QUINERLY ITEMS.

QUINERLY, N. C., Sept. 13, 1897.

H. C. Brooks, of Grifton, has taken a position with L. J. Chapman & Co. for the fall season.

Will Oden, of Bath, was visiting his sister, Mrs. W. F. Pittman, last Thursday.

Glad to see Will O'Neill and J. V. Johnson, of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., in town last week.

John Quinerly, of Aylen, was here on the 10th.

L. J. Chapman and W. B. Quinerly were in your city on Friday last selling tobacco.

J. P. Quinerly carried a nice lot of tobacco to Kinston last Monday and reports good prices.

Walter Chapman, of Cobville, is grading tobacco for L. J. Chapman.

J. P. Quinerly is overhauling his ginning plant in readiness for the large crop of cotton.

L. J. Chapman is making an addition to his already handsome dwelling on Grifton street.

J. C. Lanier, of your city, placed a very handsome tombstone at the grave of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quinerly on the 10th inst.

Our young people had a very pleasant stroll on Thursday night to M. C. Smith's vineyard where they were entertained very royally. It could not have been otherwise with the Major's hospitality.

Did somebody get left one night last week? We think so.

Willie Kilpatrick is very busy looking after the interest of the Kinston warehouse.

The public school for the white race opened at Centreville academy last Monday.

Mrs. M. F. Latham and Mrs. J. P. Quinerly returned on Thursday from an extended visit to Greenville and vicinity.

They Are Hustlers

It is not necessary to call attention to the large double column advertisement of Ricks & Taft in this issue. You will be sure to see that anyway, but the REFLECTOR wants to point at the enterprise of the young men composing this firm. They are hustlers and are doing a business fully in keeping with the spirit of enterprise they manifest. Their stock of goods for fall and winter is all anybody could wish to see, handsome, of the best quality and up to date in every department. And when it comes to prices they just don't let anybody make a lower figure than they can make.

THREE PROPOSITIONS.

Shall Greenville Have a First Class Hotel?

I have been so frequently importuned about building a hotel in Greenville for the past two years, and not being able or willing to assume the responsibility of such an enterprise alone, I now offer the following three propositions or any other which may be suggested better or more feasible, to the end that a hotel may be built.

1st. I will furnish the site on the vacant corner diagonally from Court House at an agreed value, or let three disinterested citizens fix the value thereof and put it in stock and take one third interest with two others, making us one third equally interested in the enterprise.

2nd. I will furnish the site and money enough to take one half interest in the enterprise with any number of other citizens.

3rd. I will furnish the site and build the first story, and any number of citizens may put the hotel above upon any fair and reasonable terms, own and control it. I will take stock in it, in addition to putting an office on the ground floor in stock of the enterprise.

I can satisfy parties desiring to invest that the enterprise will pay 10 per cent.

I have application for $2,000 stock. These propositions will be open for ten days. Any parties desiring information in the matter in my absence may see Aug. M. Moore, Esq. The entire cost of the enterprise including the land will be about $15,000.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Work Done at Their Last Meeting

The following sums were ordered paid out of the treasury: For paupers, $90; for County Home, $132.23; for bridges and lumber $534.24; repairs on Court House, $600; Sheriff, 256.45; Register of Deeds, $34.82; Commissioners, $10.60; Superintendent Health, $10.50; coffins for paupers $11; sundries, $33.65.

Bryant Back was allowed to peddle without license.

The agreement of the Town Council of Greenville relative to the title to the lot occupied by the market house was accepted.

The survey of county lines between Martin and Pitt counties was ordered certified to and sent to Secretary of State.

A rule was ordered served on the Sheriffs of Edgecombe, Durham, Craven, Martin and Wilson counties to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October and show cause why they should not be attached for neglect of official duties.

Ordered that Superintendent of Health be allowed $33.33 per month for his professional services.

Jordan Nobles was allowed $8 to furnish clothing for a deaf mute daughter.

Robert Johnson was appointed to register stock in Swift Creek stock law territory and William Blount in Contentnea.

A new road was ordered laid out in Farmville township from the forks near Wiley Williams' to the Plank road, a distance of 1 1/4 miles; also a new road in Swift Creek township from the Newbern road to the road near Daniel Cox's.

The Sheriff was ordered to keep the front door of the Court House locked at night and to allow no one to use the Court room without the permission of the Chairman of the Board.

