NEWS NOTES

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, is suffering with jaundice and is quite a sick man.

Ex-Senator Jones, of Florida, is dead.

Two women were killed in their home at Camden, N. J., by burglars.

Roger P. Donaghue, of Holyoke, Mass., has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the First district.

John L. Highburger, of Harper's Ferry, W. Va., forwarded a violin, made from a tree on John Brown's place, to Queen Victoria, but she declined the gift.

JUST FOR FUN.

Rosy-cheeked apples are plentiful.

Already the farmers are fattening thanksgiving turkeys.

"I was anxious to shelter that family," said the vacant house, "but they wouldn't let me."

Ragson Tatters—"Gittin' much booze dese days?" Warde Heel—Naw; it's an off year in politics."

Nell—"Hamphat, the actor, is keeping company with Mame." Belle—"Keeping company, eh? Well. no company will keep him."

Hoax—"Did you see the play last night?" Joax—"Not exactly. It may have been play for the girl in front of me, but it was work for me."

Mrs. Brown—"So they have boys and girls together at your son's college?" Mrs. Jones—"Yes; John wrote me that they had Belle Letters in his class."

Slobbs—"I wonder why people will foolishly donate big sums for South African heathers?" Blobbs—"It's only a natural effort to make their money go as far as possible."

"I wonder if you're really what you are cracked up to be," said the coffee to the egg. "Wait a minute" retorted the egg as it dropped into the coffee pot, and it'll settle you."

The Meeting.

Rev. J. J. Harper, of Smithfield, preached in the Methodist church last night. His text was "What will a man give in exchange for his soul," and from it he delivered a very strong and impressive sermon.

The service this afternoon was for the women. Tonight Rev. Mr. Watson will preach especially to the unconverted and Friday night especially to the Christians.

RAM'S HORN.

No man is fit for heaven who wants somebody else kept out.

It is better to be a mustard seed than a mountain of dead rock.

There are too many church members and not enough Christians.

Our lives please God when they make sinners want to know Christ.

It never hurts God's work any for people to get mad at his truth.

God can see jewels where we would see only common sand and gravel.

An extravagant man loves to lecture his wife on the beauty of economy.

Next to hearing a hypocrite pray, the devil loves to hear a stingy man talk in church.

Open the door of your heart to Christ, and He will open the windows of heaven for you.

An opportunity to help the poor is a chance Christ has given us to do something for him.

How small God's army always seems to be when we take it upon ourselves to number it.

God will give us strength to resist temptation if we will use it to walk away from bad company.

Promoted

Cadet Lyman A. Cotten, who is at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis Md., has been made Senior Captain of the cadets since returning from their last cruise.

All the tobacco warehouses had fine breaks today.

The Autumnal Textiles are in radiant profusion on our counters. No store in the South ever exhibited so much exclusiveness and elegance. There are gorgeous groups of stuffs from Paris, Vienna, Picardy, Roubaix, Glouchau, Gera, Bradford, Leeds, Glasgow and other famous trans-Atlantic manufacturing cities. We selected the best that the makers of France, Germany, Austria, England and Scotland have produced, and you are invited to examine them while they are yet in their exquisite state of freshness and beauty. There are multitudes of plain makes in mono-colors, and an aggregation of fancy effects in multi-colors showing designs and combinations that are too kaleidoscopic for any advertising pen to describe. Price is no object with us.

Indianapolis, the home of ex-President Harrison, went Democratic by 5,000 majority in the city election held on Tuesday.

Four bandits held up and robbed a train in broad daylight within 12 miles of Austin the capital of Texas.

The yellow fever has broken out at several places in Texas and such quarantine measures have been adopted as to cause almost a complete blockade to travel.

The people of Macon, Ga., adopted an unusual method of amusement a day or two ago. The closing feature of a big trade display was a collision between two large railroad locomotives.

A Ten Days' Revival Ends in a Big Bonfire

A ten day's revival culminated last night in front of the residence of Capt. Joseph Caraker, when 500 citizens made a bonfire of articles used in games of home amusement.

First one and then another offered to burn cards, dice, checker boards, and other articles. When Capt. Kidd, of the firm of Culver & Kidd, offered to open his store and take therefrom 500 packs of cards and add them to the fire it was decided to make a combination affair of it.

Lawsuit Without Parallel

Memphis lawyers have within the last couple of days brought suit in Weakley county for damages for defamation of character, alleged to be contained in an epitaph cut in a tombstone.

In December, 1896, L. B. Cate was shot and killed by one Bill Penic. Penic was indicted and tried for murder. He was defended by the same lawyers who are now acting for him in this civil suit.

"L. B. son of J. C. and L. J. Cate. Born April 10, 1870. Married Willie Freeman December 21, 1897. Was shot and killed by Bill Penic December 11, 1896; caused by Penic swearing to a lie on Cate's wife. Aged 26 years 8 months and 1 day."

