SUNDAY AT MOREHEAD.

A Delightful Place any Day in the Seven.

(Editorial Correspondence.)
ATLANTIC HOTEL.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., June 21. Many people may have an idea that a summer resort is a dull place to spend a Sunday. To those looking for sport this may be so, but those wanting rest, quiet, delightful sea breeze and real enjoyment can find all these at Morehead.

Yesterday was an ideal day and was fully enjoyed by the hundreds of visitors gathered here. Three places of worship were open and large congregations attended each. In the morning Dr. Hoge, of Wilmington, preached in Assembly Hall, and at night Dr. Kilgo, President of Trinity College, delivered a lecture on the life of Moses. Dr. Kilgo occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church at the morning service. Dr. Taylor, President of Wake Forest College, preached in the Baptist church in the morning, and Rev. A. W. Setzer, of Greenville, preached in the same church at night.

The first week's exercises of the Teachers' Assembly were very interesting to the many teachers and distinguished educators present. The discussions were of the very highest order of ability. The second week which begins today will also be full of interest.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of Greenville, who ranks with the leading men of the Assembly, is being prominently mentioned for first vice President.

We find a number of people here from Greenville and Pitt county. Besides those heretofore mentioned in the REFLECTOR; there are L. I. Moore, and Jarvis Sugg, of Greenville; Miss Nannie Cox and J. B. Jackson, of Winterville; Mrs. S. M. Habrahan, J. T. Worthington and J. R. Harvey, of Griffin; R. L. Davis and F. M. Davis, of Farmville.

Dr. Blacknall is never happier than when there is a large crowd around him, so it can be imagined that he is now in his jolliest vein. An idea of the crowd here can be had from the fact that nearly 800 people were counted going into the dining room for dinner today.

LATER--A telegram received at 3 o'clock this afternoon states that Prof. Ragsdale was enthusiastically elected first vice President of the Assembly.

LUMBER.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED TO fill orders for Lumber, rough or dressed, and mouldings of all kinds, on short notice.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., June 21, '97.

Mrs. Barbara Manning, of Tarboro, formerly, of Bethel, is spending this week here.

J. R. Bunting went to Tarboro Friday on business.

G. W. Blount, of Williamston, spent Sunday here.

A. J. Moore spent part of last week at Conetoe.

County Surveyor J. R. Jenkins spent part of last week in Falkland township.

Jesse C. Carson is teaching the public school in town.

Robert Bryan, of Tarboro, spent yesterday and today in town.

We are glad to learn that Heber Jenkins, son of J. R. Jenkins, who has been sick for several weeks is much better.

We are sorry to know that Mrs. Sallie Bryan is very low.

Mrs. Wiley Pierce, of Falkland, has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Sallie Bryan.

D. S. Harper received a telegram last Tuesday from his father in Franklin county, stating that his brother, Thomas, was at the point of death. He left Wednesday morning and found his brother in a dying condition. He died Thursday night. Mr. Harper returned Saturday morning.

There was a social entertainment given by Mr. D. S. Harper last Monday night, complimentary to Miss Bertha Hammond, of Conetoe.

Rev. B. B. Culbreth preached two excellent sermons in the Methodist church Sunday morning and night.

Rev. D. B. Rickard received a telegram last week stating that his mother was very sick at Lexington, N. C.

A. B. Cherry was riding horseback this morning and fell from his horse and was slightly hurt.

WHICHARD ITEMS.

WHICHARD, N. C., June 21, 1897.

We have had good rains during the past week and crops are looking well.

Our farmers are about through shipping potatoes. The shipments have been very light this season.

We are glad to know that Mrs. J. R. Congleton who has been critically ill is improving.

Mrs. J. R. Congleton, Jr., returned to Washington Friday.

Miss Mariah Crandall is visiting Mrs. H. Garganus.

W. L. Jones and H. F. Congleton spent Sunday in Robersonville.

A gentleman of color was heard to remark the other day that he thought we would soon have a "chloroform" as he had seen poles up all the way from the "station house" to Whichards.

George's Suicide Bluff Called.

"I thought I was going to sell a casket to one of my neighbors a few days ago," said the undertaker. "A certain young man who has been dissipating considerably of late, and has gotten himself into debt, became desperate and threatened on several occasions to commit suicide if his widowed mother did not give him some of the money she had borrowed on their little home in Westport. Not long ago he went home with a desperate look on his face, and calling his mother into the parlor said as he pulled a revolver from his hip pocket:

"I will have the money or right here I will end my miserable existence."

"Wait! Wait!" screamed his mother, as she rushed from the room. A look of satisfaction overspread the young man's face as he mumbled to himself about knowing he would get it, but he was destined to disappointment.

"In a moment his mother returned, carrying a large rug. Quietly she spread it down on the carpet, and then straightening up, said:

"Now, George, go ahead. I was afraid you would spoil my carpet with bloodstains."

