FEARFUL LOSS OF LIFE.

A Fast Express Plunges into an Excursion Train—Forty-Two Persons Killed and Eighty Wounded—The Block Operator Arrested.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 30.—A terrible railroad catastrophe took place on the Meadows about two miles out of this city shortly after 6:30 o'clock this evening, resulting in the deaths of forty-two people, so far as now can be learned, and the wounding of eighty others. A train left here consisting of seven cars over the West Jersey railroad bearing a special excursion of Red men and their friends of Bridgeton, N. J., and Salem, and had reached the crossing of the Reading railroad when it was struck by the 5:40 down express from Philadelphia, demolishing two cars and telescoping the two following. The engine of the Reading train became a total wreck, killing the engineer and fatally injuring the fireman, and the car behind it also was thrown from the track and many of its occupants killed or injured.

The responsibility of the collision has not yet been placed, but William Thurlow, the operator at the block tower situated at the crossing has been placed under arrest by order of the coroner.

Leaving this city, the tracks of the West Jersey road run parallel to those of the Camden and Atlantic until after they cross the Delaware bridge, when they switch off to the south crossing the Reading road at an obtuse angle.

John Greiner, the engineer of the West Jersey train saw the Reading train approaching the crossing at a swift speed, but as the signals were open for him to proceed on his way he continued. His engine had barely cleared the track of the Reading when the locomotive of the latter train, which left Philadelphia at 5:40 p. m. struck the first car full in the centre, throwing it far off the track into a nearby ditch, and completely submerging it. The second car of the West Jersey train, was also carried into the ditch, the third and fourth cars being telescoped. The engine of the Reading train was thrown to the other side of the track carrying with it the first coach.

A few minutes after the collision to add to the horror of the situation, the boiler of the Reading locomotive exploded, scalding several to death and casting its boiling spray over many of the injured passengers.

Darkness fell quickly and the work of rescuing the injured and the dead bodies was carried on under the lurid glare of huge bon fires. It was a gruesome sight, to on-lookers as the mangled and burnt forms of the dead were carried from the wreckage, which bound them and laid side by side on the gravel bank near the track with no other pall than a few old newspapers gathered from the passengers. The wounded were quickly gathered together and carried by train and wagon to the Atlantic City hospital, where six of them died shortly after their arrival. At a late hour this evening there were twenty-nine bodies laid out in the old excursion house, none of whom are as yet identified.

Notice to Ice Users.

Owing to the inability of the factories to fill my orders for ice this week my supply is exhausted and I cannot furnish my customers on Sunday. However much this is to be regretted, it was unavoidable. I will have a car load to arrive on Tuesday and can then go on filling all orders.

TOBACCO MARKET GROWING.

The Number of Pounds Doubled in the Last Year.

Any one can see without much trouble that Greenville is the coming town of Eastern Carolina. Although receiving two heavy blows—the burning of the brick blocks and the placing mills, yet she pushes forward. In the place of the burned district we now have several fine brick buildings and more to follow. Up in Tobacco town every warehouse is being enlarged and fitted up to accommodate the great rush that is certainly coming. The fun will commence Monday morning and there will be a general awakening of business.

We were talking Friday with Mr. J. R. Moore, railroad agent, and in the run of the conversation he said that the number of pounds of tobacco shipped from Greenville, over the Coast Line had doubled in a year. From August 1st, 1894, to August 1st, 1895, there were shipped 2,627,461 pounds and from August 1st, 1895, to August 1st, 1896, 4,674,889 pounds. You can readily see that that we are growing and the coming season he will handle over 5,000,000 pounds. These figures only show the number of pounds shipped over the railroad and does not show what was shipped by the O. D. S. S. Co's line.

Glad to Have Him.

J. S. Jenkins & Co., tobaccoists of this place, have secured the services as book-keeper of Mr. R. T. Harrison, late of Richmond, Va. Mr. Harrison took a complete course in book-keeping at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and since then has taught this branch of study in several schools, among which was Richmond College. He is thoroughly qualified for his work both in attainments and in character. Mr. Jenkins is fortunate in securing his services, and the friends of the firm here and elsewhere may be assured that for the coming year the balance sheets of this firm will show accurate work in every department of the business. We heartily welcome Mr. Harrison among us as a desirable addition to our present admirable corps of tobacco men.

Round Trip For $3.15.

