Bryan's Weaver Vote.

To clear the whole matter up once for all, we clip from the Richmond Dispatch the following telegram from Chairman Faulkner, explaining Mr. Bryan's vote for Mr. Weaver:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24. "To the editor of the Dispatch, Richmond, Va.:

"I have submitted your telegram of yesterday, requesting me to explain why Mr. Bryan voted for Weaver in 1892, to Senator Gorman, who was a member of the Democratic campaign committee in 1892. He says that the National committee, of which Mr. William G. Harry was chairman, with Mr. Don M. Dickinson chairman of the campaign committee, determined to request all the Democrats in Nebraska and the States West thereof, to unite with the Weaver people in carrying these States, so as to prevent Harrison from receiving electoral votes in Nebraska, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Oregon, Nevada and California, and as a rule the Democrats followed the request of the Democratic National committee. In addition to this the New York World made an appeal for a special subscription to carry out the plan of campaign determined on by the Democratic committee. Therefore, whatever Mr. Bryan or any other Democrat did in the support of Weaver was at the request of the National Democratic committee.

CHARLES J. FAULKNER,
"Chairman."

Politics in Billville.

The polls will open early. Bring your dinners with you and spend the day in voting.

There are thirty candidates for sheriff in Billville, and yet there are only three men to be hung this year.

Somebody has skipped with the Billville campaign fund. We never believed in this kind of business. Let the candidate deal with the voter direct, is our motto.

It was thought that Colonel Jones had arrived too late to register, but it was a mistake; he had his shotgun with him and will vote, as usual, in this election.

We are running for superintendent of the poorhouse. It was found that we were qualified financially for the office and we were nominated by acclamation.

The great popularity of Bryan is shown by the fact that he made a good impression in Kentucky in spite of his frequent refusals to drink. Although he confined himself strictly to water the people "cheered him to the echo."—Atlanta Constitution.

LATE NEWS.

The Treasury gold reserve has done some climbing recently. It is now a little above $122,000,000.

A 2 months old baby in Baltimore, while left alone for a short while, was attacked by three large rats and so badly injured that it died.

J. B. Thacker having declined the nomination for Governor of New York, the State executive committee has nominated W. E. Porter.

Pointers Still Point.

"As a mere matter of curiosity," said a passenger on one of the trains last night, "I asked the newsboy on the train what proportion of Bryan and McKinley badges he sold.

"The average with me has been about 48 Bryan to 8 McKinley," he answered, and I have kept a close account. Other boys say about the same thing, too."—Greensboro Record.

This Peculiar Campaign

The following is a true story, illustrative of the peculiar political changes going on:

Down at Coldwater there is a banker who has been a lifelong Democrat. At Wichita he has a lifelong chum that has been a lifelong Republican.

They visited each other two or three times a year, and most of their time was spent in trying to convince each other that they were wrong politically.

The Wichita man met the Coldwater man last winter, and he appealed to him strongly to come over to the Republicans and find salvation and that peace of mind that it brings. The Coldwater man could not be persuaded.

Finally the Democratic convention was held in Chicago, with results familiar to everybody.

The Coldwater man changes his politics and became a Republican. Let it be good, as every Democrat does who sees the error of his ways. He could not keep his joy to himself, so he took the train and came post haste to Wichita, and went direct to the home of his friend.

"Well, Ed," said he, reaching out his hand, "I feel good and could not help coming up to tell you about it."

"That's it—another boy?"

"Guess again."

"Struck a gold mine?"

"It's better than that."

"Rich uncle died, eh?"

"Still better."

"What, has your mother-in-law left you?"

"Well, it's nearly as good as that."

"What is it, for goodness sake?"

"I have seen the error of my ways. I have turned Republican and am hurrahing for McKinley. Shake on that, old boy."

He didn't shake, but hung his head.

"Why, Ed, old boy, what's the matter with you? Why don't you shake and welcome me into your ranks?"

"If you want to be with me politically," said Ed, "you'll have to change back again."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean simply that I have changed myself. I am hurrahing for Bryan and free silver."—Wichita Eagle.

The Circus.

The freight train being so late this morning threw the circus away off of schedule and disappointed a large crowd of people who were there waiting for it. The train did not arrive at this writing. It is expected to be here soon, and a performance can be looked for tonight.

Doors open at 7 o'clock.

Tomorrow morning at 10.30 there will be a balloon ascension and another performance immediately after it.

A Deserved Tribute to Col. Carr.

Raleigh News and Observer.

