CHRISTMAS.

Feathery flakes are falling, falling,
From the skies in softest way;
And between our voices calling:
"Soon it will be Christmas Day!"
Don't you know how in springtime
Wintry snows are scattered wide
Ere the lovely purple blossoms
Dare peep from where they hide?
Soon the trees as fair as any
That elves have wreathed with snow,
Will be planted—O! so many!
In our better homes. And lo!
Something better far than snowflakes
Shall be hung about their green,
Candies, toys and fairytapers
Lighting up the merry scene.
And the children dancing, dancing,
Till all tired their little feet.
Shall, with half shut eyes up glancing,
Wonder: "Why is life so sweet?"
And some tender voice shall whisper—
Flake-like falling from above:
"Christmas is so sweet, my darling,
Just because its king is Love!"
— Selected.

MARRIED.

HOOKER—MAY—Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Farmville, Mr. T. E. Hooker, of Greenville and Miss Ione May, of Farmville were joined in matrimony by Dr. H. D. Harper, of Kinston.

The attendants were Miss Hortense Forbes with J. W. Wiggins, Miss Rosalind Rountree with C. M. Jones, Miss Pattie May with Dr. E. A. Moye, Miss Ellen Parker with Johnnie Smith, Miss Rosa Hooker with W. J. Corbett.

The ushers were Joe Starkey and Tom Dixon. J. C. Wooten was best man and the bride was given away by R. L. Davis.

Miss Annie Joyner played the wedding march and Miss Swan sang a solo. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left Greenville, and an elegant wedding supper was served at night at the King House.

The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents.

Mr. Hooker is one of the proprietors of the Star Warehouse, and among our most popular young men. His bride is a highly cultured young lady possessing wide popularity in social circles.

The REFLECTOR joins their host of friends in extending best wishes.

LATHAM—BURGESS—Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Christian church, at Washington, Mr. J. B. Latham, of Greenville and Miss Mary C. Burgess, of Washington, were married by Rev. M. Pittman.

They were attended by Ernest Forbes, of Greenville with Miss Betie Burgess, sister of the bride. The ushers were John Oden, Walter Stille, Jesse Whitley and J. R. Rucker.

The bride and groom reached Greenville on the evening train. The REFLECTOR extends best wishes and bids the bride thrice welcome to Greenville.

They Were Beauties.

Eager purchasers cleaned the Reflector Book Store entirely out of those beautiful pearl handle gold pens for ladies, nearly two days before Christmas got here. The pens were so cheap and proved so popular that we have decided to carry them in stock. Another lot has been ordered.

No Paper For Two Days.

As the printers want a little vacation, and we need a little time to work on our books, you need not look for THE DAILY REFLECTOR again until Tuesday. It may come out on Monday, but we do not promise it for certain before Tuesday. We wish every reader a merry Christmas.

OTHER LOCALS.

An abundance of nice Christmas confections at D. S. Smith's.

FOR RENT—Five room dwelling. Apply to ZENO MOORE.

Let Morris Meyer fill your order for Xmas confections. Everything at bottom prices.

If you want bargains in fruits, confections and cigars for Christmas go to J. W. Brown.

Go to D. S. Smith if you want your money to go a long ways in buying Xmas fruits and confections.

At Starkey's you can find piles and piles of nice groceries, fruits and confections for Christmas.

For Maliga grapes, California pears, Florida oranges, apples, nuts, dates, figs &c., go to Morris Meyer.

The little ones have their stockings ready for tonight and we hope Santa Claus will be very good to all of them.

4,509,975 POUNDS.

Sold on the Greenville Market to Date.

The Greenville tobacco market has closed for the holidays. The season has been marked with great success, the sales up to this time reaching 4,509,975 pounds. This is an increase of nearly one million pounds over last year. With probably from 8 to 12½ per cent more tobacco than last year now in the hands of farmers tributary to this market, it is not an overestimate to say that the market will sell this year between 6,000,000 and 6,500,000 pounds. This is a fine showing.

The market will reopen on Monday January, 4th. The REFLECTOR wishes all the warehousemen, buyers, and others connected with the market a merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

FIRE NEAR GRIMESLAND.

The Handsome Residence of Mr J. J. Laughinghouse Destroyed.

Information reached town today that the dwelling house of Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, near Grimesland, was destroyed by fire early Wednesday night. The fire occurred about 7 o'clock, the building catching on the roof by sparks from the chimney. When discovered the flames had made such headway that they could not be checked. The light from the fire was seen here.

The building and most of the furniture were destroyed. There was some insurance on both but we could not learn how much or the amount of the loss.

Mr Laughinghouse had one of the best houses in the county and this loss is indeed a severe calamity to him. Every one will truly sympathize with him, and feel much sorrow over his misfortune.

Notice.