The REFLECTOR was right in its suggestions Friday that the round trip rate from Greenville to Morehead for the Sunday School Chatauqua would be $3.15. Last night's train brought Agent J. R. Moore a letter of instruction to sell round trip tickets to Morehead on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th at $3.15, with final limit to return on 15th. These instructions make no provisions for selling tickets at this rate later than the 4th, so we don't know how those who wish to go on Friday, 7th, can get the benefit of the low rate, unless they can purchase their tickets on the 4th and hold them until they are ready to go. A passenger coach will be put on the freight train on Monday and Friday and through connection will be made at Kinston on those days.

Ice Famine.

Greenville is about to have an ice famine, but it is no fault of the local dealers. The factories from which they buy have been overrun for the past week or two and could not keep them supplied, and though several telegrams were sent there could be no promise of orders getting in before Tuesday. To-day's demand will about exhaust all the ice there is in town, and our people will have to get along as best they can through Sunday and Monday.

A REDUCTION.

The economizing period is here. Bright buyers are busy these days choosing from the heaps of bargains that abound throughout the store. There are good reasons—founded in the logic of modern merchandising—why prices do range so low right now.

We are on the verge of invoicing. That brings prices down. It is the sundown of the season. That brings prices down. Many departments contain remnants and broken lots. That brings prices down. We are organizing our trade forces for a triumphant fall campaign. That brings prices down.

In fine a score of sound causes are simultaneously influencing and affecting prices all in your favor. The single fact that we are daily selling the best qualities of many lines at and below actual cost, out-weighs and out-argues a thousand claims.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, July 31st, 1896.

The gold democrats are slowly but surely lining up for Bryan and Sewall. Already one member of the Cabinet—Secretary Hoke Smith—has declared for them, and three other members, whose names I am not at liberty to mention at this time, have intimated their intention to do the same. Secretary Smith has not only declared his intention to support the ticket, but he has said that if he can possibly arrange his time so to be there he will accept the invitation which has been extended him to preside over a big Bryan and Sewall ratification meeting to be held at Augusta, Ga. August 12. Senators Gordon, of Ga., and Lindsey, of Ky., who are both gold men, were in Washington this week and they announced their intention not only to vote for Bryan and Sewall but to work for their election. Senator Gordon has already notified chairman Jones, of the National committee, that he is ready to take the stump for the ticket at the pleasure of the committee. These things indicate a getting together of democrats that means victory.

The District of Columbia democrats are preparing to take an active part in the campaign; they can't vote, but they can help to convince those who do vote to vote the right way. A Bryan and Sewall club this week adopted resolutions repudiating the democracy of those Federal officials who are drawing salaries by the grace of the democratic party and who have publicly opposed the regular democratic ticket. It is expected that the big democratic ratification meeting which will be addressed by Mr. Bryan will be held in one of the large tents used by the late Christian Endeavor convention. The local democrats hope to make this meeting the biggest thing of the kind ever held in Washington.

If Mr. John W. Hayes, General Secretary of the Knights of Labor, knows what he is talking about, and he probably does, that organization is practically unanimous for Bryan and free silver. Speaking about this Mr. Hayes said: "The workmen as a class are in favor of free coinage, and they will vote for it and elect Bryan. Labor organizations like the Knights of Labor will not, as organizations participate in the campaign, but the members in their individual capacity will. They want free coinage, and in my opinion at least 98 per cent. of the Knights of Labor will vote for it."

Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic Congressional committee, returned this week from a visit to West Virginia. In reply to a question as to the outlook in that state, he said: "Everything is all right. The silver sentiment at present sweeping over my state reminds me of a prairie fire; it is simply resistless. Furthermore, it seems to be going straight on to the East; but in spite of its spread we must remember that when we are antagonizing the great money power and corporate interests of the country we have a fight on our hands that calls for united efforts and determined work to the close of the campaign.

Representative Russell, of Ga., who has just returned from a trip to Boston, says: I found the citizens of the 'Hub' talking more about the money question than the people of Washington are, if such a thing is possible. To my utter surprise I found that a goodly per cent of them were in favor of free silver. Men who were in a position to know assured me that the cause was making rapid strides in every New England state, and that if the gain maintained its present ratio Bryan would surely carry one or two of them. There wasn't a word to be heard about McKinley or the tariff; all the enthusiasm was on the side of Bryan and silver. Though personally an advocate of sound money, I am convinced that the people of this country have made up their minds to try the other system, and that Bryan is going to be elected President by a tidal wave majority.

