Base Ball.

New York, May 31--Twenty thousand persons saw the New Yorks administer a drubbing to the Pirates this afternoon at the Polo grounds, the morning game having been postponed on account of rain. It was all over after the four innings when the Giants scored runs on a double, a couple of singles and errors by Pittsburg. Tannehill went in to pitch for Pittsburg but could stand the pace for only two innings when Hastings relieved him and pitched good ball. Rusie was in good form and pitched a pretty game. Score. New York, 10; Pittsburg, 2.

Brooklyn, May 31--The Brooklyn and Cleveland teams celebrated memorial day at Easton park this afternoon and no less than 17,600 persons were on hand to assist them. The morning game was postponed because of rain. Brooklyn hit Young freely in the first two innings. Payne pitched a masterly game and kept the hits made off him well scattered. Brooklyn, 5; Cleveland, 2.

Chicago, May 31--The champions won the morning game which was long drawn out and loosely played. Pond's willness gave the local's their four runs. Score. Chicago, 4; Baltimore, 6.

The afternoon game was full of life and excitement and belonged to either side until the last out. Both pitchers were hit hard and freely. Corbett receiving perfect support, while Callahan's was rather ragged. Pieffer's pretty work at second was a feature. Game called at the end of ninth to allow the teams to catch their trains. Score. Chicago, 6; Baltimore, 6.

Philadelphia, May 31--The Phillies returned from their disastrous western trip today and played two games with Louisville. The visitors took the first by lucky hitting. Both teams scored one in the third, but steady pitching prevented scoring until the seventh when, with two out and two men on bases, Clark litted the ball over the right field fence. Score. Philadelphia, 2; Louisville, 4.

Philadelphia shut out Louisville in the second game. The features were the perfect fielding of both teams and the number of Philadelphians who scored after receiving gifts from the pitcher. Eight of the Phillies runs were so scored. Score. Philadelphia, 14; Louisville, 0.

Boston, May 31--Rain prevented the Boston-St. Louis morning game, and in the afternoon game the slippery grounds made good fielding almost impossible. St. Louis presented a crippled team. Houseman being sick and Hartman laid off with a sprained ankle. The Bostons batted heavily. Score. Boston, 25; St. Louis, 5.

Cincinnati, May 31--The senators were defeated by the Reds this morning in an exciting game. Both teams played snappy ball. Score. Cincinnati, 4; Washington, 3.

The Reds made it three straights by defeating the senators this afternoon. The playing of both Corcoran and Beckley was the feature. Score. Cincinnati, 4; Washington, 3.

New Law Firm.

It will be seen from the card in today's paper that J. L. Fleming, of this place and W. M. Bond, of Edenton, have formed a partnership for the practice of law. About two years ago Mr. Fleming associated with himself Mr. J. H. Blount and they continued together until Mr. Blount's death a short time ago. Their practice had grown to be a very large one both in the county and supreme courts.

Mr. Fleming, the surviving member of the former firm, is a young man of sterling integrity, energy, push and vim and with bright prospects as a lawyer. He has many friends in the town and county, and this together with his knowledge of the law and his ability as a speaker make a partnership with a very desirable one.

Mr. Bond is from Edenton N. C. and has already gained a reputation as a lawyer, his practice extending into almost all the counties of the First District. With a ripe experience, fine legal ability, force of character, affable address and personal magnetism, he is a worthy successor of the late lamented J. H. Blount, and a great addition to the legal fraternity of the county. Mr. Bond will come with his family and make Greenville his home soon.

This is a strong firm and we congratulate both Mr. Bond and Mr. Fleming upon the prospect of doing a large practice in this and surrounding counties.

School Closed.

Greenville Female School, taught by Miss Mary L. Lacy, closed for the term on Monday. This was the first session of this school and it was a success in every way. Miss Lacy is an excellent teacher and did efficient work. As a mark of their appreciation the pupils of the school presented her with a beautiful toilet case. Miss Lacy made hosts of friends in Greenville and all hope she will return here.

