AMONG THE CLERKS.

Most of them Continue at the Same Places—A Few Changes.

The REFLECTOR reporter made a round among the merchants to see what changes had taken place among clerks for the new year. There are not many changes and with few exceptions the personnel at the stores remains the same as last year.

Wyatt Barber remains with D. W. Hardee.

M. L. Starkey and T. R. Moore continue with S. T. White.

T. F. Christman takes a position with W. H. White. His former clerk J. B. White, will soon go in business for himself.

James Long and D. S. Smith have no extra clerks.

No changes take place at Mrs. Griffin's millinery store or at "Uncle Jack's" jewelry store.

K. R. Tunstall continues with J. S. Tunstall.

Miss Bessie Jarvis continues with Mrs. Higgs.

Miss Lucy Cox and Bob continue at their father's store, or in other words Bob says the "old man" continues with them.

No changes take place with J. B. Cherry & Co., J. A. Ricks, C. M. Jones and W. T. Lee all continuing with the firm.

J. S. Congleton and J. White continue regularly with J. C. Cobb & Son. Charley Briley continues with the firm for a few weeks longer.

No changes take place with S. E. Pender & Co.

A. B. Hart continues with Baker & Hart.

No change in the force at the Greenville Bank.

S. M. Daniel, A. B. Ellington, D. D. Haskett and J. W. Brown have no extra help at present.

No change at J. G. Rawls' jewelry store.

Ed Matthews continues with W. C. Hines.

W. Owens and Ed Smith continue with M. Owers.

John Horne and J. M. Reuss continue with Ed H. Shelburn & Co.

J. I. Smith continues with his father, J. S. Smith.

Mrs. M. M. Nelson, Mrs. T. B. Cherry and J. S. Ross continue at Lang's. Of course Mrs. Lang is also indispensable about the store.

Charlie Wilkinson continues with H. M. Hardee. V. I. Lee also takes a position there in place of Ed Patrick, resigned.

Brown & Hooker now have no additional clerk, the time of W. J. Hemby expiring with the close of the year.

Louis Meyer continues with his brother, Morris.

J. H. Starkey continues with J. L. Starkey & Bro.

J. L. Hearne and R. B. Whitehead continue with H. B. Clark.

P. H. Crawford continues with J. L. Wooten.

At Ricks & Taff's the force remains the same with the exception of V. J. Lee.

With the exception of W. B. James, whose term expired at the close of the year, there is no change at Frank Wilson's.

Bo. Cherry, Zeb Johnson and Jarvis Sugg continue with C. T. Munford.

The Bank of Greenville force continues as before.

R. A. Tyson takes the place of Zeno Moore with Alfred Forbes, Mr. Moore resigning because of poor health. J. E. Starkey and C. S. Forbes continue there.

J. B. Randolph continues with S. M. Schultz.

Dr. Mc. Earnl continues to manage his drug store and "paradise" without the aid of a clerk.

W. T. Fleming continues with J. A. Andrews.

S. A. Congleton has resigned at H. C. Hooker & Co's, and the firm takes no one in his place at present. Simon goes back to his home in the country to try farming.

H. A. Sutton continues with the New York store for the present.

Billie Burch says he and his shirt don't believe in changing, especially in cold weather, and you can find him at his usual place in the REFLECTOR office, except when he goes home to eat.

Some changes may have been overlooked in making up the list, if so it will be cheerfully mentioned if our attention is called to it.

The REFLECTOR extends happy new year greetings to all the business men and clerks and wishes they may have a prosperous year all through.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Train wreckers got in some of their dastardly work near Raleigh on Wednesday morning. About two miles from the city they misplaced a rail on the track of the Seaboard Air Line with the intention of wrecking the vestibule train from Atlanta when it should come along. From some cause this train, which had on a large number of passengers, was more than an hour late, and a freight train was permitted to run on the schedule of the vestibule. When the freight reached the place where the wreckers had moved the rail the engine struck it and plunged over an embankment into a cut, ten loaded cars piling over on top of it. The engine and cars were completely demolished. The engineer was badly hurt and the fireman, a colored man, was killed. Had it been the vestibule train to come along the result would have been appalling. It seems that the hand of Providence was shown to save the lives of those whom the wreckers had planned to kill.

MACEO STILL ALIVE.

Cubans Say There is no Doubt of This Fact—Details of His Wounding—Zertucha's Treachery.

