Base Ball.

Pittsburg, May 3.—The home team opened the season here today successfully in every respect. Manager Donoyan, when he came to the bat was made the recipient of several beautiful presents from admirers. The game was a pretty one throughout. Killen broke the season's record for striking men out, putting eight of his opponents to shame. Score. Pittsburg, 7; Louisville, 4.

Brooklyn, May 3.—The regular season was opened in Brooklyn this afternoon with one of the most closely played games of the season. At the end of the eleventh, the game was called on account of darkness. The grounds were in a very bad condition and the game started in with rain. Score. Brooklyn, 3; Baltimore, 3.

Washington, May 3.—It was a sore band of rooters who left the grounds after today's game. The field was very wet and the cold weather threatened rain which finally came, but not before Umpire Lynch had rightfully forfeited the game to New York. Mercer, who is considered weak in the wet, was pounded for seven runs in the second inning. When it became apparent that the Giants had a good lead, the Senators endeavored to prolong the game so that the rain would become so heavy that five innings could not be finished. This was done in such a clumsy manner that Umpire Lynch forfeited the game. The game was terminated with only two men out in the last inning. Attendance 200. Score. Washington, 0; New York, 9.

Cleveland, May 3.—Cleveland put up an almost faultless game, despite the fact that Childs and McAleer were disabled and could not play. Sockalexis found in Breitnestin a pitcher he could not hit. Score. Cleveland, 6; Cincinnati, 2.

Chicago, May 3.—The opening game with St. Louis was postponed on account of wet grounds and cold weather.

Boston, Mass., May 3.—The Boston Philadelphia game was postponed on account of wet grounds. Two games will be played Wednesday

LATE NEWS.

Pittsburg, Pa., had a $2,500,000 fire on Monday.

Several distinct earthquake shakes were felt in portions of this State and Virginia about noon on Monday.

The Naval Reserves of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia are planning to have an encampment together this summer.

During the last five months 189,728 tons of fertilizer were sold in this State. Putting this at an average price of $22.50 a ton makes an outlay of $4,268,880. This is an enormous drain upon the farmers.

A unique suit is that which has been begun by the state of Missouri to recover from the estate of Arthur Duestrow, who was recently hanged for murder, the cost of the prosecution which led up to that result.

Tar River Lodge K. of P.

In Masonic hall, Tuesday night, was organized a Knights of Pythias lodge under the name of Tar River Lodge. Visiting Pythians were here from Wilson, Rocky Mount, Tarboro and Washington.

The following officers were elected and installed:

- Chancellor Commander.—H. W. Whedbee.
- Vice Chancellor.—L. I. Moore.
- Prelate.—Dr. R. L. Carr.
- Master of Work.—G. J. Woodward.
- Keeper of Record and Seals.—Frank Wilson.
- Master of Finance.—R. Williams.
- Master of Exchequer.—F. C. Harding.
- Master of Arms.—B. F. Sugg.
- Inner Guard.—J. Hugh Parham.
- Outer Guard.—J. M. Reuss.
- Past Chancellors.—Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Frank Wilson and J. Hugh Parham.

Fourteen members were initiated and it took until 4:30 A. M. to complete the work.

Something Worth Knowing.

Mr. John A. Sims, Chief Clerk in the Auditor's office, says bruised peach tree leaves make the best application for the wound made by a rusty nail in the foot. In winter the bark of the roots of the peach tree broken up fine will answer the same purpose. He says he has never known serious results to follow when this remedy was used in time. Use a liberal quantity and put fresh ones on several times a day until the wound heals. A strip of cloth must be bound around to keep the poultice in place, of course.

One of Mr. Sims' sons stepped on a nail a few days ago, which penetrated his shoe and foot to a considerable depth. Peach tree leaves were applied and the wound is healing up nicely.

A wound from a rusty nail is very dangerous, often causing lockjaw and death. Hence it will be well to remember this remedy and use it promptly.—Progressive Farmer.

WEDNESDAY MAY 5, 1897.

Senator Butler a Protectionist.

The third annual banquet of the People's party of Massachusetts at Arcade Hall tonight was attended by nearly 150 persons.

George W. Washburn, chairman of the Populist State committee, presided, and Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, made the principal address of the evening.

After reviewing the political situation and showing how the great fundamental principles of the Populist party are gaining ground with all classes and conditions of producers and consumers, he said:

"The 9,000,000 laborers, who are at work in the cotton fields of the South and the wheat fields of the West must be protected against foreign pauper labor, just the same as the 4,000,000 laborers who are employed in manufacturing. This must be done, or you will have no customers for your goods."