There is considerable growling among the more prominent Republicans at Mark Hanna's dictatorial manner of running things, and among themselves they are recalling the last campaign in which a wealthy business man undertook the duties of chairman of the Republican National Committee, to show the politicians how a campaign ought to be run and ended by seeing Blaine, the most popular Republican ever nominated for President, defeated. The other millionaire chairman was B. F. Jones, of Pittsburg. Hanna seems to remind some of these Republicans of Jones, and the Democrats are confident that his management of the campaign will have the same result—the defeat of the Republicans.

TOO HOT.

For joy, for grief, for laughter— Too hot, too hot, too hot!
For here and for hereafter— Too hot, too hot, too hot!
Too hot for brass bells ringing; Too hot for songbirds singing;
For that new joke you're springing— Too hot, too hot, too hot!
For tears, for toil, for trouble— Too hot, too hot, too hot!
For single file or double— Too hot, too hot, too hot!
And from its broad, blue belting— From fields ethereal melting,
The sky its fire keeps pelting— Too hot, too hot, too hot!

Peculiarly Fatal.

The Clinton Democrat learns of an epidemic of peculiarly fatal fever in French's Creek township, Bladen county. The fever is complicated with meningitis and in some cases proves fatal in two days. There were six deaths in one neighborhood the same week.

Equal to an Incubator.

The Democrat says a citizen of Rutherford has a hen that hatched 60 chickens at one setting. As fast as one lot of chicks were hatched they were taken away and more eggs put under the hen. She set twelve weeks at a dead stretch and the aggregate number she hatched out was sixty.

A Honey Industry.

Mrs. Nancy Sterling, who lives at King and East Front streets, had the side of her house opened yesterday and secured a good supply of honey.

For about two years, Mrs. Sterling has noticed the bees going through a knot hole in the weather boarding of the house, but has not disturbed them until yesterday.

The bees laid their honey between the plastering and the weather boarding of the house, and yesterday some forty or fifty pounds were taken out.—Newbern Journal.

Hats In War.
The bearskin hats of some British regiments were at first devised with the idea of striking terror into the hearts of their enemies. The same principle is shown in the dreadful figures worn by the knights on their helmets and sometimes emblazoned on their shields. The ancient Germans wore horned helmets to inspire terror in the enemy and carried figures of strange animals as standards.

"Yes. It has not been so many moons since I saved up all my billiard money and lived on beans two weeks to blow myself on an opera and a supper for a young woman. Then I asked her to marry me, and she said she was afraid I was too extravagant to make a good husband."—Indianapolis Journal.

Built a House In a Bottle.
A few years ago the writer saw a genuine curiosity which had been made by a little blind boy in Chicago. It was nothing more or less than a miniature house, made up of forty odd pieces of wood, which was placed on the inside of a very common looking four ounce medicine bottle. The general verdict of all who examined the wonder was that it would puzzle a man with two good eyes to put the pieces in the bottle, to say nothing of the task of gluing them together so as to make them resemble a house.—St. Louis Republic.

The Codex Upsal.
The Codex Upsal differs from every other known manuscript in the fact that it was written with silver ink on violet parchment, the initials being of gold. The secret of the manufacture of this silver ink is not definitely known, though it is suspected that some solution of the metal was employed in the writing and then subsequently treated with chemicals to give the metallic luster and effect.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
P. P. P., Lippman's
Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED--COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT--ONE
NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga.
Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
Yours respectfully,
A. M. RAMSEY

A man owning a double house sublet the half he did not occupy to a noisy tenant. Such a racket was kept up that he notified the party to quit.

"What's the matter with me?" he asked, much hurt in his pride.
"Ah, you raise too much noise all the time, and I can't stand it."
"Why don't you balance matters by raising something yourself? I don't object."
"Don't you? Well, I'll just raise the rent," and he did to such an extent that the tenant left.—Strand Magazine.

Effective Weapons.
During the sieges of mediaeval times it was very common for the besiegers to throw from their catapults and other military engines dead bodies of dogs, swine, together with pieces of horseflesh and similar carrion, into the city or castle besieged, in order that the defenders might, by the stench of this putridity, be forced to a surrender.

Roulette In Russian Drawing Rooms.
To the Grand Duchess Vladimir is said to belong the blame for having introduced roulette as an ordinary form of drawing room entertainment on the banks of the Neva. Russians are born gamblers. But mere cards did not satisfy the cravings of this Mecklenburg princess, whose religious convictions, strange to relate, are so strong that alone of all the foreign wives of Russian grand dukes she has refused to abandon her Lutheran faith for the orthodox church. Nothing but roulette would please her, and as she goes out a great deal in society at St. Petersburg, and as it became known that roulette was indispensable for her enjoyment, tables were soon organized in all the salons that she frequented.—Westminster Gazette
