BASE BALL.

Games Played and Standing of Clubs.

Boston, August 11.—New York batted Lewis freely for three innings today, scoring four runs in that time. Then Lewis steadied down and did fine work. In the last half of the eighth, on lucky hits by Bergen and Hamilton, aided by errors by Clark and bases on balls, Boston rolled up five runs and won out. Long and Tenny played great ball, the latter having all three put outs in the eighth inning. Two passed balls by Wilson were costly. Score. Boston, 7; New York, 5.

Washington, August 11.—The Philies played a listless game in the field today and were unable to hit Mercer, while the Senators' connections with the ball were more frequent and to the purpose. La Joie became involved in a quarrel with a bystander after the game, and descending from the bus, struck him in the head. The players were taken to the police station where La Joie left $15 collateral for his appearance in court tomorrow to answer a charge of assault. Score. Washington, 6; Philadelphia, 0.

Cincinnati, August 11.—The Reds won the last game of the present series today. Although Breitenstein was hit freely he managed to keep them well scattered. Tim Hurst, who was fined $100 and costs for assault and battery this morning in the police court, officiated as umpire and everything went off nicely. Score. Cincinnati, 6; St. Louis, 5.

Louisville, August 11.—"Dad" Clark pitched his first game for the Colonels today, and with the exception of the second and third innings, the Colts could not bunt their hits. The fielding of Wagner, Clingman and Lange was a feature. Score. Louisville, 5; Chicago, 4.

Brooklyn, August 11.—Baltimore two more games from Brooklyn today. In the first Dunn's curves were knocked all over the lot. Brown, a youngster from Trenton, N. J., was given a trial in the second game. He did fairly well, notwithstanding that he sent four men to base on balls and hit three others during the six innings he was in the box. He was very poorly supported. Score. Brooklyn, 2; Baltimore, 10.

Second game—Brooklyn, 3; Baltimore, 13.

Cleveland, August 11.—The wildness of Hastings and timely hitting by the Indians gave the home team the victory today. The Pirates rallied in the ninth, but the game was lost. Score. Cleveland, 12; Pittsburg, 6.

HOW THE CLUBS STAND.

Good Crops.

Mr. R. B. Bynum, near Farmville, says he has 20 acres in cotton from which he expects to gather 25 bales of cotton, averaging 500 pounds, if nothing happens to injure the crop between now and harvest. Mr. Jack Baker, of the same neighborhood, says he has 100 acres in cotton from which under the same conditions he expects to get 100 bales.

Mending the Weigh.

The Alliance scales in front of the Court house owing to decay got out of the way in their weigh and are undergoing repairs today.

New Phones.

A phone has been placed in Col. Harry Skinner's residence, and is No. 94. No. 90 is now the American Tobacco Co's. office and factory.

No Quorum.

There was not a quorum of the Town Council at the meeting called for Thursday night, hence nothing was done on the water works question.

Send us One.

We have lost our file copy of THE DAILY REFLECTOR for Thursday, July 29th. If any one can send us a copy of that date it will be appreciated.

Busy Bright Jewels.

The Bright Jewels were well patronized at their lawn party in the Academy grove Thursday night. They sold ice cream and lemonade and netted $12.60.

Good Work Counts.

The Greenville Warehouse had tobacco today from four counties—Beaufort, Craven, Greene and Pitt. The good work done for the farmers by Evans, Critcher & Co. brings the weed to them.

New School Building.

Mr. W. B. Wilson is having lumber hauled to build a school house on the rear of his lot in South Greenville. His sister, Miss Myrtle Wilson, will open a school in the building the first Monday in September.

Climbing Higher

Today receipts at the tobacco warehouses went still higher, there being about 60,000 pounds on the market. Prices were higher also, several lots bringing as high as $30. You can't hold the Greenville market down.

Demand for Corn.

For some days corn and meal have been coming to merchants here from other States. This looks like the home crop of corn is about to become exhausted before the new crop is ready for harvest. Any farmers with a surplus on hand would find this a good time to market it.

Two Stores

J. L. Starkey & Bro. will now run two grocery stores. They have bought out M. L. Starkey, another brother who kept in the Rialto building, and the firm will keep both stores. Jess Starkey takes charge of the uptown store and J. A. Hyman will stay at the downtown store, and clever, good looking Jim Starkey will have the general oversight and management of both. They will carry a nice line of groceries in both stores.

He Wasn't Expert

The rumor got out Thursday that an expert cyclist would reach here on the evening train, and there was quite a crowd, most of them colored people, at the depot to greet the arrival. Some of them saw the joke when Sheriff Harrington stepped off the train with Frank Johnson, the negro who stole Mr. T. M. Hooker's bicycle and was arrested in Tarboro. But Frank was not so much of an expert, as he slipped up in trying to do some trick riding.

THE TOBACCO MARKET IS OPEN.

And the price of our Summer Clothing has declined with the advance of summer. We'd rather sell Summer Clothes at a loss than to keep them over.