Havana, December 30., via Key West, Fla., December 30.—"Maceo is alive" is the Cubans joyful cry. The first rumors, accepted with incredulity, are now gaining ground. Information is coming into the city daily, giving precise details. It is said that when he fell from his horse, his followers thought him dead, but found that he was still living and spread the news that he was dead in order to carry him to a place of safety. Under a strong escort they carried him to the Sigüenza hospital where under skilful treatment of doctors the chief is now slowly recuperating. The acute period has now passed. It seems that only one wound is dangerous, that being in the stomach. Fortunately the bullet did not touch the intestines. The other wounds are in the jaw and back, and are only slight. No bones were fractured.

Zertucha's treachery is being confirmed daily. It is said that Maceo's first words, when he was able to speak, was to order Zertucha's capture, but he had already fled to the Spanish lines. Zertucha wrote the paper found on Gomez's body. Gomez was killed by a bayonet thrust and did not stab himself, as the Spanish say.

We overlooked yesterday calling attention to the "History of a Year," the first installment of which appeared in that issue. The article will be continued through a few days. Keep up with it if you wish to be reminded of what occurred during the past year.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1897.

THE STATE BOARD OF CHARITIES.

The State Board of Charities has received the annual report of Secretary Denson. This exhibits the details of the improvements and additions to State institutions during the year. It shows the doubling of the capacity of the insane asylums since 1889. There were 96 cures at Raleigh and 60 per cent. of cures upon the number admitted; 85 recoveries at Morganton and 51 per cent. of cures upon the number admitted. At Goldsboro there were 82 cures and the percentage of recovery was about 35 upon the number admitted. The death rate was about 3 per cent. at Morganton, 9 per cent. at Raleigh and over at Goldsboro. Of the homes in the counties 57 were reported as good, 8 bad and the remainder as indifferent. Eight counties are without homes. Of the jails 56 are good, 13 bad and the remainder indifferent. The new school for the deaf and dumb at Morganton accommodates 185. In the institution at Raleigh, both departments, there are 275, Oxford Orphan Asylum 210, colored asylum 100, State Penitentiary 1,127, of which there are in Raleigh 150—the others are in convict camps. The report included full discussions of the important social questions, such as a State reform school, care of the insane not inmates of asylums, increase of crime in the State and reasons therefor, and recommends legislation in various details connected with the system of charities. It also includes a statement from the Treasurers of all the Southern States giving the amounts appropriated for Confederate veteran pensions and soldiers' homes, which shows that North Carolina maintains her home at 50 per cent. less cost than any other. Many letters and reports have been collected and filed for the use of the legislative committees interested in these subjects, and the entire report is the most comprehensive summary of these matters ever issued in North Carolina.

There seems to have been less public drunkenness, and consequently less disaster, in North Carolina during the recent holidays, than is generally recorded as a part of the Christmas history, but it does not follow that there was less enjoyment of the season. The fact is that with increasing enlightenment our people are learning that drunkenness is not the correct thing. It is no longer in "good form" as it once was. Not only so, public opinion is not as tolerant of it as it once was. The young man who gets drunk these days goes out with a mark on him; employers do not want him; he is handicapped in the start of the race of life. Society is regulating this matter for itself much more effectively than it once did, and while it is not to be hoped that drinking, or even drunkenness, will soon cease, there is much reason for the belief that both evils are undergoing the process of abatement.—Statesville Landmark.

Some Startling Figures.

Senator Allen, of Nebraska, introduced a resolution in the senate which, if carried, is likely to open to the public gaze some startling facts with reference to the late election. The resolution calls for nine senators, to be elected by the senate, as a committee to investigate into the use of money in presidential elections.

Upon the reading of the resolution, Senator Allen sent to the clerk's desk an extract from an agricultural paper of some statistics as to the vote for president in the pivotal states. The paper goes on to state as follows:

"Cleveland carried California in 1892 by 147, and Bryan received 24,000 more votes than Cleveland received—yet McKinley carried California. Cleveland carried Illinois in 1892 by 26,993, and Bryan received 47,000 more votes than was received by Cleveland—yet McKinley carried Illinois. Cleveland carried Indiana in 1892 by 7,125, and Bryan received 47,000 more votes than Cleveland received—yet McKinley carried Indiana. Cleveland carried Kentucky in 1892 by 40,020, and Bryan received 42,336 more votes than Cleveland—yet McKinley carried Kentucky. Harrison carried Iowa in 1892 by 23,729, and Bryan received 4,541 more votes than Harrison—yet McKinley carried Iowa. Harrison carried Michigan in 1892 by 20,412 and Bryan received 4,000 more votes than Harrison—yet McKinley carried Michigan. Harrison carried Minnesota in 1892 by 21,903, and Bryan received 16,714 more votes than Harrison—yet McKinley carried Minnesota. The vote of Illinois was nearly 250,000 in excess of the vote of 1892; that of Kentucky 200,000. From whence have these states gained so largely in population during four years?"

