LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS.

BY O. L. JOYNER.

Quite a strong delegation of Wilson warehousemen were on the breaks yesterday. They all said tobacco was high down here.

Greenville now has the best opportunity it has ever had to push its claims and show its advantages to the world. Let every one put his shoulder to the wheel and push with might and main for the Queen City of the New Golden Belt.

The people of Pitt county and surrounding counties have advantages that no class of agriculturist in the great state of North Carolina possess. We have lands adapted to the the growth of cotton, corn, peanuts, potatoes, and all the horticultural products are grown to perfection. There are large areas of lands here in Pitt county which under skillful management could be converted into into blooming orchards that would turn out handsome incomes to the owners in a few years. We have almost as fine grain and pasture lands as the far famed bluegrass region of Kentucky, and last, but by no means, least our lands grow and mature the finest bright tobacco grown in the world. Hence we repeat that with these advantages our people are blessed indeed and while some of of us may think ours a hard lot, if we only think of the many blessings that we have over others our contentment will be more general.

During the last four years, in other words ever since Greenville has had a tobacco warehouse, there have been enemies of the market at work doing everything they could to undermine and break down the tobacco interests here. Every conceivable argument has been used to induce people to carry their tobacco to either Wilson or Rocky Mount. Farmers have been told that the warehousemen here were buying tobacco and shipping it to those markets and making money on it and other kinds of equally fool

MISSED! YESTERDAY night from his home, where he has not been for twenty years, a small white boy, about the age of Chang the Chinaman giant, and as great a mystery as the comet. His name is Willie Green. He was hungry looking, knock-kneed, and straight as a bow; he was barefooted with his old man's arctics on; had on no clothing except an empty shaving mug, which he carried across his broken back; it contained two railroad tunnels and twenty bungholes. He had a low cut ulster shaved up the back; was cross eyed at the edge of his neck. His ears were chopped off even with his age. His chin was glued on to the hip pocket of his vest. He was a Republican in politics, but always voted the Democratic ticket. When last seen he was on his way here from Parmele shoving the clouds over the city to keep off the wet, with the intention of raising enough money to buy one of those lovely SUIT of CLOTHES and a PAIR of FINE SHOES at ish and false methods have been employed to lure farmers away from Greenville. To all of these the tendency of the Greenville tobacco men is to treat such things with silent contempt knowing full well that they would soon rebound against the author, but a report has just reached us that demands an explanation and a condemnation from the writer as he is the one this time implicated. We were told by a farmer Thursday that he had been told while in Wilson a few days ago that that O. L. Joyner was shipping tobacco from this point to Wilson and making money on it. This was used as an argument to the farmer to show to him that it was best to carry his tobacco direct to Wilson rather than sell in Greenville where it would be bought and eventually shipped to Wilson and sold at a profit. To this we only have to say that we have asked every warehousemen here if he ever shipped tobacco to Wilson to be sold and they all say positively they never did. So far as we are concerned in this matter, we say emphatically that the argument was used as a false deceptive scheme to get tobacco to Wilson and the man who started the report is an unprincipled liar. We have never shipped a pound of tobacco to Wilson and we hope there is no one that gives us credit for having so little sense.

The King Clothier.

EVERY AFTERNOON (EXCEPT SUNDAY)

State Treasurer Worth appoints as State bapks examiners Stephen T. Crowder, of Ridgeway, for Eastern North Carolina, and R. T. Joyce, of Mt. Airy, for Western North Carolina.

A Chicago religious journal advocates a head tax of $100 on every American going to Europe to spend precious American gold. If that is such a terrible thing for the country, how about these marriages of heiresses to foreign titles, which take away in bulk in some cases as much as 10,000 ordinary travelers spend in the course of a season?

The Queen Of All.

Honor the dear old mother Time has scattered the snowy flakes on her brow, plowed deep furrows on her cheeks, but is she not sweet and beautiful now? The lips are thin shrunken, but those are the lips which have kissed many a hot tear from the childish cheeks, and they are the sweetest lips in all the world. The eye is dim, yet it glows with the soft radiance of holy love which can never fade. Ah, yes, she is dear old mother. The sands of life are nearly run out, but feeble as she is, she will go further and reach down lower for you than any other upon earth. You cannot walk into a midnight where she cannot see you; you cannot enter a prison whose bars will keep her out; you can never mount a scaffold too high for her to reach, that she may kiss and bless you in evidence of her deathless love. When the world shall despise and forsake you, when it leaves you by the wayside to die unnoticed, the dear old mother will gather you in her feeble arms and carry you home and tell you of all your virtues until you almost forget that your soul is disfigured by vices. Love her tenderly and cheer her declining years with holy devotion.—The Housekeeper.

Looking for Office.

Notwithstanding this is an 'off year' in politics, North Carolina keeps up her record for political agitation. Some who are calculating for a draught from the political fountain of reward for labor, are "pouring out their souls" for the interest of the dear people, giving them instructions (?) which will lead them to fair fields of plenty where they may bask in the sunshine of prosperity.

Those who are now most active in keeping the people agitated and in poisoning their minds with bitter discontent, are the very men who will be foremost in the ranks of candidates for public office next year.

We do not see one scintilla of patriotism in any of it. He is the truest patriot who does his people the best service; and the best service any man, Populist, Democrat, Republican or what not, can render the people of this country to-day, is to let them alone.

Any reasonable and fair-minded man ought to see that so much agitation disqualifies men for business, distracts their minds, disturbs their homes, sows discord amongst all classes and so clogs the progress of the entire country.

It would be restful if the place-hunters and office seekers would let the people alone and give them some opportunity to attend to their business unmolested.—Scotland Neck Democrat.

We're on Top.

Through recent and current events the South has entered upon the period of its most rapid and substantial development.—Detroit Free Press.

The South is now only in the beginning of its progress. It is taking the first steps merely in a forward march which in 20 years to come will have carried it so far beyond where it now is that its present advancement will seem slight comparatively.—New York Sun.

A dog in Cincinnati which had saved the lives of several children at various times, was recently run over and killed. The children showed their respect for his memory by burying him in a nice oak coffin, about 500 of them attending the "funeral."
