THE LEGISLATURE. etc
Condensed Report of Proceedings.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY.

SENATE.

The senate went into executive session to confirm the appointment of the trustees of the Normal and Industrial school. A. J. Moye of Pitt, J. A. Blair of Randolph, and A. S. Peace of Granville. They were confirmed.

The bill was taken up to amend the election law. This is a substitute to the original bill introduced by Grant. The substitute is also introduced by the same senator. The bill provides that the clerk of the court, register of deeds and chairman of the county commissioners shall appoint all the registrars and judges of election, without recommendation of any one. It ignores the chairmen of the state and county executive committees. It also provides for three ballot boxes, one for township officers, one for county officers and one for state officers. The length of time to register is extended to the fifth Saturday until 12 o'clock when a voter is challenged. The reason shall be stated on the registration book; that each chairman of the state and county of each political party shall file with the secretary of state and clerk of the court a duplicate ticket that is to be used in the election, with the names of all candidates and with or without a design or device. Any other tickets shall be declared counterfeit and the party issuing them guilty of misdemeanor. In city elections the mayor shall certify the registrars and judges of election. If he be a candidate, then the clerk shall certify, and if he be a candidate then they shall be certified by the chief of police; that city registration books shall be kept open forty days preceding election. In removals from one precinct to another the voter is allowed up to the day of election to get a certificate. The provisions of the bill do not apply to cities or towns which have a charter prescribing for an election.

The bill passed its third reading, the senator from Pitt, (Moye) remarking that the law would not benefit any but democrats.

The bill to encourage local taxation for public schools next came up. This is the bill which appropriates $50,000 for three years, and allows school districts to vote for increase of taxes to the amount of $250, the state treasurer to duplicate the amount raised.

Atwater offered an amendment to appropriate $100,000 direct from the treasury and distribute it pro rata among the school districts.

The amendment of Atwater was lost and the substitute passed its third reading—ayes, 41; noes, 8.

The resolution for purchase of portrait of Senator Vance, appropriating $500 came up. The picture is valued at $1,000. Rollins stated that the friends of Senator Vance in Raleigh would furnish $500, thereby making up the price. The resolution was adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

HOUSE.

The bill passed to establish a dispensary at Rutherfordton and, also, one in Cleveland county if the people at an election in May so decide as to

The senate bill giving the public printing to Guy V. Barnes, of Raleigh, was discussed. A substitute was offered leaving the whole matter to the governor's council. The debate was at times very warm. The substitute was adopted—54 to 45.

By this time it was 1 o'clock and before the vote on the Goldsboro bill was reached the special order came up, this being the North Carolina lease matter.

Cook, chairman of the special committee, reported the senate substitute bill without amendment and the speaker handed to the clerk the following opinion of the supreme court on the matter, in response to the house resolution adopted yesterday afternoon.

"Your resolution is before us. Precedent and courtesy due a coordinate branch of the government impel us to reply to your request without expressing any intimation of opinion either way upon the question whether the power to lease its road is vested in the North Carolina Railway Company by its charter. We are of opinion that the power, if it exists, is now vested in the stockholders and the provision in section 6 of the bill submitted to us, which makes the validity of a lease dependent upon its acceptance by the board of directors would be an amendment to the charter, transferring the power from the stockholders and invalid, unless accepted by the stockholders in general or special meeting assembled.

(Signed.) W. T. FAIRCLOTH.

Chief Justice of North Carolina, for the Court."

Murphy said it made no difference what the supreme court said, that the reference to the court was wrong when this very court might be called on to pass upon this very question. He said the court had never before passed upon such a matter as this. He offered an amendment to the substitute as follows:

"Amend section 6 by inserting after the word 'company' in line 17 of the printed bill, the words 'and accepted by the stockholders in general or special meeting assembled.'

Amend section 7 after the word "directors" in line 3 by adding the word "and stockholders."

Murphy moved the adoption of this amendment and concurrence in the substitute bill.

