THE LEGISLATURE.

Condensed Report of Proceedings.

FORTY-NINTH DAY.

SENATE.

The senate met at 10 o'clock. Lient, Governor Reynolds presiding.

The following bills were passed:

To improve the public roads of Anson county.

To amend the charter of the town of Lilesville, in Anson county.

To drain Carter's creek, in Davie county.

To establish a graded school in the district to be known as Chapel Hill district.

To authorize the school commissioners of Raleigh township to issue school bonds.

To establish the graded school of Hayesville, in Clay county.

To allow Iredell county to levy a special tax.

To prohibit sale of obscene and immoral books.

To require all bankers and stockholders of same and officers, stockholders, directors and officers of railroads and other corporations, to take an oath.

To prohibit taking claims in the waters of Columbus county.

HOUSE.

The house met at 9 o'clock and the calender was taken up and the following bills passed:

To allow special township school taxes in Person county and in Tyrrell county.

To incorporate the Snow Hill railroad.

To incorporate the Chatham, Moore, and Harnett bank at Sanford.

To create Beaver Dam township, Washington county.

To protect deer and wild turkeys in Moore county.

To give children in Yadkin county the right to cross lands on their way to school.

The bill passed providing for working by taxation the roads of Wilson, Wayne and Greene counties. (Pitt stricken out.)

Roberts, republican, made a motion to adjourn for one minute in honor of William McKinley. It was overwhelmingly voted down and Roberts angrily cried out: "Well, it's all right anyhow."

Bills passed as follows:

To allow Whiteville to charge $300 for liquor license.

To place Orange county in the Fourth congressional district and Vance and Surry in the Fifth.

To declare Cape Fear and lower Little rivers in Harnett county lawful fences.

To give Harnett county a second week of November court.

Pinnix advocated his bill to take Moore's North Carolina history out of the public school list. He said it was partisan and that from it you could not tell who was governor from 1872 to 1876.

McKenzie asked Pinnix if he favored state adoption.

He said "Yes."

McKenzie then said: "Why not leave it to the state board?"

Eddins said this was the only state history.

Sutton, of New Hanover, said the history was bad. Kill it and somebody will write a fair history.

Dixon moved to table—lost. The bill passed—54 to 40.

Bills passed as follows:

To extend the corporate limits of Mt. Olive.

To incorporate the Tar River and Carolina Railway Company.

To allow Sampson county to issue $12,000 in bonds.

Sandwich Spread.

The young ladies of the Baptist W. W. Society will have a sandwich spread in Germania Hall on next Tuesday night. This will be something entirely new in the line of entertainments and promises to be very interesting. We are permitted to mention one of the features in advance, which is guessing at noses. The ladies will be placed behind a curtain and upon showing their noses the young men will have an opportunity of guessing whose nose it is. This will, of course, afford lots of fun. Now boys, you better make a close study of your girls nose between now and Tuesday so you can do some good guessing. There will be other interesting features, as well as music and refreshments. All go and spend a pleasant evening.

You need not be in a hurry to shed your whiskers or heavy clothing when these balmy days come along. There will be more cold weather yet.

BOSOM FRIENDS

That's what everybody calls my big line of SHIRTS. I can fit you in most any sort you want. The price needn't cause you any trouble, either. I have the best Neglige Shirt in the world. Try one.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1897.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent)
 WASHINGTON, March 5th, 1897.

