EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Great damage has been done on the State farm near Halifax by the recent freshet in the Roanoke river. This loss is estimated at $50,000. The water was over 1,000 acres of corn, and 600 of cotton. The corn loss is estimated at ten thousand barrels, and the cotton at four hundred bales. The breaking of the dyke caused the overflow and damage.

President Faure, of France, came very near being assassinated on Tuesday last. While sitting in an open carriage on the review ground at Long Champs a well dressed man by the name of Francois drew a pistol and fired at him twice. Before he could fire the third time the crowd gathered in upon him and would have lynched him but for the interence of the police.

Mr. J. H. Turner, secretary of the National Committee of the Populist Party, comes out boldly for Mr. Bryan for President and calls upon all People's Party men to join him in his endeavor to elect this distinguished advocate of free silver. Mr. Turner calls the action of the Chicago convention the triumph of the plain people of the United States.

Joseph G. Myers, cashier of the Seaboard Air-Line in Charlotte has fled to parts unknown with at least four thousand dollars of the company's money. The railroad will lose nothing as his bond is for five thousand dollars. At the bottom of the affair is a notorious woman, who has ruined more than two prominent men in South Carolina, before coming to Charlotte. Myers leaves a wife and three small children and is said to have sailed for Europe last Saturday.

Read the following from this week's Caucasian, and then ask yourselves the question whether the Republicans can be trusted to give you free silver. Mr. Pritchard it will be remembered has pretended to be a great friend of the cause:

"Senator Pritchard is no longer a 'friend to silver' and so friends to silver can no longer be (political) friends to Pritchard. He has taken the plunge into the gold camp, and the only honest and consistent thing for him to do now is to advocate the gold standard. Professions of being friendly to silver from him cannot and will not be taken seriously now by those who once supported him for a high office. If his words are to be believed, he has repudiated pledges heretofore made, and he can expect nothing less than repudiation of himself by those to whom he made those pledges. Mr. Pritchard will yet sit in the Senate before the people will have an opportunity to dismiss him as their representative there, but we hardly think any action he may take will be inconsistent with his former promises during the time that he will remain Senator. Here is his latest promise and opinion: 'I shall cheerfully support the Republican ticket, and I feel confident McKinley and Hobart will carry North Carolina by a handsome majority, and that the action of the Chicago convention insures the election of the Republican ticket by an overwhelming majority.'

A DIXIE PARODY.

F. L. STANTON.

Oh, Georgia land is the land o' votin';
Red cheek gals when the boys go co'tin',

"Vote away,
Vote away,"
Sing the Bryan boys in Dixie!

Oh, de silver sun fum de wes' is shinin'
Gold'bug democrat, haul yo' hne in!

"Vote away,
Vote away,"
Sing the Bryan boys in Dixie!

Oh, de melon ripe, en de peach done
sofen,

En w3 all vote early en vote of'en,
"Vote away,
Vote away,"

Sing the Bryan boys in Dixie!

Mister Bryan riz, en he say, "I'm gwine . . .
Right in dar whar de white house lyin'."

"Vote away,
Vote away,"
Sing the Bryan boys in Dixie!

Gold'bug democrat lots er trouble,
But he wing done clip en he eye look double,

"Vote away,
Vote away,"
Sing the Bryan boys in Dixie!

A Good Name.

A friend thinks Bryan's name is not a winning one—has not the right sound. It is as good a name to conjure with as the names of many of the presidents. Surely its jingle is as pleasant to the ear as Adams, Van Buren, Polk, Garfield, and they all "got there." Bryan is a good name in North Carolina. It is one with which the people have long been familiar. North Carolina has had a most worthy member of Congress by that name—the late Hon. John H. Bryan. It had another able and reputable gentleman in James P. Bryan, a lawyer we think in the past. It has an excellent and able judge now on the bench in Judge Henry Brown, of Newbern. He has an able and learned brother in Justice William S. Bryan, of the supreme court of Maryland.

Bryan is a first-rate name for the south. In this State there are many men wearing it. Hurrah! for the eloquent orator and statesman of Nebraska. He has character, he has vigor, he has enthusiasm, he has splendid talents, he has political experience, he has vast popularity, he has an excellent name every way. It is a winning name let us all hope. It will arouse ardent enthusiasm in the great west.—
Look out for a tidal wave out there—
Wilmington Messenger.