The W. W. Society of the Baptist church have presented the church with a handsome pulpit desk. The desk is of oak and is a beautiful piece of furniture.

The Masons hold their annual meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Whitelaw Reid will represent United States at Queen Victoria's jubilee.

Some attorneys in Vermont make from $5,000 to $20,000 year at the business of smuggling in Chinamen.

The Canadian Supreme Court has decided that a man or a woman who leaves Canada, resides in the United States long enough to get a divorce and then returns to Canada to live, may be punished for bigamy. If that law were adopted by some of our States it would knock the bottom out of the divorce industry of other States.—Wilmington Star.

The experiment of employing colored hands in a cotton factory is about to be made at Charleston S. C. Heretofore, white operatives have been employed exclusively. Some time ago the mills had to be closed on account of dull markets, and since then the 800 men, women, and children have been out of employment. The Charleston Cotton Mills have one of the largest plants in the southern country.

A large part of the stock is owned by O. H. Sampson, of Boston and other northern capitalists, and they contend that had negro labor been secured months ago, the mill would not have been compelled to stop. It was through northern influence that it has been settled that negroes alone shall be employed.—Richmond Dispatch.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

(Special correspondence of Reflector.)

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., June 1st '97
 Although the rain fell in torrents Sunday night, Monday was clear and altogether pleasant. Monday passed off quietly and without any unusual event except the arrival of more visitors and friends of the University.

At night the Alumni of the Dialectic and the Philanthropic Literary Societies held their annual meeting. In the Dialectic Society Rev. Dr. J. S. Felix, of Asheville, and Dr. Alex. McPheeters were made honorary members. Short and appropriate speeches were made by Dr. Felix, Dr. McPheeters, Dr. Richard Battle, of Raleigh, Attorney General Zeb Vance Waiser, Dr. K. P. Battle, of Chapel Hill, and others.

In the Philanthropic Society Mr. E. G. Muse, of Rocky Mount, was made an honorary member. Speeches were made by Col. Thomas S. Kenan, of Goldsboro, Hon. T. D. Winston, of Windsor, Judge F. A. Phillips, of Tarboro, Rev. P. D. Gold, of Wilson and others.

We should like to give a fuller account of these meetings with an outline of some of the speeches but we do not feel at liberty to do so since the societies are secret organizations. X.

THE SWEETEST THINGS ON EARTH.

What are the sweetest things on earth?
 A fragrant rose that hides no thorn;
 Riches of gold untouched by scorn;
 Lips that can praise a rival's worth.
 A happy little child asleep;
 Eyes that can smile, though they may weep;
 A brother's cheer, a father's praise;
 The minstrelsy of summer days.
 A heart where anger never burns;
 A gift that looks for no returns;
 Wrong's overthrow; pain's swift release;
 Dark footsteps guided into peace.
 The light of love in lovers' eyes;
 Age that is young as well as wise;
 A mother's kiss, a baby's mirth—
 These are the sweetest things on earth.
 —Century Magazine.

What the Doctor Says of Spring-Time Precautions.

That we can ward off the dreaded "spring fever" by avoiding worry.
 That worry, rather than work, is responsible for many distressing ailments.
 That a hearty laugh will often relieve the tension of an overworked brain.
 That a perpetual round of duties has a depressing effect upon the senses and the mind, and the best relief from this weariness is change of scene and air.
 That typhoid fever is due largely to choked drains both within and without the body.
 That brisk walking, with deep inspirations, with the mouth closed, helps to sweep out the products of waste, and also, by expanding the chest, is an antidote to possible pneumonia.

That it is very unwise to tempt the appetite of one who is indisposed, the cessation of appetite especially at this season, is a warning of nature that the system is in such a state that food cannot be easily digested, and a little judicious fasting may be of great benefit.

