Campaigns, Past and Present.

How remarkable is Mr. Bryan's performance is shown in the following table, giving as it does the number of speeches made and number of miles traveled by every presidential candidate since 1860.

Candidate for president	No. of miles of and year.	speeches travel.
Bryan (up to date)	205	8,022
McKinley (up to date)	73	80
Cleveland, in 1892	4
Harrison, in 1892	2
Cleveland, in 1888	1
Harrison, in 1888	56	200
Cleveland, in 1884	3	312
Blaine, in 1884	195	3,750
Garfield, in 1880	97	2,300
Hancock, in 1880	2
Tilden, in 1876	2
Hayes, in 1876	6	1,400
Grant, in 1872
Greeley, in 1872	79	2,234
Grant, in 1868	3	3,100
Seymour, in 1868	8	1,100
Lincoln, in 1864	8	450
McClellan, in 1864	—	—
Lincoln, in 1860	1
Douglas, in 1860	65	2,750

McKinley's seventy-five or more speeches have, according to the press reports, been received with enthusiasm but they have been entirely free from sensationalism, and it is equally true—as his friends will admit—that they have been entirely free from originality of thought, though marked with the exquisite diction for which McKinley is famous.

He Will Bear Watching.

Notwithstanding E. V. Cox's big bolt from the Republican convention here that nominated him for the Legislature, he is going right along with the other candidates declaring himself. He said in that county convention that he was going to vote for McKinley, but the Rev. Phillips tells us that the Populists have made Cox pledge himself not to vote for anybody who is not in favor of free silver. And so it goes, anything to get votes. But mark this: The only thing that will keep Cox from voting for Pritchard for U. S. Senator is not to let him go to the Legislature.

Slim Crowd.

The fusion candidates had an appointment to speak at Parker's X Roads today. The candidates were on hand but the people were not, the crowd not exceeding twenty-five. The Rev. Phillips, who goes along to make thunder for the candidates, was the only speaker, and hardly more than half the crowd gathered around to hear him. He pictured some of the beauties of "co-operation," but never pointed out any inconsistency in voting for free silver and gold bug candidates on the same ticket.

The crowd broke up as soon as Phillips finished his speech.

Fusion Reform.

The public printing for the past two years for the State proper, exclusive of the various institutions has cost the State about $10,000 more than for the same length of time under the Democratic administration. During 1893 and '94, the printing for the State departments cost nearly $27,000; for 1895 and nine months of 1896, it has cost over $35,000, and will, by the close of the year, probably reach $40,000.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A boy walked into a merchant's office the other day in search of a situation. After being put through a catechism by the merchant he was asked: "Well, my lad, what is your motto?" "Same as yours, sir," he replied, "same as you have on your door—Push." He was engaged.—Michigan Tradesman.

LOCAL SNAPS.

Has It?

E. V. Cox said in his bolting speech before the Republican county convention here that he would not run on a ticket born under such dishonorable methods as that one was. It seems that Cox is now on the ticket, and the question arises has the ticket been born again?

Do Not Run Down Your Rival.

It is not business. It will not win. If he is unworthy your patrons will find it out quicker without your aid than with it. Let him abuse you as much as he will. He hurts himself more than he does you. Recognize the fact that it is not possible for you to have the earth, and that the other fellow has equal rights with yourself. Beat him if you can by getting more business, not by abusing him. Do not let other people abuse him to you, for the same people will abuse you to him.

This early in the county canvass A. J. Moyer, candidate on the fusion ticket for the Senate, is being placed on the defensive. It has been told on him that he is in favor of the stock law and that he favors mixed schools, which charges Moyer says are not true.

MR. SEWALL ACCEPTS

Letter From Democratic Nominee for Vice-President.

BATH, ME., October 6.—The following is the letter of acceptance of Hon. Arthur Sewall, the Democratic nominee for Vice-President of the United States:

"Bath, Me., October 6, 1896. Hon. Stephen M. White, Chairman, and Members of the Notification Committee:

"Gentlemen,—I have the honor to accept in writing, as I have already verbally done, the nomination tendered by you on behalf of the Democratic party as its candidate for Vice-President of the United States.

