Base Ball.

Washington, April 24.—Norton was able to keep the visitors' hits scattered today, with the exception of in the third inning. This together with the loose fielding of the Brooklyn's gave Washington the game. Attendance 2,500. The score:

At Washington—Washington, 8 Brooklyn, 6.

Baltimore, April 24.—The Champions succeeded today in making it three straights from Boston. It was clearly a pitchers' battle until the seventh inning, when Klobedanz gave out. Duffy's running catch of Robinson's long fly to left in the eighth was a feature of the game. Attendance 5,000. Score:

At Baltimore—Baltimore, 7; Boston, 1.

Philadelphia, April 24.—Philadelphia whaled Joett Meekin mightily today and defeated New York, hands down. The record was seventeen hits with total of twenty six. The game was an ordinary one and, outside of the local club's hitting, the only noteworthy feature was LaJoie's individual batting. Attendance 12,752. Score:

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 12; New York, 4.

Cincinnati, April 24.—The Reds again won the game today from the Colts. The Colts started off as sure winners but finished weak. Not an error was made by either team. Attendance 5,000. Score:

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 4; Chicago, 3.

Louisville, Ky., April 24.—The Indians were defeated again today in a slow but interesting game. The score was close until the ninth inning when the Colonels batted out four runs and clinched the victory. Burkett was put out of the game in the first and O'Connor in the ninth inning by Umpire McDermott, for abusive language. Attendance 3,500. Score:

At Louisville—Louisville, 9; Cleveland 3.

St. Louis, April 24.—Unfavorable weather kept down the attendance at Sportsman park today and the game was called in the first half of the sixth inning on account of rain. Hawley's wild pitch, giving eight men first base and the Brown's five hits, out of which they scored five runs, won them the game. Attendance 800. Score:

At St. Louis—St. Louis, 5; Pittsburgh 1.

A Steam Engine Needed.

The REFLECTOR believes that there is now a stronger sentiment in Greenville for the purchase of a steam fire engine than there has been at any time in the past, and this sentiment ought to increase until one is procured. Every business man and property owner should manifest his interest and agitate the matter until the town is provided with ample protection against fire. The town is well able to furnish the needed protection it should be done without delay.

The REFLECTOR would like to hear from its correspondents at least once a week. We want the news from every section of the county.

TUESDAY, APRIL 27, 1897.

When Mayor Russ walked in his office this morning he found a beautiful bouquet of lilies of the valley awaiting him on his desk. A note accompanied them from a lady resident of the city who stated that Mayor Russ had made the best chief executive Raleigh had had in all her 66 years residence in the city.—Raleigh Press Visitor.

The High Point Enterprise notes a very sad death, that of Harvey Council, a little son of Rev. W. H. Roach. The little fellow was playing with his wagon in the yard one day last week when he upset a pot of boiling soap and fell on the fluid. The child was so badly burned that it died next day. The little one bore his sufferings patiently and sang a favorite song to the end.

Several thousand acres of land have been purchased in Abbeville county, S. C., about eight miles west of the town of Abbeville, on which a colony of Germans will be settled. It is an enterprise organized by Atlanta capital. The land was purchased by a stock company organized in Atlanta and the purpose is to build a beet sugar factory and settle the land with German emigrants, who will cultivate the sugar beet.

Raleigh correspondence Charlotte Observer: There was a curious and sensational divorce case here today. A white man of Raleigh eight years ago married a young woman in an adjoining county, thinking she was white. He discovered a few weeks ago that she was a negro. This fact was fully proved in court today and he was granted a divorce. The woman is good looking, has straight hair and has no appearance of the negro.

We heard a gentleman remark that home was the last place he wanted to go. To say we were sorry for him does not express our feelings. We thought the man is to be pitied who, after a hard days sail amid the storms of business cares and fears feels he cannot drop anchor at eventide in the quiet harbor of a peaceful home. Our homes would be happy, a refuge indeed if we would banish the grumbling fault-finding spirit and learn to speak words of praise and approval. Make home happy by throwing the mantle of charity over the short comings of each other and the richest results will follow. Home then will be the first place we will want to go.—Washington Messenger.

WOMEN'S EXPOSITION.

(Special Correspondence.)

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 24, 1897.

The comprehensive and attractive programme for the Women's Exposition of the Carolinas is nearly complete. The doors will be thrown open the evening of May 11th, with a reception to the public. Mrs. Sallie Southall Cotton, one of the South's leading women, whose address on a National training school at the Mother's Congress at Washington attracted such wide spread attention, will deliver the opening address. A number of addresses by prominent Southerners, and entertainments of various kinds will extend through the entire month. "Gala Week," the week of the 20th celebration, will be crowded with events. In addition to the numerous attractions afforded by the Exposition, the fastest bicyclists in this country will be here at the week of the National racing circuit; the competitive firemen's races and displays and various other organizations will have a place in the celebration.

