Base Ball.

Chicago, July 30—Stupid fielding and base running and inability to hit at the right time again lost a game that the Colts had plenty of chance to win.

Washington, July 30—The game today was lost through poor pitching and fielding, Mercer being hit freely.

Cincinnati, July 30—The Reds defeated the Indians easily today. Powell was sent to the bench in the seventh inning for kicking and Wilson was substituted.

Philadelphia, July 30—Oth pitched superbly today and had Boston at his mercy until the sixth inning, when the visitors jumped upon him for four singles and a triple...

New York, July 30—Joyce's ball tossers downed the Brooklyn today in a well played game. Rusie was almost invincible, four hits being all that the Bridegrooms could get off his delivery...

St. Louis, July 30—A single by Grady in the ninth inning won the Browns the game from Louisville today. The Colonels secured the lead in their half of the ninth.

W. E. BERNARD

A Last Agair. Female Cycling.

Surely, says London Lady, feminine cycling has no bitter nor more unreasoning enemy than Canon Doyle of Rams grange County, Dextford. While considering the cycle an appropriate and convenient vehicle for men, he "asserts that it is utterly unfit for women," further adding, "there is not a girl or woman in Ireland who does not feel in her conscience that the use of the cycle is indelicate and dangerous to females," and calls upon non cycling women to "denounce the miserable creatures who degrade themselves and disgrace their sex."

The testimony of all successful men of business is the same. Industry, temperance, a strict adherence to duty and a willingness to "help out" if necessary after the whistle blows or the bell rings in the evening will bring position and probably fortune. The Golden Rule, along with thrift, industry and temperance, is an unbeaten combination—Cleveland Leader.

Some unnecessary concern has been shown in certain quarters regarding the original Declaration of Independence. It has been stated that the venerable document was well nigh obliterated by exposure at the World's Fair, and that on its return to the State Department it was found necessary to hide it from the public eye. The original Declaration has not been away from Washington for twenty years. Its last trip was in a hermetically sealed case with glass front, on the occasion of the Philadelphia Centennial.—New York World.

THE OPENING GUN.

Tobacco Season Begins With Flying Colors.

The Greenville tobacco market started the new season with a good break, marked by the old time break and activity. With the uncertainty of how prices would be at the opening, the busy time among the farmers, and the dry weather, not much tobacco was looked for on the first day. However, there was enough here for a lively sale of nearly three hours, there being from 5,000 to 7,000 pounds in each of the four warehouses. Prices were very much higher than at the opening a year ago and only satisfaction was heard among the sellers.

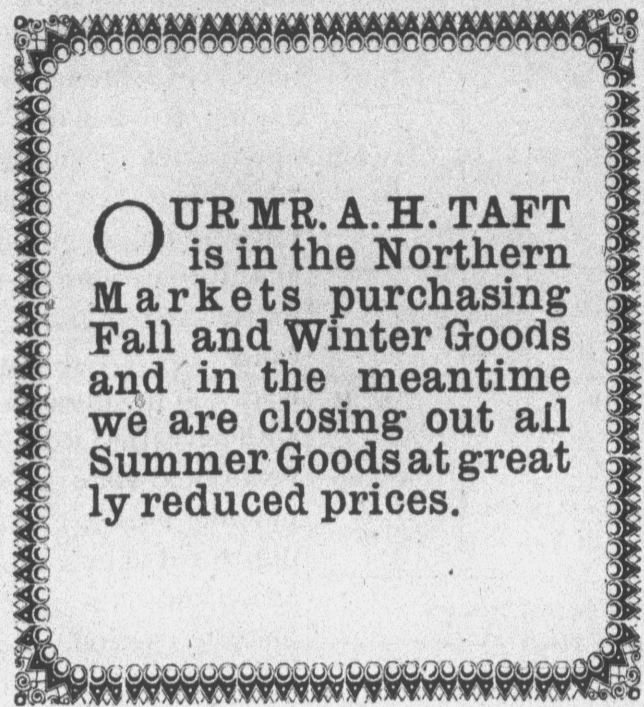

The first sale was at the Greenville Warehouse where "Parson" Evans run the sales with his accustomed vigor. People wonder how a little fellow like L. on talks so much, but he does it all the same and don't fail to be heard from. He pulled prices up to $20 and $20.50 and says just watch him.

The second sale was at the Star where C. D. Rountree and Wiley Brown both run sales and kept the auctioneer watching lively for winks as he sings the climbing bids. Wiley said they just had enough to get him hot good and tune him for hollering. Their prices reached $15.25.

The Planters had third sale and Ola Forbes didn't give the grass a chance to grow around prices. His father helped him run the sale, and it was first and second fiddle going all the time. "That's just a sample of what I can do," said Ola as his highest pile was knocked off at $25.

The Eastern closed with the fourth sale. "Old Man Gus" and Olthus Joyner showed they were in for business as usual as ever and both right at home running the sale. Olthus started out in a long tail coat but had to shed to give his lungs room. We promised not to tell about him splitting his shirt when the top pile struck $23.50.

Sales will come regular every day at all four of the warehouses, and the farmers should make a note of the fact that there is not a better market anywhere in the State than Greenville. Bring your tobacco on as soon as it is ready and you will find this true.

OUR MR. A. H. TAFT is in the Northern Markets purchasing Fall and Winter Goods and in the meantime we are closing out all Summer Goods at greatly reduced prices.