A few other minor matters in the way of changing tax valuations and exemptions were attended to.

The Jews Want Palestine.

The clipping from the New York Herald in regard to the concerted movement of the world-scattered Jews toward returning to Palestine, shows the latest and certainly very interesting developments in "the Eastern question." There was recently a congress of Jews in session at Basle, Switzerland, in which plans were formulated, looking toward the purchase of Palestine from Turkey; toward urging Jewish immigration to Palestine, and toward the founding of a great Jewish University in Jerusalem. These plans, though meeting with some opposition, were enthusiastically adopted by a majority of the Congress, which was dominated by Dr. Herzl and Dr. Max Nordau. It is stated, furthermore, that the Jewish leaders of thought on the European continent and in England have employed the most famous architects of the world to reproduce the plans of Solomon's Temple, which was the glory of ancient architecture, and which it is intended to rebuild at Jerusalem.

The Sultan of Turkey has an empty Treasury, and the Jews own and control the wealth of the world. Strange as the idea seems, why is it not possible, if not probable, that the Sultan, who is possessed with the idea of restoring the ancient glory of Turkey, may drive a bargain with the rich Jews? But in case the great powers should decide, in the future, upon the division of Turkey, the Jews, to be on the safe side, are making advances to England to secure Palestine, England to be allowed to build railroads through to India and China.

Whatever the outcome, the question is one of unusual interest.—Charlotte Observer.

The interiors of one thousand of the most attractive homes in the United States have been photographed by the Ladies' Home Journal. One hundred of the best of these pictures will be reproduced in that magazine. The first article of the series—"Inside of a Hundred Homes"—will appear in the October Journal. Bedchambers, reception and dining rooms, bathrooms, halls and apartments of every kind will be pictured just as they are in daily use. Each picture contains dozens of suggestions. Every woman is interested in taking a peep into the most attractive homes in the land, to see how they are furnished and arranged. She wants to get practical hints and new ideas for furnishing her own. The houses photographed by the Journal are those occupied by persons of moderate income. Their interior arrangement shows what perfect taste can accomplish with a little money and the touch of a woman's deft fingers. Homes in every State in the Union—from Maine to California—were photographed for the Journal's unique and useful series.

Reflects the Town

It takes a live town to make a live newspaper. There never was in the past hundred years, never will, and never can be a live town without a live newspaper. The newspaper is dependent on the town. It reflects the push, progress and aspirations of the town. Without home patronage it can not live and thrive; then again, while it is dependent on the town, the town can not get along without it. There is no auxiliary so valuable to a growing town as an outspoken, public-spirited paper, wisely and well managed.—The New England Press.

We Please Them.

Talk about pleased farmers they were around the Eastern Warehouse today. "I'm going right back home after another load" several were heard to say when their account of sales was handed to them. The Eastern sold 30,000 pounds and the average on the break was over $10. Here is a sample sale for S. A. Edwards; lots at $17.50, $26, $8.25, $28, $34, $36, $41, $22, 26, $20, $15.50, $11.25 making an average of $23. Do you wonder why people sell at the Eastern when they get such prices as this? All you have to do is bring us you tobacco and we do the rest.

FIRE NEAR TOWN.

Mr. B. J. Wilson Loses His Barn and Stables.

Just before eleven o'clock on Saturday night, a bright light was seen across the river north of town. A number of people hurried over to ascertain the cause and found the barn and stable of Mr. B. J. Wilson on fire. Everything was so dry that the fire could not be checked and the buildings and contents were soon destroyed.

It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Wilson says he happened to go out to his dairy when he saw the flames coming out of the barn. This timely discovery gave him time to get his horses and cattle out of the stables but nothing else could be saved. He lost a lot of hay, about two thousand pounds of fodder, ten barrels of corn and most of his farm tools. The total loss is about $500 upon which there was no insurance. Mr. Wilson has many sympathizers in his loss.

The Place for High Prices

The Greenville Warehouse had third sale today but led the market with the largest break. Evans' and Critcher's good work on sales has its effect and brings tobacco to this reliable house. Prices have been high the last few days and the Greenville made $18 and $19 averages right along. One man sold a lot for $461 his average being $18.75. Hard work, merit and high prices are the things that count at the Greenville Warehouse. Try us once with your tobacco and you will be sure to come again. EVANS, CRITCHER & Co.
