AT GRIMESLAND.

The County Candidates Met by a Large Crowd.

Saturday was the day for the Democratic candidates to speak at Grimesland. Though the weather was disagreeable a large crowd turned out to hear them, the general estimate being that nearly 500 were present.

Not all of the candidates were present, some being unavoidably kept at home, but enough were out to make some good speeches which were enthusiastically received.

The speaking was opened by G. M. Tucker, who made only a brief announcement of his candidacy for Sheriff.

He was followed by J. B. Little, one of our nominees for the Legislature, who spoke for nearly three-quarters of an hour. He dwelt at some length upon the misdoings of the last fusion Legislature, gave statistics showing the difference between the record of that body and the previous Democratic Legislature, and argued well that it is to the best interest of the people that the next Legislature should be Democratic.

C. L. Barrett also a candidate for the Legislature, followed in an excellent speech. The reference he made to Bryan and Vance were greeted with outbursts of applause. He and Mr. Little both won supporters by their speeches.

J. J. Laughinghouse, our nominee for the Senate, made the big speech of the day. He spoke about an hour and a half and was listened to very attentively. He said that the financial question is the principal issue before the people and made a forcible argument for silver. Referring to the two metals and their use together as far back as we have any record of the use of money, he said the Republicans claim that our Nation cannot maintain a parity between gold and silver, but he thoroughly exposed the falsity of such an absurd claim and showed that silver just prior to its demonetization was worth 103 cents on the dollar.

By apt illustration he showed the effect of destroying half of our money. Take any two leading commodities and destroy one of them and see what the result will be. Destroy all the hogs in the land and the price of beef would go beyond the reach of all but the extremely rich. Destroy all the corn and you will see flour selling at $25 a barrel. We work both horses and mules on our farms, destroy all of either animal and many of you would be proud to get even an old steer to plow with or ride to church behind. It is the same way with our money. Take silver out of circulation or rob it of its purchasing value and you see gold going out of the reach of every laboring man and producer. He showed that as silver has depreciated since its demonetization the price of farm products has depreciated almost at the same proportion.

Coming down to State and county politics, he said many left the Democratic party four years ago because they could not support Cleveland. But they could not complain of the State and county administration, which has been as clean and honest as any State in the Nation can show. He then took up the history of the misrule and robberies of the Republican party just after the war and as long as they were in power, and in contrast with this held up the excellent administration of the Democratic party when they overthrew the Republicans. He referred to the time when county orders in Pitt county under Republican rule were worth only 25 cents and the county burdened with debt, and Democrats raised these orders to their full value, brought the county out of debt and gave us lower taxes.

Speaking of fusion between the Republicans and Populists he said no honest man should stay with a party led by Claude Bernard and Harry Skinner, who are political traders and always looking for an opportunity to sell out.

As to his opponent, A. J. Moyer, fusion candidate for the Senate, he said he had served on the Board of Magistrates with him for many years, and whenever there was a meeting for the levying of taxes Moyer was always an advocate of higher taxes, saying he wanted the Commissioners to have enough to get along on and have a surplus left for emergencies. Moyer also says he is not in favor of stock law, when it is known that he signed a petition asking for it. At Parkers X Roads on Friday Moyer was asked by a Democrat in the presence of Fred Cox if he was going to vote for Pritchard and the gold bugs on the county ticket, to which he answered yes. A little later he took the same man aside and said he ought not to have asked him such a question in the presence of Cox, a Republican, as he had to say yes before him, but he did not intend to vote for any gold bug at all. This shows the duplicity of the man, saying before Republicans that he will vote for gold bugs and saying behind their backs that he will not.

Baltimore Wins the Temple Cup

Cleveland, Ohio, October 8.—Baltimore won the Temple cup by winning today's game from the Cleveland. The game was a fine exhibition for six innings, neither side scoring during that period. Corbett was in the box for the Orioles and was invincible. Once with a man on second and third and only one out he kept the Spiders from scoring. He struck out eight men and added to the glory of his performance by hitting safely every time he was at the bat. Cuppy pitched beautiful ball for six innings, only four hits being made off him up to the seventh. In the seventh a double, followed by a long single and three outs, resulted in two runs. Corbett singled in the eighth and Keeler and Jennings doubled and Doyle singled, three runs being scored. Commendation is due the umpires for faultless work, not a single decision being questioned. Attendance 1,200. Score: Cleveland 0, Baltimore 5.

Ask for One Thing and Vote for Another.

"The farmers of this country have an idea that they can not live under the gold standard and hold their property much longer," said a farmer of the county to us at Halifax the day the Populists held their convention and left open two places for the Republicans to fill in for the Legislature.

That farmer said further to us that he never rises after the sun and that he is industrious all the time; yet he said his financial condition is growing worse every year. "And there's something wrong," said he.

His conversation inspired us with admiration for his character as a faithful guardian of his family's interest and his manly toil for their support; and we thought him sincere in his utterances about the gold standard.

Perhaps a thousand other farmers in the country could have said what he said; but how inconsistently many of them acted! They went into convention that day and fused with the Republicans and agreed to vote for two Republicans to go to the Legislature; and who does not know that these Republicans will vote for a gold man for the United States Senate?