Whatever you want we have probably got it for less than cost. A loss at this time is almost as good as a profit earlier.

FRANK WILSON
THE KING CLOTHIER.

Fall and Winter Goods

These will soon be coming in, and I want all Spring and Summer Goods still on hand out of the way. To remove these I will for the next few days have a special

FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1897.

The Populist State Executive Committee had a meeting in Raleigh this week. After much speech making a committee was appointed to prepare an address and try and rally their forces again.

Here is a question we want to refer to the Charlotte Observer, the Statesville Landmark and the Asheville Citizen, as those papers are pretty good at keeping up with wrong words that sometimes find their way in print. The Philadelphia Record of Thursday used the word "attornies" in an editorial, and we would like to know if it is correct.

Virginia holds a State election this year, and the Democrats have just held a convention at Roanoke to nominate a ticket. J. H. Tyler was nominated for Governor amid great enthusiasm. A. J. Montague, of Danville, who recently tendered his resignation as attorney for the western district of Virginia, was nominated for Attorney General. The Democracy of the Old Dominion is putting a good ticket before the people.

There has been another lynching in North Carolina, the first to occur in the State in some years. But it need not occasion much surprise. Five women being outraged within two weeks is enough to arouse the indignation of the people, and such an outburst as took place at Asheville is hardly more than might have been expected. On Sunday Miss Kittie Henderson, a young lady who is a partial cripple, was outraged by a negro named Bob Brackett. The assailant was captured, identified by the young lady, confessed his crime and was carried to jail in Asheville on Tuesday. That night a mob battered down the doors of the jail and found that the prisoner had been removed for safety. They followed the trail of the officers who were fleeing with the prisoner, overtook them and carrying the negro back to the scene of his crime, sent for his victim and hung him in her presence. The Asheville military company tried to head off the mob and prevent the lynching, but the mob finished its work forty minutes before the military arrived.

WE REAP WHAT WE SOW.

The negro rapist was lynched in Asheville yesterday. We are reaping what we have sown. The election of the Republican ticket in the State and in the nation made the ignorant negro think that he had liberty and license. The result is a condition hitherto unknown in the South. Here in North Carolina, the advent of the first Republican Govern-

ernor in twenty years is followed by an epidemic of the most horrible of all crimes. At this time two negro rapists are confined in Wake county jail for safe keeping. The Governor is doing all in his power to secure speedy punishment and uphold the majesty of the law. Nobody personally or officially holds him responsible for the reign of terror. Yet he and all others of his party are in a sense responsible because of the nature of the campaign they made, corraling the negro vote on lines of prejudice against the best of the white race. Following the low campaign made by them, the success of the Republican party and its allies made the ignorant negro believe that the bottom rail was on top, and the guarding of the jails by negro mobs, acting as a body-guard for a negro rapist, has had a bad effect on the worst of the race, which has manifested itself of late.

The ignorant negro is a quiet and peaceable citizen when the Democratic party is in power. He is a dangerous element when he feels that his crowd controls in government. Recent events show how dangerous he is. There are intelligent negroes who know and deplore the conduct of bad men in their race just as white men denounce the Beaufort county white devil. But all are forced to admit that where ignorance and bestiality control, civilization is endangered.

The time is at hand when the good people of North Carolina are ready to say to the Republican politicians and others who affiliate with them: "You find means to control the negro vote to degrade the State and put yourselves in office. You must find means to stop the crime that invites lynching by the ignorant and malicious of your supporters, or you cannot escape responsibility for their actions. You have encouraged the ignorant negroes in thinking that the success of the party of which his race composes ninetenths insures him against the just penalty of his wrong doing. You have told him that the whites were his enemies. In his ignorance he has interpreted this to give him license to degrade and debauch. You are his teacher. You must correct your teachings, or you cannot escape the wrath of an outraged people."—Raleigh News & Observer.

THE GREAT CROPS.

A merciful and benignant Providence has smiled upon the farmers of North Carolina. The early and the latter rains have fallen and there are both seed time and harvest. The tenfold, the twentyfold have come and the hearts of the men who till the soil have been cheered greatly and their homes have been blessed. Now let them after raising the hominy and collards and the greens fail not to raise also the hog and the fowl and the beef. Let there be abundance both for man and beast. With well supplied larders and smokehouses and barns and cribs the wolf cannot lie at their door. God has blessed as only he can bless. A gracious bestowal of good seasons accomplishes for the agricultural part of the country—by all odds the most important—what neither great wealth nor combinations nor strikes nor legislation can even accomplish. The smiles of Heaven bring favors and blessings that make glad the heart of man and give hope and prosperity to a country where there had been despondency and discontent and restiveness. It is not the Republican party that in any particular has blessed this country. Its legislation has been almost wholly for the benefit of an aristocratic monopoly, for conscienceless, all devouring trusts, for combines and other ways of robbery and oppression. It has blasted the industries as with the mildew of death, and swept away commerce and the results of honest toil as by an army of cyclones and tornadoes. Death has marked its footsteps and desolation has shown its footsteps. The rascals are now turning up their hypocritical eyes and saying—"How a bountiful Providence hath blessed our country under the rule of McKinley." Bah! Humbug! North Carolina has been greatly favored, not by the wild, destructive sweep of radical legislation, but by a kind, gracious God who in the midst of deserved wrath remembers mercy. We should all be very thankful for the goodness and bestowments of Heaven.—Wilmington Messenger.

