The Great John Robinson and Franklin Bros., Shows Combined.

Never in the history of tented amusements has the world known so vast an enterprise as the one made by the combining of these two great institutions. It has brought the circus field into a new era, and placed circus exhibitions upon a basis that has never before even been attempted. Two separate and distinct representative circus companies, called from the best that the world affords have been joined together. Two massive menageries have been blended into one and the two magnificent parades have been so arranged that a double parade is given daily in the cities where these combined shows are to exhibit.

It requires the largest tents that have ever been constructed to accommodate this big amusement institution, and so enormous have been the crowds attending, that it has been necessary to augment the seating capacity, for it is not policy of these shows to so limit their seating capacity as to make those who desire to see and enjoy the wonderful performances procure reserved seats, and while there have been reserved opera chairs placed around the arena for the accommodation of those desiring them, fully eight tenths of the seats are free to the patrons. Their day of exhibition in Greenville is Thursday, Oct. 29, and it will surely be a gala day.

See advertisement in to-day's REFLECTOR.

Going Ahead With Energy.

The Winston Tobacco Journal contains the following of interest to Greenville people:

J. N. Gorman & Co's factory, which was gutted by fire some weeks back, has been restored and refitted, and this well-known and enterprising firm is prosecuting its business with the old time energy. A satisfactory settlement has been made with the insurance companies, all of the stock saved being disposed of at one of the Richmond sale warehouses. J. N. Gorman & Co., make a fresh start and are in position to give customers better service than ever before.

You Can't Kill Him.

A gentleman remarked to the editor that he wished somebody would kill the REFLECTOR office cat, as he was tired looking at his picture. He ought to know that a cat has two many lives to be disposed of at one killing. Our Thomas did get killed two years ago and could not smile a bit over the election, but since our Durham Bull clock stopped at 16 to 1 the cat has gone to get himself in readiness to put in some good smiling at the coming election. Just now he is exercising over those cheap goods at Hicks & Tatt's.

Advertising Car No. 2.

John Robinson and Franklin Bros', advertising car No. 2, in charge of John McKinzie, arrived here this morning and sent out a force of men putting up more advertising matter for the circus on the 29th. There are five bill posters with this car and they were given different routes over the county to do their work. To see one of these advertising cars and note the method of carrying on the work from them gives an idea of the completeness of the show you will have an opportunity of witnessing on the 29th.

Sad News.

Mrs. M. A. Jarvis received a telegram this morning from Trinidad, Col., stating that her sister, Mrs. S. S. Wallace, was dying. This will cause sadness among the many friends of Mrs. Wallace in Greenville, her old home, and elicit their sympathy for Mrs. Jarvis.

But They Won't Do It.

Here's the way they talk up north about the "scheme" the North Carolina Republicans worked by importing a lot of negroes and registering them, hoping thereby to carry the State for McKinley:

New York, Oct. 20.—Advices received at Republican National Headquarters through Chairman Babcock, of the Republican Congressional Committee, Washington say that the Republicans of North Carolina have completed a very successful scheme, which will give the State to McKinley by from 12,000 to 20,000 majority. They have succeeded in getting out a registered Republican vote which shows that majority. Last Saturday was the last registration day, and the Republicans worked their plans so quietly that they had the negro registered and their opponents did not catch to it until Friday.

General Powell Clayton today received a letter from Thomas P. Koegh, long secretary of the Republican National Committee, who is now located at Greensboro, N. C., in which the writer states he would not be surprised to see McKinley carry North Carolina by as large a majority as Grant had in 1872.

Vote for Them.

There is not a man on the Democratic county ticket who does not commend himself to popular support and the suffrages of the people. In point of integrity of character, intellectual qualifications and fitness for the discharge of the duties of the office for which they offer, all are well rounded men deserving of election.

Wise And Otherwise.

"I won't pay it?" protested the candidate. "Oh, yes you will," said the committeeman; "you know that in politics whoever is put up must come down."—Indianapolis Journal.

Bryan will Bury McKinley.

A singular circumstance is mentioned by a Portland, Oregon, paper, which relates that Wm. McKinley (a second cousin of Wm. McKinley, Republican candidate for the Presidency), who died in that city recently, was laid out for burial by Wm. J. Bryan (a second cousin of Wm. J. Bryan, the Democratic candidate for the Presidency). The indications are that Wm. J. Bryan, the latter, will probably lay out Wm. McKinley on the 3d of November, and several million Democrats will assist and see that it is properly done.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE.

An Appeal For Good Government.

