NEARER HOME.

What is Happening Over the State.

A farmer near Salisbury has a hen which has just laid two black eggs.

A marvelous find of gold is reported at the Ingram Mine, Stanley county. During the past few days numerous nuggets, the largest weighing two pounds, others smaller, have been dug out, and the supply seems still plentiful.

Odd Fellows Visit Kinston.

The S. T. Hooker degree team of Covenant Lodge I. O. O. F. report a pleasant trip to Kinston Monday night. The Odd Fellows who went down were Messrs S. T. Hooker, W. H. Ragsdale, D. L. James, J. White, J. J. Cherry, E. A. Moya, C. D. Rountree, R. L. Humber, T. R. Moore, F. M. Hodges, Ola Forbes, Frank Johnson, D. W. Hardee, S. B. Hardee, J. V. Johnson, Morris Meyer, W. L. Brown, Zenc Brown and W. H. Bagwell. After conferring the degrees, which occupied until 2 o'clock, the Kinston Lodge served a turkey lunch.

The Brooklyn trolley-cars have killed 104 men, women, and children since electricity was introduced as a motive power in the summer of 1892.

GOOD NEWS.

That Bed Tax.

Referring to the fact that the Hotel De Gurley made Senator Fowler pay extra bed tax, the Sampson Democrat says:

"As a matter of justice to Mr. Fowler individually, the Democrat will say that he opposed the bed tax in the Senate. But his party favored it and levied it. Mr. Fowler had been accustomed to pay $1.00 a day at this hotel, and could not understand the sudden rise in rates to $2.00."

Building a Race Track.

A club has been organized here to build a race track and the work of laying it off has commenced. The track will be a half mile circle and is located on the land of Mr. J. L. Moore on the Farmville road, nearly one and a half miles from town.

Messrs. N. H. Whitfield, Henry Edwards and R. L. Smith are directing the construction of the track.

NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

The burning of a furniture factory at Toccoa, Ga., caused a loss of $40,000.

A New York jewelry store was robbed of $6,000 worth of diamonds in broad daylight.

Fire in the St. James Hotel at Denver yesterday damaged the hotel to the amount of $50,000.

J. W. Haggerty, city treasurer of Mannington, W. Va., shot and killed himself yesterday. He was short $1,700 in his accounts.

Rev. Dr. William Brown Yancey, professor of ancient languages at Roanoke College, Va., dropped dead from apoplexy.

The stores present a busy scene now, so many new goods are being opened.

ADDRESS TO COTTON-GROWERS.

Necessity of Decreasing the Acreage Strongly Urged.

Athens, Ala., March 13.—Proctor D. Lane, president of the American Cotton-Growers' Protective Association, has issued the following address:

"To the Cotton-Growers of the South: I wish to call the attention of the cotton-growers to the strategic movement being made by cotton manipulators to delude them into the suicidal act of planting again a large acreage in cotton. That uneasiness has been felt in Liverpool for some time in reference to a decreased acreage goes without saying, and had this menace not existed cotton values would have been lower than they have been, and now, as the end of the season is at hand and the staple is substantially out of the hands of the farmer, these gentle men who have represented the bear element for so many months while cotton was moving in large volumes now resort to this case of running values up simply as a device to induce the farmers to plant more cotton than possibly intended.

"I warn the farmers of the South that the price of the last few days is fictitious. It is the product of a conspiracy of men to systematically rob the producer of his legitimate gain. It is a delusion and a snare to catch the unsuspecting farmer, to inveigle him into the toils of another three-million surplus, so that they can bear down values lower than last season with an increased surplus on hand.

"Let the people beware, it is a bait to catch those who will bite. There can be no legitimate reasons shown for this resort to values. The production has exceeded the most sanguine expectations. Russia has placed a virtually prohibitive duty on American cotton, so we can no longer expect to sell her 500,000 bales.

"There can be no change made by next season in the finical laws of the nation. Therefore, where is the legitimate cause for this rise if cotton has been selling at the legitimate figures? It is simply the old spider-and-fly game, a recurrence of the farmer and the 'bucco steerer,' and I am constrained to exclaim 'How long, oh, Lord, how long!' Is it to be ever thus that our people are to be way laid and robbed of their meagre subsistence?

"I deny the proposition, and defy the man who made it, that any man can produce cotton legitimately for five cents with any reasonable profit, and I state advisedly and emphatically that the cotton grower—I mean literally a man who digs the ground, the unfortunate who pulls the bell-cord over the mortgaged mule—is not realizing 12 cents a day for his labor the year round. What is to be the fate of this man if cotton goes down 1 or 2 cent this fall, which is not at all improbable when we recognize the conditions that confront us and take into consideration the fact that we had a most phenomenal season for picking our crop this last season, and its classification was higher than ever known, hardly any grading less than low middling.

"Still it averaged under 5 cents, and though we may make a smaller crop the ensuing season of 1895-96 if we have a rainy or unpropitious gathering season, cotton, in all probability, will grade lower, and may be we will have a recurrence of the season of 1881, when we had a super abundance of the poorer qualities. We could then expect the same relative difference in the grades, which must, of course, result in considerably reduced returns from the whole crop.

"I invoke the most earnest attention of cotton growers to this nefarious scheme and address you this letter as a caveat, that you may not be deluded by this 'wolf in sheep's clothing,' or, in other words, this bear in bull clothing."

Mrs. Mary Whiteman, of Chowan county, 87 years old, has just cut a tooth. Her eyesight is good and she can read without spectacles.

For Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls and Shingles call on Henry Sheppard. Prices low down.

Try one of those splendid Parker fountain pens at Reflector Book Store and you will be pleased with your purchase.

Don't forget the pretty line of tablets and box papers at Reflector Book Store when you want something nice to write on.

(A whisper to Ladies only)

Go to see the beautiful silk and wool crapeons and other novelties in dress goods at Lang's.

The young ladies of the Baptist church will have a "Bonnet Party" on Friday evening and from what they tell us it will be very interesting.

Eggs took a fall Monday afternoon—in the vicinity where the colored salvationists were haranguing. The audience scattered under the shower. Throwing eggs was not the correct step to take to express disapproval of the presence of such a crew.

Try This.

Buying goods is one thing, selling them is another. Simply because a man lays in a stock of goods is no reason that he is going to sell them unless he lets purchasers know something about what he has. Tell them through the REFLECTOR and it will help you make sales.

FACES WHICH WAY?
