MUNFORD

THE NICKEL PLATE SHOW.

In Greenville Monday, Oct. 11th

Harris' Nickel Plate Show will be in Greenville on Monday, 11th inst., and give performances at 2 and 8 o'clock P. M. It is a one ring circus and gives a thoroughly good performance. The Petersburg Progress says "it is certainly one of the best circuses of its class that has ever visited Petersburg. The acrobatic and gymnastic performances are exceptionally good, the acting of the aerialists alone being worth the price of admission. The antics and intelligence displayed by the trained dogs and horses are really remarkable. A sight of Gypsy, the largest elephant in captivity and her baby Barney, proved a great treat for the little ones in particular."

JUST FOR FUN.

"Talk 'bout yer labor agertation," said Rollingsstone Nomoss; "it agertates me even ter t'ink of it."

The cigarette button fad is dying out, and French duelists will therefore have to wear some other sort of armor.

A man may be struck by a woman's beauty and yet not be seriously injured unless she happens to be a wheelwoman.

There is some consolation in being called a diamond in the rough, for the imitation gems are always highly polished.

"A girl may forgive a man for kissing her," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "but she'll never forgive him for not kissing her when she expects him to."

Hoax—"There goes a man who has insomnia, and is glad of it." Joax—"Get out!" Hoax—"Yes, he says his wife can't go through his pockets at night, now."

Higgins—"Doctor, I thought you were going down into the yellow fever district?" Doctor—"I was; but I decided that I couldn't do any good." "No?" "No; You see I'm color blind."

Tenderfoot—"I understand two Eastern men were recently killed by a horse out here." Coyote Charlie—"Well yaas; there was a horse in the case." "The men were pretty close friends, weren't they?" "Yaas, they certainly did hang together"

Riverside All Right.

Prof. W. F. Massey, of the State Agricultural Department, came in last night and this morning made an examination at Riverside Nurseries for diseased fruit trees. He found everything at Riverside all right.

Elements of Success.

The elements of success in mercantile life seem to be these: First, have something that people want; second, stand ready to sell your goods at reasonable prices; and third, and most important of all, let the general public know what you have for sale and the price. A merchant may have the best goods in the world, and stand ready to sell at prices actually below cost, and if no one knows about it his goods may grow fast to his counters. Newspaper advertising is the best method of communication between merchant and customer.—Hartford Globe.

Fire Alarm

Just before 10 o'clock this morning a fire alarm was turned in from South Greenville. Fire had in some way caught in some dry feed stuff stored in a barn on the premises of Mr. W. R. Parker. The fire companies with their apparatus started promptly for the scene, but the fire was put out before they reached there. No damage was done to the building.

"Coot" Laid Up

The REFLECTOR office is short one hand today. Three of the office force are members of the fire department and one of them, C. B. Whichard, was overcome by the exertion of running to the fire through the sand with the hose reel and had to take his bed. Others of the reel boys came near giving out.

I have returned to Greenville and am again ready to serve all having any dressmaking to do. The patronage of my former customers, as well as others will be appreciate.

BLOW
HOT OR COLD

We open Autumn activities this week in earnest. The stock is in ideal readiness. Every department responds to the present and future need of men and boys dress. Cooler days are not far off. The wise will anticipate this. Intelligent and unprejudiced criticism places our assortment of at the top. If you keep in touch with our doings, you know that experience, study, thought skill, capital and care controlled our selections and purchases. For proof, you are invited to thoroughly inspect quality of fabrics, colors, patterns, styles, tailoring, fit. Prices correct.

FRANK WILSON.

THE KING CLOTHIER.

Brilliant Fabrics

from
Two Hemispheres,

Dress Goods, Clothing, Hats, SHOES.

The Autumnal Textiles are in radiant profusion on our counters. No store in the South ever exhibited so much exclusiveness and elegance. There are gorgeous groups of stuffs from Paris, Vienna, Picardy, Roubaix, Glouchau, Gera, Bradford, Leeds, Glasgow and other famous trans-Atlantic manufacturing cities. We selected the best that the makers of France, Germany, Austria, England and Scotland have produced, and you are invited to examine them while they are yet in their exquisite state of freshness and beauty. There are multitudes of plain makes in mono-colors, and an aggregation of fancy effects in multi-colors showing designs and combinations that are too kaleidoscopic for any advertising pen to describe. Price is no object with us.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1897.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There was a big fire in Washington City, Wednesday night, that destroyed property to the value of nearly a million dollars.

Yellow fever continues to spread. New Orleans reports an average of about 25 new cases a day, and it is doubtful if near all of them are reported.

With a serious overflow all through the spring months that did vast damage, and a yellow fever scourge in the fall months, Mississippi and Louisiana are having more than their share of disaster this year.

The Raleigh News and Observer says "About three yards of black ladies' dress goods has recently been picked up in a walk in the capitol square." Dress goods must be plentiful with the black ladies of the capital city for them to be leaving such large pieces lying around.

