Base Ball.

Philadelphia, April 28.—Philadelphia defeated Brooklyn today in an exciting and hard hitting game. Boyle in the sixth inning drove the ball to left centre for a home run, with three men on bases. Carsey hurt his hand in the third inning and Johnson took his place. Payne started to pitch for Brooklyn, but was taken out at the end of the fourth inning and Daub finished the game. Score. Philadelphia, 12; Brooklyn, 11.

Louisville, April 29.—George Hemming, late of the Baltimore team, pitched his first game for Louisville today and held Anson's Col's down to five hits. The big pitcher also helped to win the game with a timely two bagger. Score: Louisville, 5; Chicago, 4.

Baltimore, April 29.—The Giants lost to the Baltimores today in a game which aroused little interest. Score. Baltimore, 6; New York 3.

Cincinnati, April 29.—The Pittsburg team stopped the winning streak of Cincinnati today by defeating them in a close and exciting game. Ehret was substituted for Dwyer in the eighth. Brodie was fined $25 for questioning Umpire Sheridan's decision. Score. Cincinnati, 7; Pittsburg, 8.

Washington, April 29.—The senators had their eye on the ball today as is shown by the records made by Mercer and Demont, while the Boston players displayed a decided inability to field. This combination gave the game to Washington. Score. Washington, 5; Boston, 3.

St. Louis, April 29.—The Browns pulled an apparently lost game out of the fire in the ninth inning today. With the score 5 to 4 against them, they tied the score. With the bases full and two out, Sockalexis made a great catch of McFarland's long fly, which saved the game for his side. Score. St. Louis, 6; Cleveland 6.

Ward Meetings.

The Democrats of the Second and Fourth wards held meetings Friday night to nominate a candidate for Councilman in each.

The Second ward met in the Mayor's office. A. L. Blow was made chairman and Henry Sheppard secretary. J. E. Starkey was nominated for Councilman by acclamation. A. L. Blow was re-elected executive committeeman.

The Fourth ward met in the grand jury room of the Court House. W. H. Ragsdale was made chairman and D. J. Whichard secretary. A. J. Griffin was nominated for Councilman on third ballot. S. T. Hooker was elected executive committeeman.

A Nice Boat.

Mayor Forbes' little gas boat "Rubble" is one of the handiest crafts that runs up this way. It makes almost daily trips to Washington and is also very popular for taking fishing parties down the river. We saw her take eight men on board and three canoes in tow and come up stream at a lively speed with such a load.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Egotism is an affection of the I. Children learn to play bawl at a very early age.

The new senator from Kentucky will be Deboe of the Senate.

Polly Ticks will be Virginia's liveliest summer girl this year.

In base ball playing the pitcher contains the cream of the players.

It is far better to pray on your knees than to prey on your neighbors.

The good are never successful in catching fish—we tried it ourselves.

Wonder if the sailor lads ever swing with girls on the navigate? We rudder think they do.

The wife who buys "a duck of a ben-net," usually has to call on some old rooster of a husband to pay for it.

Judging from the divorce stories told before our courts, there is too much brimsicne in the matches.—Orange, Va. Observer.

Mr. Blount Dead.

A little past 4 o'clock this afternoon the sad intelligence was phoned the REFLECTOR that Mr. J. H. Blount was dead. He has been critically ill for several weeks, and while his death was not unexpected yet it carries sadness to every heart in the community. His sorrowing wife and mother have the deepest sympathy of every one.

The remains will be taken to Tarboro Monday for interment.

The REFLECTOR will give a sketch of the deceased later.

SATURDAY MAY 1, 1897.

PEOPLE LOVE TO BE SWINDLED.

We see an item in the Charlotte Observer that in Davidson county men are selling clothes lines for $1 that can be bought at any hardware store for 8 cents.

It is astonishing how people apparently love to be swindled. Notwithstanding the newspapers give warning after warning in just such matters as this, people go right on allowing themselves to be taken in by every stranger that comes along with something to offer. The above is but one among hundreds, yea thousands, of like incidents that occur all over the country.

Right here in Pitt county we have known of people giving peddlers $39 for a clock when one just as good could be purchased for one-fourth the money. We have known them to give $60 for a range when any stove dealer in Greenville could sell them one just as good or half the money. We have known them to pay fabulous prices for sewing machines when the home dealers could supply them just as well at a saving of from 50 to 100 per cent. We have known them to buy fruit trees and pay from two to ten times as much for them as the very same could be bought at from the home nurseries; in fact fruit tree agents have themselves bought trees from the nursery here and turned right around and sold them at 300 per cent. profit. We have known housekeepers in Greenville to pay a peddler $1 or more for a piece of tinware when any tinner in town could make an article just as good for 25 cents.

Other instances could be given, but these are enough to illustrate the point. Why people will continue to pursue such a course and allow themselves to be swindled so often, is more than the REFLECTOR can understand. But it seems that any oily tongued fellow can go through the town and country and find plenty of people on whom he can palm off his wares at a big price.

There are plenty of home merchants and dealers, good, honest men, who can supply you with all that is needed in the house or about the farm, and it is wisdom to trade with them instead of being taken in by every peddler that goes your way. You will save money by letting the peddlers entirely alone.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, April 30, 1897.

