THAT

TAILORS CAN GIVE THEM

They don't cost too much. They are ready to put on without a wrinkle. You have seen the browns, olives, green mixtures, plaids--the swell colorings of the of the season--we've got them here plenty as pie at a fair. We show the best.

C. T. MUNFORD.

Base Ball.

St. Louis, May 21--Donahue was a perfect snap for the Bean Eaters today and the game went to Boston on the strength of their hitting. Duffy made two four baggers and Collins put up his daily home run. The Browns fielded well with the exception of Houseman. Score. St. Louis, 1; Boston, 11.

Cincinnati, May 21--The Baltimores were defeated by the Reds today in an exciting game. McGraw was again put out of the game by Umpire Sheridan. Score. Cincinnati, 6; Baltimore, 5.

Louisville, May 21--Both teams made the same number of hits and errors today, but the Brooklyn's hits were more timely and the Colonels' two misplays were costly. Criffin, Jones and Simdle did great work with the stick. Score. Louisville, 6; Brooklyn, 8.

Cleveland, May 21--No game, wet grounds.

Pittsburg, May 21--In Philadelphia's ninth inning when the game was well won by Pittsburg, Hawley sent two men to bases on balls. Orth's single filled the sacks and Delhanty's three bagger scored the three runs and fixed the score. Orth, who had gone in to bat for Wheeler, had to pitch the game out. He hit one better, gave a base on balls and then made a wild throw, letting in the winning run. Score. Pittsburg 6; Philadelphia, 5.

The Printer.

A printer doesn't rush to the doctor when he is out of "sorts," says an exchange. Nor to the baker when he is out of "pi." Nor to hell when he wants the "devil." Nor to the Bible when he wants a good "rule." Nor to the gunshop when he wants a "shooting stick." Nor to a cabinet shop when he wants "furniture." Nor to a bank when he wants "quoins." Nor to a girl when he wants a "press." Nor to a lawyer when he has a "dirty case." Nor to a butcher when he wants "phat." Nor to a pump when he is dry--and has ten cents in his pocket.

The Meeting.

Greenville has never been more stirred religiously than during the meetings which Rev. P. G. Elsom is now conducting here. He preaches powerfully and the Holy Spirit is greatly blessing the work. Rev. N. M. Watson, the beloved pastor of the Methodist church, assists him at every service and he is also a power in the meetings. The Christians of all denominations have united earnestly in the work and the result is many souls are being brought to Christ.

Saturday night Mr. Elsom preached an able sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ." There were several conversions at this service. Sunday was a day devoted to fasting and prayer, and we do not believe the Christians of the town ever spent a happier day. Four services were held during the day and there were conversions at every one of them. At 10 o'clock Mr. Elsom talked to the children of the town at the Methodist church where the different Sunday schools had assembled. Mr. Watson also made an earnest talk. The other services were held in the Baptist church.

The church was nearly filled with men at the service held specially for them at 3 o'clock, and the women held a prayer meeting in the Sunday school room at the same hour. Mr. Elsom talked plainly to the men and they listened to him with interest and feeling. Sunday night the crowd overflowed the church many men even seeking standing room about the doors.

The cottage prayer meeting this morning was one of praise and thanksgiving for the blessings that had attended the services on Sunday. Nearly every one present told of some special blessing that God had bestowed upon him or her. The meeting tomorrow morning will be held at the home of Miss A. M. Perkins.

Tonight Mr. Elsom will preach a sermon for saloon men and it is hoped every one in town will be present. He says he is not going to abuse them but wants to show them by argument that their business is wrong.

At 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon another service will be held in the Methodist church for the children.

Envelopes were distributed through the congregation Sunday afternoon and night in which to make a free will offering to aid the meeting. These envelopes are to be taken up at the service tonight and if the people contribute in the degree that the town has been blessed the offering will be a large one.

The meeting will continue until Thursday or Friday, with services at 4 and 8 P. M.

Mr. H. F. Keel tells us that he has tobacco plants 17 inches across and corn knee high. He says his crops are the finest he ever had at this time of the year.

People at the Baptist church Sunday could not notice and admire the vase of beautiful flowers--lilies and roses--that occupied the table in front of the pulpit. They were there by the thoughtfulness of Mr. Ollen Warren, of Riverside Nurseries.

A SIGN OF THE TIMES.

Scarcely a day passes without giving renewed emphasis to the depressed financial condition of the country, notwithstanding the profuse pledges of better times with which the present administration opened. Even the most devout follower of Mark Hanna in the late campaign is sorely perplexed over existing troubles, and is curious to know, with the balance of mankind, what has become of the promised wave of prosperity.