The News and Observer is enabled to print below a copy of a letter written yesterday by Chairman Manly to Colonel Julian S. Carr. The spirit and style of the letter are as fine as were the happy and willing services which provoked it. The letter was as follows:

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 18, 1896.
MY DEAR SIR:—"In the name of the Democratic party, and all who love the honor and fair fame of North Carolina, I desire to return to you my most cordial thanks for your management of the Bryan special through North Carolina. The party was, indeed, fortunate in securing your good offices and your wise judgment and management, the aid of your committee, and the assistance of the local committee en route, is especially due to the splendid triumphal success of Mr. Bryan's trip through North Carolina. I trust you will assure your committee of my sincere appreciation of their efforts.

"The three days allotted to us of Sept. 16, 17 and 18, will long be remembered as triumphal days by the Democracy and the people of North Carolina.

"I have the honor to be,
"Yours truly,
"CLEMENT MANLY,
"Chairman."

Brimstone Cures Diphtheria

A few years ago, when diphtheria was raging in England a gentleman accompanied the celebrated Dr. Field on his rounds to witness the so-called "wonderful cures" which he performed, while the patients of others were dropping on all sides. All he took with him was powder of sulphur and a quill, and with these he cured every patient without exception—that is, he put a teaspoonful of flour of brimstone in a wineglass of water and stirred it with his fingers instead of a spoon, as sulphur does not readily amalgamate with water, and on the sulphur becoming well mixed he gave it as a gargle and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger, as brimstone kills every species of fungus in a man, beast or plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle he recommended the swallowing of it, and in extreme cases, in which he had been called just in the nick of time, when the fungus was too nearly closing to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat, and after the fungus had shrunk to allow of it, then the gargling. He never lost a patient from diphtheria. Or if the patient cannot gargle, take a live coal, put it on a shovel, and sprinkle a spoonful or two of the brimstone at a time upon it. Let the sufferer inhale it, holding the head over it and the fungus will die.—London Lancet.

When the speculators in futures run wheat up a couple of cents a bushel, the gold organs tell us that this is the result of the progress of "sound money." When they run it down a couple cents or more, these same organs say it is the result of the agitation of the silver question. These esteemed organs are always equal to the emergency, and never stand much on ceremony when they strike out to account for things.—Wilmington Star.

Seven Presidential Tickets.

Few people have any idea as to the number of Presidential tickets in the field. There are exactly seven, viz: Bryan and Sewall, Democratic; McKinley and Hobart, Republican; Palmer and Buckner, gold standard Democratic; Bryan and Watson, Populist; Levering and Johnson, Prohibitionist; Bently and Southgate, National Prohibitionist and Malchet and Maguire, Socialist.

Cash is the lever that moves all things. We take silver, greenbacks or gold, and sometimes copper. If you happen to be behind with your subscription a remittance or a call would be appreciated.

Notice of Sale.

By virtue of the provisions of the will of the late Mrs. A. M. Clark, W. R. Whichard, her executor, will sell at the Courthouse in Greenville N. C., on Monday the 12th day of October 1896, the following real estate: the house and lot, situated in Greenville, N. C., on third street, recently occupied by Mrs. Clark. Also a tract of land containing about 18 acres, situated partly within and partly without the town of Greenville, through which the Kinston and Scotland Neck Branch Railroad passes. Will also sell on the same day, at the aforesaid house of Mrs. Clark dec'd, the following personal property: "1 fine diamond brooch, 1 parlor water pitcher and two goblets, 1 dozen forks (dinner and tea), 1 dozen spoons (dinner and desert), 1 1/2 dozen tea spoons, 1 sugar spoon tongue, 1 sauce ladle, 1 mug (all pure silver), and 2 plate salt cellars and spoons, also one-half undivided interest in the chattel property described in the will of Mrs. Clark as follows: "All the furniture in my parlor of every kind and description, except the piano and piano stool, also all the furniture of every kind in the bedroom I now occupy, and my cast iron yard vases," the other undivided half interest being the property of Mary Louallie Poole. Terms of sale, real estate 1/3 cash balance in 1 and 2 years, personalty, sold for cash only. W. R. WHICHARD, Executor of Mrs. A. M. Clark. BLOUNT & FLEMING, Attorneys.

