GLOVES!

IF you fear temptation keep away from our Glove counter. We have a dollar Kid Glove that would tempt a miser. With some a dollar Glove is simply a pair of gloves for a dollar. With us it means the best Glove on earth for the price. If you want them for your own use or to give them to a friend, you can buy here without misgiving. A reasonable guarantee goes with every pair of dollar gloves.

Holiday Attentions.

"My dear you're looking very tired to-night."
(That means a Christmas cloak.)
"I'll get your slippers and your pipe—a light."
(That's business, and no joke!)
"You'll kill yourself if you keep working so!"
(That speech is bound to win!)
"Darling, I could not live if you should go!"
(That means a diamond pin.)
"I've had the girl make just the nicest tea!"
(My head has fallen back!)
"The kind you liked best when you married me!"
(Mercy! a fur-trimmed sacque!)
"Poor, tired dear! I'll rub your head for you!"
(In mute despair I look.)
"When I go shopping I'll be tired, too!"
(That means—my pocketbook!)

Good Man For The Place.

MR. EDITOR:—It is currently circulated from the postoffice authority that our townsman, Hon. G. B. King, is in Washington City conferring with President Cleveland and expects to be appointed one of the commission to establish the Venezuela boundary. Pitt county is proud of her sons and she can furnish men capable for any position in the gift of the country. We congratulate Mr. King. X.

THE SITUATION IS SERIOUS.

England Will Remain Firm in the Position She Has Taken.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—In commenting to-day upon the Venezuelan question the newspapers generally agree that the situation is much more serious than they thought it to be yesterday. In the public mind also there is a general feeling of disappointment at the action of Congress in supporting the stand taken by the President in his message to that body.

The stock exchange here and the exchanges throughout the country continue under the influence of the difficulty which has arisen between Great Britain and the United States. At the same time there is no excitement. Consols declined $\frac{1}{2}$, foreign funds were weak and Canadian stocks were lower on continued selling. The Pall Mall Gazette's money article says:

"Of course, whatever happens America will lose credit over the affair. It is particularly inopportune when many of her railways need money."

The afternoon papers all contain long editorial articles on the Venezuelan question, the general tenor of their utterances being the same as yesterday, though all agree that the matter is becoming much graver.

The Globe, a high conservative organ and a newspaper which may be supposed to be on terms of intimacy with the government, gives warning that Great Britain will remain firm, saying: "President Cleveland may appoint a dozen commissions, but England will remain firm in her refusal to recognize them and jurisdiction of this sort. This is our unalterable position, be the consequences what they may. We will never submit to such unparalleled dictation."

The Globe is also irate at the recent utterances of Dr. Chauncey M. Depew, especially his references to the easy manner in which the United States could conquer Canada, remarking: "The overwhelming naval strength of England would enable her to pour troops into Canada at any sign of danger and small warships could be sent to the lakes and Chicago, Detroit and Buffalo would be utterly at their mercy."

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Let's fight England and twist the lion's tail off.
Sliding down hill is great sport, but it has its drawbacks.
As the twig is bent so is the gift inclined—on the Christmas tree.
He who worships a dollar worships a very small and changeable god.
He who puts his thoughts on getting well will soonest have no need of a physician.
The road to success is paved with the skulls of misfortune and the bones of contention.
It is more pleasant to receive presents than to give them, and not so expensive, either.
Searching for happiness wouldn't be so unsuccessful if you were not continually finding fault.
If conscience is what makes cowards of us all, there ought to be a great many brave men now-a-times.
Your Christmas presents will be more appreciated than your Christmas absence.
The happiest man is who prevents himself doing things he finds objectionable in others.
Congress is determined to "go it blind" this session, as the chaplains of both houses are blind men.
Nearly every family has observed ground-hog day during the past two weeks—they have been making sausage.

Evergreens are popular at this season of the year. They are favorites with us at any time—in the form of $5 and $10 bills.

"Tis sweet to look back," says an exchange. Not always. Remember Lot's wife. But perhaps Lot thought it was sweet. Lot's of men would.

The big turkey struts proudly by, his coat is sleek and trim; this week he gobbles as we pass—next week we'll gobble him—provided we get an invitation out to dine.

If in providing our gifts for those who do not need them, we remember those down whose chimney no Santa Claus ever comes, wouldn't our own hearts beat more joyful music to the measure of the Christmas bells?

There is a great deal of sameness in our lives. We go through the regular daily routine of work, we walk the same streets, we see the same faces we idle away time at the same stores, we tell the same jokes, hear the same funny stories, and such is the story of life in a country town.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Of Interest to Hunters.

