WHICHARD ITEMS.

WHICHARD, April 5, 1897.
Miss Mattie Leggett, of Greenville, returned home last week.

Miss Mattie Woolard, of Washington, who has been visiting relatives, returned to her home last week.

H. W. Whichard was on the sick list last week.

J. H. Woolard & Sons have been shipping quantities of lumber recently.

Capt. Bissell is out again after a severe attack of La Grippe.

Reuben Butler who has been critically ill is reported as now out of danger.

Mrs. Henry Jones spent Friday here on a visit to her son, W. L. Jones.

Harvey Carrow, of Washington, spent a few hours here Friday.

The farmers are up and doing, having had one more good week in which to put in some good work.

H. M. Griffin, of Washington, who has been clerking for Proctor & Co., is now clerking for them here as they have sold out in that town, and will in a few weeks remove to Williamston to do a general merchandise as a branch to their business here.

Capt. J. W. Roberson spent Saturday and Sunday at his home near Jamesville.

NEW PAPERS.

The first number of the Lumberton Robesonian under the management of J. R. Whichard has come to hand. It shows evidence of good work and will rank with the best weeklies of the State.

The Journal is the name of a new evening paper at Winston. It makes a fine beginning, full of news and neatly printed.

Going Home.

As the tobacco season draws to a close the boys are getting off one by one to spend a few months vacation at their homes. M. L. Richmond made two or three attempts to shake off the dust of Greenville but could not get further than the water tank. This morning he took his umbrella along and declared that he would drive clear through to Danville, but the boys are betting that he will not get further than Raleigh, "N. C."

Billie Corbett also had the boys weeping over him this morning as he pulled out for Durham. Billie was all broke up and showed that he hated to leave. We are not allowed to tell too much, but there are some folks left behind who are also broke up at Billie's going away and will be glad to see the first of July roll around when he heads back toward Greenville.

I will make a beautiful display of Pattern Hats on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 6th and 7th, and cordially invite the public to inspect them.

MRS. GEORGIA JAMES.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of County Commissioners held their usual monthly meeting on first Monday.

The total amount allowed paupers was $81.75, amount paid out for general county purposes $918.02, in Swift Creek and Contentnea stock law territory $151.53, in Greenville stock law territory $1.50.

J. D. Pope, W. G. Windham, Ned May, Edith Wiggins, M. Heath and Martha Tripp were added to the pauper list for monthly allowance.

The Sheriff reported that he had laid out a public road in Greenville township through the lands of Shade Cox, Mary Hardee, M. D. McGowan and others, as ordered at March meeting.

T. W. C. Moore released from 50 cents taxes on personal property.

The Beaufort County Lumber Co., was released from $7.92 taxes erroneously charged to them.

Land of C. A. Worthington, 3½ acres, was reduced in valuation from $304.06 to $55.

Property of West Pitt was ordered to be placed on tax list and the Sheriff collect for same.

R. W. King was allowed $13.20 for traveling expenses to Wilson and return, being certified by the Commissioners to be paid by the State.

The price paid for board for prisoners in jail was reduced from 30 cents to 25 cents per day.

J. R. Barnhill presented receipt showing that he had settled for the hire of Geo. Gray and contract was cancelled.

The pay of the Chairman of the Board was increased from $2 to $3 per day.

The following were appointed to list the State and county taxes for 1897:

- Greenville—J. F. Boyd.
- Chicod—R. G. Chapman.
- Contentnea—W. B. Moore.
- Swift Creek—Fred Johnson.
- Farmville—R. L. Joyner.
- Falkland—H. S. Tyson.
- Beaver Dam—J. H. Manning.
- Belvoir—H. L. Stancill.
- Bethel—J. S. L. Ward.
- Carolina—J. J. Rawls.
- Pactolus—J. H. Langley.

McNamara Stirring Up Strife in Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Ex-Priest McNamara has been making anti-Catholic addresses here for some days, and so severe have been some of his statements that a representative Catholic called on the mayor today to see if the police could not be used to prevent the repetition of such statements as those complained of. The mayor disapproved of the statements, but said he could not interfere unless something was done that would provoke a breach of the peace. Mrs. McNamara, wife of the ex-priest, called on chief of police Dornin to complain that she and her husband have been stoned in the street. The chief was perfectly willing to act in the matter if the guilty parties could be pointed out, or their names learned.

TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1897.

The Preposterous Claim That the Foreigners Pay the Tariff Taxes.

Do the soothsayers, magicians and necromancers of the Committee on Ways and Means sincerely believe that the duties on imports are paid by the foreign producers, as they proclaimed in the House of Representatives last week? Or do they regard this merely as "a useful superstition," to be constantly inculcated in the minds of the vulgar lest the masses should grow weary at last of the grievous protective tariff burden and fling it off forever?

The belief that American consumers do not pay the duties on imports, but that by some hocus-pocus they are shouldered upon the foreigners who produce them, is about as consonant with reason as is the superstitious dread of thirteen sitting at a table, of beginning a voyage on Friday, of spilling the salt or of seeing the new moon over the left shoulder. It is as silly as the belief that an old crone can evolve the destiny of the future from a greasy pack of cards or from the residuary grounds in a coffee cup. But as the great body of Protectionist doctors, prophets, soothsayers and magicians are too intelligent to believe a thing so palpably absurd as the theory that the consumers do not pay the taxes levied upon imports, there is only one alternative—these teachers and beneficiaries of Protection are arrant impostors and humbugs, and they are endeavoring to deceive the people to their own undoing. If they entertain the belief that the foreigners pay the duties on imports, why do they not take coffee and tea and hides off the free list and make the duties on all imports high enough not only to support the Government but to give every man in the country a pension out of the residue of revenues levied upon the foreign exporters?—Philadelphia Record.