"The boy almost sank to the floor in his astonishment and disappointment. He was sure if he made a bluff at shooting himself his mother would accede to his unjust demands and give the little money she was saving to buy the necessaries of life with but on the day before she had come over to my house and told my wife about his threats. My wife put the idea into her head to bluff her son the next time he threatened to commit suicide. She was afraid to try, but summoning up all her nerve, she carried out instructions and succeeded.

"The boy hasn't said a word about dying since."—Kansas City Times.

Rapid Stenography.

Anent the prevailing discussion as to the highest speed ever attained by expert shorthand writers, there is a story going the rounds of the feat of a Georgia Court stenographer, which by long odds broke the world's record in that line of work.

It was when that eminent jurist, the late Judge Richard Clark, was presiding in the Atlanta circuit of the Superior Court. One of the most remarkable murder trials was in progress. The evidence was conflicting, and the Judge was called upon to charge the jury on some decidedly new and interesting legal points. Now the Judge was a rapid talker. In this instance it was very important that every word he spoke should be correctly recorded, and he so cautioned the stenographer.

Then Judge Clark began. As he warmed up to his charge he was speaking at the rate of 250 words a minute. Once he glanced towards the stenographer. That worthy official seemed to be half sleeping over his work and apparently writing very slowly.

"Mr.—are you getting my words down correctly?" asked the Judge. At this the stenographer seemed to wake up. With little concern he replied: "That's all right Judge, fire away. I am about fifteen words ahead of you now!"—Washington Post.

COMMON SENSE.

Of all the gifts this side of heaven That ever were to mortals given, The best to have, the worst to miss, The truest, sweetest source of bliss— The one rail left of Eden's fence— Stands the pure charm of common sense.

To earn our right to "daily bread," To not regret when time is fled, To wisely speak and act and think, To keep life's boat from ruin's brink, To balance every hour's expense— We need the aid of common sense.

Sometimes, no doubt, we need to view The lightning bolts some genius threw; But now we need, well mixed and stirred, With silent thought or spoken word— A sort of human fool's defense— The wholesome ail of common sense.

Some things, perhaps, must still be taught, Where mighty minds their power inwrought;

But how to guard the priceless wealth Of peace and love, of youthful health, And how to keep our own few pence, Is taught alone by common sense.

We pray for faith, and light, and peace, For sin's remove, and love's increase, For strength to meet the tempter's power,

For dying race for dying hour— But now, right in the present tense, Give us, O Lord! good common sense.

To keep from useless jar and strife, And bless the changeful path of life; To make each fountain purer still, To take from less its fatal chill, And bring thy own sweet recompense, We bow to thee blest common sense.

O. S. RICE, in Boston Transcript.

A Mutual Surprise.

"Thank you," said the lady to the man who gave her his seat in the street car.

"You surprise me," replied the man.

"How do you mean?"

"By that 'I thank you.'"

She smiled.

"I shouldn't have surprised you more than you surprised me by offering me your seat."

The stand off was thus completed.—Detroit Free Press.

Base Ball.

Baltimore, June 19.—It was anybody's game until the last inning when the Pittsburg team won out by timely hitting, aided by Jennings' error. Score. Baltimore, 1; Pittsburg, 7.

Washington, June 19.—The Senators made it three straights from the Colonels today. Hill was knocked out of the box in the fourth and Magee, who took his place, did little better. Reilly, after an animated discussion with Mr. Emale in regard to a decision, was removed from the grounds, Bron taking centre field and Wrigley switching to third. Attendance 2,500. Score. Washington, 13; Louisville, 7.

Philadelphia, June 19.—After an endeavor to present today's game to the Phillies in the fourth inning by bunching three rank errors, the Browns batted out a victory in the ninth. Carsey, the Philadelphia cast-off, had the satisfaction of defeating his old comrades. Attendance 5,202. Score. St. Louis, 5; Philadelphia, 4.

New York, June 19.—The Brooklyn club closed their first western series at Eastern Park this afternoon with a well earned victory over the Cincinnati club. The Brooklyn scored in the seventh inning. Kennedy pitched a splendid game and allowed his opponents but three scattering hits. Attendance 5,464. Score. Brooklyn, 1; Cincinnati, 0.

New York, June 19.—Errors by Van Haltren and Holmes allowed Cleveland to score in the first inning, but after that the Giants braced up and played good ball. With two men on bases in the fourth Holmes sent the ball over by the score board for a home run. New York also got two runs in the fifth and three in the sixth. Score. New York, 8; Cleveland, 4.

Boston, June 19.—Ganzel's batting was a feature of today's ball game with Chicago. The Bostons played the better fielding game as a team. The game was largely a battle of pitchers, Nichols being the more effective, also receiving the better support. Attendance 6,000. Score. Boston, 7; Chicago, 3.

