Henry Blount Coming.

Henry Blount will deliver his famous lecture "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy"
in the Court House here Friday night,
under the auspices of the King's Daughters.

The Fayetteville (Ark.) Republican
says.

"His reputation is spreading like wild fire throughout the land, and the mere announcement of his appearance in a city or town draws hundreds of literary inclined people to hear this wonderful and remarkable genius."

Tickets on sale at Wooten's Drug Store. Reserved seats 35, general admission 25, children 15. The lecture will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

A Serious Accident.

Dr. A. S. Pendleton was seriously hurt, a few days ago, while riding a bicycle between Roanoke Rapids and Weldon. He was riding along the canal bank and ran off, falling a distance of 15 feet on some rocks. His hip was broken, two fingers dislocated, wrist sprained, and some other injuries received. He lay unconscious after the fall and was found by two young lady cyclists passing the same road. Dr.
Pendleton is a son of Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, of Warrenton, and has many friends in Greenville who will regret to learn of his injury.

STATE NEWS.

Thomas Sawyer, of Camden, is the father of 21 children—the oldest born 60 years ago, the youngest two years old.

The statement that the Parmele-Ecleston lumber mills at Jacksonville, the largest in the State, would be removed to Georgia, turns out to be an error.

Alex. Strickland plowed up a nest of young rabbits a few days ago and took them to the house as a feast for the cat. But the cat took the little rabbits into her nest of kittens and is caring for little rabbits and little kittens alike.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A distressing accident occurred Monday morning in South West township.
Mr. Clay Hood threw a large piece of wood out of a wagon, when the four year old son of Mr. Will Lyndall ran from behind a pile of shingles and under the wood as it was falling. It crushed the child's head, killing him instantly.—Kinston Free Press.

OTHER BAD ROADS.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—Thanks to "W." for calling the attention of the Superintendent of the convict gang to the needs of the roads from Great Swamp to Grindle Creek. It is evident these roads have merit and few hands to work, but "W." is very much in error when he says the roads two miles around Greenville are good.
They are simply dreadful in some sections. The Tarboro road on the south side of Tar River is in very bad condition. The road opposite the home of Col. Sugg has been, and is now almost impassable, and unless the overseer of the road, or some other means are invoked, there will be some calamitous accident sooner later. No objection to having the convict gang do as much as possible to relieve the county of cost and do the roads good, but they can do much good work near town for quite a while yet and at less cost. X.

Race Given Up.

The race here Wednesday afternoon between Mary Lee, owned by Smith & Hooker, and Robert Burns, owned by Dr. S. T. Nicholson, of Washington, could not be carried out to the finish.
From some cause Mary Lee became unmanageable and behaved so badly on the track that at the end of the third heat her owners went before the judges and gave up the race to Robert Burns.
They are both good horses and lovers of the sport had anticipated a fine race.

Beautiful Glassware.

Louis T. Kny has on exhibition at the store of W. C. Hines & Co. a beautiful display of Bohemian ruby glass ware in many different designs, which he is offering for sale at very reasonable prices. Mr. Kny is an expert engraver and puts any name desired on the article purchased without extra cost.

Scheming for Wives.

"There are plenty of women in Oregon now," observed a prominent Oregon politician, who is here to see that the State is not forgotten in the way of patronage "but it is within the memory of many of us when women were very scarce there. We gave it out that we wanted them for school teachers and the like, and encouraged them to come out there, but the truth was the men wanted them for wives. I remember once we sent a young man to Massachusetts, where he was well acquainted, with orders to collect 100 young women and to escort them back to Oregon. We guaranteed every one of them one year's employment. The active man in the matter was a fine looking young man, who afterwards served two terms in Congress from our State. He spent two months in selecting the party and started West with them. On the trip out he courted one of the school teachers on his own hook and actually got her consent to a marriage on the arrival of the train at Portland. The boys howled considerably about it, claiming that he had treated them unfairly in having first choice, but there was a lot of fine, marriageable material left. Some of those women are today the leading ladies of the society of the State. More than three-fourths of the hundred were married inside of three years and many in less than one year. A few of the lot, however, are teaching school there today, not that they did not have any offers, but because they would not accept any of the fellows who offered themselves. Now that Senator Mitchell has about given up his contest to return as Senator, he will likely be succeeded by a gentleman who married one of the party of school teachers to which I refer. He will bring his wife here with him, and your Washington folks can see for themselves the kind of ladies we had out there for school teachers. They can't be surpassed, even if equalled, anywhere. I may be an interested person, though, for it happens that my wife was one of the party."—Washington Star.