It is said that when the sun is visible a watch may take the place of a compass. This information will be of value to anglers and other sportsmen in emergency. Point the hour hand of a watch to the sun, and south is exactly half way between the hour and figure 12 on the watch. For example, if it be 4 o'clock point the hand indicating 4 to the sun, and the 2 on the watch indicates due south. If it be 8 o'clock in the morning point the hand indicating 4 to the sun, and the 2 on the watch indicates due south. If it be 8 o'clock in the morning point the hand indicating 8 to the sun and the figure 10 on the watch is due south. If the hour hand be at 3, due south will be exactly half-way between 1 and 2, and so on.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 23RD, 1895.

A few days ago there was a terrible explosion at a coal mine in Chatham county in which forty three people lost their lives.

Senator Hill has introduced a bill in the Senate to repeal the law which prohibits those who served in the Confederate army and navy from holding commissions in the U. S. army or navy, and he will push it when Congress reassembles, January 3rd, after the holiday recess.

Last Thursday was a memorable day in Washington City. It was a day of excitement and surprises. The Senate passed the Venezuelan Commission bill just as it came from the House.

Rumors have already reached Washington of the intention of English financiers to frighten the administration by attempting to bring on a money panic by unloading American securities held by them.

President Cleveland has followed up his message on the Venezuelan question with another startling one upon the present apparently financial crisis which seems now to threaten this country.

A Secret In Ink.

All the ink with which the United States government prints its paper money is made by one man. The father of the present manufacturer, a Mr. Eddy, invented the ink, but he never told any one how the ink was made until just before he died, when he let his son into the secret of its composition. Had a fatal accident happened to the inventor before he told his son about the ink the government printer would have been in a dilemma, for Mr. Eddy's invention is the only kind of ink that will print on the peculiar surface of the fiber of which government note paper is made.

The present Mr. Eddy employs only six men in the manufacture of his ink, and none of them is in the secret. Not one of them has yet seen Mr. Eddy in the interesting act of mixing the ingredients of which the ink is composed. He locks himself up in his own room two weeks in every year, and it is there and then that he mixes stuff enough to supply the government with ink for the ensuing 12 months and receives for this $50,000 a year.—Exchange.

Dead Ants' Heads Put to Use.

One curious fact about an ant is that the grip of its jaws or mandibles is retained for hours or even days after death. Knowing this fact has enabled the Indians of Brazil to put the heads of dead ants to use in their simple surgery. The sides of a wound are drawn together, and the necessary number of large ants are held with their heads to the ridge directly over the gash. When their jaws come together on the place where the skin has been separated, the insect's head is pinched off and left clinging to the severed skin, which they hold together until the wound is perfectly healed.—St. Louis Republic.

Lenity will operate with greater force in some instances than rigor. It is, therefore, my great wish to have my whole conduct distinguished by it.—Washington.

EVERY BOY.

Wants or should want an Education,

And The Eastern Reflector is Going to help one Boy in that direction.

We will give absolutely free of charge a scholarship entitling the holder to free tuition in all the English branches for the entire spring term, 1896 (5 months) of Greenville Male Academy.

This is the best school for boys in Eastern North Carolina, and the boy will be fortunate who wins this prize.

CONDITIONS.

This 5 months scholarship is to be given to the boy who will get the largest number of yearly subscribers for between now and 6 o'clock P. M. on Jan 11th, 1896. Two subscribers for 6 months or four subscribers for 3 months will count the same as one yearly subscriber. This is no catch penny device but a bona-fide offer, and if only one subscriber should be brought during the time specified the boy who brings it will get the scholarship. Of course we expect more than one subscriber to be brought in, for this is a prize worth winning and many boys will work for it.

The Eastern Reflector

In order that there may be an incentive for every boy who wishes to enter this contest, we offer a cash commission of 10 per cent on all subscribers, so that those who fail to get the scholarship will be paid for their work, but the one who wins the scholarship will not get the commission. Now boys get to work with the determination to win this prize. You can get as many sample copies of the REFLECTOR as you need by applying to the office. If you decide to enter this contest send us your name as we wish to know how many boys are working for the prize. We will publish the result of the contest with the name of winner in the issue of the REFLECTOR of Jan. 15th, 1896, giving the successful boy time to enter school on the opening day of spring term Monday, Jan. 20th.

Address all letters to
THE EASTERN REFLECTOR,

The whole sidewalk out by J. B. Cherry & Co's was lined to-day with furniture just sold, and when we passed two clerks were busy packing it away in wagons.

Beautiful China Sets, Cut Glass Toilets, Glove, Handkerchief and Cuff Boxes, Screens, Mirrors, Easels and Paintings, and many other nice Christmas presents at Mrs. M. D. Higgs'.

Information reached Mr. J. W. Wiggins on Saturday that his father was critically ill at Rocky Mount and he left Sunday morning by private conveyance to his bedside.

