THE Whole Store

is richly abloom with veritable triumphs of Merchandise and price wonders for—

SPRING & SUMMER

For three months prior to the opening of the Spring season we did vigorous and active work squeezing out from the various stock everything not quite up to date in point of present fashions. That policy was wisest, as results fully show. Our store is now full of the spic-and-span Novelties of the current period.

Silks, Hosiery, Dress Goods, Trimmings, Suits, Gloves, Shirt Waists, Skirts, Ribbons, Neckwear, Laces, Linens, Embroideries, White Goods, Mattings, Rugs, Draperies.

In the foregoing and kindred lines we invite you to a collection that is absolutely fresh, diversified and positively as low, or lower in price, than you'll find elsewhere. Original, dainty and exclusive styles in the goods you want will be prodigally displayed this week.

If You

Want a baby Shoe or Slipper, a child's Tan Shoe, a girl's Shoe or Oxford Tie, a boy's Calf, Tan Vici Lace, Spring-heel Oxford, a Ladies' Colored Button, Lace, Pretty Black, Tan Lace Oxford, Handsome Turned Lace or Button Shoe, a man's Black, Tan Oxford, Southern Tie, nice, fashionable, Patent Leather Shoe, Easy, Light-Black, Tan Vici Summer Shoe. If you want to get anything in the Shoe Line, for infant, child, boy, girl, lady or gentlemen you can be furnished them. Better, quicker, cheaper and more satisfactory by

TO MR. & MRS. A. FORBES.

BY Z. M.

Wife, this is our silver wedding,
Let us celebrate the day;
Married eighteen seventy one
On the second day of May.

Let's invite our friends and neighbors,
Bid the children all to come;
Seven born and seven living.
Wife and children make this home.

Five and twenty years ago, wife,
You stood by, my blushing bride;
Five and twenty years of wifehood
Brings you closer to my side.

Curl your silver locks for cupid,
Love grows well beneath my wig;
Celebrate our silver wedding,
Cook the cake and kill the pig.

Yes, my husband, kind and thoughtful,
Five and twenty years ago
Our lives were joined together
For our future weal of woe.

Fourth a century's light behind us,
What's before us none can tell;
Raise an arch and drape the parlor,
Hang the silver wedding bell.

Bring the future what it may bring,
This is to our happy past;
Always find the freshest blossom
On the tree that budded last.

Ward Meetings.

Nominating meetings were held in all the wards last night, the Democrats getting out candidates in the second and fourth wards, and the Republicans in the first and third.

SECOND WARD.

The meeting for the second ward was held in the Mayor's office. A. L. Blow was elected chairman and F. M. Hodges secretary.

H. C. Hooker was nominated as candidate for Councilman on first ballot.

A. L. Blow was elected member of the Executive Committee for this ward.

FOURTH WARD.

The meeting for the fourth ward was held in the Court House. W. H. Ragsdale was elected chairman and D. J. Whichard secretary.

S. T. White was nominated as candidate for Councilman by acclamation.

W. H. Ragsdale was elected member of the Executive Committee for this ward.

FIRST WARD.

The colored people held a meeting in the first ward and nominated as their candidates for Councilmen Reuben Clark, Jr., and James Tucker, both colored.

THIRD WARD.

The Republicans of the fourth ward nominated S. C. Hamilton, Jr., and J. T. Moye, the latter colored, as candidates for Councilmen.

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Matters Of Interest Over the State.

John T. Patrick says that every State in the South will be represented at the Northern Settlers' Conventions, at Southern Pines, next week. He says a great many visitors from the North will also be present.

Old Aunt Mandy Erwin, colored, who keeps a restaurant in Morganton, was dressing a 2-year old gobbler on last Saturday, and to her surprise, she found in him an egg, about the size of an ordinary hen egg.—Morganton Herald.

Some months ago one Sam Kimmons, white, was locked up in Salisbury for being drunk. A fellow prisoner, a colored man, set the calaboose on fire and Kimmons was burned to death. Now Kimmons' wife has entered suit against the town of Salisbury for $10,000 damages.

McDowell county has the best jail in the State and at present it is well patronized. There are three State prisoners and fifteen United States prisoners, ten of whom are women. Three of the women have infants that are kept in jail with them at their request. All the United States prisoners except one are from the county of Mitchell.—Charlotte Observer.

The reports of County Superintendents of Health, published in the Bulletin of the North Carolina Board of Health for April, show that bronchitis exists in 13 counties, influenza in 13 counties, malarial fever in 10 counties, mumps in 12 counties, typhoid fever in 20 counties, whooping cough in 21 counties, pneumonia in 30 counties, measles in 50 counties.

Will Try Sweet Potatoes.

Daniel King, a colored man living about five miles above town, tells us that he is going to put six acres in Norton yam potatoes this year, expecting a crop of 1,200 bushels. He is a successful farmer and sticks closely to his business.

SATURDAY, MAY 2ND, 1896.

Ex-Congressman John D. Anderson, of W. Va., takes a rosy view of Democratic prospects in that State. He says: "The Democrats of my state are going to make a great fight this year to redeem the state from Republican rule, and I think they are going to win. It is going to be a pretty excellent contest, but our party is united, and the conditions are all favorable to success."

