JUST FOR FUN.

Many a man swallows his pride when he's hungry.

Misery and the average servant girl both love company.

The spring chicken is a demonstration that the good die young.

Some men are never disappointed in love until they get married.

It seems strange that when money is close it seems farthest way.

He—"Do you believe in woman taking man's place?", She—"Yes; in a crowded street car."

When it comes to an argument with the milkman the most obstinate person is obliged to take water.

"The perversity of natural laws," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "is illustrated by the fact that the man who rocks the boat is usually the only one in the party who escapes drowning."

STATE NEWS.

The Salisbury Daily Sun has enlarged to a six column sheet. It was a bright paper before, and this enlargement makes it better than ever.

Dr. F. D. Swindell has been appointed Presiding Elder of the Warrenton District to succeed the late Dr. W. S. Black.

BLOCK SALE.

150,000 Pounds of Tobacco Here Today

Today marked the largest sale that the Greenville tobacco market has had this season. Tobacco was here from everywhere and all four of the warehouses were full, with many loads left over that could not be put on the floors.

There were so many people, carts and wagons around the warehouses that it looked almost like a circus day. The REFLECTOR reporter walked through tobacco row at 9 o'clock and counted 272 vehicles around the warehouses then and they kept coming in for an hour later.

The Star started the sale at 9 o'clock with 373 piles on the floor, the Planters coming in for second sale with 364 piles. It took until nearly 1 o'clock to get through with these two houses.

At 2 o'clock the sale started again at the Eastern with 440 piles and had not been finished at 4 o'clock. The Greenville had the last sale with 314 piles.

There were fully 25 loads that could not get on sale at all and had to be carried over.

THE SCHOOLS

Have a Fine Fall Opening

Most of the schools of Greenville opened their fall sessions today, and are to be congratulated upon the splendid beginning they have made.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale had 42 boys present at the Male Academy. This is the largest attendance on the first day of any session in five years. He has not been away from home to do a particle of drumming, either. This carries its own weight as to the popularity of his school.

The public school opened with 47 pupils. Miss Nannie E. Richardson is principal and Miss Jennie Williams assistant. This school will continue four months.

Miss Alfred Forbes' school opened with 18 pupils. Miss M. L. Lacy is again in charge of this school.

Miss Myrtle Wilson's school opened with 10 pupils.

Mrs. V. H. Whichard opened a small private school at her home with 6 pupils.

Mrs. Bernard's schools opens next week.

A Reformation

A gentleman informed us this morning that Mr. James Allen Sutton joined the church at Reedy Branch on Sunday. This is an item worthy of mention from the fact that so many people are familiar with the life he has led and will rejoice at heart to know he has reformed. Our informant also stated that for some months Mr. Sutton had had been a different man and all were glad to see the change in him. Everyone should extend him a helping hand and encourage him in the Christian life.

This is Our Way.

Today the Planters Warehouse had 364 piles of tobacco on the floor and 15 loads that had to be stored for Tuesday's sale. When Auctioneer Lipscomb got through selling these 364 piles there was not a turned ticket on our entire sale. This is our way of selling tobacco. We get the farmers such good prices that they don't have to turn the tickets. All who sell with us are satisfied that they are getting the best prices to be had.

PUBLIC OFFICE A PRIVATE SNAP.

Of making new offices and filling them with kin there is no end. State Auditor Ayer's zeal in ousting Stewart Bros. as Public Printers is now explained. A new office of superintendent of printing has been created, and H. W. Ayer fills it and draws a salary of $30 a month. Not only so, but the Caucasian printing office has been moved into the establishment of Barnes Bros., who will hereafter print that paper. It has been intimated that Barnes Bros. do this free of charge in consideration of getting the contract for State printing on their own terms.

It also came to light yesterday that another new office has been created, that of assistant secretary of the North Carolina Railroad, at a salary of $600 per year. Who is to fill it? A son of State Treasury Worth. The good things are kept in the official family. The young man is capable, and has served as book-keeper in the Wilmington bank which now has a "cinch" having on deposit all the money that comes into the hands of the secretary and treasurer of the North Carolina Railroad.