"We need a true American system for all American labor and American industry. Neither the Democratic nor Republican parties have offered us this. They both offer remedies that are contradictory. The gold standard and free trade go logically together, hand in hand."

"The farmers and manufacturers of this country should join hands in at least two great economic questions. They should stand solidly for an American system of finance and for a just and equitable system that will protect all American industry and American labor. This is the position of the People's party; it is the only logical and only true American position."—Boston Dispatch.

Stories on Tobacco Men.

Some years ago, before tobacco raising became general in any part of South Carolina, a farmer in that State applied to the Raleigh Board of Trade "for a quart or so of tobacco seed." He stated that he wanted "to try his hand on a little patch." As a couple of quarts of tobacco seed will produce enough plants to set out an entire county, only about a spoonful were sent. Toward fall the Palmetto man sent a letter of complaint in which he said that the seed must have been defective in some way, for not one of the stalks had "any sign of a plug on it."

A North Carolina tobacco farmer tells a good one on a Georgia man who was experimenting with the filthy weed. The Georgia man selected the right kind of land and cultivated his tobacco crop pretty well. During the early fall the North Carolinian was in the vicinity and the amateur tobacco farmer invited him to inspect his crop, stating that it was "fine," equal, he was sure, to any ever raised in North Carolina. When they arrived at the tobacco field it didn't take the North Carolinian but a few seconds to see that the tobacco had never been "topped," and was in full bloom, that is, the slender stalks were, for there was but little tobacco in sight.

Clairvoyancy Up-to-Date.

"Are you the celebrated Mme. Roulette?" he asked, after he had climbed four flights of stairs and was admitted into the mysterious interior.

"Yes," replied the bizarre-looking personage who had received him.
 "The great clairvoyant?"
 "Yes."
 "And you foretell the future?"
 "It is so."
 "And you read the mind?"
 "Verily."
 "And unfold the past?"
 "I do."
 "Then," said the visitor eagerly, as he took a large wad out of his pocket, please tell me what it was my wife asked me to bring her home tonight."

Just a Little of the Gravy.

An ex-Confederate soldier of South Carolina tells this story:

"I had a friend who was a chaplain in our army—a good man, as such men should be. Several of his own church members were in the same regiment. He kept a sharp eye on us and tried to train us in the way we should go. And when we were rather short for rations some of the boys brought in a fine young porker. 'Now, boys, that's wrong,' said he. 'It is simply stealing. You ought not to do it.'"

"Well, our consciences don't trouble us, and yours won't trouble you when we get this meat cooked. You will want some of it, too."

"No, I won't eat it. I'd as soon eat stolen meat."

"But we divided it up among the boys and proceeded to cook a ham in the best possible style. The smell of it fairly made our teeth water, and when it was cooked we were more than ready for it."

"There's a fine piece. Cut that off for the chaplain," said one.

"No, I thank you," said he. "I said I wouldn't eat it, and I won't, but—passing up his plate—I'll take a little of the gravy."—Detroit Journal.

Father of 35 Children.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 3.—Isaac Gassonowitz was sitting in the front door of the basement when the doctor came out of a rear room and touched the old man on the shoulder. "Your thirty-fifth child is a boy," said he.

The cry of an infant in the rear room did not startle Gassonowitz. He had heard the sound before. He continued to sit on the stool and smoke a short black stemmed pipe. The baby may do splendidly in the clairvoyant line late, for it was born with a caul and is the multiple of a seventh son.

His mother has given birth to 14 children. She is the second wife of the baby's father. The first wife bore 21 children to bless their union. Thirty of the children were boys. Gassonowitz is a small man, a tinsmith by trade. He is 66 years old. "I should be very proud," he said, "if I were the father of forty children. Then I would ask for a medal and a pension."

Gassonowitz was one of 21 children by one father and mother.

Will Rest on his Honors.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Bob Fitzsimmons arrived in this city from Pittsburgh today. He immediately set aside all chances of a match between himself and Joe Choynski by declaring that the posting of $1,000 by "Parson" Davies with Al Smith to further an encounter for the championship some time next fall was futile. Fitzsimmons added that he did not intend to fight anybody for a while, and it he does make up his mind to go into the ring once more, his next opponent will not be Choynski.

Fought Without Regard for Rules.