McKinley's Inconclusiveness.

Mr. McKinley is moving by slow and apparently painful stages towards a plain and conclusive statement in opposition to free-silver coinage. His speech on Saturday came nearer to the mark than anything he has yet said. And still it was made up largely of dull or glittering generalities. He did not say he is opposed to free coinage. Still less did he intimate that he would veto a high-tariff bill with a free-silver attachment—the only kind of a tariff bill he is likely to get from the next Congress.

Furthermore Mr. McKinley repeated his statement that "we have the same currency that we had in 1892, good the world over, and unquestioned by any people." This is not true. Our silver dollars are not "good the world over. They are worth only their bullion value, some 53 cents, outside of this country. Our Treasury notes of 1890 and our silver certificates are good only at home, where they constitute the bulk of our money in actual circulation. If the silver dollars are as good as Mr. McKinley says they are, what objection can be made to their free and unlimited coinage?

It is to be feared that that the Republican candidate will never wholly escape being a good deal of solemn humbug.—New York World.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

Texas goldbugs and Illinois goldbugs are plotting to have a gold ticket in the field. Last accounts from New York did not look so certain for a gold ticket as recent threats indicated. But it was said that while the leaders oppose a bolt, they propose to fight the regular nominees, but staying in the party. If that is not kicking, bolting what pray is it? The silver men everywhere would much prefer them to pack their kits and depart than to remain inside of the intrenchments and shoot the real fighters for democracy in the back.

There is fun going on up in New York. Tammany leaders (including its member of the house of representatives), say the old Tammany Guard will remain firm, will stand by their old colors and vote for Bryan and Sewall. There is also good news from the rural districts in New York, and the silver men will not be idle or silent. Look out for a storm.

Out in Illinois the gold fellows are starting a gold party of their own. Senator Palmer, elected a democrat, but long time a republican, leads it.

Mr. Sewall thinks there is a good showing to carry Maine, but we do not credit it. That there are very many silver men—bimetallist of the only genuine sort—not of the Walker stamp—in Tom Reed's own state, is very certain. But they are not strong enough perhaps to put it in the real "honest money" column—that of Washington, Jefferson and the constitution.

At the city of Haverhill, Mass., the democracy endorse the regular ticket and platform.

A dispatch from Chicago says that the anti-silver democrats who have been actively represented from the beginning of the fight by the Cook county party leaders, were disappointed to-day to find they had been practically left alone in the west to meet and decide the question of another democratic national convention. All this is encouraging to the genuine bimetallists who demand true money and fight for its restoration in full. From many quarters daily comes the cheering news that the democratic ticket is rapidly growing in popular favor.

The populists of Kansas and Arkansas have determined to support the democratic ticket. Watch Marion Butler at the populist convention. We predict he will seek to get them to nominate a ticket. His goose is cooked in North Carolina and he knows it. We hope he will be mashed flat. Wilmington Messenger.

WALL STREET'S HYSTERICS.

The Stock Exchange has no Bryan, so far as is known, but on Saturday it worked itself into quite a fair imitation of the Chicago Convention hysterics. One of the members frantically waved an American flag, and there was a great outcry and uproar against "Bryan and Populism." The tumult ended with the organization of a "Bankers' and Brokers' McKinley Campaign Club," consisting of Democrats and Republicans.

These men may mean well, but they don't seem to know that any demonstration which they may make is not calculated to help the Republican ticket. They ought to have received a strong hint from St. Louis and to have learned for certain from Chicago that anything which "Wall street" wants is quite sure to be hotly opposed by immense bodies of voters in other parts of the country.

Nor is this feeling without reason. Many of the wrongs and wrongs complained of by the voters who sent the wild two-thirds majority to the Chicago Convention are real and just. Utterly mistaken as we believe these men to be in the remedy they propose, and strongly as we have felt it to be our duty to resist and to plead with them, we have never for a moment lost sight of the fact that their grievances are great and their complaint in some part well founded.

It is the concrete and combined power for which "Wall street" is the symbol in the popular mind that has made a monopoly of transportation, that has brought all the great prime necessities of life—iron, steel, coal, oil, beef, sugar and a hundred others—under the control of trusts and combinations that oppress labor at one end and rob consumers at the other.

