THE WOMAN'S EXPOSITION.

A Pitt County Woman Makes the Opening Address.

The Woman's Exposition being held in Charlotte was formally opened Tuesday night. Mrs. R. R. Cotten, of this county, a woman who at every appearance before the public brings credit and honor to her county, her State and herself, was selected to make the opening address.

We take from the Charlotte Observer the following in reference to the opening exercises:

It was 9 o'clock when the programme opened. Dr. J. B. Alexander mounted the platform and introduced the distinguished and gifted Mrs. Robert Cotten, who had been chosen to make the opening address. Dr. Alexander said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: The task which devolves upon me this evening is one of the most pleasant ones I have ever experienced--that of opening the Woman's Exposition--an exhibit that except in point of magnitude compares favorably with the World's Fair. I congratulate you upon having your fair upon the soil where the Mecklenburg Declaration was signed, and during the celebration which commends it. This is but an addendum to the celebration of Thursday night week.

"You are here for the purpose of hearing a woman, who, though born in Virginia, has identified herself with the Old North State, and who today is known as an advocate of higher education, and of all that will adorn her sex in North Carolina. She was one of three women in the State sent to represent North Carolina at the World's Fair. Her address in Washington, before the Woman's Congress of Mother's was telegraphed over the world. She is known through the length and breadth of this land as a representative woman of North Carolina. I have the proud pleasure to introduce to you Mrs. Robert Cotten."

A roar of applause greeted Mrs. Cotten as she stepped upon the platform, looking as she is, a cultured, refined and elegant woman.

Mrs. Cotten graciously acknowledged Dr. Alexander's handsome tribute and introduction, as follows:

"I am pleased and proud at all times to be considered a representative North Carolina woman, but in wearing such an honor I always feel like apologizing to those I represent for having been born in Virginia. That misfortune, however, was remedied by my coming to North Carolina in early childhood, and so I hope it will not be remembered against me. By education, by marriage, by love for State and solicitude for her welfare, I dare to claim nativity on the principle that 'tis home where'er the heart is,' and under this test I presume to enjoy the pleasure and privilege of addressing you tonight."

The address proper followed. It was a handsome effort, a glowing tribute to woman in her work, love, home and hopes and the Observer will do itself the pleasure and honor of publishing it in full later.

Mrs. Cotten was interrupted often with applause, and numbers pressed forward to thank her for her noble words and inspiring sentiments.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Sparks from a locomotive set fire to a lot of cotton on the depot platform at Wadesboro. Thirteen bales were destroyed.

Arthur Lipscomb, a brakeman on the Western N. C. Railroad, was killed Monday night by falling under the train.

Robbers blew open a safe in Durham Monday night. According to the Sun they made a nice job of it but got only $38 for their trouble.

The colored voters of one ward in Newbern held a meeting and denounced Gov. Russell for the part he is trying to take in running the government of that city.

Lightning struck the house of J. M. Moore, in Concord, Tuesday shattering the weatherboarding and ceiling in two rooms. A servant was knocked insensible but soon recovered.

Hon. W. D. Bynum, of Indiana, will visit North Carolina, making speeches at Winston and Charlotte, May 18th and 19th, in an effort to organize the gold standard advocates in this State.

The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of H. P. Cheatham, colored, of this State, to be Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, but a contest over his confirmation is reported.

William Davis, a lumber dealer of Yancey county was found dead in a mill pond a few days ago. The body was so badly decomposed and mutilated by fish that it was impossible to tell whether he was murdered or drowned.

Their Shirts Ready.

Today Willis Clark showed the REFLECTOR one of the new shirts for the Rough and Ready Fire Company. The shirts are made of navy blue water proof flannel with sailor collars, trimmed in white braid. They are neat and serviceable. Willis says his boys are mighty proud of the way our people assisted them in getting new shirts for the company, and they propose to prove themselves worthy wearers of the firemen's uniform.

Excursion Coming.

We learn that on the 27th of this month the colored people of Kinston will have a big excursion to Greenville. Three Sunday schools, the fire company and a base ball club will come over. The features of the day will be a parade and match game of base ball.

Lucy Ashby and Robert Burns will trot at Norfolk on Wednesday afternoon. 19th. Peterson & Cordon's excursion will arrive in Norfolk in time for the excursionists to see the afternoon races on that day.

DOING JUST RIGHT.

The editor of the Warrenton Record takes off his old straw hat, which he has worn during all the winter, and makes his best bow to a young lady in that community for a beautiful loaf of bread, which was baked by the fair one herself and presented to the worthy editor.