It is a pretty state of affairs in Halifax county. They now have a negro court crier, a negro County Commissioner, four of the most prominent postoffices filled by negro postmasters, and that county furnishes a negro Congressman. If this thing goes much further we may expect to see a negro Judge and negro county officers. It is time white people were beginning to take a serious look at the political situation.

A Grandmother at 34

Mrs. Sarah Davidson, of 351 East Seventy second street, New York, is only 34 years old, but she is the grandmother of Baby Beatrice Britz, who arrived in this strange world about a week ago.

Mrs. Davidson good humoredly speaks of herself as "the youngest grandmother" of the metropolis. She was a wife at 13 and a mother at 14. Her daughter Mrs. Julia Britz, is now 20. Mrs. Davidson herself looks to be about 25. She has all the beauty and graces of a young matron—in fact, she would pass for a belle.

A man in Cartersville purchased the gallows on which a man was hanged and built a henry of the lumber. He has never had a chicken stolen from him, and it is said that the colored brother won't go within a block of it if he can possibly avoid doing so.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction is strongly in favor of requiring that every voter shall be able to at least read and write.

Sympathy for Criminals.

The trials of noted criminals are read with great interest by the people, and much sympathy for them is often expressed. Take any ease appearing in our daily papers and see how eagerly the people read the account of the proceedings.

Sympathy for criminals exists in every refined nature. Good people cannot help being moved to sympathy for those who have forsaken the pathway of rectitude and brought ruin and destruction upon themselves. While sympathizing with them, however, as they stand at the bar of public justice, we should not forget that strict conformity to right requires us to look away from them awhile and meditate upon the fearful consequences of crime unpunished. The murderer cannot go at large because one is filling an untimely grave as a result of his crime and others are liable at any moment to meet a like fate.

The thief that steals one man's property will take another's if he has the opportunity. The same is true throughout the catalogue of crime. However deeply we may feel for the man who has made an improper use of life and committed a deed that stamps him as a fiend, we must not forget that the welfare of the human race demands that he shall not be turned loose to do as he pleases.

No judge or jury inflicts punishment because it is pleasant to them. Law is merciful. It saves more than it destroys. It shields society in dealing justly with the criminal. Great caution should be exercised never to punish an innocent man. If there is doubt of the prisoner's guilt he should always have the benefit of the doubt, but it is an injustice to the prisoner and an unpardonable wrong to the people not to punish those who are proven to be notorious criminals.—Durham Sun.

Inhuman Mother.

A gentleman tells the World of a horrible inhuman affair that occurred on the Western train last Sunday morning which has not before been brought to light.

Near Sherman Heights, just this side of Sherman Heights tunnel, a party passing by observed a peculiarly shaped bundle lying by the road. It was wrapped in a newspaper and the finder was horror stricken on opening the bundle to find that it contained a newly born white infant. Life was extinct when the child was picked up and it had probably been lying there for several hours.

The Western train which arrives here at 7:40 o'clock, passes that point about 5 o'clock in the morning and it is thought that the child was thrown from the car by one of the passengers.

The Southern at once went to work to discover the criminal, but thus far no trace of the guilty party has been found. It is pretty certain, however, that the child was born on the train and thrown out of the window by a woman who left the train at Knoxville.—Salisbury World.

Mr. McKinley exhorts the Ohio Sunday school boys to be virtuous and moral. He does not explain to them that it is virtuous and moral to appoint a disreputable New Orleans negro dive keeper to high office as payment for that dissolute person's services in bribing delegates to support the candidacy of an Ohio church member. But that is what Mr. McKinley's public record means.

State Farms Hiring Hands

We don't suppose it was ever the case before when the State found that it did not have convicts enough. But just at this time, that is exactly the way it looks, as Superintendent Smith is hiring free labor to help pick out the cotton at the big State farms. All available convicts have been brought down from the State's prison at Raleigh, but the cotton is opening so fast that is impossible to get it out with convict labor alone, so the expediency of hiring hands becomes necessary, as it is very important to pick the cotton out before a cold, rainy spell sets in, and under the circumstances we suppose the Superintendent is doing exactly right to hire free labor. These hands, however, should work separate and apart from the convicts.—Weldon News.

During the war, and shortly afterward the Government did a fine stroke of business in helping to build railroads. It has been paying interest on railroad bonds ever since. The expenditures on account of the Pacific railroads at the beginning of the next year will be exceptionally heavy. On January 1 there will be due matured bonds of the Central Pacific to the amount of $10,614,120; Union Pacific, $15,919,512; Kansas Pacific, $1,423,000; Central Branch of the Union Pacific, $320,000; Sioux City and Pacific, $1,628,320, making a total of $29,904,952. In addition to this amount the interest payments on January 1 will aggregate approximately $7,000,000. It is possible, if the Government shall accept the hard terms offered for the reorganization of the Union Pacific Railroad, that the January payments for account of the Pacific roads may be reduced very considerably; but no possible arrangement will serve to avert heavy loss to the people of the United States.—Philadelphia Record.