The records of the census of the United States for 1890 discloses 109,346 qualified negro voters, and 233,307 qualified white voters in North Carolina; and the Auditor's office of North Carolina discloses that in 1895 there were 63,391 colored polls and 167,300 white polls listed for taxation in North Carolina. Since the census of 1890 the exodus has largely depleted the colored vote, and there is not now 100,000 qualified negro voters in North Carolina. And if there is any such negro registration claimed by Republican party officials as is notoriously circulated it will be manifestly fraudulent. Therefore, there can be no doubt of the result in the State if an honest election is held and there is no factious divisions of the friends of honest government, and these shall register and vote as there evident interest appears. And although some division of the white vote is imminent, with this great majority there should be no doubt of our power to marshal for the Democratic party sufficient votes to save the State from Republican rule and ruin.

The committee has not been insensible to the criticism of some of its friends, because of its efforts to bring together the silver votes, but they felt sure that the unselfish and patriotic impulse which guided each member of the committee and the good results which must follow its action would be finally understood and approved. Offers to the People's party for a union of voters of that party with us were not made from any distrust of the Democratic hosts or because of a want of reasonable confidence in the result; but the Democratic party felt the importance of uniting the white people of North Carolina for their common interest. It made no empty declarations for unity, but acted in accord with its purpose. The committee felt that all men who think alike should act together, and it is believed that the voters of this State, feeling the sincerity of our motives, will sustain it.

Now, however, having failed in our earnest efforts to unify the parties favoring silver supremacy, we call on all the voters of North Carolina to support the only ticket presented to them which offers a hope of success against a ticket headed by McKinley and Russell, and which, from township constable to President, offers them candidates pledged to the restoration of silver.

From all parts of the Union come assurance of approaching victory. North Carolinians rally to your standard and place your State in the long column which will sum up Democratic triumph! Let us gird up our loins for this battle; let us all work in harmony and good will; let each man think that on him depends the fortune of the day, and victory will follow the oriflame of Democracy. From this day, work! Let no private demands prevent this public duty. You who honor your native land, who love your firesides, remember this battle and its victory is yours. Remember that on your efforts depends the question whether Bryan or McKinley shall be your next President, and whether Watson or Russell shall be your next Governor.

CLEMENT MANLY, Chairman Dem. State Ex. Com.

Something new in season, Buckwheat Oat Flake and Portorico Molasses, at S. M. Schultz.

Notes From Billville.

The Australian ballot is all very well, in its way, but the motto in Billville is: "America for Americans! Give us the old, original North American ballot, $2 apiece, or three for $5."

We hear a good many campaign orators talking about "the old flag." But all use they have for it is to flag freight trains to carry them to the next speaking point.

We know of a candidate who is seventy years old, has been running all his life, and has never been elected. But he hopes to live ten years yet.

We have not been able to be on the streets during the past three weeks. The fact is, we bet three shirts and a pair of socks on Bryan's election, and the fool referee insists on holding the stakes.

We have come down from the ticket for coroner. The town is still dead, but unfortunately there's nobody to pay the fees.

Mr. Chancy Depew is only an after dinner speaker. Just fill us full and we'll talk after every meal you bring us.

If Bryan is beat by Hanna we'll roll a wheelbarrow to Washington and scale fish for Grover Cleveland the balance of our days.—F. L. S., in Atlanta Constitution.

Pay 50 Cents to See an Oyster Wade Through the Soup.

The summer tresses of the trees are dying: the distant hills are bathed in purple haze: the frightened quail whirs o'er russet field; the prickly chestnut burr is disclosing its sunbrowned treasures; the sentimental maiden, with merry thread, hies away to the forest and gathers the poetic autumn leaf; the rustling maize is shocked in sheaves, and the yellow pumpkins shimmer in the golden sunlight; frost's fairy fingers weave a lack live mantel o'er dying bush and flower—all foretelling of the joyous season near at hand, when a young man can take his best girl to a church fair and pay fifty cents to see an oyster wade through two plates of soup.—Exchange.

Look out for Him.

We are informed that one of the photo-enlarger men has been making a canvass of the city, and perpetrating a neat little swindle, "on the side." If the person he is bargaining with is an old lady, he will let a pair of handsome gold spectacles accidentally drop from his pocket, and in picking them up, carelessly remark that he found them in a Pullman sleeper and would like to sell them for a dollar or two. In a number of cases the old ladies have eagerly bought them, only to find out later that the spectacles are worthless.—Fayetteville Observer.

Chairman Holton is authority for the statement that 120,000 negroes have already registered in North Carolina. He knows if there are that many negroes' names on the registration books they are not there honestly. But what do Holton and Russell care about honesty? If the Democrats let them alone they would simply run special trains from South Carolina into this State on election day, and vote the negroes by the car-load. But if they think the honest, decent white men of North Carolina are going to stand this colonizing of negro voters they are fooling themselves. There are more blow holes of dishonesty in the new election law than any other the the State has seen.—Charlotte News.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater.

With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented.

In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent in fuel over any stove in use.

Second, with two or three ordinary sticks of pine stove wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes often or clean out a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for parlors, is especially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.