Special rates have been granted the Exposition from all points in North and South Carolina and nearby points in the neighboring States. The rate including Norfolk, Suffolk and Danville is one fare for the round trip. For May 19 and 20, as low rates will prevail as have ever been given in the State, the rate being one cent a mile. This will enable all to attend. The Century Poster exhibit, probably the finest in the world, including all the private collection of W. Ellsworth, secretary of the Century Co., all works of the finest French artists, arrived this morning.

Some fifty paintings from Washington artists have arrived, and many of the leading art exhibits will be here in the next few days.

The work on the building is about complete, and the rooms are being given the finishing touches; the building presents a handsome appearance, is well situated, and the arrangement is as good as could be desired. One of the features growing in interest daily is the exhibit of the colleges in the State. The University of North Carolina will send a most creditable exhibit, including the famous death mask of Napoleon, valued at $30,000; Greensboro Female College, the State Normal School, St. Mary's, Guilford College, Salem Academy, Elizabeth College and other Institutions will be well represented. Parties of students from the institutions will visit the Exposition, indeed the plans are to arrange special excursions from these schools and colleges, a real gala day affair.

The month of May will be crowded with events in Charlotte, and indications point to the largest crowds in the history of the city.

Eclipse in 1900.

Col. C. F. von Herman, the weather man, who has many of the characteristics of a famous biblical character named Job, is waiting for the year 1900 to roll around.

Mr. von Hermann has received information from the government that a total eclipse of the sun will occur in 1900 and that it will be visible in North Carolina.

But this eclipse is of interest to Raleigh people because the capital is exactly in the path of totality. The eclipse will occur about 8:30 in the morning and for some minutes it will be as dark in Raleigh as it ever gets to be on the blackest night.

The path of totality takes in

New Orleans, Raleigh and Norfolk other points in this State are Wadesboro, Nashville, Rocky Mount and Gatesville. At Wilmington, Greensboro, Goldsboro and other towns in the State there will only be a partial eclipse of the sun.

Mr. von Hermann has been notified by the government to take observation of the clouds and heavens every morning about the time the eclipse is to occur until old Sol hides himself in 1900. This is done to compare the effects of the eclipse.

Total eclipses of the sun are very rare and the majority of people live and die without ever having seen the astronomical phenomena. The older inhabitants remember a total eclipse years ago when the superstitious renewed their allegiance to the church and chickens went home to roost.—Raleigh Press Visitor.

In the United States the chief end of man is to get an office, and he naturally thinks that the chief business of the government is to furnish a plenty of them. An instance of the efforts to furnish them is found in the bill of Senator Hansborough, of North Dakota mentioned in the last issue of this paper, "authorizing the appointment of a commission to introduce and popularize the bread foods of the United States among the people of the Orient." Each commissioner is to get $5,000 a year, the clerk to the body $3,000, and $50,000 is to be appropriated for expenses. The object of it all is to carry the gospel of wheat bread and corn bread to the heathen of the East; to convince the heathen how good they are, in order that the United States may sell them flour and meal. This is one of the finest schemes ever heard of—for the commissioners. But seriously, now, did a more fanciful idea ever enter the brain of a Populist or occupy the time of a legislative body? Still, it will get votes if it ever gets before the Senate. Any reckless scheme for squandering money can get votes in that body.—Statesville Landmark.

The people of North Carolina will not, perhaps, complain that their taxes are to be no higher this year and next than they have been for the past two years, but the Supreme Court decision declaring unconstitutional and void parts of sections 2 and 3 of the revenue act of the last Legislature because in them the proper equation between poll and property taxes is not preserved, ought to show the people the importance of electing as legislators men who are capable of doing what they are capable of agreeing to do.—Charlotte Observer.

'T WAS EVER THUS.
A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—
"House insured?"
"Yes."
"What do you insure it for?"
"Because it might burn."
"Not sure of it, are you?"
"No."
"Is your life insured?"
"No."
"Di-, won't you?"
"Yes."
"Sure?"
"Yes."
"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"
"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.

Factories.

A merchant remarked to the REFLECTOR that he becomes more and more convinced every day that Greenville needs manufacturing enterprises. In its time the REFLECTOR has done much arguing along that line and would like to see such an idea take possession of our business men. Greenville ought to have other avenues of trade in addition to what is derived from agriculture. Factories would not only help the business of the town, but also would be a stimulus to the agricultural interests of the adjacent community. Factories would increase population and the number of consumers, and beside the trade derived from these would naturally bring more people here to sell and buy.

We believe cotton factories, knitting factories, tobacco factories and wood working factories could all be operated successfully here, and they would prove of incalculable benefit to every business interest.

When sweet spring across the hills
Sets the prisoned flow'rets free;
When the babbling of the rills
Joins with song bird's symphony;
Then, it seems to us, we oughter
Turn our thoughts to soda-water.

For the balmy April breeze
Tells the sultry days are nigh
When we linger 'neath the trees,
And our throats are hot and dry,
Then Shelburn's soda fount
Fattens up his bank account.