"And in doing so, I am glad, first, to express my satisfaction that the platform of our party, which has commanded my lifelong allegiance, is honestly and fully declaratory of all its principles, and especially of the absorbing financial issue, upon which, as you say, I took my stand 'when the hours of triumph seemed remote, and arrogant money-changers throughout the world boasted that the conquest of the American masses was complete.'

"These principles have been of late in abeyance only because those whom we trusted to maintain them have failed to do so—the principles never can die. We have rescued our party from those, who, under the influence of the money power, have controlled and debased it. Our mission is to now rescue from this same power and its foreign alliances our own beloved country. This is the first and highest duty imposed by our party's platform; upon the performance of this duty all other reforms must wait. The test of party principles is the government they assure; the proof of good government is a contented and happy people, and the supreme test of both is the ability to guide the country through a crisis as well as to administer the government in ordinary times. Our people now face a crisis—a crisis more serious than any since the war. To what party shall they turn in their dire emergency? It is true that the present crisis may not involve all equally; that there are those who do not suffer now, and who may not suffer should the crisis threatened by the gold standard comes on in all its fury. Human selfishness makes these deaf to all appeals. But to these, fortunately, the Democratic party has never needed to appeal to win its battles, nor does it now, save as there are some among them who can rise superior to self in the sacrifice which such a crisis demands of every patriot.

THE MONETARY STANDARD.

"We are told that the country has prospered under the present monetary standard—that its wealth has enormously increased. Granted. But in whose hands? In the hands of the toilers, the producers, the farmers, the miners, the fabricators in the factories, the creators of the nation's wealth in peace, its defenders in war? Have they the prosperity which was theirs so late as even two years ago? I deny it. They deny it. None affirms it, save those whose interest it is to do so, whose profits would diminish as prosperity returns to those on whose distress they thrive. All is indeed right between capital and labor. The best money in the world is none too good for those who have got it, but how is it with the 90 per cent. of our people who have got it to get? How is it with those who must buy this 'best money in the world' with the products of their own labor? These are the people for whom the Democratic party would legislate. What is the best money for these is the question for all to ask who really love this land. How, also, can you increase labor's purchasing power but by increasing the price of labor's products? Is it a fair measure of value that in our great producing sections ten bushels of potatoes must be paid for a dollar, ten bushels of oats for a dollar, six bushels of corn for a dollar, three bushels of wheat, and all other products of the soil and the labor of all wage-earners at the same time.

"Does any fair-minded man say this is honest money that forces such an exchange; and if it is not a fair exchange, is it honest? Is it less than robbery?"

GOLD-STANDARD EVILS.

"This is the condition to which the single-gold standard has brought us. Under it the appreciation of the 'best money in the world' has increased the wealth of the rich, and for the same reason has increased the debt of the debtor. So, under the present standard, it must continue to be. With these object-lessons about us, little heed have we for history and statistics and the studies of scholars. Little satisfaction it is to us that they have warned us long since of the deadly evil of the gold standard. It has brought us at last to the parting of the ways.

"Whither shall the people go, in the way that has led to their enslavement or into that which offers them their only chance to gain individual liberty, lasting prosperity and happiness?"

"Let not our opponents charge us with creating class distinctions. Alas, for the Republicans, they have already been created by the Republican policy of the last thirty years; created by the very system we would now overthrow and destroy. Nor do we raise a sectional issue! None know better than I that this nomination is meant as no personal tribute, but as an assurance that our party is a non-sectional party. Not by our policy, but only by the continuance of the gold standard can sectionalism be revived.

Every Democrat who refuses to vote for the Populist electors on our State electoral ticket thereby helps to deprive Bryan of five of North Carolina's eleven votes. And every Populist who refuses to vote for the Democratic electors thereby helps to deprive Bryan of six of North Carolina's vote. How, then, can any man who really desires Bryan's election thus help to defeat him? If you wish Bryan to be elected you must give ALL your vote to him and not a part.—Pittsboro Record.

She was visiting at the house of the eminent politician. "I hear," she said, "that you have a valuable addition to your art collection." "My art collection?" he repeated. "Yes. I take it for granted that you must have one." "I have ever striven, madam, to cultivate an appreciation of the beautiful." "And wasn't it beautiful in the voters to remember you as they did?" "I don't quite follow you, ma'am," said the eminent politician, growing red in the face. "Why, I was told that they gave you a beautiful marble heart, and I am just dying to see it."—Washington.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second: with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third: being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed-rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.