In some countries the officers get together and levy as much tax on each man as they see fit, then the collector goes round and makes them pay. If any man complains that his tax is too high or that he can't pay they simply arrest him, put him in a dark cell in a jail and let him stay there on bread and water till he changes his mind and consents to pay just what they put upon him. If things go on in this state it will only be a few years till the people will lose all their rights and the office holders will be supreme. They will levy taxes to suit themselves and make the people pay or punish them in jails and dark cells. We are coming to it. They made a pass at it this year. They are a little timid yet, but let the fusion demagogues go on and the good people of this State will see things they never saw or heard of before.—Lexington Dispatch.

Throughout The Country

The sixteen million silver dollars in the New Orleans mint are tied up for the present by the yellow fever quarantine.

Seeing for the first time a wheelman in the British Columbia mountains an Indian chief brought him down with his rifle.

It is said in Washington that the plan of John R. McLean to abandon free silver will cause a split in the Democratic party in Ohio.

An inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Augusta Me., has been smuggling in bottles of whiskey in a hole he carved in his wooden leg. The last time he disappeared they searched for him until they found him lying dead drunk in a graveyard, with his wooden leg unstrapped and the empty flask lying in the hole in the leg.—Boston Herald.

A Lawyer Speaks the Truth

The standing of the editor is never appreciated until his spirit has winged its flight to realms of endless space. We were bosom friends, but, alas! we can never meet again.—Exchange.

LITTLE REFLECTIONS

Caught of the Small Things That Occur

October.

Tenth month. County Commissioners meet Monday.

Eggs and chickens at S. M. Schultz. Fairs will be the talk for a few weeks.

Housekeepers complain of the scarcity of chickens.

Five Fridays, five Saturdays, and five Sundays this month.

For nice fresh oysters, in any style, call on Old Joe Forbes.

In today—Fresh N. Y. State Butter and Cheese at S. M.

September term of Pitt Superior Court adjourned Thursday evening.

Greenville folks would like to see an opera house on some of the new buildings.

Dr. Bert Moyer's horse tried himself on a runaway Thursday evening. No damage done.

It is getting almost cold enough for the boys to get out their roller skates and whirl around the warehouse floors.

Two new phones have just been added to the exchange, M. H. Quinley, store, No. 33; J. L. Sugg, residence No. 63.

On Wednesday, 6th, the stores of our Hebrew merchants will be closed in commemoration of Yom Kippur, the Jewish day of atonement.

A business man remarked that THE DAILY REFLECTOR reaches the people of Greenville better than anything he ever tried. And he is right.

The fire alarm bell clanged away this morning and could be heard fully a hundred yards. As a sound killer that crack in the bell gets there.

It sounds a little late to hear Durham and Winston talking of their tobacco markets opening Oct. 1st. Down here they have already been open two months.

We read accounts of towns, not having them, going ahead and organizing chambers of commerce. Will Greenville take the hint and move in this direction?

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

OCTOGENARIANS

None in This Column, But a Few Outside

W. H. Cox, of Kinston, was here today.

E. B. Ficklen left this morning for Lynchburg.

Mrs. L. C. King, of Norfolk, is visiting friends here.

Lovit Hines, of Kinston, came over on the morning train.

W. W. Clark, of Newbern, who came over to court, left this morning.

Mrs. Robert L. Carr, of Willow Green, is visiting her niece, Mrs. J. L. Wooten.

Judge E. W. Timberlake, J. E. Moore and J. L. Bridgers all left this morning for their homes.

Claude Joyner returned from Tennessee, Thursday evening, where he had been for a month showing people how to cure tobacco.

The weather gets warmer again. The persimmon will not figure extensively in this year's fruit crop and the possum will have to hunt for other rations.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Alice Hoover, of Toisnot to Mr. A. H. Taft, of Greenville, Wednesday morning, October 6th at the M. E. Church at Toisnot.—Rocky Mount Motor.

Money in Potatoes.

Simon Short, a colored man, who lives three miles from town, has been bringing sweet potatoes to market since the new crop came on. He tells us that from 1 1/2 acres he has sold something over $50 worth and at the same time had all the potatoes he wanted to use in his family. At this rate there is much more money in potatoes than in cotton.

Pointed Paragraphs

A bad epigram, like a worn out pencil, has no point to it.

Compliments on a tombstone might be termed epi-taffy.

Marriage is an eye salve that restores sight to blind lovers.

Conversing with a man who always agrees with you is about as monotonous as talking to an echo.

If you want to see the smartest, cutest, and sweetest baby that ever lived, just get any mother to show you hers.

The girl who tries to imitate a man is idiotic, but the imitation is often very flattering just the same.

A man isn't to blame for thinking more of his typewriter than he does of his wife; he can dictate to his typewriter.