Lew Wallace's Suggestion.

Even the freight department of a railroad has its humorous incidents. The Chicago Times-Herald narrates the one:

When Gen. Lew Wallace was serving as territorial governor of New Mexico a few years ago, he shipped home to Indiana a carload of curios for his friends. The collection for the most part consisted of boxes of minerals, furs, Indian blankets and beadwork, and with them was included a diminutive Mexican burro or donkey intended for a neighbor's child as a pet.

When the car reached its destination the freight agent in checking up the contents of the car misunderstood the word "burro," and thinking that it was the phonetic attempt of some illiterate railroader to spell "bureau," was unable to find any piece of furniture to fit the bill of lading. On the other hand, he found in the car a long-eared donkey not included in the bill.

According to custom, whenever irregularities are discovered, he promptly telegraphed back to the shipping point:

"Car No. 37,390, Albuquerque, consigned Wallace, arrived, minus one bureau, plus one jackass. Please trace and notify."

General Wallace himself dictated the answer: "Change places with the jackass."

What Happy New Year Means.

A happy New Year! What does it mean? Are not these words often thrown out as a greeting without thought or depth of meaning? Is it a year in which to ourselves come wealth and health, prosperity and friendship; one spent in the pursuit of fleeting pleasure and filled with self-centered interest? No! Rather let the wish be to each and all, as the new year dawns with all its opportunities, that the day of 1897 may be well spent—filled with thought and sympathy for those around that in self-forgetting and kindly deeds the happiness of others may be ever sought, and then most truly will each not rebound again in joy and blessing to the heart from which it springs.

Too Big to Advertise.

When a concern is in the heyday of its prosperity, when business is good and competition is not felt, it is no unusual thing for the advertising solicitor to be informed that the concern is so well known and its business already so extensive that advertising is a useless expenditure of money. We have known a number to argue in this way. In almost every instance where this has happened we have seen younger competitors, by judicious advertising and push, pass them in the race for business. Then these concerns that were too well known to advertise would awaken to the situation and their advertisements would again appear; but while they were sleeping their wide-awake competitors must necessarily have made inroads into their business, which, with fair treatment and business like methods, they will hold. Let the largest house in any line stop advertising, and note in what incredibly short space of time a larger business will be built up by somebody who works while they sleep. Are you sleeping?—The Wheel.

The Penitentiary Pays Its Way and Makes $40,000.

The directors of the penitentiary will meet again January 5 to receive the report of Superintendent Leazar. The fiscal year of the penitentiary does not end till December 31. The fiscal year of all the other institutions ends November 30.

Superintendent Leazar will make a better showing this year than ever before. Notwithstanding a loss of $60,000 by reason of freshets last spring on the State farms he will have on hand after paying all the running expenses of the institution $40,000 of created surplus, without having touched a dollar of the $25,000 appropriation per year made by the last General Assembly. This appropriation was to cover running expenses, but it will revert back to the treasury.—Raleigh News & Observer.

Don't Scold.

Never permit yourself, in advertising, to give way to the very natural inclination to compare your goods to those of your competitors. You may have a better stock, and your store and your business methods may be better, but don't talk it in your ads. It looks as if you were jealous, or were losing ground, or something of that sort. The best way is to go ahead and tell all about your goods, just as if you weren't aware of the fact that there was a competing store.—Brains.

The REFLECTOR wishes that this may be a prosperous and happy New Year for every one.

January term of Pitt Superior Court will begin next Monday with Judge Robinson presiding.

On Thursday while at work in the woods near his home, W. R. Whichard, Jr., lost a pocket book containing $36.

We have now launched upon the new year. Let the watchword with every one be upward and onward for Greenville this year.

Who says factories for Greenville this year? Put in some early talking and acting along that line and we believe some can be secured before the year has grown old.

Some folks are saying the dense fog of the last night or two is the forerunner of cold weather. If the cold is to be as intense as the fog there will be heavy drains on wood piles.

Calendars And Coupons.

So many beautiful calendars and entertaining novelties have been issued by the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that we are hardly surprised to receive this season not only one of the very prettiest designs in calendars, but with it coupons which entitle the recipient to attractive novelties. Every one who gets a Hood's Sarsaparilla calendar for 1897 secures something that will prove interest and valuable as well as a beautiful specimen of the lithographer's art. The calendar is accompanied this season by an amusing little book on "The Weather." Ask your druggist for Hood's Coupon Calendar, or send 6 cents in stamps for one to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
