A GOOD WOMAN DEAD.

Mr. W. F. Burch, foreman on the REFLECTOR, left again for Wilmington this morning, but on such sadder mission than the one on which he went last week. This time he goes with the remains of his mother to place them at rest by the side of her husband in Oakdale Cemetery. Mrs. Burch had been in poor health for several months and it was not thought she would ever be well again. During Friday night she became much worse, and grew gradually weaker until 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when her spirit took its flight from earth to the better home above. Her maiden name was Annie Hopkins and she was born near London, England, Sept. 29th, 1834, making her nearly 61 years old at the time of her death. Her parents came to America when she was 5 years old and located in Wilmington, this State, where she grew up to womanhood and married Mr. James A. Burch. Two daughters and one son were born to them. Both daughters and her husband having preceded her to the grave, her death leaves Mr. W. F. Burch the only living member of the family. In his bereavement and loneliness he has a host of friends both here and at Wilmington, his old home, who deeply sympathize with him.

Mrs. Burch came to Greenville to make her home in 1890, and made many warm friends here. She was a member of the Methodist church, lived the life of a true Christian, and was active in works of benevolence.

The remains were accompanied to the depot by Messrs. D. L. James, J. White, L. W. Lawrence, D. D. Haskett, W. H. Ragsdale and B. F. Sugg as pall-bearers, and a number of friends. The Ladies Aid Society, of the Methodist church sent a beautiful floral tribute.

A Worthy Cause.

One of the most patriotic efforts ever made in North Carolina to perpetuate the memory of the North Carolina soldiery since the late war was that of raising the Bentonsville Monument under the auspices of the Goldsboro Rifles, the 21st of last March. The extraordinary and successful management of this was due mainly to the energy of Capt. T. H. Bain, of the Goldsboro Rifles. Now the monument is paid for, there comes an earnest appeal in a very novel way to help place a suitable fence around our noble dead. Following is a letter from Capt. Bain which explains itself. As the representative of that effort in Pitt county, I most earnestly appeal to everybody, and especially those who feel that loyalty and patriotism that is so ardently burning upon the altar of their hearts. There is nothing more noble or grand in effort than to care for and beautify the graves of our dead soldiery.

Carolina: Carolina, heavens blessing attend her,
While we live we will cherish protect and defend her.'

In making this appeal I do it for the love I have for those who fell fighting for our freedom. Help us.

Truly,
B. F. SUGG.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Sept. 20th, '95.

DEAR LIEUT: Our Bentonsville Monument is up and paid for as you know. It is absolutely necessary that the grounds and monument be protected and we want now, that we have a place to put them, to remove the balance of the dead and enclose same with fence. To do so we must have money and as we haven't it, we had cut at the time of work on monument some 200 hickory walking sticks from the battlefield and many of them from off the works thrown up by our men. We are having them fixed up and sold to do the above named work. For the straight sticks ferruled and polished we ask $1, crooked handle $1.50. I write to ask if you do not think you can dispose of some of them for us and at the same time help us very much. I am so anxious to get this work done and off my mind. Kindly see what you can do and let me know when and how many to send. I think it best to go round and see about how many you can get engaged and let me know and I can send that number and about as many extra ones as you think you can easily dispose of. With kind regards I am

Your Friend
T. H. BAIN.

On Monday night Oct. 6th., at the next regular meeting of Greenville Lodge, No. 284, A. F. & A. M., a full attendance is earnestly requested as there will be business of importance. By order of

The Silver Convention.

From the Raleigh News and Observer we learn that there are four distinct propositions to be pressed before the silver convention at Raleigh on Wednesday, 25th. These are:

1. Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith's plan is that it will declare the unalterable conviction that the free coinage of silver is the only proper solution of the financial question, and resolutions will be presented somewhat along the line of those passed by the Democratic silver convention lately held at Washington. "There is no intention," says Mr. Smith, "so far as I can learn, to commit anyone against his will to any resolution for a new party." Mr. Smith has also said that it was a mere conference and could not bind anybody.

2. It is stated, by those to whom he has read the resolutions, that ex-Judge Spier Whitaker, the reputed author of the original petition for the convention or conference, has drafted a set of resolutions to be submitted which "contain little besides an arraignment of the Democratic party." What he proposes to the parties will probably not develop until Wednesday, if then.

3. Senator Marion Butler is said to have a resolution that declares free coinage the leading and only question before the people, and commits all delegates not to vote for any candidate for office on any ticket who is not openly in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

4. Loge Harris will make the most eloquent speech of his life, so his friends say, in advocacy of his proposition to establish a brand new party with no plank except one favoring the free and unlimited coinage of silver. He says he is ready to leave the Republican party for free silver, and unless all free silver men are willing to leave their parties and make a new silver party, the election of a Republican gold-bug President in 1896 is inevitable.