It is alleged by Penic that this stone was lettered by J. H. Hutchinson, of Martin, and it is alleged that the stone was exposed to public gaze in the yard of Hutchinson for quite a while before it was erected at the head of the grave containing the remains of the deceased Cate.

Guard against Yellow Jack by keeping the system thoroughly clean and free from germ breeding matter. Cascarets Candy Cathartic will cleanse the system and kill all contagious disease germs.

Not far from Dawson, in Alaska, there is a remarkable lake named Salawik. It is 90 miles long and about 15 miles wide, and is probably the only lake in that extreme northern region, says the Lewiston (Me.) Republic.

The Secretary of the Navy will ask Congress for an appropriation of $32,000,000 for various naval expenses in the next fiscal year, not including new battleships and docks. His estimates are $3,500,000 greater than the estimates of his predecessor for the current fiscal year.

OCTOBER TIPS ON STYLE

This Column is for the Ladies

A new jacket is fastened with a single button on the bust, the overside turned back in a triangular lapel. The shoulders are prolonged in three tabs, which fall over the top of the sleeves.

The wraps, capes and jackets from Berlin are generally cut longer than was the fashion last year, the most popular creations running from 24 to 30 inches in length.

Black and white checks in combination with brilliant color will play an important part in winter costumes.

Dainty princess tea gowns of surah are embellished with delicate laces.

Girls of 16 years wear jacket capes or cloth in broken plaid designs.

There is certainly a great charm about the graceful plumes seen on the larger hats of the season.

Velvets in large bright plaids are to be used by the fashionable girl for the winter shirt waist.

One of the daintiest buckles is the very slender gilt affair set with tiny turquoises.

Amethysts and emeralds seem to be favorite stones for gold hatpins.

Long black lace scarfs in the style of days gone by are now used as sashes.

Very lovely tea gowns are of Roman striped silk, with lace garniture.

For yokes and skirt borders there are beautiful lace applique insertions.

Fancy buttons and velvet ribbon embellish frocks of grace taffeta.

A pet edging in a particularly narrow width has been designed for finishing hat brims.

Renaissance lace is still in demand for doilies, centerpieces and cushion covers.

The loveliest shaded wings for millinery are in green, blue, grey and brown.

Ostrich plumes in castor shades are modish and pretty.

Gray feather boas match the fashionable pearl colored felt hats.

The ultra-stylish cashmeres and cloths all have the new satin finish.

"Esq"

In Paris, as well as in some other parts of the world, there are men of fashion who aim to do everything as the English do it. A foppish Frenchman, who knew no English, but nevertheless called himself a "gentleman," went so far in his Anglomania as to write "Esq." after the names of men to whom he wrote letters on the backs of the envelopes.

A Duck Story

Mr. P. S. Bennett, who lives near Fort Mill, comes forward with a novel duck story, which happened on his farm one day last week. His attention was attracted by an unusual quacking, and on going out in his back yard found a number of ducks with an old black hen going in the direction of his watermelon patch. Mr. Bennett decided to watch and see what was up. On arriving at the patch the ducks picked at several melons, as if to show the old hen what they wished her to do. She caught on however, and after picking open several melons, returned to the barn yard. When several melons had been destroyed, Mr. Bennett examined the patch and found that the ducks had picked at nearly all of the melons, but as their bills were too blunt to break the rinds, they had gone after the old hen to assist them—Fort Mill Times.

Yellow Fever Germs

breed in the bowels. Kill them and you are safe from the awful disease. Cascarets destroy the germs throughout the system and make it impossible for new ones to form. Cascarets are the only reliable safe guard for young and old against Yellow Jack. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists.

He Wasn't Ripe

A boy who appeared to be in his teens, applied to the register of deeds this morning for marriage license. Mr. Miller looked him over carefully, and decided he wasn't ripe, told him to go home and grow some more before he got married. The boy was from Davidsor county.—Winston Journal.

Yellow Jack Killed.

Cascarets, Caudy Cathartic kills Yellow Jack wherever they find him. No one who takes Cascarets regularly and systematically is in danger from the dreadful disease. Cascarets kill Yellow fever germs in the bowels and prevent new ones from breeding. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists.

Town Lots for Sale.

By virtue of an order of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt county made at their meeting in October, 1897, I will on Monday, December 6th, 1897, before the Court House door in the town of Greenville, sell at public sale that certain lot or parcel of land situated in the town of Greenville and known in the plan of said town as lot No 102, lying on the east side of Evans street and immediately in front of the Court House, and being the lot upon which the Market House now stands. The said lot will be sold as follows:

1st. In separate parcels according to a plan now on file in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt county which can be seen by the public any time and will be exhibited on the day of sale.

2nd. As a whole.
Terms of Sale—One third of bid to be paid on the first day of January, 1898, one third on the first day of January 1899, and one third on the first day of January, 1900, with six per cent interest on the deferred payments, with privilege to purchaser to pay the whole at any time and take his deed. Possession to be given on the first day of January, 1898, and title reserved until the whole of the purchase money is paid.