A Kensington man who is noted for his veracity, is the owner of a dog named Prince, which exhibits an amount of intelligence and ability simply marvelous. According to this gentleman's statement, his little daughter was presented with a toy piano on her last birthday. A few days ago his wife, doing some house cleaning, had occasion to remove the little piano and several articles of furniture to the yard. Prince amused himself by jumping up on the chairs, and finally touched the piano keyboard by accident. He pricked up his ears at the sound produced, and with one paw tapped the keys lightly. After a few minutes he seemed to have mastered the keyboard, and began to play an air, slowly but distinctly, which the astonished listener at once recognized as "Home, Sweet Home." That evening when the Kensingtonian returned home his wife related the affair, and Prince was brought in and placed before the piano. He not only repeated his performance but played bars of several popular airs. The Kensington man is having a frame made to support Prince's weight, so that he may have both forepaws free, and is confident that in a short time the dog will not only be able to play the air but will also play his own accompaniment.

THE NEW NATIONAL HYMN.

My office, 'tis of thee—
 Sweet place of rest for me,
 Of thee I sing!
 Place that my father filled;
 Place where much time is killed—
 Sweet place, for which I'm billed,
 Of thee I sing!
 I love thy cozy nooks—
 All thy big salary books,
 Thy pay rolls long;
 All thy cool hours of ease,
 All thy red tapestries,
 Come now, my soul to please—
 Come right along!

What Pleases Her.

It pleases her to be called a sensible little woman.
 It pleases her to be called a well dressed woman.
 It pleases her to be told that she is fascinating.
 It pleases her to be told that she improves a man by her companionship.
 It pleases her to depend on some man and pretend she is ruling him.
 It pleases her to be treated courteously and with respect, and to be talked to reasonably.
 It pleases her to be treated sensibly and honestly, to be consulted and questioned, and not to be treated as a butterfly, with no head nor heart.
 It pleases her to be loved and admired by a man who is strong enough to rule and subdue her and make his way her way; to lead her and take care of her.

Your best judgment requires you to make an immediate provision for your family.

By insuring today, your estate is increased in value at once.

'T WAS EVER THUS.

A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—

"House insured?"

"Yes."

"What do you insure it for?"

"Because it MIGHT burn."

"Not SURE of it, are you?"

"No."

"Is your life insured?"

"No."

"Die, won't you?"

"Yes."

"Sure?"

"Yes."

"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"

"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention." — Travelers Record.

Best time to insure: NOW.
Best Company to insure in: the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., of Newark, N. J. Represented by J. L. Sugg, Greenville, N. C.

A negro in Prince George county Virginia, woke up the other night and found his house in flames. Although his two children were asleep in their bed, his first thought was of his household effects. Twice he carried out as much as he could, and then went back to wake the children. He was caught by the fire in the house with them and all three were burned to death.

Mrs. Emilie Jewell, aged 65, and Abel Lewis, 17, have just been married in Knott county, Kentucky. This is Mrs. Jewell's fifth matrimonial venture and she is said to be the mother of 31 children, the youngest older than her husband.

A Fat Currituckan.

The Elizabeth City Economist prints the following:

"Currituck is a great county. It was the Keystone of the Democratic party for years and is so still. It produces the finest ducks and geese, and swan, and snipe, and bull frogs, and the oldest men in North Carolina and the most stalwart, heartiest, healthiest men in the State. And now to all these products it adds a product of a fat boy 13 years and six months old who weighed on April 6th, 436 pounds. His name is Lewis T. Lewark. He has 10 brothers and sisters whose weight ranges from 180 to 250 lbs. His parents are under medium size and weight, his ancestors were sometimes fat people, showing that qualities skip parents and reproduce in remote ancestors."

The Tennessee Centennial Exposition will be completed for a formal opening May 1.

A citizen of Boston has just been detected in the act of stealing cuspidors from the Capitol building of the Old Bay State. Twelve of the cuspidors have at different times within the past few weeks thus disappeared, but in endeavoring to make off with the thirteenth the thief was caught. And yet there are those who protest that there is no bad luck in thirteen.

Baptists, See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good first-class line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

CARD OF THANKS.

MR. EDITOR:—We desire through your columns to express our thanks to the members of the Hope Fire Co. and Rough and Ready Hook and Ladder Co. for the splendid work they did in extinguishing the fire last Sunday morning, as also to other citizens of the town who so cheerfully rendered their valuable aid. ELLIOTT BROS.

Build More Cisterns.

Our people should not lose sight of the fact that additional cisterns and a steam fire engine would give still further protection to property. The wisdom of the authorities in building the one cistern we have has already been amply proven and others would be beneficial. Too much can hardly be done to increase the efficiency of the fire department.

Damage by Frost.

Allen Warren & Son, of Riverside Nurseries, after having made a careful investigation, furnish the REFLECTOR the following report of the damage done by the frost Wednesday morning:

Plums damaged 50 per cent, apples 24 per cent, strawberries 50 per cent, peaches 75 per cent, grapes all killed the James variety included, garden peas 50 per cent, field peas all killed, beans all killed, corn damaged but will come out again, Irish potatoes 50 From this report it will be seen that the damage is very severe.

Some learned linguist has said the beauty of the English language was in the fact that it enabled people so easily to conceal their real meaning. The American politicians found that out two years ago and practiced it in their platforms.
