Vol. 1.

Greenville, N. C., February 20, 1895.

No. 62.

Weather Bulletin.

Fair, warmer Thursday afternoon.

Success in Surgery.

The last issue of the North Carolina Medical Journal contained an article written by Dr. R. J. Gimmes, of Bethel, showing results following his treatment of several cases of bowel obstruction. In his practice Dr. Gimmes has successfully performed a large number of surgical operations for diseases of this nature, his patients in some instances having been given up to die by others who were attending them. In his article upon the subject he says:

"I am quite sure that a large per cent. of patients with bowel obstruction die yearly, their physician having mistaken their disease for bilious colic or some other trouble. I do not think that the books are sufficiently explicit in regard to this disease as it occurs in our country."

Diseases of this character for a long time baffled the skill of physicians, and in the last two or three years great advancement has been made in the treatment of such. We are glad to note that a Pitt county physician is among the most successful in this line.

Did Not Meet His Friends.

In some way a report got out among the colored folks here yesterday, that somebody had received a telegram stating that Nelson Peebles, colored, who went to Baltimore to work for Mr. Priddy, had died and his body was being sent home. There was no such telegram, still a number of dukes went to the depot last night expecting to meet Nelson's remains. But Nelson had not been advised that a reception committee would be out to meet him, and did not show up to be lamented over.

THE LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY.

The principal new bills introduced in the Legislature today were the following: To enforce the payment of taxes on installment debts; to incorporate the Morganton and Shelby railway; to incorporate the Roanoke Railway and Bridge Company; to regulate hours of labor in manufacturing; to provide for school taxes in each school district; to compel taxpayers to list their solvent credits; to incorporate the Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company; to appropriate $3,000 for the woman's exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition; to amend the Constitution by prohibiting any officials from taking free passes from railways; and to provide for a revision and digest of the public laws.

A bill to create another cause of divorce was tabled by the Senate.

Interest today centered in the great debate in the House on the bill to make 6 per cent. the legal rate of interest. This debate lasted over four hours. The Fusion caucus had ordered that the bill be passed just as it came from the Senate. Nineteen amendments were offered, mainly by Democrats. Among these were the following: To put national banks on the same footing as individuals in regard to usury; to make 7 per cent. the legal rate; to except all loans; to except any counties which wish to refund their bonds; to except building and loan associations; to leave the question of interest to the vote of the people; to provide that the act shall not apply to commercial paper. Every amendment was voted down and the bill passed by a vote of 71 to 15. Of the fifteen nine were Democrats and six Republicans.

Drift or Picked out of the Mud.

Leit begins on the 27th, next Wednesday.

Mr. James Brown lost a good horse Tuesday.

Mr. Bradshaw has sold out his stock of groceries to Mr. Charles Cobb.

There is no best place to walk on the streets now, its mud everywhere.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

Too many people went to the fair for our personal columns to hold the names.

Cream Walnut Candy, Apples, Pears, and Oranges, cheaper than ever, at Morris Meyer's.

The Coast Line will sell round trip tickets from Greenville to the Moth Gras at New Orleans for $26.50.

The weather fared off last night after the rain, and this morning was sharp and cold. We do not believe it will stay fair long.

In places protected from the sun, trails still some snow. We will let last season's straw lie that some of it stays on the ground with the snow.

A city with a little girl 5 years old would like to get a home in a family where there are no small children. Her address can be learned at the Real Estate office.

Low Washington, Md., reports the death of Mrs. A. G.
Crawley, nee Miss Bessie Hutton.
She was well known in Greenville and many here died with regret of her death.

Program of the Warble. Selected a beautiful drama in 4 acts, will be presented by a company of young talent in the Opera House on Tuesday evening, 21st.
Get the good house.

THAWED OUT.

People on the Go. Weather or no
Weather.

Mr. Z. F. Highsmith went to Oakley to pay to see his father.

Miss Lorraine Horne has gone to Black Creek to visit relatives.

Miss Fannie Higgs returned Tuesday night from a visit to Scotland Neck.

Mr. F. C. Harding went down to Kinston last night. From there he goes to the fair.

Jim Kramer has picked up his stock of dry goods and moved back to Baltimore.

A postal card from Mr. B. E.
Sager, written at Newbern, tells us the fair is good.

Rev. R. D. Carroll, of Winterville, will preach in the Methodist church to night. Public cordially invited.

Mr. Allen Warren took three boxes of cut flowers from Riverside Nursery, this morning, to exhibit at the fair.

Mr. J. S. Congleton was able to come down town this morning after a few days confinement at home with sickness.

Tobacco Cloth at Lung's

To the Fair.

The excursion train from Scotland Neck this morning had about twenty passengers on when it reached Greenville. Upwards of seventy five more were added to the number here and they all left looking forward to a good day. Those who decided during the rain last night not to go, now wish they had gone.

At Rest.

The remains of Mrs. D. E.
Deigaty, whose death was announced yesterday, were interred at 11 o'clock in the Baptist cemtery, a large number of people attending the funeral. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. G. F. Smith. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. S. Smith, W.
H. Ragsdale, S. M. Schulz, L.
W. Lawrence, O. Cutrell, and
C. D. Reantree.

East Lynne To night

A little better audience greeted the Hill Theatre Co. at the Opera House last night, but it was not as large as the excellence of the company merits. The acting of the different performers is splendid. To-night they will present East Lynne and should have a full house. Instead of a portion of the proceeds going to the public school building fund, as the Regulation has stated, 25 per cent of the receipts of the week will be divided between that fund and the King's Daughters. So by patronizing them you help two good local causes as well as witness a good play every night.