It is "Wall street" that has depleted the Treasury of gold and exacted usurious millions from the Government in forced bond sales to "protect its credit."

It is you, gentleman of the gambling exchanges, manipulators of money corners, organizers of swindling trusts, wreckers of railroads, shearers of "lambs," tax dodgers and absorbers of money that you never earned, who have done more than all the ignorant blundering at Washington and all the demagoguery at the South and West to raise the spectre of Anarchy and Populism at which you now stand affrighted.

—New York World.

The Two "Dark Days."

There are two "dark days" mentioned in the annals of New England. The first occurred on Oct. 21, 1716, when it suddenly became so dark soon after noon that the people were forced to use artificial lights to do their ordinary work. This strange condition of the atmosphere lasted about 3½ hours. Again, on May 19, 1780, there was a remarkable darkening of the atmosphere, but the phenomenon did not come on so suddenly as that upon the earlier date. The darkness in this latter instance began between 10 and 11 o'clock on the morning of the day named and lasted throughout the day. The darkness extended from the northeastern part of New England westward as far as Albany and south to Pennsylvania. The most intense and prolonged darkness, however, was confined to Massachusetts, more especially to the seaboard. It is said to have come from the southwest, but there is no mention of it made in the history of Ohio or Virginia. The exact cause still remains one of the unexplained mysteries.

Edgecombe Commissioners Suit.

There was considerable stir in the streets in town Friday morning when it was rumored that Dr. L. L. Staton had sued the Board of County Commissioners, not as officials, but as individuals, for the purpose of recovering from them individually the sum of eight hundred dollars apiece.

The summons was against T. H. Cherry, Orren Williams, George L. Wimberly and Robert Walston. The name of J. T. Howard was omitted.

The substance of the summons issued against the Board was their alleged failure to comply with the requirements of the statute, concerning the putting in of the draws and thereby a failure to perform their duty as county officials.

The case was originally brought before Ed. Zoeller, Justice, but upon affidavit referred to Capt. John W. Charles. Dr. L. L. Staton was represented by Col. John L. Bridgers.

The justice decided that the defendants were liable for the penalty, and gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff. The case on appeal was taken to the Superior Court and there awaits trial. Tarboro Southerner.

VOX POPULLI.

They are Seen Sometime as Well as Heard.

Arm Broken.

Yesterday afternoon, Katie, daughter of Mr. J. S. Tunstall, was playing on the front porch and accidentally fell off and broke her arm. A physician was called in and set it and now the sufferer is doing as well as could be expected.

Passed Through.

The Kinston base ball club passed through here this morning enroute to Washington, where they play two games of ball, one this evening and the other in the morning. "Our George" Woodward accompanied them to win the game for them.

Trips from Billville.

We go on our annual excursion next week. The railroad company refused us a free pass, but kindly gave us two pairs of shoes.

When Mr. Bryan was in Billville we changed a dollar for him. There is no telling just what changes time will bring.

Seven goldbugs were burnt up in the silver torchlight procession. Wood was scarce, and it was impossible to parade without fire of some sort.

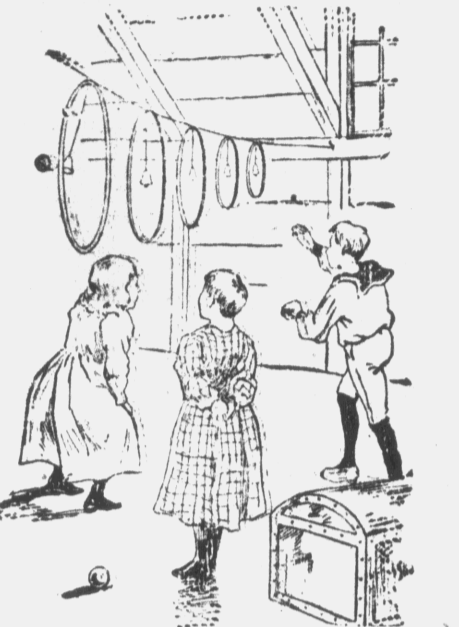

The Billville candidates are now going the rounds on bicycles. The sheriff foreclosed the mortgages on their mules some time ago.