Below we publish from the News and Observer a few remarks made at a political meeting in Raleigh a few nights ago by a negro. We commend them to the careful consideration of all whose sole argument in advancing their own interest is to vilify white men and arouse all the animosities possible between the races. We wonder what will be the feelings of some white men when they read and ponder what this negro has to say along this line. What a contrast between his remarks and the speech of D. L. Russell the night before in the same hall.

Dr. L. A. Scruggs was next called for. He resisted the call at first but the crowd yelled louder for him. So he advanced to the stage, and before he had spoken three minutes he had created a sensation. "I am no politician," said Scruggs, "but I desire to register my eternal and everlasting protest against the effort that was made here last night to arraign the black man against the white man. It is wrong. It is wrong; it is unjust, it is dangerous and damnable," thundered the speaker, and the crowd went wild. "Hold your political meetings if you wish to," he continued, "be Republicans, if you desire to, as I am, but for your sake, for my sake, for your children's sake, for your country's sake, and for God's sake keep down such inflammatory political harangues as was delivered in this hall by Daniel L. Russell last night. The white man and the black man live here in this Southland together, it is our country our homes are here our interests and our firesides are at stake. We have no wars with our white friends. We don't want any and it is our duty to spurn any man who attempts to arouse the prejudices of one race against the other. I condemn such vile utterances. I despise them and any man or men that utter them, and if I was God, I would forever damn the man who utters them. Dr. Scruggs was terribly in earnest and every man present, white and black cheered every sentence. It was humiliating to the white men present to hear a negro denouncing a white man for inflaming the race prejudice of the negroes, but they thanked him for it."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May, 1, '96.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

Senator Gorman's speech protesting against Republican extravagance in providing for an expenditure of $600,000,000 when the estimates of the government receipts for the next fiscal year are only $374,000,000 was a notice served upon the Republicans that during the coming campaign the people should be fully posted upon Republican intentions, not avowed, but surely indicated by the action of their leaders in both branches of this Congress, to increase Federal taxation all around, in order to raise the money to meet needless appropriations. The men who are in control of the Republican party apparently wish to put this country upon a European basis in the matter of expenditures and perhaps in other ways. Now, Mr. Gorman and other leading democrats believe that a majority an overwhelming majority, of the plain, everyday people of this country favor the American idea of economy in public expenditure, and oppose public extravagance in any and every form; and they intend to see that the facts are placed before the people.

Not a little amusement has been caused by the testimony of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, before the Senate Naval committee in the investigation as to the cost of armor plates for our fighting vessels, which although given some time ago was not made public until this week. Mr. Carnegie had the nerve to tell the committee that he considered making the armor for the government at $550 a ton a work of patriotism. The public is wondering what Mr. Carnegie calls the contract he has made with the Russian government for $300 a ton. Abuses brought to light by that investigation caused the Senate to amend the Naval appropriation bill so as to prohibit the employment of naval officers by private contractors after June 30, 1897. While nothing positively criminal was shown in connection with such employment enough suspicion was engendered to make it desirable to put a stop to the practice.

The Senate evidently is not afraid of the A. P. A., whatever its other faults may be. After listening to masterly eulogies on the life and character of Father Marquette by Senators Vilas and Mitchell, of Wis., and Kyle, of South Dakota, who, by the way, is a Protestant minister, it adopted a joint resolution offered by Senator Palmer, of Ill., accepting the status of Father Marquette, now in Statuary Hall, and thanking the state Wisconsin. It remains to be seen whether the A. P. A. can prevent the House adopting this resolution. It is understood that it will make the attempt.

Representative Clark, who was the unsuccessful "sound money" Democratic candidate for Gov. Alabama, has returned to his seat in the House, and he brings good news. He says: "No matter how much we may differ on financial questions, the Democrats of Alabama are harmonious in agreeing that best interests of the State require that it shall remain under democratic control. We are all together in the support of the ticket just nominated and will elect it fairly and triumphantly." That's the way for a democrat to talk. There is no sore head under that man's hat.

McKinley's managers stole a march on Reed when they captured that Vermont state convention, even if they failed to get everything they wanted from the Illinois convention. It begins to look as though Quay and Platt had undertaken a task of gigantic proportions in trying to keep McKinley from getting that nomination. Their latest scheme of uniting all the opposition to McKinley on Harrison is not at all pleasing to Reed, who hates Harrison. One of Reed's friends speaking of this scheme said: "If Platt and Quay can't beat McKinley without taking up Harrison they can't beat him at all. Just remember what I say. If these men try to stampede the convention to Harrison McKinley will be nominated, and the man who will do most to bring it about will be Tom Reed. Reed wants the nomination himself, and next to getting it he wants to keep Harrison out of it."

The utter incompetency of the Republicans to govern this State is being demonstrated every week. The disorderly and disgraceful scenes that are being enacted at so many of their conventions conclusively proves that the Republicans are not fit to be entrusted with the control of our State government. A party that cannot control its own conventions is surely not fit to be entrusted with the control of our State!