An English Slur on Our Navy.

LONDON, June 18.—The rabid Globe, that favors the annexation of about everything by England, says on Hawaiian annexation.

"The American navy is absolutely unfit to protect the islands which lie at the mercy of any Spanish war ships appearing at Honolulu, while Japan's sea power is so immeasurably superior to that of the United States that a Japanese naval demonstration would place President McKinley in a difficult and perilous position.

"Viewing the great strategic value of the group to England, it is a matter of regret that the islands were not added to the British Empire long ago. Lord Salisbury should stiffen his back and tell McKimley plainly that Great Britain claims the right to be consulted before the matter of annexation is decided."

Just try a 10c. box of cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Didn't Want a Cyclone.
During a former earthquake that shook the State a colored parson was praying in a southwest Georgia revival meeting. He said:
"Oh Lawd, come down en stake dese sinners up! Lawd, ketch holt er dem en shake 'em 'twill dey hollers!"
Just then the earth trembled, the building rocked, and the kerosene lamp tipped over and was shattered on the floor. The parson lifted his eyes to the reeling roof and continued:
"Dar, Lawd; dat'll do now. Dis here building's mighty shacklin'!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Good for Texas.
Grand old Texas is very kind to her children. This year's product will give six bushels of wheat and forty bushels of corn, one fat hog, two bushels of peaches, twenty bushels of oats, one quarter of beef, thirty dozen eggs, ten chickens, one turkey, two pounds of honey, ten pounds of wool, half a mutton, half a bushel of Irish potatoes, twenty watermelons and many things unnecessary to mention.—Dallas, Tex., News.

He Loved His Dog.
At the Sumbury petty sessions William G. Saunders, a laborer from Feltham, was summoned for keeping a dog without a license. The Defendant—I'm guilty, but I've got a license. I pawned my coat for the dog. There's the ticket for the coat. Why, not long ago you fined me ten bob for 'avin the dog without a muzzle, and I went to prison for seven days for this 'ere tyke.
The Chairman—Why do you keep the dog if you can't afford it?
The Defendant—Cos I love the dog, and that's more than some of you do on this bench. I picked the dog up on the road when it was 'ungry, and I'll stick to it. I love it and pawned my coat for it, and you can fine me £1 or £2. It makes no difference.
The Chairman—You will have to pay 10 shillings and costs or go to prison.
The Defendant—Then I'll go to prison, for I ain't got the money, and I love that 'ere dog.
And Saunders went to jail for seven days.—St. James Gazette.

Is Mr. Fife Coming?

Mr. Watson received a letter on Saturday night from Mr. Fife asking if a warehouse could be secured for a two weeks evangelistic meeting in July. Notice was sent out and a consultation meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the law office of Harding and Harding. Among those present were; Messrs. Moyer, Evans, Tunstall, Moore, Fleming, Hodges, Muntford, Harding, Jenkins, Ellington, Brown, Blow, Forbes, Congleton, Smith, Sugg, Pender, Wilson, Dr. Bagwell and Sheriff King. Mr. Fife's letter was read, E. A. Moyer was requested to act as chairman, and N. M. Watson as secretary. The general consensus of opinion was, "If Mr. Fife can do any good in Greenville let him come; and the sooner the better." The free use of the warehouses was tendered by the proprietors. The Star was selected, and if Mr. Fife signifies his intention to come at an early day, the following committee was appointed to provide seats and lights and to put the warehouse in good order for the meeting, Messrs. J. R. Moore, chairman, C. D. Rountree, Wiley Brown, J. S. Tunstall, J. S. Jenkins and E. A. Moyer. An additional committee was appointed to arrange for music, N. M. Watson, Ola Forbes, Mrs. O. E. Warren, Mrs. T. E. Hooker, Miss Annie Sheppard and D. J. Whichard.

Mr. Watson was instructed to communicate with Mr. Fife inform him of the situation, and request him if coming to make the date as early as possible in July. His reply will be given through the REFLECTOR.

ZENO MOORE & BRO.

Reading Room.

For more than a year it has been the earnest desire of some of the members of the order of the King's Daughters and Sons, of Greenville to take for our work the establishment of a Library and Reading Room in Greenville.

Co-operative indifference, (if I may use the word) as to what kind of recreation and amusement our young people shall have, especially the young men who are without home influences has only to be treated with indifference and we shall see with sorrow that they will neither give joy to the hearts of those who care for them nor know the God who has redeemed them.

Lets see what co-operative love will do for them. Elliott Brothers have made us a most generous offer and the Reading Room can be made a success if the good people of the town will co-operate with us.

Mr. Will Harding will give any information needed to any one who may wish to acquaint themselves with our proposed work. He has been our most enthusiastic friend and gives us every encouragement to undertake the work.

ADA CHERRY,

Secretary of the Patient Circle, of the King's Daughters of Greenville, N. C.