Some idea of the restless despondent feeling which exists in this immediate section of the country over the depressing outlook for the future may be gleaned from the fact that a negro in Dublin, Laurens county, Georgia being unable to secure work, took deliberate steps to be put in the chain gang, and thus, at least, be assured of food.

Does the case of the Dublin negro stand alone? Urged on by the pangs of hunger, others, no doubt, have in their desperation been induced to commit crimes for the very same reason.

While various explanations of the want and poverty which are now distressing the masses of our people may be assigned, it nevertheless remains that up to the present time the party now in power has utterly failed to redeem its pledges and that the country is no better off since than before the election. In view of the confident predictions made by the Republican boss last fall, when he dwelt in such glowing terms upon "the advance agent of prosperity," the long-suffering public would like to know what is the matter.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Loans For Farmers.

Congress will soon be asked, it is stated by the New York Tribune, to charter the "Loan and Mortgage Bank Company of the United States," an institution which is to loan money to farmers in all parts of the United States at 4.65 per cent. The corporation, which is to resemble the Credit Foncier of France, is to have a capital of $100,000,000 in shares of $10 each. Loans will be made up to 50 per cent. of the value of land mortgaged. In consideration of the mortgage the borrower will not get cash, but a bond bearing 3.65 per cent. interest, which bond will, it is thought, be salable at a premium. The loan will be repaid in quarterly installments, which, at the option of the borrower, may be made so small as to extend over seventy-five years. At the end of the term agreed upon there will be nothing to pay, since each quarterly payment will include a small contribution to a sinking fund.

The charter, as drawn up by J. R. Dos Passos, of New York, will also authorize the company to do a general trust and banking business. The government will not be asked to subscribe to the company's capital stock, but will on the contrary, be secured the right to obtain at any time an advance of $25,000,000 at the current rate of interest. This proposal seems to look to the creation of special relations between the government and the bank, distinctly resembling those between the English government and the Bank of England. Managed in a strictly businesslike way, such a relation might not be without advantage to the government, especially after it goes out of the banking business, but at present it seems to be impracticable to exclude politics from such affairs.

Women Asked to Bare Their Heads in Church.

The Rev. R. F. Johannot of Unity Church, Oak Park, says he does not propose to have the theatre more advanced than the Church, and has ordered that hereafter women will unbonnet themselves during services. He believes that the Church of the future will have a dressing room, where ladies can leave their hats and wraps and a check room for overcoats and umbrellas.

"I do not ask my people in a compulsory spirit to remove their hats," he says. "I suggest it as a matter of courtesy, first to the Church, next to their pastor. As I said in public, I have two reasons. One, and the main one is that other people may enjoy the privileges of the sanctuary; the other, that the assembled worshippers may look more homelike. The women have accepted the edict in a friendly spirit of acquiescence. The heaven is working well, and I must express my gratitude to the young women of the choir who led the way. Of course, there are some of the members who will never change a custom until there is a change of fashion. As soon as it is fashionable to sit in church without a bonnet all the ladies will adopt it."—Chicago Dispatch.

Do You Know This About Osman Pasha.

The famous, celebrated Osman Pasha of the Turkish Army, was once a Confederate soldier and belonged to the Wytheville Greys of Wytheville county, Va. He was a dashing, dare devil, who in 1864 left the army in disgrace. By his schoolmates he was considered a bully and a coward. Under the Khedive of Egypt he distinguished himself as a fighter and attracted the attention of the Sultan of Turkey.

He was a West Point student, married an excellent Virginia lady, but after going to the Orient he became intensely oriental harem and all. His career is summed up thus: He left the Confederate Army for misappropriating government property, went to Mexico and gained a commission, got wealthy, returned to America tired of quiet life and went to Egypt, joined the Turkish Army, rose to the front, gained great distinction at the battle of Plovna in the Russo-Turkish war and is now the chief military adviser of the Sultan. In America he is known as Charley S. Crawford and is now 63 years old.

A certain number of women marry solely for love; a certain and perhaps larger number marry for reasons in which love and the desire to have a home of their own and money of their own are mixed up. Another small section marry purely from reasons of ambition, usually of a pecuniary kind—i. e., with the idea of becoming great personages through marriage. As a rule, however, these mercenary marriages are made not by a designing mother, who wishes to sell her daughter, but by a designing or rather ambitious girl, who deliberately wishes to climb the world's ladder by marriage.

The girls who deliberately try to better their positions by marriage are, however, by no means necessarily despicable people. A few are. Those, for example, who deliberately marry rich men of known bad character, very old men, or men of feeble intellect, or men they dislike. The majority, however, are very like the ambitious men who deliberately prefer getting on by marrying for other considerations, and so choose a rich wife. Theoretically, these must be rather unpleasant and repulsive people.

