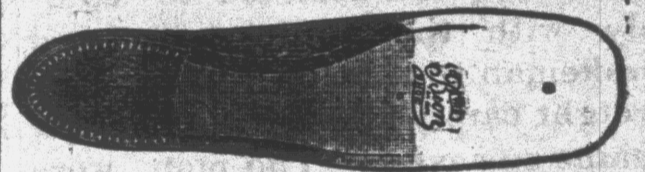

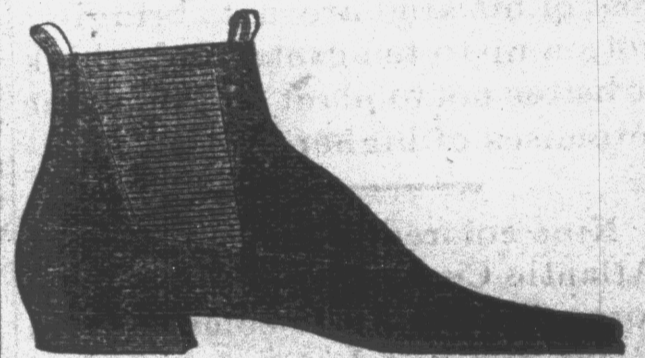

Five masked men blew open the vault of the Lockwood bank at Milan, Ohio, and got away with $25,000 in cash and bonds. They used dynamite and the explosion was so terrific that it wrecked the building.

The corner stone of the monument to be erected over the body of the late Col. L. L. Polk will be laid at Raleigh to-morrow by the Grand Lodge of Masons.

The officials of the State Agricultural Department say that fertilizer sales are lighter this season than for twenty years. They attribute the falling off in sales mainly to the contemplated reduction in the cotton acreage. Perhaps the farmers are finding out that Harry Skinner and the rest of his kind are not bringing cotton up to ten cents and think it better not to plant on Populistic promises of higher prices.

Nine colored brakemen of the Atlantic Coast Line appeared before officials of the company in Richmond and declined to comply with the order requiring brakeman to ride on top of the freight cars while the weather remains so severe. The men were dismissed and others put in their places. It was reported that unless the order was rescinded more brakemen would throw up their jobs. No doubt the man who rides on top of a freight car during such weather as has prevailed the last few weeks endures much suffering and hardship.

The administration seems to be very fond of offering itself as a mediator of disputants and belligerents. A little more attention to home affairs would be a great deal better. When it shows a capacity for adjusting the matters of home concern, it will be time enough to attempt to clear the atmosphere of foreign complications.—Raleigh Press.

Application of Hot Water.

Hot water taken freely half an hour before bedtime is helpful in constipation.

Headaches almost always yield to the simultaneous application of hot water to the feet and back of the neck.

A towel folded, dipped in hot water, wrung out rapidly and applied to the stomach, acts like magic in cases of colic.

There is nothing that so promptly cuts short congestion of the lungs, sore throat or rheumatism as hot water when applied promptly and thoroughly.

A towel folded several times and dipped in hot water and quickly wrung out and applied over the tooth-ache or neuralgia, will generally afford prompt relief.

A strip of flannel or napkin folded lengthwise and dipped in hot water and wrung out, and then applied around the neck of a child that has the croup, will sometimes bring relief in ten minutes.

It was a humiliating confession which Mr. Vest made in his speech in the Senate the other day when he said that there was no possibility of the Senate finance committee agreeing on a financial measure. Such a statement is shameful to the Senate and, not only so, but to the country. The idea that, in the presence of a great emergency, the men whose duty it is to deal with it, the men elected to deal with it, the only men who have the power to deal with it, should get up and say that they cannot agree what to do about it, is disgraceful to them and scandalous to the republic. Can't agree! What does the country care for their personal disagreements, their pride of opinion? It demands of them action, and it will not take for an answer the reply that they can't act because they can't agree.—Charlotte Observer

Mr. Frank Sapp, near Concord, met a horrible death Saturday night by striking the hammer of his gun on a log, accidentally discharging it. The whole crown of his head was blown off.

Mr. Ernst Busch, the State Hospital gardener, shipped from Morganton to Belgium on last Friday 5,000 tube rose bulbs, for which he had an order from a florist. Mr. Busch has orders from Germany for 50,000 of the bulbs, to be delivered next winter, and believes that he can increase the business indefinitely.—Morganton Herald.

As nearly every one owes everybody, would it not be to the advantage of everybody to wipe out everybody's indebtedness to everybody, and let everybody take an even start with everybody, and see if times will not be easier for everybody for the remainder of everybody's life! Certainly everybody in this country needs a year of jubilee, and could join in singing with a glad heart the chorus, "The year of jubilee has come!"

At the Boarding House.

He drew a long breath. Being a skilled draughtsman he did this with comparative ease.

"I beg your pardon," he said to the landlady, with some severity, "I'd like to know, madam, when I'm ever going to get anything to suit me in this house."

"When you pay your board bill," replied the landlady with charming Adams avenue ablomb.

He assumed a business air at once. "Please be a little more definite," he said, and resumed his labors on the steak in front of him.—Detroit Free Press.