The debate continued an hour.

Cook sent forward a substitute for the whole matter—the original bill which passed the house. He called on those who desired to put these foreign companies on the same footing as those of this state to pass his substitute.

It was lost—ayes, 50; noes 53.

TUESDAY, MARCH 9, 1897.

Did you ever think what a strange letter S is? asks an ex-chance. It is a serpent in disguise. Listen—you can hear it hiss. It gives possession and multiplies indefinitely by its touch. It changes a tree into trees and a house into houses. Sometimes it is very spiteful and will turn a pet into a pest, a pear into a spear, a word into a sword, and a laughter into slaughter, and it will make hot shot at any time. Farmers have to watch it closely. It will make scorn out of corn and reduce every peck to a speck. Sometimes he finds it useful. If he needs more room for his stock it will change a table into a stable for him, and if he is short of hay he can set out a row of tacks. It will turn them into stacks. He must be careful, however, not to let his nails lie around loose. The serpent's breath will turn them into snails. If he wishes to use an engine about his farm work he need not buy any coal or have water to run it. Let the serpent glide before his horses. The team will turn to steam. If you ever get hurt call the serpent to your aid. Instantly your pain will be in Spain. Be sure to take it with you the next time you climb a mountain if you desire to witness a marvel. It will make the peak speak. But don't let it come around while you are reading now. It will make this tale stale.

Why He Did Not Start.

A lazy man is seldom so very lazy as not to be able to invent some excuse for his inactivity. Harper's Round Table tells a story in point.

Patrick was the captain of a schooner that pined between New York and Haverstraw on the Hudson. One day his schooner was loaded with brick ready to start for New York, but Patrick gave no sign of any intention to get under way. Instead of that, he sat on the deck smoking a pipe.

The owner of the brickyard, who was also the owner of the schooner, had reasons for wishing the bricks landed in New York at the earliest possible moment, came hurrying on board and demanded of the captain why he did not set sail.

"Shure, your honor," said Patrick, "there's no wind."

"No wind! Why, what's the matter with you? There's Lawson's schooner under sail, going down the river now."

"Yis, I've been watching her, but it's no use my gettin' under way. She's got the wind now and faith, there isn't enough of it for two."

The Secretaries Take Charge of Their Departments.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Secretary Long, of the navy, reached the department about 11:30 o'clock. He received the bureau officers, the chiefs of divisions, the clerks and several hundred visitors who were about the corridors. Ex-Secretary Herbert stood with his successor. The officers and clerks were first introduced to Secretary Long, after which they passed to the ex-secretary and bade him farewell. The reception lasted about thirty minutes, and at noon Secretary Long assumed his duties as secretary of the navy.

General Alger took charge of the war department about 11:45 o'clock. He came from the White House with the governor of Wisconsin and his staff who, with ex-Secretary Lamont, stood with him while he received the officers of the war department and their subordinates.

The new postmaster general, James A. Gary, arrived at the postoffice department at 11:45 o'clock a. m. accompanied by J. A. Richardson, of Washington. The gentlemen went at once to the room of the postmaster general where they were awaited by ex-Postmaster General Wilson. The several assistant postmaster generals then called in turn and were presented to their new chief and then presented the employees of their respective bureaus.

Secretary of the Interior Bliss reached the interior department at noon and went immediately to the secretary's room where Mr. Francis awaited him, and after cordial greetings had been exchanged, the new secretary, standing beside his predecessor, received the officers of the department who presented their subordinates. All were cordially received by Mr. Bliss.

Secretary Sherman reached the department of state shortly after 12 o'clock. As soon as he entered the building the officials of the department were notified and soon presented themselves. Many were introduced by ex-Secretary Olney.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson reached the scene of his new duties shortly after noon and had a conference with the outgoing secretary, Mr. Morton. Mr. Wilson was at the department yesterday, posting himself on the affairs that will now come under his supervision. Today he met the heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions. He will receive the clerks and other employes Monday.