On Wednesday Governor Russell's brother Tom assumed the duties as warden of the penitentiary. He has been there several months at the expense of the State learning under efficient Warden Ledbetter, who is relieved. Not only so, but elegant apartments have been fitted up, at the expense of the tax-payers, for his family, and no rent is charged for them. Indeed, until the last meeting of the directors, it is said they were all boarded at the expense of the tax-payers, and it was only after protest by a member of the board that the large family of the officers were ordered to pay board.

We have heretofore printed two columns showing the extent to which nepotism prevails under the administration.

Recent events indicate that the motto of our rules is "Public Office is a Private Snap."—Raleigh News and Observer.

Senator By Popular Vote.

Of the three candidates at the South Carolina Senatorial election on Tuesday the people chose Judge McBaurin, the one that has the best character, the best brain and the least demagoguery. And when the Legislature meets there will be no bargains, no deals, no auction sale. The Legislature will simply ratify the wise decree of the people. Owing his place to the people and not to a boss or a legislative clique, the new Senator will be very likely to try to keep the favor of the people by serving them honestly.

The new system of selecting Senators by popular vote is opposed by the bosses and by their tools in the Legislature because it means the destruction of perhaps the greatest bulwark of corruptionist rule. But its merits are plain and the objections urged against it do not withstand the test of experience.—New York Sun.

WOLF MOUNTAIN WORK.

The young Methodist minister who had just been appointed to the Wolf Mountain circuit conceived the idea of establishing a mission in the corn juice neighborhood and on Sunday rode over the ridge to investigate the field. Along in the afternoon he approached a cabin with a swayback roof and a decrepit stick and dretch chimney, with large, sooty holes in its sides, from which the smoke escaped without the trouble of ascending to the top. He drew up in front of the cabin and shouted:

"Hello!"
 The door opened and a redheaded woman with a great snuff stick in her mouth, appeared and answered:

"Hi!"
 "My good woman," said the minister, "have you many Methodist about here?"

"Yep; I think they air purty plenty, Tobe Owons was after one with his fox houn's right across the crick thar yisterday."

"My good lady, you seem to be greatly in the dark over here?"

"Yes; hit is purty bad, I'ze bin a-trying fur two years to git Sam to saw me out a winder or two in this side o' the house."

"Where is you husband, my sister?"

"Oh, Sam's gone huntin' as usual."

"What, hunting on Sunday? Does he not fear the hereafter?"

"I sorter 'spec he does, fur he hez got his winchester and six shooter both along."—Atlanta Constitution.

Wanted 62 Acres of New York

New York, Sept. 3.—The suit brought against the Trinity church corporation by Isaac Edwards, Joel B. Edwards and several others, heirs of Robert Edwards, to establish their title to 62 acres of land in the residential and business districts of New York city, was today dismissed by Justice Beach, in the Supreme Court.

The plaintiffs, residents of South Carolina, assert that they are heirs and lineal descendants of the two brothers and the sister of Robert Edwards, who prior to May 26, 1780, was lawfully possessed in fee simple of a certain tract of land beginning at the southeast corner of Broadway and Canal street, thence to the line of Chatham Square, thence southwest to the line of Chatham Square to the eastern terminus of New Chambers street, thence west along New Chambers and Chambers street to its intersection with Broadway.

The plaintiffs allege that on May 26, 1780, Robert Edwards, in consideration of 1,000 pounds sterling, leased this tract of land to the Trinity church corporation for a term of 90 years. Robert Edwards died in 1795 intestate, and never having been married, left as heirs brothers and sisters.

The suit was to recover possession of the land and for a decision compelling the Trinity church corporation to account for the rents and profits arising therefrom since the expiration of the lease.

It Was Ever Thus

A Journal reporter met a merchant of the city a few days ago who says he doubts if it pays him to advertise, yet he kicked like a broncho when the Journal gave his competitor a two line free ad on the following day.—Winston Journal.

More horses have died of blind staggers in Dorchester county, Md., in the past six weeks than in the previous twenty-five years. Over a hundred have been carried off by the disease, for which there seems to be no remedy.

A Singular Girl

Mr. J. F. Belk, of Goose Creek, township, reports something rather strange and remarkable in his family. He says he has a daughter 17 years old who has never spoken to him in her life. She talks with the other members of the family, but refuses to talk to him, yet her parental affection toward him seems to be as great or greater than that of his other children. She frequently goes with him away from home on a visit and listens to him talk, but never returns a word or answers a question for him. Her mental facilities are as good as the average and she is to an extent educated, can read and write. These are the facts as given to us by Mr. Belk himself. He does not know how to account for it.—Marshville Home.