The democratic members of the Senate Finance Committee very properly declined to agree to the proposition to allow the amended tariff bill to be reported to the Senate as soon as the republicans have finished work upon it, which they say will be the first of next week. The democratic members of the committee do not expect to be able to get the bill changed in committee, nor do they desire to unnecessarily delay either its report to the Senate or its reaching a final vote, but they insist upon taking time enough to go over the bill, which has been so extensively changed that it is practically a new one, in order to acquaint themselves sufficiently with it to inform their colleagues in the Senate, and the country, why they oppose it, before it is reported to the Senate. To show that the demand is not made for delay, the democrats of the committee have employed two outside tariff experts to assist them in going over the bill.

The belief that Cleveland wants to be the democratic candidate in 1900 is prevalent among democrats in Congress and that his New York speech was his first move in that direction. Speaking on the subject Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, said: "As soon as he was out of office before, a plan of campaign was organized in his behalf. Although his nomination seemed to be the result of a popular wave in his favor the fact is that a sentiment for him was adroitly stimulated by articles in the country press and by literature sent out by mail, both emanating from a headquarters in New York. His friends had plenty of money and the same organization is at his disposal today." Representative Bland, of Missouri, said: "Yes, Cleveland hopes to be nominated, and he will be, but not by the democratic party, which will remain true to the principles declared at Chicago last year. He will be the candidate of the handful of people at the Reform Club dinner. I shall be very glad to see the issue directly made, for I do not believe Cleveland will find a corporal's guard to follow him. There is one good thing about the dinner. It shows that there is to be no concession and no compromise, and that the Cleveland party will not coalesce with the 6,500,000 who followed the regular standard bearer." Representative Stallings, of Alabama, said: "I should not wonder if Cleveland hopes to gather to himself the republicans, especially in the West, who are not favorable to a high tariff. He will get support from wherever he can and from whatever party that is willing to help him in his ambitions. The democracy, however, will go ahead and make its fight without him." Representative Carmack, of Tennessee, said: "I have heard the gentlemen who participated in the Reform Club dinner called the Waldorf democracy, because they met at the hotel of that name, but I call them the walled-off democracy, because they are by themselves, representing nobody, and unable to influence a vote. I have no doubt that Cleveland or his friends are scheming to have him nominated in 1900, but they will certainly not be successful if they hope to have him at the head of the regular democracy. He will never be in the ranks of our party again."

"Teddy" Roosevelt was acting Secretary of the Navy for a whole week but about the only indication the public had of it was "T. Roosevelt, Acting Secretary" printed at the bottom of an advertisement for sealed proposals for the purchase of the waste paper of the Navy Department for the fiscal year beginning July 1st. The suggestion has been made that "Teddy" is victim of the "tired feeling" incidental to the coming of warm weather, and that he will have to brace up on tonics before starting to get frisky.

Lorin A. Thurston, who was early in the Cleveland administration given a hint by the late Secretary Gresham that his resignation as Hawaiian minister to the United States would be agreeable and who was wise enough to accept the hint and go home, has been in Washington for several weeks. He is now a special annexation Commissioner of the Hawaiian government. He thought the annexation business was all fixed, but the fight that is being made to have a clause inserted in the new tariff bill abrogating the treaty with Hawaii, under which sugar comes into the United States free of duty, has frightened him. Next to annexation his government values the treaty, which practically amounts to commercial annexation. Thurston has filed a long argument against abrogation of the treaty with the Senate Committee on Finance, in which he endeavors to prove that the treaty is of great financial advantage to the United States. It is believed that the action of Pension Commissioner Evans, in calling for the resignation of every democratic chief of division in the Pension Bureau, to take effect May 1, indicates what will be done in all other departments with the chiefs and other high salaried positions.

Thankful for Something to Pay Tax On.

All of us growl more or less about having to pay taxes, and not infrequently the growling is unnecessary and unwarranted by the facts. The Greensboro Record tells of an effective rebuke delivered by an old gentleman to a young man who was raising a rumpus about his taxes being so high. After listening to his tirade the old man said: "Young man, let me tell you how you can keep from paying any tax, and at the same time you will be fulfilling a Bible injunction."

"All right," said the fellow, "go ahead with it."
 "Sell what you have and give it to the poor and then you won't have anything to pay tax on except your fool head, and that is not worth it. I am thankful I have something to pay tax on myself."

Since that time that young man has paid his taxes without grumbling, though it has some times been hard work for him to raise the money.

The rebuke was a just one. There are burdensome taxes and unnecessary taxes, but most of us ought to be thankful that we have something to pay taxes on.—Statesville Landmark

'T WAS EVER THUS.

A few days since an insurance agen accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend.
After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—
"House insured?"

"Yes."

"What do you insure it for?"

"Because it MIGHT burn."

"Not SURE of it, are you?"

"No."

"Is your life insured?"

"No."

"Dir, won't you?"

"Yes."

"Sure?"

"Yes."

"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"

"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers

The failure of some men to meet their just obligations is caused not so much by the lack of ability as by the lack of inclination. A controversy having arisen over the oldest teacher in the South, Prof. Gray, superintendent of public instruction of this county tells the News that the oldest teacher in continuous service in the State, and probably the oldest in the South, is Mr. G.