The newly appointed attorney general, Hon. Joseph McKenna, of California, has not yet assumed the duties of his office.

Field Fortifications.

During the civil war in this country the importance of temporary or field fortifications was so highly appreciated by the troops on both sides that the moment a halt was made the men began to throw up breastworks. The great difficulty was to induce them to wait until a proper line of defense had been selected by the engineers.

Goes to Lumberton.

J. R. Whichard, of the Hickory Times, has purchased the Lumberton Robesonian from the widow of the late W. W. McDairmid and will move to Lumberton and continue that paper. He can hardly hope to fill the place with the people and press of the State that editor McDairmid occupied, but he can give Lumberton a good paper.

PERSONAL POINTS.

People You Know, or May Know.

N. H. Whitfield went to Oxford today.

Donnell Gilliam, of Tarboro, is attending court here.

Mrs. R. L. Humber and little son returned Monday evening from a visit to Hobgood.

Mrs. John Flanagan and daughter, Miss Dot, returned Monday evening from a visit to Washington.

Mrs. W. F. Draughan, of Edgecombe, arrived Monday evening to visit her daughter, Mrs. Zeno Moore.

G. W. Baker, of Lewiston, a member of the firm of Baker & Hart here, came over Monday evening for a short visit.

Miss Sadie Rodgerson, of Williams-ton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. B. Dawes, returned home today.

Register of Deeds J. J. Perkins returned Monday evening from Washington where he had been to attend the inauguration.

Town Matters.

Not having any meeting at the regular time on last Thursday night, the Board of Councilmen met last night to transact the usual monthly business.

Among the orders allowed was one paying for the fire alarm bell, 300 extra feet of hose for Hope Fire Company and eight rubber buckets for the Hook and Ladder Company. The hose and buckets were turned over to the respective companies.

The Chief of Police was instructed to take charge of the bell, to ask consent of the chairman of the Board of County Commissioners to the erection of a tower for it on the Court House square, and to have the same put up as early as possible.

Several members of Hope Fire Company who had paid their poll taxes were refunded the same, the active members being exempt from paying such tax.

J. W. Perkins tendered his resignation as Chief of Police, to take effect on the 28th inst., which was accepted.

WHICHARD ITEMS.

WHICHARD, N. C. March 8th, '97.

Our farmer friends are still hauling fertilizers. We hope they may not have to wear long faces when it comes time to pay for it.

Several from here attended the Washington fair last week.

T. Simmons, of Washington, was here Friday, just getting back from the New Bern fair.

Miss Emma Fleming, of House, is visiting friends here.

Capt. Wm. Bissell returned Saturday and will take charge of the new locomotive of the Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Co. which is expected to arrive today.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurganus, who have been suffering with lagrippe are much improved.

Misses Hattie and Lena Woolard spent last week at Hollands visiting relatives.

D. E. Whichard returned to school at Whitakers last week.

Rev. E. E. Lundy, of Virginia, preached at Briery Swamp last Friday.

