Even the goldbug papers are now admitting that it looks like the Democratic National Convention will be controlled by the silverites.

Some weeks ago the New York Legislature passed a bill combining all the cities immediately adjacent to New York in one municipality under the name of Greater New York.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April, 24, '96.

[From our Regular Correspondent.] The people are sometimes quicker to see the undesirability of proposed legislation than the Congressmen are.

egates to the National Arbitration Conference which met in Washington this week, who called on him, that he was thoroughly in sympathy with their aim to bring about a system of international arbitration of all disputes not affecting the sovereignty of nations.

The unseating of Representative Cobb, of Alabama, in favor of Goodwynn, the Populist who contested the seat, by the Republican majority of the House, was a part of the deal through which it is expected to carry Alabama this year by a Republican-Populist combine.

Senator Smith, of New Jersey, has probably been scratched off Andy Carnegie's list of friends, if he was ever on it. The reason is an amendment which Mr. Smith wishes to have attached to the Naval appropriation bill.

There has been some excitement in Congress this week on account of a statement made by Representative Sulzer, of New York, to the effect that Walter Dygert, a young American recently imprisoned by the Spanish authorities, had been secretly executed.

Is Your Soul Insured.

A little boy on his father's knee said: "Papa, is your soul insured?" "Why do you ask, my son?" "Because I heard Uncle Frank say that you had your house insured and your life insured, but he did not think you thought of your soul, and he was afraid you would lose it."

ENGLISH VITAL STATISTICS.

The Marriages, Births and Deaths During the Year 1894.

The 57th annual report of the registrar general of marriages, births and deaths in England and Wales in 1894 has just been published. His statistics are based on a population estimated to number in the middle of the year 1894 30,000,763 persons (14,565,660 males and 15,435,103 females). The number of marriages registered was 226,449, corresponding to a rate of 15.1 persons married per 1,000 living. The rate in 1893 was 14.7, and the average rate from 1884 to 1893 was 14.9. This recovery coincided with a slight fall in the value of British exports, and with a fall in the price of wheat of 13.3 per cent. below that of 1893, which had been the lowest on record. Of the marriages contracted in 1894 155,352, or 686 per 1,000, were celebrated according to the rites of the Established church, and 71,097, or 314 per 1,000 otherwise. Of the 221,215 couples whose ages were stated in the register the mean ages were 28.41 for men and 26.15 for women. The figures for 1894 show the first notable break in the increase of the mean age at marriage, which has been going on for several years. This is not accompanied by any increase in the proportions of under-age marriages.

Births during the year numbered 890,289, and were in the proportion of 29.6 per 1,000 persons living, being the lowest on record, and showing a fall of 2 per 1,000 below the mean rate in the preceding decade. The deaths amounted to 498,827, a proportion of 16.6 per 1,000. The average rate in the preceding ten years was 19.2. The death rate in 1894 was considerably lower than in any previous year on record. In 1894 the death rates at the several age groups were not only considerably lower than the mean rates in the previous four years, but were also lower even than the exceptionally low rates of 1888 and 1889. The death rate in the urban districts was 17.1, or more than 15 per cent., and in the rural districts 15.6, or nearly 11 per cent. below the decennial average. The deaths from smallpox numbered 820, or 27 per 1,000,000, as compared with 49 per 1,000,000 in 1893. The scarlet-fever rate was the lowest, and the enteric-fever rate almost the lowest on record. On the other hand, the diphtheria mortality was 53 per cent. above the decennial average. The deaths attributed to suicide were 2,729, or 91 per 1,000,000, the highest rate on record.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

NORTHERN WITCHES.

In Modern Times Belief in Them Has Been Quite Common.

So lately as the middle of this century a girl of Louisburgh, near Wick, was accused of being in league with the "powers of mischief," and a remedy akin to that recently practiced with such tragic results in Ireland was devised. She was placed in a basket, lined with shavings of wood, which was then hung over a fire. The issue in this case was not fatal, but the folk averred that she had been singled. A hag of the northern isles was at times thought to be metamorphosed into a porpoise, and in fair weather she would dive under and overturn a fishing boat, against whose skipper she bore a grudge. On one occasion she was made to place her hand on the bodies of several men who had met their death in such a way, and in the words of the old chronicler, one "bled at the collar bone," another "in the hands and fingers, gushing out blood thairat, to the great admiration of the beholders and revelation of the judgment of the Almighty."

A host of stories tell of northern witches who have given diseases to horses, oxen and flocks of moorland sheep. Herdsmen to this day distrust unknown persons who touch the food of their kye, lest it be poisoned. In Shetland the cat or vaneja is regarded as an animal which brings good luck; if she is seen to run toward the boat's mast there is sure to be a good catch. In Chaitness, on the contrary, witches frequently appear in the form of cats. A carpenter of Scrabster in the olden times was systematically robbed of his meal and cakes. He thought it "eunna be cannie," and one night as he watched he saw a number of cats devouring his property. In a trice he cut off the right leg of one of them, whereupon they made their escape with a rapidity which confirmed his former suspicions. Shortly afterward an old woman, who had always been looked upon with disfavor, was found dead in her lone cottage, bereft of her right leg.—Scottish Review.

True Form of the Moon.

You were doubtless taught, as was the writer, that the moon is globular-shaped; or, in other words, that its form is similar to that of the earth. According to the teachings of advanced modern astronomy this is all a mistake. It is believed nowadays that the moon is a perfect ellipse, its figure being nearly exactly one-third longer than it is broad. This elliptical theory of our satellite's shape is founded on the well-known fact that a certain side (end, rather) of the moon is always presented to our view. This is caused by the moon revolving once on her axis in exactly the same period of time that she revolves around the earth. Her elongated shape was probably caused by the attraction of the earth when both planets were young and soft.

CATARRH. THE DAILY REFLECTOR.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE
NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily.
I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.
I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
A. M. RAMSEY.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.
J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed.
Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P.
Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman.
Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P.
P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling.
For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P.
Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the county and several of the township committees held a consultation here today. They selected Wednesday, May 20th, as the date for holding the county convention to select delegates to the State convention. The township primaries will be held on Saturday, May 16th, to select delegates to the county convention.

Lightning Strikes a Church.

During the storm, Friday afternoon, lightning struck the Presbyterian church. The bolt struck near the bell in the tower considerably shattering the woodwork and breaking one of the windows. The damage done to the building is estimated at about $50. Lightning also struck the large walnut tree in front of the residence of Mayor Forbes, on Greene street, about fifty yards from the church.

The Atlantic Hotel.

The Newbern Journal says that Mr. W. P. Campbell will have the management of the famous Atlantic Hotel, at Morehead, the coming season. For several years past Mr. Campbell has been chief clerk there, and he is pleasantly remembered by the many guests who went annually to that delightful resort. If anything like a convenient railroad schedule can be secured we have no doubt that there will be many people going from Greenville to Morehead the coming summer.

Fire in the Country.

Mr. Ricky Moore tells us that a tenant house on his place, five miles below town, was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The house was occupied by a colored family, all of whom but three small children were out at work at the time. Parties out in the field saw the smoke and went running to the house, reaching there just in time to save the two smallest children. Nothing at all could be saved from the house, the occupants losing every thing they had.