BUFFALO, May 3.—Isadore Strauss, of Philadelphia, won from Joe Mullins, of Boston in the second round of their fight at the Olympic Athletic club tonight. It was a hurricane fight from the start. The men went at each other rough and tumble, with little regard for the rules of the ring, punching each other in the clinches and compelling the referee to break them by main force at least a dozen times in the first round. They threw each other on the ropes and in the air. Mullins' foul fighting aroused the house against him. In the second round he tried his old trick of ducking to catch his opponent's rush on the shoulder; but Strauss caught him with an uppercut which laid him out, or at least he lay still until counted out. Then he got up quite fresh, ran over to Strauss' corner and punched him in the face.

A Smile.

She smiled upon his suit. He was tastefully, richly dressed, and they were at dinner.

He playfully touched his glass to hers to drink a health to their happiness.

And she—she smiled upon his suit. That is to say, the cherry cocktail she had raised was precipitated upon his satin waistcoat.

She, however, steadfastly maintained that he had fogged her elbow.

Baptists, See Here!

The Southern Baptist Convention meets this year in Wilmington, N. C., May 8th. Now, you want to go to this convention, and you also want to go in style and comfort. There is only one good firstclass line from the South and Southwest to Wilmington, and that line is the Seaboard Air Line, which runs the finest and fastest trains in the South and makes the lowest rates of any railroad running from the South or Southwest. Don't be fooled into making your arrangements until you have consulted one of the Seaboard Air Line agents, who always esteem it a pleasure to serve you. B. A. Newland, General Agent Passenger Department, 6 Kimball House, Atlanta, Ga., will be glad to write you or call on you, or you can apply to any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line in any town or city. This is the official route. Do you want to go with your friends?

AN ENEMY OF YANKEES.

A Southern Woman Who Complained to Grant—A Feminine Oddity.

General Horace Porter gives many amusing pictures of army life in his series of papers on "Campaigning With Grant" in The Century. He tells the following story of the campaign on the North Anna in the February Century: When I recrossed the river and returned to headquarters in the evening, I found General Grant sitting in front of his tent smoking a cigar and anxious to hear the report as to the extent of the damage to the railroad. About the time I finished relating to him what had been accomplished an old woman who occupied a small house near by strolled over to headquarters, apparently bent upon having a friendly chat with the commander of the Yankee armies. The number of questions she asked showed that she was not lacking in the quality of curiosity which is supposed to be common to her sex. She wore an old-fashioned calico dress about six inches too short, with the sleeves rolled up to the elbows. She had a nose so sharp that it looked as if it had been caught in the crack of a door and small gray eyes that twinkled and snapped as she spoke.

She began by nodding a familiar "How do you do?" to the general and saying in a voice which squeaked like the high notes of an E flat clarinet with a soft reed, "I believe you command all these hyah Yankees that are comin down hyah and cavortin round over this whole section of country?" The general bowed an assent, and she continued, "I'm powerful glad General Lee has been lickin you all from the Rapidan cl'ah down hyah, and that now he's got you jes' whah he wants you."

Then she drew up a camp chair alongside the general, seated herself on it and, finding that her remarks seemed to be received good naturedly, grew still more familiar and went on to say: "Yes, and af' long Lee'll be a-chasin you all up through Pennsylvania ag'in. Was you up thah in Pennsylvania when he got aftah you all last summer?" The general had great difficulty in keeping his face straight as he replied: "Well, no; I wasn't there myself. I had some business in another direction." He did not explain to her that Vicksburg was at that time commanding something of his attention. Said she: "I notice our boys got away with lots of 'em Conestoga hosses up thah, and they brought lots of 'em back with 'em. We've got a pretty good show of 'em round this section of country, and they're jes' the best draft horses you ever see. Hope the boys'll get up thah ag'in soon and bring back some more of 'em."

The general kept on smoking his cigar and was greatly amused by the conversation. After a little while the woman went back to her house, but returned later and said: "See hyah; I'm all alone in my house, and I am kinder skeered. I expect them Yankee soldiers of youn'll steal everything I have and murder me af' morning if you don't give me some protection." "Oh," replied the general, "we'll see that you are not hurt," and, turning to Lieutenant Dunn of the staff, he said: "Dunn, you had better go and stay in the old lady's house tonight. You can probably make yourself more comfortable there than in camp anyhow, and I don't want her to be frightened."

Dunn followed the old woman rather reluctantly to her house and played guardian angel to her till the next morning.

Attention Veterans.

The Bryan Grimes Camp of Pitt county Confederate Veterans will meet at the College grounds near Greenville, on Wednesday, May 26, 1897, to transact important business and to arrange for transportation to the reunion at Nashville, Tenn., June 22, 23, 24 and 25. By insuring today, your estate is increased in value at once.