How can men who declare that under a few more years of gold standard system they will be forced to give up their homes, consistently vote for State legislators who will in turn vote for a gold standard man for the United States Senate? And yet that is what fusion between the Populists and Republicans in the county means.

Do let men be consistent and not ask for one thing and vote for another.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Haste Wastes Time.

A gentleman who had an impediment in his speech was dining in a restaurant, and was being served—a great favor—by the proprietor of the establishment. This man was a bustling, nervous person, with an exaggerated opinion of the value of his time.

Soup was served. The guest waited a moment, and at the first opportunity, began to say to the restaurant keeper:

"I c-c-c-an't e-e-e-ea—"

"Well, what is it, sir," asked the restaurant keeper, impatiently.

"I c-c-c-an't eat my soup—"

The man snatched up the plate of soup and was off after another, which in due time he brought; but again the guest began to murmur:

"I c-c-c-an't eat my soup—"

"Well pray," asked the restaurant keeper, "what may be the matter with this soup, that you are unable to eat it?"

"I c-c-c-can't ea-ea eat my soup, I t-t-tell you," answered the guest, "w-w-w-ithou-out a s-p-p-p-oon to eat it with!"

Then the restaurant keeper comprehended that he would have saved time and temper if he had waited for his stammering guest to finish his sentence.

The Evansville, Indiana, Courier, packs a great deal in a small space in saying: "Although nominally the national debt has been decreased since 1896, it will take more bushels of wheat, more pounds of cotton or pork, more hours of labor to pay it, if the gold policy is continued, than would have been required when it was at its maximum figure just after the close of the war. This makes the bondholders lot a happy one, but it is a hard burden upon everybody else."

Getting a Dose Of Negro in Anson.

A meeting of the Populist county executive committee was held here last Friday at which the question of accepting the candidacy for county commissioner of Rich Mammond, col., was discussed with the result that it was finally decided that his name should be placed on the Populist county ticket. It will be remembered that the Populists had agreed for the Republicans to name one of the commissioners but coupled with this agreement was the condition that the candidate so named should be a white man. The Republicans paid no attention to this condition but went ahead and nominated Hammond.

The action of the Republicans in nominating a negro for this important office was hotly resented by the Populists, and every effort was made by their leaders to force Hammond off the ticket, but all to no purpose, and the upshot of the matter was that the executive committee finally agreed that it was a dose that was necessary to be swallowed.—Wadesboro Intelligencer.

Good One on Settle.

Republican speakers are fond of talking about a 53 cent dollar. You never hear a speech without it is dwelt on at length.

It is told of Candidate Settle that he made a speech the other day, devoting the usual time to the subject.

After the speaking an old colored man hitched up his horse for him and Mr. Settle asked him how much he owed him.

"Ten cents, I reckon," said the darkey, whereupon Settle handed him a silver dollar, telling him to get it changed.

The old fellow went off and soon came back with 43 cents which he tendered to the nominee.

"How's this?" he inquired, "you charged me ten cents; I gave you a dollar and you hand me back 43 cents."

"Well, you see, boss, you said as how de silver dollah is only wuf 53 cents; if dat so you has de right change—see?"

Mr. Settle "saw," and had no more argument.—Greensboro Record.

A Typical English Joke.

A young woman stepped into the witness box at the Southwestern police court and began to tell the magistrate that she had run away from home.
Mr. Plowden (interrupting)—And you want my advice?
Applicant—If you please, sir.
Mr. Plowden—You ran away from home?
Applicant (expectantly)—Yes, sir.
Mr. Plowden (dryly)—Run back again.
Amid the laughter of the court the fugitive hurriedly left.—London Globe.
Estimating Odds.
"The saloon," said the Prohibitionist boarder, "kills more men every year than war."
"Why shouldn't it?" asked the cheerful host. "It gets better action, so to speak. In battle only 1 ball out of every 85 takes effect."

REGISTRATIONS.

People Whose Names Got on Our Book To-day.

E. A. Taft went to Tarboro today.

B. C. Pearce left this morning for a trip on the road.

Raymond Tyson left this morning for Baltimore to attend school.

Mrs. E. M. Williams and family and Mrs. Allie Joyner left this morning for Baltimore to make that city their home

J. F. Strause, who has been spending several months in this county selling books, left today for his home in Virginia.

Bear this in mind—if you have not registered and fail to do so next Saturday you cannot vote in the coming election.

Run Away Twice.

Dick Wingate and Robert Baldree, of Contentnea township, came to town today. When near Piney Grove church their horse dashed off in a run, throwing Mr. Baldree out and bruised one of his arms considerably. They gathered themselves together and came on, and just after reaching town the horse dashed off again on Dickinson avenue. This time the animal broke loose from the buggy and did a brisk piece of kicking. About the only damage was a cut on one of the horse's feet.

Changes that have just taken place in the control of the Seaboard Air Line railroad indicate that the road is to pass under the management of the Southern Railway. The REFLECTOR predicts that in less than five years the Atlantic Coast Line, and every other road of any importance in the coast States between Baltimore and Florida, will be operated under the management of the gigantic Southern system.

CASH HOUSE

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent. in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes oftener than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is specially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen at our store, come and look at them.