That is business. There is yet hope for the profession. We trust that we are about to enter upon a new era, one that will be fraught with untold and unnumbered blessings, a large portion of them coming in the shape of loaves of bread.

There is something substantial about such gifts. They make better man of us, and, for a time, at least, the whole world seems brighter. The Record man already exhibits more snap and ability. Every line in his paper last week was stronger and there was a much better makeup noticeable.

Editors have been the recipients of various things for hundreds of years, but not the kinds that conquer hunger. They write handsome notices about weddings but never get any of the cake. They write obituaries that frequently cause other prominent citizens to hasten their departure in order to get a flattering death notice. But when the estate is divided no property goes to the poor editor. We publish miles of matter about six hundred pound hogs, but nary ham do we get. We publish the biography of cows said to give five gallons of milk per day, but drink coffee without cream Sunday morning and Adam's ale the balance of the week. After writing tons of matter about twin calves we find it necessary to wear horsehide shoes and eat steak which may or may not be beef. We get permission to write up all the fifteen pound turnips and potatoes in the community and have to eat poke salad every spring. In short, we must run a free show and pay the band and keep the tent repaired. Let us rise up as one man and call the Warrenton girl blessed, for she is truly a benefactor, a second Florence Nightingale.—Progressive Farmer.

Witnesses before the Senate committee investigating the workings of the Civil Service laws have made serious charges against Post Office Department officials under the Cleveland Administration.

A correspondent from an eastern county, who is a Republican all over, says that Governor Russell's policy is not at all satisfactory to the party. He complains that the Governor has appointed men who voted against him to positions over the heads of some who were his supporters. He adds that the party is only waiting a chance to get even.—Raleigh Tribune.

The fact that woman is becoming a very large extent self supporting was emphasized last week by a unique gathering in Philadelphia—a working girl's convention. There are at the present time between four and five millions of women and girls in the United States that are employed in earning a living.

The Pythian temple to be erected in Washington, at a cost of half a million dollars, will be a splendid edifice and a fitting memorial of the many beautiful deeds that have found their motive in the Order's trinity of watchwords—"Friendship, Charity and Benevolence." There are 600,000 Knights of Pythias in the United States.

WHY DON'T YOU LAUGH.

JAMES COURTNEY CHALLISS.

Why don't you laugh young man, when troubles come, Instead of sitting 'round so sour and glum?

You cannot have all play And sunshine every day ; When troubles come, I say, why don't you laugh ?

Why don't you laugh? 'Twill ever help to soothe,

The aches and pains; no road in life is smooth ; There's many an unseen bump, And many a hidden stump

O'er which you'll have to jump. Why don't you laugh ?

Why don't you laugh? Don't let your spirits wilt ;

Don't sit and cry because the milk you've spilt ;

If you would mend it now, Pray, let me tell you how :

Just milk another cow, why don't you laugh ?

Why don't you laugh, and make us all laugh too,

And keep us mortals all from getting blue ?

A laugh will always win ;

If you can't laugh, just grin— Come on, let's all join in! Why don't you laugh ?

The Quiet Observer.

Woman's weaknesses are her tower of strength.

A woman may not be very curious naturally, but she can't resist the temptation to watch her neighbor moving out.

A woman is never quite so proud as when she first goes out with a brand new baby in a brand new coach.

When a woman begins to get uncomfortably fleshy she is "nice and plump." Her equally stout acquaintances she calls "disgustingly fat."

The honeymoon ends when the wife concludes it isn't necessary for her to sit up till her husband comes in.

A woman generally sharpens a lead pencil as if she were chopping wood.

AN OLD WAR LETTER.

Col. W. F. French has in his possession a number of old papers and documents, which he sometimes peruses with interest and pleasure. In looking over them last week he came across a letter written in the dark days of the war, which is not only interesting but amusing. The letter was written at Halifax and through the kindness of Col. French we have been allowed to copy it for publication in the Robesonian. It is as follows:

January 27th '64.

COL. W. F. FRENCH,

Col: By your order we were placed under arrest by Lieut. McCullum for killing a chicken. I will state the facts of the matter to you. Being pressed by hunger we went out and tried to buy something to eat and failing to do so we killed a chicken. After killing it we paid ten dollars for it. I will also state that we have paid for the cartridge. We hope that you will please release us as we think we have suffered enough already. Paying five dollars for the cartridge after having to pay for the chicken is, in our estimation, punishment, though it may not be in yours.

I will also state that you are punishing the innocent by making the guards suffer in the cold guarding us. If you release us we will assure you that we will never be guilty of the like again.