As a matter of fact, however, they are often nothing of the kind, and end by making good husbands. So it is with thousands of the girls who are said to sell themselves for money. We do not, of course, want to defend mercenary marriages, and we detest the notion of girls being brought up to think that money is the only object in life. It is, however, absolutely necessary to speak out about the current can concerning the marriage market.—Ex.

"MURDER WILL OUT."

One of the most repulsive crimes of recent years has just come to light in Chicago. One Luitgert, a German, who owns the largest sausage mill in the world, is believed to have disposed of his wife in a horrible manner. Having been married the second time, he tired of his wife, and in order to get rid of her took her to his mill, when it was shut down and deserted by employes, and having filled a vat (used ordinarily to prepare meat for the grinding mill) with quick-lime and other highly corrosive chemicals, he overpowered his wife and cast her body into the mixture. He afterwards, according to the theory of the police, fished out a few bones that had not been eaten up by the chemicals, and placed them where furnaces of the mill would consume them. When his wife was missed, he advanced the theory that she had drowned herself in a stream near his residence. He said his wife knew of his impending failure in business, and had threatened to take her life rather than face the misfortune. The stream was dragged for the body for some days without result, when suspicion attached to Luitgert and the mill was investigated by detectives. Murder will out. The almost utter impossibility of concealing crime was illustrated in this case. At the bottom of the vat, which had been emptied by Luitgert of the corrosive chemicals and flooded with water, was found a circlet of gold, the remnant of the wedding ring of the woman. The wife-murderer had neglected to remove it from his wife's finger, and the corroding mixture had not entirely consumed it. It was spared to be the first link in a chain of strong circumstantial evidence which is likely to result in the conviction of the accused husband. The crime was in all respects a remarkable one, planned with scientific skill and cunning, and the most minute precautions taken to cover up all traces of it, and yet it failed, and the sleuth-hounds of the law, with a science which matches that which planned and executed the murder, discovered the trail, difficult to find and follow, but yet promising to most surely result in eventual success. "Murder will out." Retributive justice cannot be escaped.—Charlotte Observer.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Daily his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvelous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the nights coming, he went to it with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

DE LEON, TEXAS. Messrs. LIPPMAN BROS., Savannah, Ga. Gents: I have used nearly four bottles of P. P. P. I was afflicted from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet. Your P. P. P. has cured my difficulty of breathing, smothering, palpitation of the heart, and has relieved me of all pain. One nostril was closed for ten years, but now I can breathe through it readily. I have not slept on either side for two years; in fact, I dreaded to see night come. Now I sleep soundly in any position all night.

I am 50 years old, but expect soon to be able to take hold of the plow handles. I feel glad that I was lucky enough to get P. P. P., and I heartily recommend it to my friends and the public generally. Yours respectfully, A. M. RAMSEY.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche.—Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the virtue of P. P. P. medicine is true.

DEATH OF MRS. I. A. SUGG.

About 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the sad intelligence was telephoned from their home, two miles from town, that Mrs. Mittie Sugg, wife of Col. I. A. Sugg, was dead. The sudden death of this excellent woman brought sadness and sorrow to the entire community. Though not in good health for sometime, she was well enough to be in town to see friends no longer ago than last Wednesday. She had a chill Thursday afternoon and was very sick the next day, but on Saturday morning was thought to be growing much better. In the afternoon she told those watching by her bedside that she wanted to go to sleep, and in a short while she fell asleep in Jesus. The end came suddenly yet peacefully, and she was called to that rest prepared for the people of God.

Before marriage deceased was Miss Mittie E. Rountree, daughter of Mr. Charles Rountree and sister of our townsman, Mr. C. D. Rountree. She was married to Col. I. A. Sugg Dec. 2nd, 1875. The husband and seven children survive her. While attending school in Raleigh she professed religion and joined the Baptist church at the age of 16 years and the remainder of her life was that of a Christian. She was a devoted wife and mother and a true friend. Every one sympathizes with the husband, children and brother in their bereavement.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, conducted by Revs. P. G. Elson and N. M. Watson, and the interment took place in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. M. King, A. A. Forbes, E. A. Moye, L. I. Moore, D. L. James, Zeno Moore and W. H. Long.

Lang's DRESS GOODS

The prettiest Line in town.

Lang Sells Cheap.

When sweet spring across the hills Sets the prisoned flow'rets free; When the babbling of the rills Joins with song bird's symphony; Then, it seems to us, we oughter Turn our thoughts to soda-water.

For the balmy April breeze Tells the sultry days are nigh When we linger 'neath the trees, And our throats are hot and dry, Then Shelburn's soda fount Fattens up his bank account.