At the Republican district convention, held last week at Maxton for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, these were most disgraceful scenes and any number of fights. From four counties came contesting delegations, each delegation claiming to be the proper one and charging the other with fraud. Of course the convention could not seat them all, and, as committee on credentials was composed entirely of the friends of one candidate (Smith of Richmond county), they seated those delegates who would vote for him. This naturally angered the defeated delegates and they raised a row and tried to break up the convention. Smith, the nominee for Congress, knocked one of the delegates about fifteen feet and got a bloody nose himself. Dr. Norment, the defeated candidate for the nomination, was shoved off the platform and hustled about in no gentle manner. One negro delegate knocked down five other delegates, and there were numerous other fights and knockdowns, until finally the defeated minority withdrew and held a bolting convention.

And these are the men who seek to govern and "reform" our good old State.—Pittsboro Record.

Here's a good one from the Monroe Enquirer: "We heard a story some time ago which struck us as being an exceedingly good one illustrating the greatness of being a true Democrat. The story runneth thus: A good man died and all his neighbors turned out to the funeral. As there was no minister present, an old friend of the deceased was asked to say something after the coffin had been lowered in the grave. The old fellow walked slowly to the foot of the open grave and delivered the following oration over the dead body of his friend: "My friends, there lays as good a Democrat as water ever wet or sun ever dried." He then turned slowly away with the consciousness that he had done his full duty and had heaped the highest praise upon his fellow being."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—A good authority on horses says that the gray will live the longest, and that the roans come next in order. Blacks seldom live to be over 20, and creams rarely exceed 10 or 15.

—Cut flowers will keep very fresh if a small pinch of common saltpeter is put in the water in which they stand. The ends of the stem should be cut off a little every day to keep open the absorbing pores.

—One of the six graduating students of the West Penn medical college blew out the gas in a hotel bedroom in Pittsburgh, Pa., the other day. All six students were sleeping in the room and all came very near being asphyxiated.

—A Buluwayo (South Africa) paper recently contained the following item: "In consequence of our local baker departing suddenly from our midst, regretted by his friends, except his creditors, Buluwayo has been without bread the greater part of the week."

—The French language contains 13 per cent. of useless letters. There are 6,800 journals published in the language, and they print 105,000,000,000 letters every year, so that 14,040,000,000 letters are useless, simply because they have ceased to be used in the French language as it is spoken.

—At a recent sale of the assets of a riding academy in New York city the saddle horses brought an average of less than $30 apiece. This is said to be the lowest price on record for horses of this description, and the fact was generally noted that in New York the market value of a horse is lower than that of a bicycle.

—The ceremonies at the creation of knights have been various. The principal was a box on the ear and a stroke with a sword on the shoulders by a sovereign prince. They put on him a shoulder belt and a gilt sword, spurs and other military accouterments, after which, being armed as a knight, he was led to the church with great pomp.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS WE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night coming, he went to it with terror, feeling that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS. Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 59 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally. Yours, respectfully, A. M. RAMSEY

Show appreciation of the efforts of home merchants to supply home needs by giving them your patronage. Consult advertising columns of the REFLECTOR and you will know where to trade to best advantage.

Some advertisers spend lots of money in beating about the bush instead of going right at it, "hammer and tongs," capturing the prize. In good plain English this generally means a lot of money spent in schemes of one sort and another, when a like sum spent in newspaper advertising would have brought infinitely greater returns.

One important item in the revenue of Great Britain is derived from duties on tobacco. It amounted last year to $30,000,000 showing an increase of $1,650,000 over the previous year, due as the Chancellor of the Exchequer said in his recent speech in Parliament on the Budget, to an increased consumption of cigarettes. He mentioned one manufacturer as now making 2,000,000 cigarettes a day, who hardly made any a few years ago.—New York Sun.

Republican Convention.

The Republican county convention was held here today to select delegates to the State and Congressional conventions. All but three of the townships were represented.

A committee of seven was appointed to retire and select the delegates and alternates, which they did as follows:

STATE CONVENTION.

Delegates.—C. M. Bernard, C. C. Forbes, J. W. Perkins, Joseph Atkinson. Alternates—E. V. Cox, Cicero Dawson, John Thompson, T. W. C. Moore.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Delegates.—E. V. Cox, Manning Moore, J. J. Perkins, J. T. Moyer. Alternates—C. M. Bernard, C. C. Forbes, T. A. Wilkes, M. C. Gorham.

While the committee was out E. V. Cox was called for and responded in a speech that was delivered as if under pressure, evidently not knowing exactly what to say, or he was afraid that he might say something he ought not utter. It was amusing to see how he would start to venture to assert something and then check himself with the remark that it was too early. The burden of his remarks was to the Republicans to organize and be ready to take advantage of any emergency that might arise. He did venture to say, though, that he would not be found anywhere but with the Republican party whether it was a mixed or straight ticket. Continuing he said that he would not be found doing much for those who preferred a Democratic to a Republican legislature, and would rejoice at the defeat of a Republican ticket. He closed by telling the convention that they might go home and talk about it, dream about it, &c., but they would see the Republican party on top next November.

Nothing was said as to endorsing anybody and no reference was made to any candidate.