Nomads of Wealth.

Where is a poor millionaire to go, anyhow? If he cannot live in Springfield, Ohio, or in Tarrytown on account of the taxes, nor in New Jersey on account of the mosquitoes, must he go to sea in his yacht and become a roving privateer? Whenever he sits down he finds that a socialist has put a pin on the chair. When he gets up and goes out he is asked to drop his dollars along the road as he walks. It seems as if, in the course of time, and not a very great time, either, millionaires would have to take the place of the ancient nomads and indulge in tent life on the plains.—New York Times.

The Danville Tobacco Journal has suggested an International Tobacco Exposition. We second the motion and will name Winston as being the proper place to hold the enterprise. Of course Danville would want it, and next to Winston we would offer no objection to the "city by the Dan," but this place would in our opinion offer more attractions and advantages for such an exposition as our Danville friend suggests than any tobacco market in the United States. Danville claims the destination of selling more pounds of loose leaf tobacco than any market in the world. This we will grant, and at the same time congratulate our sister tobacco market on its importance and enterprise. Winston however claims and can prove the assertion that she sells more tobacco direct from the hands of the farmers than any other loose market in the world. Besides the importance of our tobacco market we have here the most extensive plug tobacco interest in the South, therefore Winston claims to be the most important tobacco city in the United States, and therefore the proper place for the exposition.—Winston Sentinel.

Trying to Bilib the Supreme Court

Justice Brewer, of the supreme court, who was in Kansas City the other day, told this: "Several years ago a cigarmaker in Washington named Scott got a brand of cigars which he called the 'supreme court.' The labels on the inside of the boxes were pictures of the entire court, and the cigar was a good one. I know this, because one day each of the justices received two boxes of them with the compliments of Mr. Scott. Nothing was thought of this fact at the time, and it was taken as a slight courtesy in return for the use of our pictures. But several weeks later we learned that the cigars had been sent to soothe our anger. One of the clerks had gone to Scott and told him that the members of the court were very much provoked at him, and intended prosecuting him for talking such liberties with their pictures. Scott was frightened, and he hit upon the idea of bribing the justices, and I suppose he thought he succeeded, for he was never prosecuted, nor had such a thing been thought of."

It is learned that a gentleman who recently died in Boston left the residue of a fortune, valued at about $7,000, to the Society of Friends in North Carolina. The matter came up before the Yearly Meeting at High Point Saturday, and it was decided to leave the disposition of the sum to a majority of the several quarterly meetings in the State. It may be that Guilford College will get the whole of this amount. — Greensboro Record.

A recent dispatch from the Klondike region reports that "the far less than $2,500,000 in nuggets has been taken out, and to date supplies for 4,000 persons have been demanded. Their supply bill has already reached $3,000,000." It is too soon, of course, to strike a balance; but evidently the business of furnishing supplies is quite a little Klondike in itself.

The lowest annual salary paid any one in the Consular service of this Government is one dollar. This is received by the Consular agents at Kalamata, Greece, and Dardanalec, Turkey; but as it is stated that or they are not expected to entertain they may be financially better off at the end of the year, says the Boston Transcript, than some of our Ambassadors.

It is announced that the demand for horse meat in Paris is so great that horse dealers in France are unable to supply it. A company in Portland, Oregon, has recently received from the French capital an order for 5000 barrels of meat.

Dr. C. P. Carver, of St. Augustine, Fla., is experimenting for the extraction of the sweet matter from watermelons, and it is said that he derives from the melon pulp a syrup equal to that of the maple tree.

The Atlanta Constitution says a correspondent furnishes this queer obituary from North Carolina:

"Here lies the body of Amos Green, He's now laid on the shelf; Worked ten years on a flyin' machine, And then flew off himself."

The Eastern Leads

Give them first, second, third or fourth sale and you will always find the Eastern Warehouse ahead in the quantity of tobacco sold. The farmers know what it is to have "Old Man Gus" and Olthus Joyner running their tobacco. To-day they sold six lots for Frank Edwards from $17.50 to $29, for T. J. Stancill as high as $23.50, for R. J. Little at $22, and for others at equally as good prices. Go to the Eastern Warehouse if you want top of the market.

He Comes to the Planters

Today a man, who last week sold tobacco on the Wilson market, brought three loads to the Planter's Warehouse. After the sale he compared the result and found prices here so far ahead of Wilson that he declared he was going to bring every pound of his crop to the Planters Warehouse. Talking about prices, it is not the high price on an occasional pile that counts for the farmer, but it is the high average that puts money in his pocket. That is what the Planters Warehouse does, gets averages that no house in the State can beat.