We would respectfully state that a great deal of unnecessary comment has been caused by the retirement of one of the members of our firm. This action has been in contemplation for some time past, and the original partnership agreement entered into by our firm having expired we decided not to renew the same. Our present firm remains the same as formerly with this exception and our business will continue as usual. All contracts entrusted to our care will be filled upon the various exchanges as formerly. Very respectfully,

E. B. CUTHBERT & Co.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1896.

Tomorrow is Christmas. A few more hours and the most joyous day of the year will be ushered in. Already foretastes of the pleasures it brings are being experienced. Hearts are merry, voices merry, and happiness lights the eye as people hurry to and fro.

How happy are the long absent ones, and those from whom they have been separated, when they can return and all gather once more around the family fireside in happy reunion. There is no more beautiful thought of Christ mas than this to the wanderer—"going home." What a foreshadowing it is, too, of that glad reunion with departed ones around the throne of Him whose birth we celebrate this day.

There are so many associations and memories surrounding the blessed day that all can be glad at its coming. While time shall last its annual recurrence will be hailed with delight for the joys that it brings.

The REFLECTOR wishes that this may be indeed a happy Christmas to all—old and young, rich and poor—that their cup may overflow with happiness. But we trust none will keep their joy all to themselves. Impart it to others. Make some one around you glad. Keep this thought in view, that the great mission of the Christ was doing good to others, and he taught us "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

The subject has sometimes been discussed as to whether or not this is a christian nation. Of course it is so considered, but when we read from the words of the Wise Man: "When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule the people mourn," and listen at the wail of distress that is coming up from so many parts of the country, it would seem that in many places the wicked are in authority. Of the seventy millions of people in this country more than twenty-two millions are members of some one of the Christian denominations, and it is estimated that as many as fifty-four millions are nominally christian, being under the direct influence of the denomination.

But it is with this question as with all others with which we have to do. Seemingly to be and being are quite different things. Many of the men who bear rule in this nation today are better than they are supposed by their political enemies; but far too many are men of open and blatant wickedness, such as ought to turn them down from places of position and trust.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

IF YOU'RE GOOD.

Santa Claus'll come tonight,
 If you're good,
 And do what you know is right,
 As you should;
 Down the chimney he will creep,
 Bringing you a woolly sheep,
 And a poll that goes to sleep;—
 If you're good.

Santa Claus will drive his sleigh
 Thro' the wood,
 But he'll come around this way
 If you're good.
 With a wind-up bird that sings,
 And a puzzle made of rings—
 Jumping-jacks and funny things—
 If you're good.

He will bring you cats that "go,"
 If you're good,
 And a rocking-horse—oh!
 If he would!
 And a dolly, if you please,
 That says "Mama" when you squeeze
 It—he'll bring you one of these,
 If you're good.

Santa grieves when you are bad
 As he should;
 But it makes him very glad
 When you're good.
 He is wise; and he's a dear;
 Just do right and never fear;
 He'll remember you each year,
 If you're good.

—James Courtney Challiss.

Covered Under Snow.

During the big snow storm which occurred the first week in this month, the snowfall at Grifton, N. C., is said to have been ten inches. A rather singular accident happened at Grifton during this snow storm, which was remarkable for this section of country.

Messrs. Spier and Tingle, of that place, wishing to have a private talk, took their stand under a shed, and they had hardly done so when the roof, under the weight of snow, caved in, burying the two men beneath it.

By chance the leg of one protruded from under the pile, which led to the uncovering of both, who were found insensible. Spier recovered very soon without special injury, while Tingle has been only able to get about since by the aid of crutches.—Newbern Journal.

COALS OF FIRE FROM KANSAS.

A movement is on foot here to send a train load of provisions to the poor of New York and Chicago. This is to retaliate on the newspapers of those cities that have decried Kansas securities and credit because the State cast its vote for the Populist party. Leading Populists and Republicans say this would be just treatment for the abuse and ridicule heaped upon Kansas by Eastern newspapers.—Topeka Dispatch.

A man out in Chicago committed suicide a few days ago because his life was a failure. If every man who has made a failure in life should do likewise, the world would soon be very nearly depopulated. There is no one who has attained perfect success. It is no sign that a person hasn't accomplished anything because he failed to reach the point he aimed at.

An Impossibility.

It is related in the Washington Star that on one occasion Senator Edmunds was standing with a visiting English statesman on the high steps at the west side of the capitol looking down Pennsylvania avenue toward the treasury department. The stranger had seen much to interest and amuse him in Washington.

"You have a wonderful people here, Mr. Senator. Nothing can be impossible with such go ahead inhabitants."

"Oh, yes," said the senator, "some things are impossible here. It is impossible to march a brass band down that avenue and have a crowd of colored people go in the opposite direction at the same time."

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by
 P. P. P., Lippman's
 Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE
 NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in his worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvellous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realising that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS.
 Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night. I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally.
 Yours respectfully,
 A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.
 A. M. RAMSEY.
 Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.
 J. M. LAMBERT, N. P.,
 Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed. Rheumatism twists and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedy relief and a permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P. Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman. Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P. P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling. For Blotches and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P. Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.