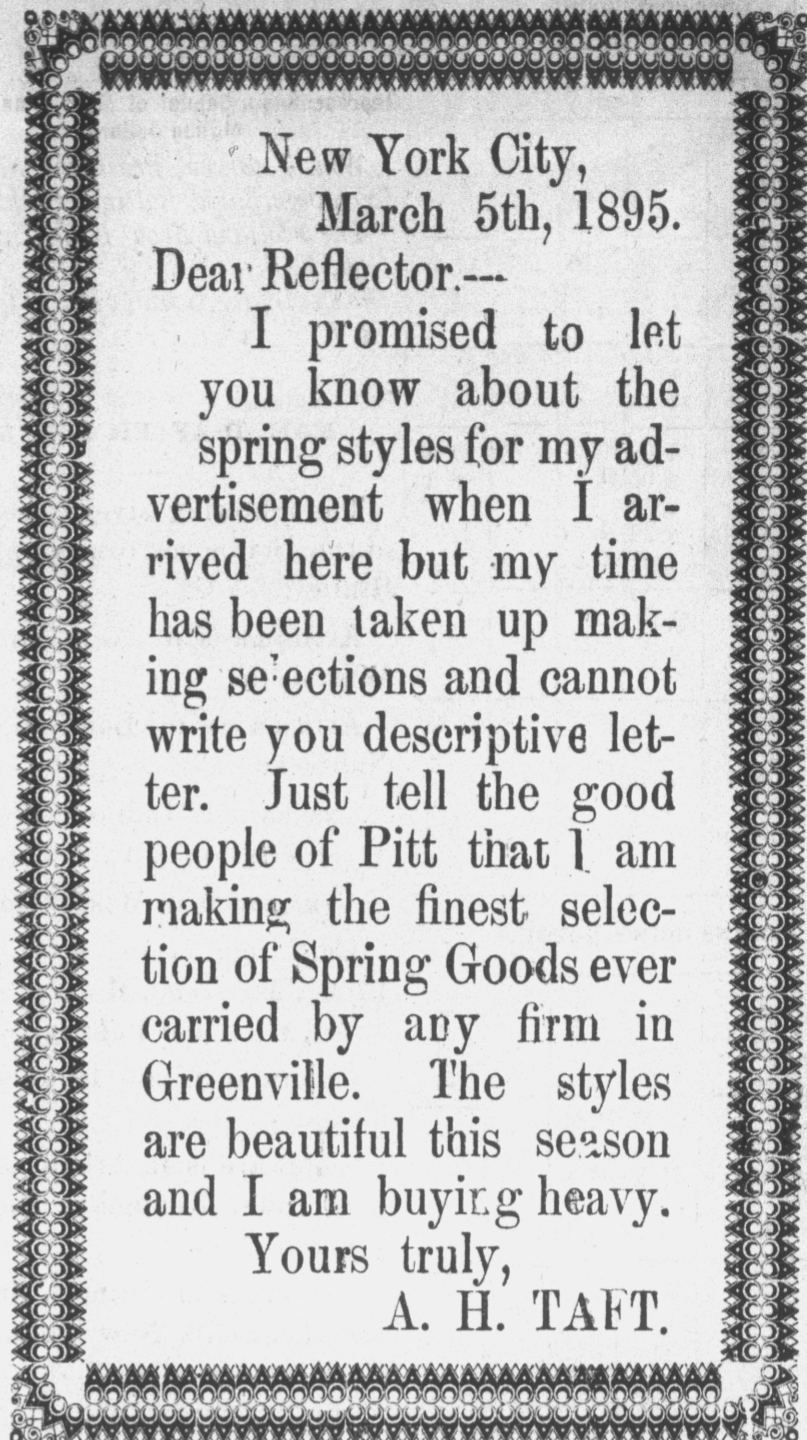

We were glad to see W. D. Moore, who formerly lived near here, but now of New York, in town last week.

J. R. Mobley and W. L. Jones spent Sunday in Washington.

Inasmuch as a majority of the senate could not be forced by Governor Russell, who is acting in the roll of a dictator, to support the radical anti-lease bill passed by the house, His Excellency is wroth.—Clinton Democrat.

The new senate has 42 republicans, 33 democrats, 6 populists and 6 silverites, three seats vacant. The vacant seats are Call, of Florida, Blackburn, of Kentucky, and Mitchell, of Oregon. It is not certain that the republicans will control. Hanna will do his best with boodle. He is the fellow who buys.—Wilmington Messenger.

RICKS & TAFT.

New York City,
March 5th, 1895.

Dear Reflector---

I promised to let you know about the spring styles for my advertisement when I arrived here but my time has been taken up making selections and cannot write you descriptive letter. Just tell the good people of Pitt that I am making the finest selection of Spring Goods ever carried by any firm in Greenville. The styles are beautiful this season and I am buying heavy.

Yours truly,

A. H. TAFT.