Land Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt county in the case of J. B. Cherry and the heirs at Law of T. B. Cherry against T. J. Jarvis, H. E. Daniel and W. L. Elliott, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the court house door in Greenville on Monday, the 2nd day of Nov. 1896, the following described real estate:
1. That part of lot No. 105 in the town of Greenville upon which the store formerly occupied by Mrs. R. H. Horne, now occupied by M. R. Lang now stands, and where the old Blue Front shop formerly stood, being the northern half of said lot.
2. That part of lot No. 105 in the town of Greenville upon which the store formerly occupied by Mrs. M. D. Higgs now occupied by Proctor & Co. and J. R. Cory now stands, being the southern half of said lot.
3. That parcel or track of land lying in Pocolus Township, adjoining the lands of J. J. Rollins, McF. Holliday and others, and known as the James L. Langley place, containing 120 acres, more or less.
Said property is sold for division.
This September 24, 1896.
F. G. JAMES,
Commissioner.

family funds.
One of the old residents of a Massachusetts town delights the younger generation with her stories of life in the town 70 years ago, when she was a little girl. Her father, with his wife and children, and his brother, with wife and children also, occupied a great farmhouse which is still in a state of excellent preservation in spite of its years of hard service.

"My father and my uncle had a 'common purse,'" said the old lady to a young visitor who was begging for reminiscences of that bygone time, "and all the family expenses were provided for from the funds it contained.

"There were 12 children in our part of the house and 13 in my uncle's, so that it took a good deal to provide us with food and clothing.

"My uncle had the reputation of being a little more prudent in money matters than was considered necessary by my father or any one acquainted with our affairs, so I have heard since. In those days the children of both families knew by instinct that my father was the person to whom an appeal for some desired bit of finery or what we called 'unnecessaries' had better be made. The common purse seemed to have greater powers of extension in his hands than in my uncle's.

"I well remember my pretty Cousin Myra dancing with delight when she was on the eve of her sixteenth birthday. 'I'm to have a piano after all, Jennie,' she cried, giving me a hug. 'Father was very doubtful about it, but Uncle Amos told me not to worry, for if father couldn't afford to give it to me he could.'" — Youth's Companion.

France and Fine Speeches.
When I read his (Gambetta's) fiery patriotic phrases, and when you tell us that he was avant tout un patriote, I think of Dr. Johnson's brusque saying, "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel." It is hard to practice the plain virtues, but not hard to se griser de mots about la patrie. What France wants is men with a passion for the plain virtues and capable of inspiring this passion in others. His intellectual qualities, his perception of the law of evolution in politics and his suppleness and adroitness in shaping his course accordingly are far more remarkable. * * * They seem to me Italian rather than French, but whenever they proceed they are not, although valuable, what France most needs and cannot supply the place of this.—Matthew Arnold.

This Most Extraordinary Country.
"How did this doosid place get its name?" asked the visiting Britisher. "The night it was named," explained the Oshkosh citizen, "they was a lot of fellers drinkin hot Scotch. Finally they got full an decided to name the town 'Hot Scotch,' but by that time they was so full that the highest they could come to it was 'Oshkosh,' an they let it go at that."
"Haw! 'Ow American!"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Every great man exhibits the talent of organization or construction, whether it be in a poem, a philosophical system, a policy or a strategy. And without method there is no organization nor construction.—Bulwer.

The first wood borer was the woodpecker, and so accurate is his work that the hole he bores in the tree is as exactly circular as though measured by a pair of compasses.

In 1890 there were 158 steel works in this country, nearly half of which were in Pennsylvania.

Printing ink is made of linseed oil, rosin, soap and lampblack or other coloring matter.

The Missing Stanza.
A verse of Hood's "Song of the Shirt" cut out for typographical reasons by Mark Lemon is given by Mr. Spielmann in his "History of Punch." It reads:

Seam and gusset and band,
Band and gusset and seam;
Work, work, work,
Like an engine that works by steam,
A mere machine of iron and wood,
That toils for Mammon's sake
Without a brain to ponder and crane
Or a heart to feel—and break.

Nothing New Under the Sun.
Anaxagoras, an Athenian philosopher who lived in the fifth century before Christ, taught that wind was the result of rarefaction; that the rainbow was the result of reflection and refraction; that the moon's light was all borrowed from the sun, and that the fixed stars were of immense size and far beyond the sun.—St. Louis Republic.

RICKS & TAFT,

The Ladies Bazaar.

Novelty Suits.

The collection is great and varied, our own exclusive styles, and but one of each. You are free to touch, handle, examine and criticise them. Note particularly, we don't say "buy." That's another question, the goods are at your "option." Our thought now is to interest you.

Serges.

Neat and quiet effects that assume but little and are brimful of honest wear and worth. Gayety and gravity about equally divide the dress goods taste. Hence Serges are prominent on the latter side. Our selections of qualities and colors aggregate far beyond any competition.

Plaids.

Plaids are powerful. We forsook their popularity and provided accordingly. They vary from the charming shepherd check to the bold criss-crossing. West of England as well as the Highlands are represented here. Come see us.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

It is the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made in different styles—the small one, which is made for bed-rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