Leslie Rawls asked Billie Saturday night: "If his maternal relatives knew of his illegal absence from his parental abode." Billie told him he didn't care if England did fight the United States, that he had a place picked out in the woods and he was going to crawl in it and pull it in after him.

Couldn't Get a Ticket.

Henry Hoyle, armed with a double-story beaver, went to the depot this morning for the purpose, he said, of going to Venezuela to settle the disputed boundary question. Finding he could not get a through ticket he concluded it was most too far to walk and abandoned the trip. The last we saw of him he was trying to raise war with Lit Maddux.

Fine Tobacco.

The lot of tobacco 125 pounds, that sold on the Star Warehouse floor on Friday at 93 cents a pound, was resold and on the second sale brought $1.50 a pound. There has never been any finer tobacco on the market.

Mighty True.

We overheard an old colored man lecturing his son a few days ago. It seemed as if his son wanted to get married. It was in this wise:

"You is a fool nigger. De idee of you getting married and settling down. Why it is all an unnecessary expense. About three months ago I married as pretty a gal as ever broke into a chicken coop, about two weeks ago she laid right down and died and I never felt so shame in all my life. Now look er here boy, if you's got an idee of getting married and settling down, take my advice, stay single and settle up first."

A Clever Device.

There is something new under the sun. Frank Wilson showed us Saturday night a new patented suspender, with buttons attached. It only requires four buttons to the pants and there is no chance for them to pull off or break the suspender. Frank furnishes the buttons free with every pair. They are easily adjusted and every part works automatic. It is the best suspender we ever saw, made of silk elastic, of every color and a guarantee goes with every pair. Full instructions accompanies them. He has about two hundred pairs and there is nothing nicer for a Christmas present. Call and see them, it will be a pleasure for Frank or any of his clerks to show them.

The Musicales.

There is a rare treat in store for those who attend the musical under the management of Miss Ione May, in the Opera House Friday evening, 27th. She will be assisted by Mr. and Miss Swan, of New York, as well as by the best home talent. Miss Swan has participated in a number of entertainments at the north, and the press spoke in highest terms of her. The Jefferson County (N. Y.) Journal says: "Miss Swan has a rich, powerful voice of sympathetic quality to which is added thorough cultivation and perfect articulation."

The Watertown (N. Y.) Times, speaking of an entertainment, says: "The crowning delight of the evening was a fine rendering of the solo, 'Give ear, O! Israel,' by Miss Marietta Swan, which she sang with such power and sweetness gave us a new revelation of the possibilities of her glorious voice. * * * For the closing piece Miss Swan surprised the audience by appearing in a new role, that of elocutionist. In this also she surpassed herself. Miss Swan has surely the elements of success in her make up in that she adds to natural gifts of a high order, intense and persistent application to her studies, and a determination to reach the highest point of excellence in anything she undertakes."

WOOTEN'S DRUG STORE.

When you go out to look for something to send as a Holiday Gift go to Wooten's Drug Store and examine the lot of White Metal and Enamel Toilet Trays, Plain Cut Glass and Colored Bottles, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, Lap Tablets in Celluloid, Manicure Sets in White Metal and China Trinket Sets. Our Mirrors in Pyralin are gems of themselves. The perfumeries shown this year are up to the standard. A full line Brown Bros' goods and Recksecker's standard odors.

WOOTEN'S DRUG STORE.

An Invitation.

The degree team of Covenant Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F. of Greenville, received a very cordial invitation from the Kinston Lodge, to attend a banquet to be given at that place on Friday evening, December 27th, 1895. They may attend. A number of noted speakers will be present.

Sale of Valuable Town Lot.

In obedience to an order made by the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting on the first Monday in November 1895, directing me as the Clerk of said Board to advertise for sale the lot belonging to the County of Pitt, known in the plan of the town of Greenville as lot number 102, it being the lot now used by the town of Greenville, as a Market House with the permission of the Board of County Commissioners, I, William M. King, ex officio Clerk of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, do hereby give public notice that said lot will be exposed to public sale to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House door, at 12 o'clock M. on Monday the 6th day of January 1896. The terms of sale will be one-third cash and the balance to be secured in two equal instalments, payable in one and two years, with six per cent interest on deferred payments, with privilege to purchase to pay the whole at any time and take his deed. Title reserved until the whole of the purchase money is paid. The board reserves the right to affirm or disaffirm said sale. Notice is also given that the town government will be permitted to remove the Market House and other buildings erected on said lot by the town, in accordance with the agreement entered into at the time permission was given by the Board of County Commissioners to the town Commissioners to erect and use said buildings. The lot will be offered in three alternate ways which will be shown in detail on a plan on file in the office of the Register of Deeds and can be seen by the public at any time and will also be announced on day of sale. W. M. KING, Clerk, Bd. of Com. of Pitt Co.