The sheep is the only animal that is made vicious by petting. A young ram that is raised by hand at the house, becomes bold and soon learns to attack cattle and persons.

Free Coinage in Sight?

Butler and Pritchard are going about the State denouncing the Democrats because they don't give the country free coinage. They did that last summer and promised the people if they were elected they would do what the Democrats had not done.

They will be in their seats in December. Their party is in power in both houses of Congress. If they carry out the promise they made to the people in 1895, the mints will be coining silver dollars by Christmas. If not, they are base deceivers of the people.

Why all this racket now, unless they are getting ready to fool the people by telling them that Cleveland wouldn't let them do it. Cleveland has nothing to do with Congress. Let Butler and Pritchard show that their party stands for silver, and if the President vetoes their bill, let him take the responsibility.

Anything short of the passage by both houses of Congress of a free coinage bill by Christmas or at furthest by March 4th will be a failure to keep the pledges upon which they were elected. — Raleigh News and Observer.

The recent examinations of applicants at Annapolis showed upward of 50 per cent. of failures, and of the 107 young men who reported not over forty-five were admitted. This great number of rejections is due to the poor scholarship of the boys. Instead of having 350 cadets, including two classes which have graduated and are now at sea on cruisers, the academy's corps will be greatly reduced this term, and the full battalion will not consist of possibly more than 250. The semi-annual examination in January will still further diminish it, so that the country will lose the opportunity of educating at least 100 men at very little additional expense.

Except for places created by failures and unexpected resignations all vacancies at the academy can be anticipated a year, as they are at West Point. The Baltimore Sun says that Commodore Matthews, who is drawing up a report setting forth the result of his recent investigations, will make some startling disclosures regarding the academy. — Richmond Dispatch.

Parting with a Leg.

An old soldier told a reporter of the most affecting parting he ever had in his life. It was a parting with himself, or rather a part of himself. He was in an engagement before Petersburg and had the misfortune to come in contact with a piece of broken shell which exploded near him. Amputation was necessary, and shortly afterwards he was lying in his tent. As he looked up he saw a cart piled up with legs and arms of others who had been unfortunate in the engagement, and right on top he recognized his own leg. "It was a sad parting," he said, "to see a part of you going away never to be returned again. I can never tell you what strange feelings came over me, and to this day I can see that fine black horse hauling my leg away to its last resting place" — Pittsburg Dispatch.

Sun Sets a House on Fire.

The sun set fire to the residence of E. H. Warner today, causing $10,000 damages. On the top floor was a large assembly room. The windows contained a number of circular glasses about six inches in diameter, with convex surface. These acted as so many "bull's eye" sun glasses, and the rays of the sun were brought to a focus on the floor, setting it on fire. — St. Louis Dispatch, 19th.

Australia has a population of less than 50,000,000 but economists declare it could support 100,000,000 with ease. As a means of showing how far the world is from being overpopulated they assert that the entire population of the United States could live comfortably in the single State of Texas. — New York Tribune.

The force of habit is always strong. A Harlem young man, who was calling on a street car conductor's daughter, says the father wandered into the room at a rather late hour and he mechanically exclaimed, "Sit close please!"

The Scotland Neck Democrat remarks that the people of North Carolina spend enough breath talking politics to run their business by wind mills.

A Phenomenal Watermelon.

Mr. W. P. Gilmer, who lives on Main street, in Mt. Airy, showed us this morning the biggest curiosity we have seen this year in the vegetable or fruit line, as you please. It was the section of a watermelon in which a number of the seed had sprouted and were growing. Mr. Gilmer cut the melon yesterday and was feasting on its delicious meat when he noticed the phenomenon. About a dozen of the seed had sprouted and were growing in toward the heart, and some of the sprouts had developed two nice leaves. The melon was grown by Mr. Gilmer inside the incopration.—Mt Airy News.

Nothing pleases a calamity editor as an assignment and great is his joy over a bankrupt sale or a seizure by the sheriff. He delights in ruin and a burst boom serves him in place of desert. Whatever affects injuriously his state's credit makes him shout and the prospect of repudiation of national obligations forces him to regret that he must some day die and leave a scene where there is so much misery to be gloated over. If the fair face of the country could be transformed into a howling wilderness the calamity editor would be happy at last. Until this can be done he is but moderately happy. Every new factory that starts up, however, and every old established industry that resumes operations gives him a chill. Poor devil, things are not going his way just now but we cannot say we are sorry for him.—Mobile Register.