'T WAS EVER THUS.

A few days since an insurance agent accepted an invitation to inspect a new and beautiful house built by a friend. After taking a peep at the whole establishment from top to bottom, inquired—

"House insured?"
"Yes."
"What do you insure it for?"
"Because it MIGHT burn."
"Not SURE of it, are you?"
"No."
"Is your life insured?"
"No."
"Di. won't you?"
"Yes."
"Sure?"
"Yes."
"Then why not insure your life as well as your house?"

"Well, really, I never thought of the matter just in that light before, and will give it early attention."—Travelers Record.

"FROM FROST TO FLOWERS."

California or Mexico?

Both are such desirable objective points for a Winter trip that it's perhaps hard for you to decide where to go.

Let us Help You to a Decision.

A trip via New Orleans and the Southern Pacific to either Mexico or the Pacific Coast is one you will never forget.

It's a Transition from Frost to Flowers.

And the service is so luxurious that people who have tested "Sunset Limited" call it incomparable.

If you are Thinking of Going, Write Us.

We have a book entitled "Through Storyland to Sunset Seas," a handsome volume of 205 pages, fully illustrated, which we will send on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to cover postage. We also have a delightful little guide to Mexico, which we will send on receipt of 4 cents to cover cost of mailing.

You Really Ought to Read them Both.

Shall we put you down for a copy? If so, or if you want any special information, it will be cheerfully furnished by addressing.

It is enough to make Greenville folks feel sick when they hear that nearly all the towns in the State went Democratic at Monday's election.

Good Shoes.

Talking about shoes, we know of a pair purchased from J. B. Cherry & Co. about the first of October, 1895, that have just been put aside by the wearer. In this time the shoes in question gave 14 months actual service. It takes a good shoe to last that long, and this is evidence that J. B. Cherry & Co. sell that kind.

Bicycle Races at Tarboro.

Our neighboring town, Tarboro had a gala day at the bicycle races on Tuesday and a large crowd was in attendance. During the morning there was a bicycle parade in which were 70 wheels. This was followed by a bicycle tournament participated in by 12 boys.

The races took place in the afternoon.

1st Race—1 lap, $\frac{3}{4}$ mile, won by Glennie Hedges in 56 seconds. Prize, gold medal.

2nd Race—3 miles, won by Mark Cherry, of Bethel, in 10:11 2-5. Prize, handsome bicycle.

3rd Race—1 mile, won by Joe Knight.

4th Race—Tandem, 1 lap, won by Glennie Hedges and Joe Savage in 53 $\frac{3}{4}$ seconds.

David James did not take part in the boys' race. Some of the boys saw him doing some practice spinning around the track and objected to his entering the race.

Miss Lela Cherry returned this morning from Ayden.

Mrs. Annie Bond, of Lumberton, is visiting the family of W. S. Leggett.

Capt. W. T. Pettway has charge of the passenger train while Capt. Hawks is away.

The Meeting.

The congregation at the Presbyterian church last night was even larger than on Monday night, the building almost crowded. Rev. B. H. Melton gave his hearers another excellent sermon, his topic being "The Rich Young Ruler." The singing was very enjoyable.

At tonight's service Mrs. T. E. Hooker will sing a solo "Take Time to be Holy."

Services begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

In Unity is Strength.

A town is like a large family; we are interested in each other's welfare—or should be. A cut throat every-man-for-himself-policy means ruin for the whole community. It means retrogression and failure. The first lesson any family must learn, to be happy and successful, is unity and mutual assistance. The same applies to the business life of a town and the more generally it is obeyed the more abundant will be the city's prosperity.—Canton Advance.

New Councilmen Meet.

The recently elected Councilmen of the town held a meeting in the Mayor's office this afternoon and were sworn in by Justice J. A. Lang.

J. A. Lang was made chairman of the meeting, and upon a vote for Mayor four votes were cast for J. W. Perkins and two for E. H. Snelburn.

The new Mayor was then sworn in and the following officers were elected:

Chief of Police—Fred Cox.

Clerk—A. L. Jones, colored.

Treasurer—J. E. Starkey.

The other offices were left to be filled at another meeting.

Lang's Cash House.

When sweet spring across the hills
Sets the prisoned flow'rets free;
When the babbling of the rills
Joins with song bird's symphony;
Then, it seems to us, we oughter
Turn our thoughts to soda-water.

For the balmy April breeze
Tells the sultry days are nigh
When we linger 'neath the trees,
And our throats are hot and dry,
Then Shelburn's soda fount
Fattens up his bank account.