Won a Wife With an Egg

Ross Williams, of Enid, O. T., wrote a lovelorn message on an egg ready for shipment several weeks ago, and as a result he won himself a bride.

What this young man said on the egg was this:

"On a farm in the Cherokee strip I sit a sad and lonely bachelor, thinking sadly over my fate, and would love to come off the nest and join my life with that of some comely young lady of not too many Summers' growth. Should the message on this egg meet the eye of a fair one who is matrimonially inclined on short acquaintance, and who thinks she could endure a prairie life with a student of nature's beauty, address Ross Williams, Enid, O. T."

In due course of time this reply came:

"DEAR MR. WILLIAMS—From the quiet precincts of my boudoir I write thee. I am lonely, too, and have often longed to quit city life and go West, where the tall, wild grass sways in the wind as if listening to the sweet song of the china bugs. After chopping wood to kindle the fire, and after the fire was ready for business and the pan was sizzling in the sparkling fat, I was about to break an egg in the pan, when, behold! your message met my gaze. It seemed like a dream of a lost, unknown love. Perhaps our fates would trot along together. I am comely, but not so far. Age, 23; no money, but plenty of grit. Let us exchange photographs. It may all end in another American union, long to be preserved. Methinks I know you now."

"BESSIE CARROLL, Chicago, Ill."

Further correspondence resulted, and a few days later the young people were married.—New York Herald.

Tramps Hold up a Wedding

At Holdgate, Ohio, last week, fifteen armed tramps surprised and captured the farm house of John Williams about night and stopped the wedding of his daughter to Frank Collins. They drove the family from the house, devoured the bridal supper and ransacked the house. The wedding was postponed. The guests formed into a posse and went in pursuit of the tramps.

Boy Murderer Married While at Large.

Avery Butler, who was pardoned Saturday and reached home Sunday is said to have been married in Kentucky some three years ago, while at large, after escaping from the penitentiary. He will probably go to Kentucky soon to see his wife. At present he is with his mother here. His relatives are all delighted to have him free and all wish them again.

Lawsuit Against Judge Greene.

Proceedings have been begun against Judge L. L. Greene, for damages. The case arises out of an application for a writ of habeas corpus,
in the case of the State against Harris down on Hunting Creek. Harris was placed in jail. His attorneys applied to Judge Greene for a writ of habeas corpus. He refused to grant. Application was made to Associate Justice Forches, who granted the writ. The case cannot be tried before next spring term. The case will excite considerable interest.—Wilkesboro Chronicle.

An Undesirable Crowd

We understand that the Sanctificationists who have for sometime been making themselves notorious in several of the eastern counties, have announced that they will begin a meeting in the Court House at Greenville on the first Sunday in October. They should not be allowed to use the Court House.

More Gold.

One of our merchants calls the REFLECTOR down about our gold circulating article a few days ago. He says gold has been circulating freely around his place for some weeks. Well, our not happening to stumble over any of it accounts for our not knowing it sooner.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

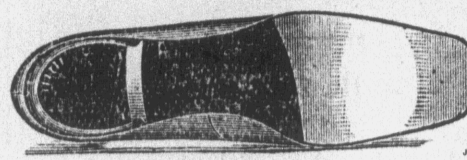

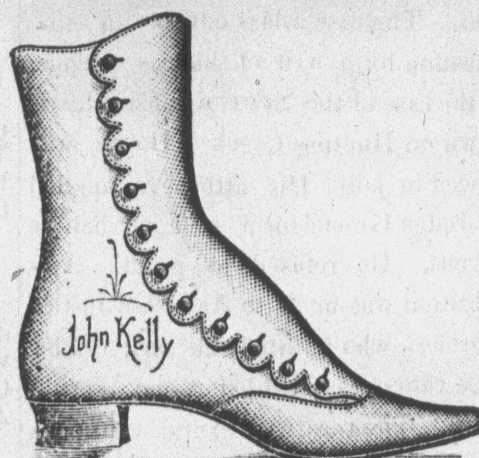

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonic. Price, 50c.