The said Board of Commissioners reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

This October 12th, 1897.

WILLIAM M. KING,
Chm. Bd. Com'rs Pitt Co.

Execution Sale.

To satisfy an execution in my hands against J. H. Woolard, W. K. Woolard and M. A. Woolard, I will on Wednesday, the 8th day of December 1897 before the Court House door in Greenville sell to the highest bidder for cash the following described real estate: Beginning at the road that leads from Gainer's Bridge to Sheppard's Mill and running south 70 1/2 east 112 poles to a branch thence down said branch to Tranter's Creek thence down said creek to the west prong thence down said prong to a marked gum about forty yards below the old crossway thence north 58 west 98 poles to the county road thence up said road to the beginning containing 80 acres more or less it being the tract of land whereon Thad Rogerson now lives.

This 12th day of October 1897.

Several Craven and Beaufort county farmers had tobacco on the Greenville market today.

The tobacco stemmeries are busy places and have to work night and day to keep up.

The Farmers Alliance of the county held a meeting here today. It was very slimly attended.

Drummers struck the town in full force last night, a large number of them stopping off here.

We heard some men talking a knitting factory for Greenville. That is one of the enterprises this town badly needs.

We hear that Mr. L. M. Blakely, Jr., died at his home near Washington a few days ago. He was well known in Greenville.

Rev. Mr. Ticknor, Evangelist for the Convocational district of Edenton, will preach at the Episcopal church in this town on Friday night, 14th inst.

RIVERSIDE DAIRY,

R. M. KENNEDY, M'gr.

Pure, sweet milk delivered at your door, morning and evening, at 30 cents per gallon. With ten years experience in the dairy business in Greenville we deem it unnecessary to say more.

WHERE ARE THEY

People Not Moving About To-Day

Rev. J. J. Harper left this morning for his home in Smithfield.

William Kirkman, a deaf mute, son of Mrs. E. A. Kirkman, took the train here this morning for the deaf and dumb school at Morganton.

Dr. R. L. Carr, J. L. Fleming and S. T. White of this town, have been selected assistant marshals at the State fair beginning on the 18th.

Mr. Andrew Joyner, of Greenville, N. C., has located in Winston for the practice of his profession—law. He is associated with Mr. L. M. Swink and will move his family here in a few weeks.—Winston Sentinel.

Overton—White Cards Issued

Handsome cards have been sent to friends outside of Greenville to the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Skinner White to Mr. Dolphin L. Overton on Tuesday morning, Nov. 2nd, at 8:15 o'clock in the M. E. Church. No cards are issued to friends living in town but all are invited to the marriage.

Attention Firemen

The monthly meeting of Hope Fire Company will be held Thursday evening, 14th, at 7:30 o'clock, instead of next Monday night as previously published. All members should take notice and be present.

F. M. HODGES, Foreman.
A. B. ELLINGTON, Secretary.

Pleased with the West

Mr. Bruce Cotten, who left this county a few weeks ago to try his fortune in the Klondike region, has reached Seattle where he will spend the winter before proceeding further on his journey. He writes back to his father Mr. R. R. Cotten, that he is greatly pleased with what he has seen of the west.

He Knows Good Work.

Mr. W. R. Musgat, the manager of the Robinson and Franklin Bros. advertising car that spent yesterday here, left an order for job printing with the REFLECTOR. He said he held the work through three towns just to bring it to the REFLECTOR office. He has been here before and knows what good printing is.

A Mean Act.

Not many nights ago Mr. E. B. Higgs' family came to town to attend church and left their horse and buggy hitched near the church. While attending the services some one broke down the spatter board of the buggy, broke the whip and threw it in the street and stole the lap robe. Human beings are seldom guilty of a thing much meaner than this.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell GROVES TASTELESS CHILL TONIC for Chills, Fever and all forms of Malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

RICKS & TAFT.

Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shoes.

Our Dress Goods department is enhanced with weaves that are conspicuous on many counters—Coverts, Clay, Worsted, Serges, Broadcloth, Drap d'Ete and scores of others that have a quiet, unobtrusive elegance all their own. The colors are triumphs of the dyer's art. Such clear strong, brilliant shades never before gave rich tone and grace to the soft surface of calendered woollens. We have a beautiful line of Cloaks and Shoes, which are offered at prices that fit the season. Come and see us

Town and Papers Grow Together

Our neighbor, the Greenville REFLECTOR, is all the while making improvements in its work. For some time it has been printing a daily edition and a weekly edition also. The weekly has been changed to a semi-weekly.

Greenville prospers and stands to its newspapers. Any one but a newspaper man would say it prospers because it takes care of its newspapers, but if a newspaper man says so he is regarded as "talking shop."

All the same Greenville's newspapers show good patronage and the town is flourishing, put the two together as you may.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

A Fine Showing

That is a splendid showing of its business in the statement of the Bank of Greenville, published on second page. This bank and its management is a credit to Greenville.