Confidence the Keynote to Success.

"Doubt and unbelief mean destruction to any business, and a man who loses confidence in his own affairs finds failure awaiting him in a short time," writes Evangelist Moody to his Bible Class in the April Ladies' Home Journal. "Uncertainty disqualifies for work and usefulness in every sphere of life. It was uncertainty and doubt that caused the recent state of depression in our business interests. Financiers and economists differed in their views regarding the political causes of this feeling of insecurity but they generally agreed in directly attributing the reverses to the lack of assurance in business circles. Confidence is essential to success in every pursuit of life. And this selfsame truth is no less evident in spiritual things than it is in temporal affairs. The only Christian life that is useful to the Church of God as to fellowmen is the one which is assured of its own salvation. Distrust and unbelief wear sadness and care to any soul; but joy and rest come with the certain knowledge of forgiveness and favor with God."

Baptists See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good first-class line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

Your best judgment requires you to make an immediate provision for your family.

By insuring today, your estate is increased in value at once.

'Twas Ever Thus.

A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—

"House insured?" "Yes." "What do you insure it for?" "Because it MIGHT burn." "Not SURE of it, are you?" "No." "Is your life insured?" "No." "Di, won't you?" "Yes." "Sure?" "Yes." "Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"

"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.

THE MORNING STAR The Oldest Daily Newspaper in North Carolina. The Only Five-Dollar Daily in its Class in the State. W. H. BERNARD, Wilmington, N. C.

The N. C. Building and Loan Association with headquarters at Charlotte has gone into the hands of receivers. It operated at various points in the state as branch departments of the business. Since the 6 per cent law it is found impossible to operate with a profit and the board of directors advised a closing up of business. There will be no losses probably. Indeed the association would probably have continued in business if it had not been for the branch business.—Raleigh Press Visitor

We read in the Charlotte Observer that Mr. Schoolfield, an evangelist, is stirring Monroe. It is said the "town is being revolutionized spiritually, old feuds are being healed, old debts paid and other evidences given of a religious awakening." We are always pleased to hear of a revival of religion and of people being made better, but the point in the above which particularly interests us is that of old debts being paid. If Mr. Schoolfield's power is such that he can make people pay "old debts" we here-with invite him to come this way and hold a meeting.—Statesville Landmark. People out Monday night noticed an unusual phenomenon. One half of the heavens was as clear as could be with the moon and stars shining brightly, while in the other half a storm was raging with thunder, lightning and rain.

Mrs. M. D. Higgs and Mrs. Georgia James both had their millinery openings today. The weather was all that could be wished for and many ladies were out to see the attractive displays of new goods. Both stores were as beautiful as a flower garden, the displays of hats, flowers, ribbons and other goods being arranged with charming effect.

W. J. Corbett, book keeper of the Star Warehouse, left this morning for Durham.

J. J. Cherry left this morning for Richmond to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Odd Fellows widows and orphans benefit fund.

Initiation and second degree work with the Odd Fellows tonight.

The civil cases now in progress at court afford very little interest to outsiders.

Today has been all right, the kind that makes everybody feel like getting around out of doors.

J. G. Rawls is introducing among our dealers some very fine cigars which he is manufacturing in Wilson. They are an excellent smoke.

J. G. Rawls will be here for a few days longer and all wishing to have their eyes examined or glasses fitted can find him in the Rialto building.

The members of the Presbyterian church had a meeting Sunday and decided to have their church building dedicated on the third Sunday in May.

The physicians of the county met here Monday and made out their black list. There was a full attendance at the meeting and we understand that the list is a very large one.

Several of our people have been reminded of the approach of the summer season by receiving through the mail a ticket good for a glass of co co cola at Shelburn's. It's a fine drink.

The Insurance Companies represented by W. L. Brown have satisfactorily adjusted the loss sustained on my stock of goods by the fire on Friday night, the 2nd inst.

This April 6th, 1897.

Cox & Co.

Friday Night.

Bill Nye says: "Polk Miller does not advertise goods he cannot deliver. He says he will describe and illustrate the Old Virginia Plantation Negro, and I am free to say that he does it. After hearing the negro dialect given by a Canadian, and the folk song and dialect of the negro given in Cork and Cockney and at St. James Hall, London, I am glad to hear Mr. Miller correct this misconception with the real thing."

Polk Miller will appear in Greenville Friday, April 9th, at the Court House. Reserved seats 35 cents on sale at Wooten's drug store and at the door.

SPRING FEVER

is already warning your blood and shaping your thoughts. We caught it a week ago. Symptoms of it are scattered all over this store. It breaks out in dainty Spring new bright Silks, in delicate feather-weight Grenadines, Organdies, Lappets and diverse Spring Fabrics; it shows in the new Shirt Waist goods, such as Percales, Grass Linens, etc. No department is free from its influence.

DRESS - GOODS,

You will need a piece of Each

When you lay your eyes on our printed Spring Fabrics, we scarcely know where to begin to tell about them. We are anxious to hear what you think of them. A perfect paradise of pretty things. We ask all the ladies to accept this announcement as an invitation to come in and inspect these new spring beauties.