We are, Colonel,
Your Obedt. Servts.,
J. W. HALL,
JAS. IVEY,
J. H. SADBERRY,
Privates in Co. I. 3rd. Regt. Jr. Res.

This strong defense, especially the latter part of it, did not fall on unheeding ears. The weather was bitter cold and as Col. French did not wish to punish the innocent guards he gave orders to release the prisoners. It is presumed that they kept their promise to reform as they were not again arrested for "killing" chickens.—Lumberton Robesonian.

Base Ball.

Washington, May 11.—The playing of the Washington team today was weak in almost every department, and while the Orioles did not play exceptionally well, they outclassed the Senators. In the second Doyle became involved in a discussion with Umpire Hurst, which culminated in his exclusion from the game and grounds. He was succeeded by Tom O'Brien. Score. Washington, 3; Baltimore, 6.

Pittsburg, May 11.—The home team suffered its first shut out of the season today. The visitors made their run on a base on balls followed by two batters. Lewis managed to keep the hits scattered and his support was errorless. Score. Pittsburg, 0; Boston, 2.

Chicago, May 11.—Both teams played loosely today and the game was one sided and uninteresting until the close. Hoy again played a wonderful game in centre and Dahlen made the first home run of the season. Score. Chicago, 5; Cincinnati, 6.

Cleveland, May 11.—Cuppy puzzled the Bridegrooms worse today than did Daub the Indians yesterday. The visitors got one hit in the first, one in the eighth and one in the ninth. They did not get a man to second base until the ninth, when Jones stole second and stayed there while three batters went out. The features of the game were the batting of Burkett and Wallace and the base running of Sockalexis. Score. Cleveland, 7; Brooklyn, 0.

Louisville, May 11.—Louisville New York game prevented by wet grounds.

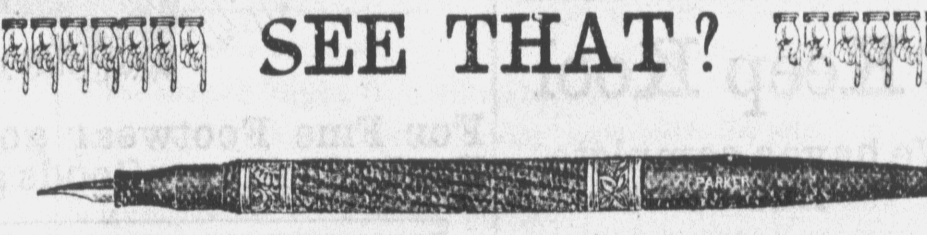

St. Louis, May 11.—St. Louis Philadelphia game postponed on account of rain.

MINUTES ARE PRECIOUS.

A good business man said to us today. "I'll see you in a minute." We have not seen him yet, and that has been several hours ago.

Minutes are precious things, when you come to consider them seriously. Did you ever stop a minute to think what may happen in a minute?

In a minute, we have been whirled around on the outside of the earth by its diurnal motion a distance of 13 miles. At the same time we shall have gone along with the earth, in its grand journey around the sun, 1,080 miles. Pretty quick traveling, you say? Why, that is slow work compared with the rate of travel of that ray of light which just now, reflected from that mirror, made you wink. A minute ago that ray was 11,160,000 miles away.

In a minute, over all the world, about 80 new born infants have each raised a wail of protest at the fates for thrusting existence upon them, while as many more human beings, weary with the struggle of life, have opened their lips to utter their last sigh.

In a minute the lowest sound your ear can catch has been made by 990 vibrations, while the highest tone reached you after making 2,228,000 vibrations.

A minute means a great deal, notwithstanding the fact that many people hold it of no consequence. Look after the minutes and the hours will take care of themselves.—Durham Sun.

The Meeting.

The congregations continue large at the Presbyterian church to hear Rev. H. B. Melton. He delivered another excellent sermon last night. The service at the church this morning was also a delightful one.

Services as usual tonight at 8 o'clock.

Baptist Meeting.

As has been in contemplation several months, a protracted meeting will be started in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. A. W. Setzer, on next Sunday to continue until the meeting of the Roanoke Union here on Thursday night before the fifth Sunday. Rev. P. G. Elsom, of Danville, Va., will arrive Monday to assist in the meeting. Mr. Elsom has quite a wide reputation as an Evangelist and earnest worker in the Master's cause. He has held several very successful meetings, in this State. The vocalist who assists Mr. Elsom in his evangelistic work is expected Friday to get the choir in readiness for the work. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the meeting and co-operate in the work.

The frequent light showers this morning culminated in a good rain this afternoon. There was some thunder along with it.