That drugs should be avoided whenever possible, and that the mouth should be thoroughly rinsed and the teeth carefully brushed after taking any kind of medicine.

That when one is feverish all drinks that are heating or exciting should be avoided. Pure fresh water is best, then lemonade, orangeade or teas made from some simple aromatic herbs for quenching thirst in fevers.

That every one with a tendency to neuralgia, rheumatism sciatica should beware of taking off their flannels too early in the spring; in fact, it is best to wear wool next to the skin all the the year round, as in warm weather very light weight flannels prevent chills after perspiration.

Leprosy in Baltimore.

There is a female leper at the Johns Hopkins hospital this city. She was taken to the institution several weeks ago, suffering from what was supposed to be a skin eruption, but after a careful diagnosis of her case by the physicians at the hospital it was discovered that the woman was a victim of the terrible disease of leprosy. When the truth of the case dawned on the physicians the unfortunate woman was isolated from the rest of the patients, and in that condition she will be kept at the hospital until arrangements can be made with the health authorities to remove her elsewhere. This woman is a native of that city, and it is thought contracted the terrible malady a number of years ago while in the West Indies.

Frederick Markley of Church, Mich., lost his voice when a boy 50 years ago and has just recovered it, he believes in answer to prayer.

Just Like Them.

"While Boston was engaged in worrying over the treatment of the negro in the South, a colored gentleman slipped into the Boston fire department, and the people up there feel like turning the hose on themselves."

There is a volume of truth in these few lines.

The incident referred to is thoroughly characteristic of the New England attitude toward the negro, remarks the Atlanta Journal, and then that paper goes on to say:

The busybodies of that region are greatly worried over the social line which separates whites and negroes in the South, but are careful to maintain similar distinctions in their own sections.

They howl because negroes are not admitted to hotels in the South where white persons are entertained, and yet a venerable colored bishop not long ago sought admission in vain to all the prominent hotels in Boston.

They denounce the exclusion of negroes in the South from the best seats in theatres and from railroad cars which are set apart for whites, and yet they will not give the negro a chance in any of the higher industrial occupations.

There are no negro stone masons, brick-layers, plumbers, carpenters or blacksmiths in Boston, while there are hundreds in Atlanta who work side by side with white men and receive the same wages for equal work.

The negro has a better chance in the South in many ways that make for his interest and the comfort of himself and his family than he can find in New York or Massachusetts.—Washington Post.

The Blind Chaplain's Prayer for Queen Victoria.

It was a beautiful and gracious tribute which the blind chaplain of the Senate, the Rev. Dr. Milburn paid to Queen Victoria in his prayer yesterday morning when the Senate convened. In a rich, musical voice he prayed as follows:

O Thou, who art King of Kings and Lord of Lords, we bless Thee for the long and illustrious reign of Thy servant the gracious sovereign lady, Queen Victoria, whose conduct and character as daughter, wife, mother, as well as illustrious sovereign, have enshrined her in the hearts and reverence of truehearted men and women around the world. Endow her with peace, health, safety, and may her last days be her best and happiest. So endow and guide the councils of that realm and of our own beloved country, that hand in hand they may tread the path of conservative progress to the goal of Christian civilization until the Prince of the kings of earth, the first begotten from the dead, shall become the monarch of all hearts and all lives in our race. We humbly pray in His sacred name, amen.—Washington Post.

PRISONERS' SIGNALS.

Ingenuous Methods Which Convicts Have of Communicating With Each Other.

The prisoners make every conceivable effort to hold intercourse of some kind with their fellow culprits, if only to relieve the silence and solicitude—intolerable to persons of their class, who have not sufficient cultivation of mind to supply them with food for thought. Knocking on the walls of separation between the cells, scratching sentences on the side of the baths or the bottoms of the tins used to contain their gruel and many other devices of that inadequate nature are instantly detected and stopped by the officials.

