THE LEGISLATURE.

Condensed Report of Proceedings.

THIRTY-THIRD DAY.

SENATE.

The Senate meet at 11 o'clock, the calendar was taken up and bills passed as follows:

To authorize Richmond county to issue bonds to pay outstanding debts.

To incorporate the Winston-Salem Southbound railroad.

The bill to prohibit the use of free passes by public officers was taken up.

Moye favored the passage of the bill because if any person rode on a free pass the railroad certainly expected something in return and he did not think any honest public officer would ride on a free pass because it would place him under obligation to the railroad.

Anderson opposed the bill. Smathers moved that the matter be made a special order for February 27th.

Clark demanded the roll call, which was ordered—carried, ayes 21, noes 19.

Ray offered a resolution that a committee of three be appointed by the president to investigate the free pass matter and ascertain if it will be to the interest of the railroads to pass such a bill or not—adopted.

By leave, Shore introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Association of North Carolina so as to give it the same privileges and immunities already granted Odd Fellows, Masons, Knights of Pythias and other benevolent associations.

NIGHT SESSION.

The senate met at 8 o'clock. The calendar was taken up.

The bill was tabled to prohibit certain games (providing that no person or persons shall pay or engage in any inter-collegiate or other foot ball game in which such violence is used or required from the nature of the game as to endanger life, limb or health.)

Other bills passed were: To reduce the present rate of pilotage for Cape Fear bar and river 25 per cent.

To require registration of name of partners, providing that firms having silent partners shall let their names be known.)

To allow Weldon to issue bonds to build a bridge over the Roanoke river in Northampton and Halifax counties.

To incorporate Tillery. To define the duties of local boards of colored normal schools.

To stimulate local taxation in rural districts.

By leave Hyatt introduced a bill to provide for woman's suffrage in North Carolina.

HOUSE.

At the morning session the following bills and resolutions were introduced:

By Morton, to extend the stock law fence in Richmond county.

By McBryde, to provide that in all cases of marriage of women under 21 years of age the marriage shall have the same force and effect in law as if the woman so marrying were 21 years old.

By Drew, to allow Brunswick county to levy a special tax and to allow its commissioners to settle with A. G. Durant, late treasurer; also to permit Dr. John B. Haight to practice medicine in Brunswick county.

By Aiken, to reduce the tonnage tax on fertilizers to 20 cents per ton.

By ward, to reduce the salaries and fees of all public officers save those fixed by law 25 per cent.

Person, to create a commission composed of Governor Russell, Julian S Carr and W. A. Hoke, to procure a suitable design with all necessary specifications for a monument in Raleigh upon the site chosen in memory of Z. B. Vance that proposals shall be advertised for; that the commission may cooperate with the Vance Monument Association; that a report be made to the next legislature; that $1,000 be appropriated for necessary expenses.

The special order was taken up, being the election contest of Field vs. Crews from Granville. Majority and minority reports were submitted by the committee, the minority report, signed by two democrats, being in Field's favor. The minority report was voted on first and lost—ayes, 31; noes, 63. The majority report was then adopted. The bill passed to protect fish in Neuse river.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The calendar was taken up and the following bills passed.

To repeal the charter of the Goldsboro and Morehead Railway Company.

To so amend the code as to allow children of certain ex-slaves to inherit and become distributees of their estates (this act to apply to estates of such children as are now deceased or otherwise.)

Must Have It.

We want the news. If you hear of any come and tell us, or phone us, or write us, or whisper it so we can get hold of it. The news is what we want and news is what we are going to have, it we have to make it.

In Mourning.

Some wag tied black cloth around the post of the front porch and a piece also around the railing of a house nearing completion in this city. It had put the house in mourning. We can't imagine what it meant unless there would be occupants of that house soon and the house was mourning for joy.

A Birthday Tea.

The ladies of the Aid Society of the Disciple church will give a "Birthday Tea" at the residence of Mrs. R. W. King, on Friday evening, Feb. 19th, from 7:30 till 11 o'clock. A birthday tea consists of depositing one penny for each year old you are. Now let every body go and spend a very pleasant evening and it won't cost you much, for, of course, we are all young.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1897.

The Preacher Hedges.

I am told a story of an itinerant Georgia preacher, who had one horse and a large family, was so confident of Bryan's election that he said to one of the members of his congregation:

"I don't bet, an' I ain't agoin' ter bet; but if anybody would jest make believe that they wagered a hoss agin that air creetur o' mine that Bryan won't be elected, an' then keep their counsel erbout it, it would be all 'right with me, an' I'd jest consider—between me an' him—that my hoss is stakes again his'n."

"All right, brother," said the member, "we'll jest look at it in that light, an' if McKinley is elected I'll have two horses an' you none."

"It was a go," but the following Sunday the congregation was amazed to see the preacher tramping to town, where he arrived wayworn and mud-bespattered, and mounting the platform straightway began preaching against the evils of betting.

"Yes," he cried, "there are men in this here congregation so lost ter right an' jestice that they would bet again the one hoss of a poor man, take it from him and make him walk ter glory for the balance of his days! If such a man is in the hearin' o' my voice today, let him tremble! He can't take that election hoss ter heaven with him. If he could ride it plum in the pearly gates the Angel Gabriel would holler 'Whoa!' a'while the tremblin' wretch dismounted he would bear these words like the knell o' doom, 'Whar did you git that hoss?'"

After the sermon and the benediction some one took the parson by the arm and led him out in the grove, and handed him a bridle (and there was a horse connected with it) and said:

"Here's yer darned old hoss! Pray fer me on yer way home.—Dalton Argus.