The inauguration of the millionaires' President was pulled off in a manner gorgeous enough to be in keeping with the cost of electing him, which is said to have exceeded $16,000,000. Every thing was conducted on the most lavish scale, from the personal escort from Cleveland, Ohio, with their black horses, for which $10,000 was spent, to the ten thousand electric lights of variegated colors used in illuminating the costly decorations for the inaugural ball in the big court of the Pension building. It was a millionaires' event from start to finish, and the talk of the millionaires' agent, otherwise known as King Hanna, indicates that it is to be a millionaires' administration, notwithstanding the platitudes of McKinley's inaugural address. Never before were there so many private railway cars in Washington at one time and never before was so much money spent at and upon an inauguration. It is very evident that the millionaires expect McKinley's administration to bring them prosperity, whatever it may do for the poor. When they invest their money they always expect, and usually get, return in dollars and cents.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan, who spent two days in Washington this week, divided his time between conferences with leading democrats and social intercourse with his extensive circle of personal friends, but declined to remain for the inauguration of his successful rival, said to those who proffered him their support for 1900 that he was not thinking so much about the next Presidential campaign as about the condition of the people between now and then. He also expressed his sincere regret that the promised "McKinley Prosperity" had not come to the country. It is a remarkable fact about Mr. Bryan that his hold upon democrats has increased since his defeat, instead of diminishing, as is usual in the case of defeated candidates of all parties.

The silver men are not surprised at the failure of the Fifty-fourth Congress to admit Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma as states, and they expect no better from the Fifty-fifth Congress as the elict has gone forth from the republican bosses that none of the territories shall be admitted, because it is known that they would all send silver senators. But the silver men expect to control the House that will be elected in November 1899, and as they will certainly retain control of the Senate, to have the territories all admitted to statehood before the opening of the campaign of 1900.

Ex-Postmaster General Wilson left the fraud charges against John Wedderburn & Co. and the national Recorder, their paper, which were filed with the Post-office Department a few days ago by fifty-five of Washington's leading patent lawyers, to be acted upon by his successor. The head of the firm of Wedderburn & Co. is the man who started the Examiner Claims Bureau and the Press Claims Co., both of which during their existence, had extensive dealings with newspaper publishers and figured in suits in court.

Senator Teller thus stated his opinion of the relations of Mr. McKinley towards the monetary conference bill, which passed with the House amendments: "If the new President has any sympathy for an international agreement, it must be judged from his votes in the House and not from anything he has said since his nomination, for, excepting the perfunctory acceptance of the platform, his every utterance has indicated that he has gone over to the gold standard and will remain there."

Senator Tillman was the central figure in the most dramatic incident of the closing week of Congress. He charged in impassioned tones that the two corporations which have a monopoly of making armor plate for the government have agents in the Senate and when Senator Hawley of Connecticut, protested against the charge, he repeated it, and intimated very plainly that Hawley was one of the agents. There was a time when such a charge would have resulted in trouble outside of the Senate chamber, but Senators no longer fight with any other weapons than their tongues.

Mr. Cleveland vetoed the Immigration Bill on the ground that it was a departure from our national policy that would impose hardships upon deserving people. The House passed it over the veto, but the Senate did not try.

It is noteworthy that the harshest criticisms of the manifest weakness, both from a business and political point of view, of the men in McKinley's Cabinet, have come from those who are classed as republican leaders. Of course this criticism is as yet only privately expressed, but it indicates that unless McKinley walks the chalkline he will soon find himself confronted by formidable republican opposition.

Mr. McKinley's little bluff about not taking up the question of appointments for a month or so, intended to keep some of the office seekers away from Washington, did not work worth a cent. They have turned up in swarms and are making lively for King Hanna as well as for McKinley. The only prosperity they see ahead lies in the public trough.

KEEP AT IT.

If you expect to conquer
 In the battle of today
 You will have to blow your trumpet
 In a firm and steady way.
 If you toot your little whistle,
 Then lay aside the horn,
 There's not a soul will ever know
 That such a man was born.
 The man that owns his acres
 Is the man that plows all day,
 And the man that keeps a-humping
 Is the man that's here to stay.
 But the man who advertises
 With a sort of sound jerk
 Is the man that blames the printer
 Because it didn't work.
 But the man that gets the business
 Uses brainy printers' ink,
 Not a clatter and a sputter,
 But an ad that makes you think;
 And he plans his advertisements
 As he plans his well-bought stock,
 And the future of his business
 Is as solid as a rock.

