NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

An earthquake shock was felt at Wytheville, Va., Tuesday night.

The Massachusetts House of Representatives defeated the woman's suffrage bill.

A natural gas explosion at Anderson, Ind., destroyed a whole block of buildings.

The wife of William K. Vanderbilt has been granted a divorce from him. Money don't always make wedded life happy.

The boycott against the Seaboard Air Line has caused that road to cut half in two passenger rates between southern points and northern cities. The S. A. L. is expected to get the better of the boycotting roads.

Stub Ends of Thought.

What breaks one heart makes another.

Art is the sublimation of the artificial.

An impulse should be kept on ice for a time.

A woman's brain doesn't empty into her heart.

Don't trust a man who is too ready to trust you.

NEARER HOME.

What is Happening Over the State.

S. R. Tyson & Co., general merchants, of Wilson, have assigned.

Earthquake shocks were felt at both Winston and Lenoir on Tuesday night.

Rev. Robert Burwell, a distinguished Presbyterian minister, died Tuesday in Raleigh. He was 94 years old.

Two negroes charged with burglary have been arrested at Wilson. Several dwelling houses and stores in that town have recently been broken into.

Age Improves It.

The Youth's Companion has entered upon its sixty-ninth year of publication, and as one says who has been a constant reader of its columns for more than thirty years, "It has steadily improved year by year." Its articles to-day cover the whole field of life and experience, furnishing a vast amount of valuable and entertaining reading of a character not found elsewhere, and of so great a variety that the Companion interests alike each member of the family.

The Prospectus for the volume of 1895 announces an unusual array of attractions; fourteen serial stories, a wealth of short stories, anecdotes, humorous sketches, adventures, science and home articles, timely editorials on all important questions, and more than two hundred original poems of the highest class.

Full Prospectus and specimen copies sent free on application. Price $1.75 a year. It comes every week. Finely illustrated, THE YOUTH'S COMPANION; Boston, Mass.

Advertisements are the legs that business walks on.

Politeness goes a long way and always gets back on time.

THE LEGISLATURE.

TUESDAY.

The Senate took from the table the bill which it placed there yesterday to allow licensed dredging for oysters by natives and passed the bill. It is claimed it will yield $50,000 revenue to the State. It also passed the bill providing for county and not State adoption of school books.

The most important new bills introduced were: To define fraternal beneficiary societies; to increase the number of directors of the penitentiary.

Bills also passed the Senate amending the charter of Asheville, incorporating the Morganton and Shelby railway to incorporate the People's Fire Insurance Company; to change the county-seat of Rutherford from Rutherfordton to Forest City.

A resolution was laid before the House, adopted by the Marion Roberts Post of the Grand Army of the Republic, at Asheville, commending the Senate for passing the bill making an appropriation for the Confederate monument, and urging the House to pass it.

Bills passed the House incorporating the Sanford, Lillington and Eastern railway; the Carolina and Northwestern railway; the Atlantic, Yanceyville and Reidsville railway, and the South Atlantic Endowment Company.

A bill to extend the charter of the New York, Norfolk and Charleston railway was tabled.

The much-talked-of bill to change the present system of county government passed just as it came from the Senate, the Fusionists voting down all the amendments which the Democrats introduced.

The House passed also by a strict party vote the Senate bill providing for the election of three additional magistrates by the people at the next election.

That skinning and dissecting Ray gave the County Government bill was a beauty. He is capable of doing things just that way.

Major Guthrie has been nominated by the Caucus as chairman of the Code Commission. The Republicans are to have the other two members.

Poor Capt. Kitchen; he, it is said, is to be put as near the penitentiary as the Legislature is able to put him—Superintendent. It is reported that this place will be assigned him because they don't think he will ever get it.

The Legislature has abolished State adoption for Public School books and given the power to each County Board of Education to adopt any books they may see fit for that county. Any man with ordinary intelligence can see that this is not a wise law. It has been brought about purely by book firms that wanted to get their books used. There has been no complaint among the people in reference to the present method of adoption. It will be seen that the law will be a failure except for certain book firms.

If any additional evidence was needed to show the fact that this Legislature is guided only by partizanship it will be forthcoming when they elect Otho Wilson Railroad Commissioner. He has already been nominated by the caucus and that means he is to be elected or it will be a new departure in the present Legislature. It is reported that fifteen Populists left the caucus swearing they would never vote for him but unless we are mistaken they will repent and be his friends when he is nominated before the "Douglassites." Butler was present in the caucus and was the main supported and defender of Wilson. Think of one of the Senators of North Carolina in a caucus advocating the cause of a confessed law breaker for a position of honor and trust? A self confessed gideonite who, if he had his deserts would now be serving a term in the penitentiary. There are three things the people can never overlook or forget in this Legislature. First, the election of Butler as Senator; second a journeying in honor of Fred Douglas, and last, but not least, the election of Otho Wilson Railroad Commissioner.

FROM CUBA.

What a Pitt County Boy Saw and Heard in Cuba.

BY J. E. LANGLEY.

I find to-day the thermometer at 92 degrees, while in Richmond the snow is fifteen inches deep.

Havana is a city of 300,000 people, composed of Spaniards, Cubans, Negroes and Chinese, many of whom are the lowest order of humanity. The lower strata of the citizens do not appear to make any distinction of race and mingle together in perfect social equality. In some of the larger cigar factories which I visited I saw Cubans, Negroes and Chinaman all sitting side by side making cigars. The workmen in these factories do not sing as do the factory hands in our country, but they have men who read to them continually throughout the day. These readers are paid by the operatives who make small contributions for the purpose. When one gets tired another takes his place and thus they continue hour after hour. The arrival of myself and those who the guide were showing through the factory at the same time did not stop the reader in the least, he merely raised his eyes when we entered but continued his irksome work. Of course I, like all other Americans who visit Cuba, laid in a supply of Havana cigars which are celebrated the world over for their excellence. I found the weed much cheaper than in America and the most fastidious smoker can be pleased at a small outlay of cash, say five cents in Spanish money, which means four cents in our money.

All the amusements and life of a gay city are to be found in Havana. I very naturally wanted to see everything I could while here so I went to the Alhambra, the Tanco and the Al Basu Theatres. At the former play house my sense of morality was somewhat shocked at some of the dancing which I beheld. One of the peculiarities of the theatre struck me particularly. If the play had three acts the spectator purchases a ticket which would only entitle to him to see one act. On the other hand if he cared to sit it through he could purchase a ticket for the whole performance. The admission card has a coupon for each act attached and as the act ends a man goes around among audience and collects the coupons.

The Cubans desecrate the Sabbath with those blood curdling, barbarous entertainments, known as bull fights, which have always been so much criticised by our people, and yet ever so anxiously sought by them. It is very amusing to hear the negroes speaking Spanish—they can't speak a word of English. The bootblacks, the most ready of all linguists, have but one of our words in their vocabulary and that is "Shine."

The trains are more irregular with schedules in the present good weather than in the bad weather of a month ago.

In the Castellane-Gould list of bridal presents we fail to see a pickle castor or butter knife. However, there was a few pecks of diamonds and pearls.

The many suitors and witnesses who are having to sit here at Court waiting for the arguments to close in those bond cases had much rather be at home making preparation to pitch their crops. Most everybody has the appearance of growing weary of those cases and would like to see a termination.