Sued Himself.

A Washington attorney is rather noted for the facility with which he forgets financial obligations, says the Star. He has owed a certain grocer $8 for a year or two. The other day the merchant concluded to try a new course with him. Meeting him in his store, he said:

Judge, I have a customer who owes me a small bill and he has owed it for a long time. He makes plenty of money, but won't pay. What would you do?"

"I'd sue him," said the lawyer emphatically.

"Well, I will put the account in your hands," and the merchant presented a statement of the account against himself.

"All right, I will attend to it," said the disciple of Blackstone.

A few days later the merchant received the following note from the lawyer.

"In case of _____, against _____, I took judgment for full amount of your claim. Execution was issued and returned 'no property found.' My fee for obtaining judgment is $10, for which amount please send check. Will be glad to serve you in any other matters in which you need an attorney.

Mental Geography.

The largest river is Time.
 The deepest ocean is Death.
 The region where no living thing hath habitation is called Yesterday.

The most highly civilized country is Today.

The highest mountain is called Success. Few reach the top save those who watch sharply for the passing of the spirit of the mountain Opportunity, who carries upward all those that seize hold upon him. The region where no man hath ever set foot is called Tomorrow.

The greatest desert is called Life, and it hath many oases. These are called Hope, and Ambition, and Love, and Charity, and Home. And of them all the last is the most beautiful. Besides these are many others smaller in extent, whence the traveler obtaineth refreshment during the weary journey through life.

It Proved a Serious Joke.

Allan Bolling, colored, met his death as the penalty of a practical joke at the house of Edmund Scott, also colored, who lives near Charlottesville, Va. Bolling dressed up in the garb which he thought an accurate description of the devil smutted his face and called at Scott's cabin. In response to his knock Scott asked who was at the door. Bolling assured him that he was the devil and that he had come for Scott. He demanded entrance, which Scott refused at first, but arming himself, Scott finally opened the door. As he did so Bolling, seeing the shot gun in his hand, attempted to make his escape. Scott fired, killing him almost instantly. A coroner's jury investigated the causes leading to the tragedy and returned a verdict to the effect that the shooting was justifiable, inasmuch as Bolling went to Scott's cabin in disguise. Scott was discharged from custody.

Baptists, See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good first-class line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball house, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

Seven mules were sold in Shelby by one day last week for $8. They could have made more money than that if they had canned them and sold them for beef.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

When bilious or constive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure constipation.

$8.00 For $5.75.

We will send the THE DAILY REFLECTOR, the Cosmopolitan Magazine and Leslie's Illustrated Weekly a whole year for $5.75. Did you ever hear of a better offer? The regular price of the three publications is $8.00. Better get them while you can—this offer may be withdrawn.

This Year's "Mardi Gras."

At New Orleans will be grander than ever. Don't miss it. The Seaboard Air Line will make a rate of one fare for the round trip (half rate) and give you choice of their swell trains, "The Atlanta Special" or the "S. A. L. Express." By the change in the schedule effective February 7, 1897, this line now makes close connections at Atlanta for Mobile and New Orleans, offering by far the best and most convenient service from any point in the Atlantic States to the great carnival. Apply to agencies of the Seaboard Air Line, and take no other route.

"FROM FROST TO FLOWERS."

California or Mexico?

Both are such desirable objective points for a Winter trip that it's perhaps hard for you to decide where to go.

Let us Help You to a Decision.

A trip via New Orleans and the Southern Pacific to either Mexico or the Pacific Coast is one you will never forget.

It's a Transition from Frost to Flowers.

And the service is so luxurious that people who have tested "Sunset Limited" call it incomparable.

If you are Thinking of Going, Write Us.

We have a book entitled "Through Scandinavia to Sunset Seas," a handsome volume of 205 pages, fully illustrated, which we will send on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to cover postage. We also have a delightful little guide to Mexico, which we will send on receipt of 4 cents to cover cost of mailing.

You Really Ought to Read them Both.

Shall we put you down for a copy? If so, or if you want any special information, it will be cheerfully furnished by addressing,

"If only one magazine can be taken, we would suggest the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as covering more ground than any other magazine."—Board of Library Commissioners of New Hampshire, 1896.

THIS magazine is, in its contributed and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable." It is profusely illustrated with timely portraits, views, and cartoons. Its original articles are of immediate interest, by the best authorities on their respective subjects. The Editor's "Progress of the World" gives a clear, rightly proportioned view of the history of the human race during the current month. The "Leading Articles of the Month" present the important parts of the best magazine articles that have been written in every part of the world. The newest and most important books are carefully reviewed. Indexes, chronological records, and other departments complete the certainty that the reader of the Review of Reviews will miss nothing of great significance that is said or written or done throughout the world.

Sunday was a beautiful spring day and everybody enjoyed it.

Kinston will have a masquerade skating carnival on next Wednesday night.

New veiling just received and am going to give you bargains.

MRS. GEORGIA JAMES.

Found Guilty.

Lee, the man that murdered a man named Willis in Edgecombe some time ago was found guilty of murder in the first degree on Saturday, in Tarboro.

Back Hurt.

We learn that Mr. Young, a painter working on Mr. S. T. Hookers house on Greere street, fell Saturday evening and hurt his back.

The Glass Blowers.

The Lieby Glass Blowers closed their engagement here Saturday night. They had pretty fair houses while they staid here and it was enjoyed by our citizens. They offered a handsome present to be given away on Saturday, and Mr. T. H. Batemen was the successful one. It was a large globe with figures of a ship and lighthouse in it. We can recommend these people and their entertainment is of the best.