RHEUMATISM THE EXPERIENCE OF A COUNTY JUDGE

The Honorable J. F. Greer, one of the best known and most highly respected county Judges of the State of Florida, writes of his horrible sufferings from Inflammatory Rheumatism:

OFFICE OF J. F. GREER, COUNTY JUDGE,
Green Cove Springs, Clay Co., Fla.

GENTLEMEN: Twenty-three years ago I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. I was attended by the most eminent physician in the land. I visited the great Saratoga Springs, N. Y., the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, and many other watering places, always consulting with the local physicians for directions, and finally came to Florida, ten years ago. About two years ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and during that time was induced to try P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, knowing that each ingredient was good for impurities of the blood. After using two small bottles I was relieved. At four different times since I have had slight attacks and each time I have taken two small bottles of P. P. P., and have been relieved, and I consider P. P. P. the best medicine of its kind.
Respectfully,
J. F. GREER.

James M. Newton, of Aberdeen, Ohio, says he bought a bottle of P. P. P. at Hot Springs, Arkansas, and it did him more good than three months' treatment at Hot Springs.

Rheumatism, as well as sciatica and gout, is cured by a course of P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, is a friend indeed to weak women. It is a positive and speedy cure for general weakness and nervousness.

All skin diseases are cured by it; anything from pimples to the worst cases of eczema succumbing to the wonderful healing powers of P. P. P.

Dyspepsia and indigestion in their worst form are cured by it. As a tonic to restore the appetite and to regain lost vigor, it is simply marvelous.

P. P. P. is the best spring medicine in the world. It removes that heavy, out-of-sorts feeling and restores you to a condition of perfect physical health.

For Indigestion, Sick and Nervous Headache, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Heart Failure, Fever, Chills, Debility and Kidney Diseases, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, the most wonderful medicine in the world.

Sold by all druggists.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People You Know, or May Know.

Miss Maggie Langley has gone to Littleton to spend a few days.

Miss Emma Harris returned Friday evening from a visit to Washington.

Mrs. Bettie Mosely, of Hookerton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Brown.

Rev. J. B. Morton, of Tarboro, will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Rev. A. W. Setzer comes down from Wake Forest this evening and will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow morning and night.

We almost had a regular summer thunder storm this morning.

Fine Pigs.

Yesterday Col. I. A. Sugg shipped to Messrs. Sugg Bros. and M. E. Dal, in Greene county, two fine blooded pigs, 6 months old to a day, that weighed 262 pounds gross. They were Poland China crossed with short Guinea, and the Colonel says were too fine to kill. He has some others of the same stock. It pays to have good stock, especially the kind that makes a full smoke house.

Marriage License.

For the first week in March the Register of Deeds issued only three marriage licenses one for white and two for colored couples.

Items from Billville.

Fitzhugh Lee is in the saddle and it's the same one that went through the war with him.

The retiring republican administration will be greatly regretted by the Spanish authorities.

Billville has fitted out a gunboat for Cuba. Now, if we can just pass Cleveland in the night the country will hear from us.

We belong to the law and order society, but we'd just like to get a few of Weyler's Spaniards over here for about six hours.

There are unmistakable signs of spring in the air. Already the citizens are beginning to subscribe to our paper on credit.—Atlanta Constitution.

N. C. Experiment Station Sugar Corn.

The Experiment Station at Raleigh for a number of years past has been developing a sugar corn that would have the properties of field corn adapted to this latitude, combined with the table qualities of ordinary sugar corn. It is believed that characteristics of such a cross are now permanently fixed. The Station desires to place a small package of the corn in the hands of careful parties who will give it a trial and who will promise to report results next fall. This should not be planted near field corn. Applicants who will agree to the above conditions and will send four cents for return postage and expense of mailing, the Station will be glad to send a package as long as the supply lasts. Apply to the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station, Raleigh.
