PITT COUNTY YOUNG MEN.

Their Sterling Qualities Bring Them in Demand.

As one of the results of the trip of Col. I. A. Sugg to the Exposition at Nashville and Galveston. Mr. Claud C. Joyner will leave on Tuesday for Tullahoma, Tenn., to give instructions in tobacco curing and general management of tobacco. We know of no man more capable of doing this than Mr. Joyner. He is an up to date young man, of fine personal address, and has all the qualities that make up a true son of the Old North State.

Col. Sugg met at Nashville Mr. George C. Aydlett, of Tullahoma, son of Mr. J. G. Aydlett, a wealthy planter and business man of Coffee county, and the most progressive man of his section of the State of Tennessee.

Col. Sugg says he was struck with the very large and interesting exhibit made by Mr. Aydlett at the Exposition and the interest he showed in developing his State. It was so much in accord with Col. Sugg's own love for his State, that a correspondence sprung up between them and Mr. Joyner will spend a month, before returning to the Medical College at Philadelphia, in giving Mr. Aydlett and son the benefit of his knowledge of tobacco, &c.

We congratulate Col. Sugg and Mr. Joyner both in their opening up so pleasant a relation with sons of our daughter State.

Hal Sugg, son of Col. Sugg will accompany Mr. Joyner.

SNAKE BITES A HORSE.

And the Horse Comes Near Dying.

Mr. R. B. Smith, purchasing agent for the Beaufort County Lumber Company, was down near Calico, a few days ago, with two other gentlemen inspecting some timber. While riding horse back in the woods he passed through a place of thick undergrowth when his horse stopped and acted very strangely. A little further the animal began trembling violently and sweating profusely so that Mr. Smith dismounted and took off the saddle. All thinking the horse was sick, one of the party went out to a store, a mile away, after medicine. The horse seemed to suffer intensely for some time but grew better after getting a liberal drenching of liniment. The animal was taken out of the woods and Mr. Smith noticing that one leg was swollen, made an investigation and found that the horse had been badly bitten just above the foot. It was evidently a very poisonous snake that bit the horse.

BASE BALL.

Games Played and Standing of Clubs.

Washington, August 26—The Browns did not play with much life today, and twice as many hits were made off Donahue as were made off Mercer. Reilly's double play unassisted, was the feature. Score. Washington, 6; St. Louis, 1.

Philadelphia, August 25—Pittsburg won from Philadelphia today in an exciting eleven inning game. The Pirates tied the score in the ninth on a wild throw by Taylor, and won out in the eleventh on a hit by Donovan, a steal and Shugart's wild throw on Padden's grounder. Score. Philadelphia, 3; Pittsburg, 4.

Baltimore, August 26—The Champions took the first of this series from Cincinnati today in a close contest. Both Corbett and Dwyer pitched great ball, the home twirler having a shade the best of it. Barring the pitching there were no features of especial note. Score. Baltimore, 3; Cincinnati, 2.

New York, August 26—The first three men at the bat for New York today got two baggers off Griffith, then Anson's star twirler lost heart and began to toss the ball over the plate. The base hit column tells the rest, except perhaps that some of the doubles and triples might have been narrowed down to singles had the Colts' fielders put any vim in their work. Rusie, although not in the best of shape, handled the Chicagoes well. Score. New York, 19; Chicago, 6.

Boston, August 26—Cuppy proved a puzzler for Boston today, Nichols was an easy mark for Cleveland. The visiting team put up a perfect fielding game and batted hard while the Boston hits always fell into somebody's hands. Boston, 1; Cleveland, 7.

Brooklyn, August 26—The Louisvilles found Payne an easy mark today. Cunningham was hit hard only in the eighth inning. Buder, who hails from Brooklyn, was presented with a diamond stud by his local admirers, when he came to bat in the second inning. Score. Brooklyn, 8; Louisville, 16.

STATE NEWS.

Raleigh received the first new bale of Wake county county cotton on Friday.

There were three counties in the State in which no local taxation election was held—Craven, Halifax and Yancey. Then there were many others in which only two or three townships voted on the question. There were very few counties in which the election was held at every precinct.

The Lexington Dispatch learns from a "truthful gentleman" that Henry Briles, of Randolph county, dropped dead last Thursday, and remained in a dead condition for seven hours, then revived and became all right and attended a wheat threshing on Friday.

The Old-Fashioned Woman

"When one judges truly what it is to be 'old-fashioned' in some of the modern 'progressive' ideas, it does not appear so bad," writes Edward W. Bok, discussing "On Being Old-Fashioned" in the September Ladies' Home Journal. "It may be true that one who refuses to be so essentially 'modern' in all phases of life misses some things. But then these 'progressive' spirits seem to miss some things, too: they seem to miss in about everything they do, and incidentally miss, as well, the true aim and essence of life. And there are often strong compensations in the attitude of the 'old-fashioned.' It brings fewer after regrets; fewer pictures one wants to blot out. An indifference to healthy progress is injurious to any one. But when progress seeks to improve soon those elements in life which are God ordained, the wisest of us are those who stand still or fall out of the ranks. There are some things in this world which even the wonderful genius of this century cannot improve upon. They were fashioned by a skill beyond our ken. And we would better let them alone. 'Forward' commands the old proverb, but then it adds, 'but not too fast.' The cautious woman, the home-loving woman, the woman fond of her children, and with a belief in God who gave them to her, the woman of purpose, the woman who loves and is beloved, need never be disturbed that she is called 'old-fashioned.' Perhaps she is. But it is no disgrace to be old-fashioned in some things. She is truer to her womanhood by being so. And she is always in good company."

A Few Notes Showing the Necessity of Putting Democrats in Power.

It is rumored that in Pink Hill township the school committee, appointed under the new confusion law, had elected a negro as chairman of the committee. This negro is "boss" of the white public schools in the township.

We are informed that in Woodington township a negro school committeeman made threats of visiting a white lady teachers' and demanding her teacher's certificate.

The officer of the grand jury at the recent term of Snow Hill court was a negro, and nearly half the jury were negroes. The negro officer's name is Busbee.

These are only a few items that go to show the necessity for all true white men getting together and putting the Democratic party in power at the next election. And it is such things as these, together with the general incompetence of the crowd of officeholders now in, that are disgusting many who left the Democratic fold and causing them to return.—Kinston Free Press.

Mrs. Jennie H. Collins, a very charmingly interesting lady from San Antonio, Texas, with her accomplished and attractive daughter, Miss Lillian, are visiting their kinsman, Col. I. A. Sugg and family. Mrs. Collins' ancestry were of the old North State, her grand father being of King's Mountain fame. These ladies are making a pleasant summer tour of North Carolina and Virginia and are much pleased with all the points of interest they have visited and speak highly of both country and people. They have visited Asheville, Morehead, Virginia Beach and Old Point. We wish for them a pleasant stay in the county of Pitt.

Buggy Wheel Smashed.

A young man from the country with his sister on a buggy was riding through main street, Friday afternoon. A mule hitched to a cart was being watered at the well in front of J. L. Starkey's store, and the young man not being careful where he was driving collided with the cart. One wheel of his buggy was broken all to pieces and his sister was badly frightened.

It comes to us from sources that we regard reliable that the penitentiary authorities abolished the old Finance committee in order to get rid of Mr. R. R. Cotten and Mr. E. E. Clark, who are anxious to have the penitentiary managed properly. If this is not the reason, we have heard none other advanced. Keep your eye on the penitentiary. —Raleigh News and Observer.