The chapel is perhaps the most favorable ground for enabling them to let their presence at least be known to acquaintances who have been incarcerated at an earlier or later period from themselves. The male and female prisoners are, of course, rigidly separated during the services. A high and strong wooden partition divides the portion of the building they respectively occupy, but they do not allow this serious obstacle to deter them altogether from the communications they specially desire to hold with the opposite sex. In singing the hymns they often try to introduce words of their own or make very peculiar responses, which can be understood over the wall. A male prisoner will be afflicted with an extremely bad cough, which, in measured attacks, makes known to a lady friend on the other side that he is "in quod," but he is seldom oppressed by this bronchial malady on more than one occasion, since the governor informs him that, as his cough is so distressing, he is to remain in his cell and not be exposed to the air of the chapel until he is better—a cure for his complaint which is at once perfectly complete.

On the female side of the partition a woman permitted to take her infant, born in prison, to chapel with her, pinches the unfortunate mite till its shrill yells reveal her proximity to its father, attentively listening through the wall.

Recently the governor of one of our county prisons was greatly perplexed by the discovery that the female criminals in his charge managed in some mysterious manner to ascertain the presence of every individual man on the other side of the impervious dividing barrier. One of the women inadvertently let drop the fact that she had recognized her husband, whose position there must, according to the rules, have been completely unknown to her. None of the officers could account for an unpermitted knowledge which was found to be shared by all the other women. At last a very careful examination of the chapel gave an explanation of the mystery. Although strictly divided, as we have said, both the male and female prisoners faced the altar in their seats, and over it had been fixed a very large brass cross against the wall, so highly polished as to form a very good mirror. In its clear surface the women saw the reflection of every man as he passed to his place and had enjoyed the spectacle with impunity till a wife, much interested in the appearance of her spouse, had made an imprudent remark to one of the officers which revealed the fact. The brass cross instantaneously disappeared, and the blank wall behind it no longer tells any secrets.—London Hospital.

A Farm Hand's Fortune.

Mr. William F. Hastings, who has worked as an ordinary farm laborer for years, has just received news from England that he had inherited $73,000 left him by a woman whom he befriended 15 years ago, when she was poor and ill in California. At that time Hastings worked on Mr. D. C. Mills' suburban estate at Milbrae.

Miss Carrie Burch was one of the housemaids. She fell ill and Hastings loaned her $200 of his savings. After her recovery she went away as a nurse to a rich woman, who went to Australia. There Miss Burch married a retired shipmaster named Hall. She repaid Hastings, and he heard no more of her till a few days ago, when he received a letter from a lawyer named Watson, of London, saying that six years ago Mrs. Hall died, bequeathing him all her estate. Since then Watson's American agent has been trying to find Hastings. The lucky man is 35 years old and has never been outside of California. He is waiting for a remittance to go to England.—San Francisco Dispatch.

BLOOD HOUNDS NEEDED.

EDITOR REFLECTOR—I wish to ask without knowing anything as to the probable cost, if it would not be a good investment for Pitt county to have the Sheriff keep one or two blood hounds. I think it would be the means of stopping a great many thefts, especially the petty ones. As soon as the dogs traced a few thieves and they were caught, others would see that it would not do and abandon their pilferings.

There is hardly a week that passes but some intruder enters my premises and takes something away that I can miss, and no doubt many others suffer similarly. I suppose it would be only a small cost to the county to keep the hounds, and the saving to the people would be large. TAX PAYER.

[This is a good suggestion. The REFLECTOR has long thought that Pitt county should have some good hounds. In fact if every county in the State had them many criminals who escape could be captured and crime would be largely decreased.—ED.]

BAKER & HART

When sweet spring across the hills
Sets the prisoned flowrets free;
When the babbling of the rills
Joins with song bird's symphony;
Then, it seems to us, we oughter
Turn our thoughts to soda-water.

For the balmy April breeze
Tells the sultry days are nigh
When we linger 'neath the trees,
And our throats are hot and dry,
Then Shelburn's soda fount
Fattens up his bank account.
