Men & Boys OVERCOATS!

Every price commands style and quality. The cloth, the linings, the trimmings and the fitting cannot be surpassed. If you come we'll show plenty of conclusive proof of how we can and do save money for you. Our object supreme is to surprise every customer by offering greater values than were expected.

Now about
SUITS!

People say ours are faultless. Well, that's right we show style.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by Orange Va., Observer-cr.

You can't measure a girl's love by its sighs.

You don't need any tray to catch the chicken-pox.

People are never satisfied with a high bread baker.

The parlor is the most frequented of all courts.

Young ladies make the best sight-of-hand performers.

The tramp is not idle if he labors under an impression.

Discipline is the harness whereby heavy loads are easily drawn.

In money matters treat strangers as though they were your relatives.

The trees will soon begin to blush at the thought of exposing their bare limbs.

Young ladies must be scarce when a young man has to embrace an opportunity.

Street gossips use the thread of conversation to weave the fabric of untruth.

As cold weather is now approaching, the foot of the mountain will soon need a shoe.

There is no accounting for tastes. Some men even go so far as to kiss their own wives instead of other women.

If your daughter is in poor health, let her use the mop about the house. Nothing like home-mop-athy for a weak young woman.

Sunday religion that does not run all through the week at the same rate and fullness is an insult to God and a disgrace to Sunday sniffers.

AT THE CHURCHES.

Where You Can Worship Tomorrow.

Methodist church—Sunday-school at 9:30 A. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. by Rev. N. M. Watson. Morning subject: "The Foolishness of Preaching." Evening subject: "That which is Evanescent and that which Abides—Babylon, Rome, America."

Presbyterian church—Sunday school at 9:30 A. M.

Baptist church—Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. Services at 11 A. M. by Rev. A. W. Setzer, Subject: "Christian Citizenship." At 7 P. M., Bible Day Exercises by children of the Sunday School.

South Greenville Sunday-school at 4 P. M. D. D. Haskett, Superintendent

Episcopal church—Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

JUST FOR FUN.

Pumpkin pies are ripe.

The artificial dimple is a new wrinkle.

A new dairy, "The Klondike," is to sell only in quartz.

Poets are devoting their attention solely to Christmas cards, and editors are grateful.

The thanks-giving turkey is the one that expects to be spared when plumper fowls are sacrificed next Thursday.

Dora—"That elevator man is very impertinent." Cora—"Why, what did he do?" Dora—"I said I was going down," and he told me to "hurry up."

Hoax—"I see that Professor Long-head's scientific pamphlet is advertised as 'light reading matter.'" Joax—"Yes; it's devoted to a description of the manufacture of illuminating gas."

She—"So the engagement of Mr. Saphedde and Miss Furox has been declared of. Some cruel misunderstanding must have parted them." He—"Yes; he understood that her father was wealthy."

Angry Advertiser—"See here, our ad ought to read: 'Thousands of patrons are wearing trousers of our make.'" Foreman composing room—"Well?" Angry Advertiser—"You have made it read 'matrons.'"

Greenville Ahead.

A man who travels much over the eastern section of the State, tells the REFLECTOR that it is dull everywhere he has been during the past month, but he finds more business going on in Greenville than any town he has visited.

Thanksgiving Needs.

Thanksgiving necessitates a certain amount of shopping in almost every household. In such necessities lies the merchant's opportunity; and just to the extent that the admirable newspaper circulation is larger to-day than it ever was before is opportunity greater than in former years for those who are prompt enough to seize it.

Marriage Licenses.

The Register of Deeds issued four marriage licenses this week, two for white couples and two for colored.

WHITE MEN WHAT THINK YE OF HIM?

Marion Butler, who misrepresents this State in the United States Senate, has recently made himself a subject of contempt. He is unworthy to be recognized by decent people and ought to be ashamed to look a respectable woman in the face. Not long ago the Rocky Mount Argonaut stated that Butler made a speech in that town in which he said: "If colored men commit outrages the Democrats pretend to be terribly shocked in public, but when they get behind a wall they laugh until they grow fat, and if the outrages are not frequent enough they hire worthless negroes to commit them."

This was a base slander on the people of North Carolina, and many papers copied, some with comment, what appeared in the Argonaut. The Charlotte Observer and Kinston Free Press expressed a doubt as to Butler's using such words and leaned to the belief that he had not been accurately reported.

In the last issue of his own paper, the Caucasian, Butler says he never said anything of the kind, and adds: "The papers that have been so eagerly commenting upon this false and malicious report could have ascertained whether or not the same was true, if they had desired."

Friday's Charlotte Observer published an article which shows that paper to have departed from its doubt that Butler used the words attributed to him. The article contained an affidavit signed by Rev. B. S. McKenzie, Dr. J. F. Thorp and Mr. J. J. Daughtry, all of Rocky Mount, and sworn to before Mr. John L. Arrington, a Notary Public, setting forth that they heard the speech of Butler and that the extract quoted from his speech was in substance what he said.

What a spectacle for a United States Senator! Slanders the people of his own State and then attempts to falsify the facts. And yet there are white men in North Carolina, some of them right here in Pitt county, too, who are political followers of Marion Butler.

The attitude of Governor Russell toward the criminal class is a forceful argument that the pardoning power should not be vested in one man. We see it stated that during the ten months he has been in office the pardons and commutations together have reached the number of forty-five. This shows to what extent this one man power can be abused by a man who cares nothing for the welfare of the State or the protection or safety of her law abiding citizens. Pardons are sometimes just, but there should be extreme caution about granting them, and the power should be left with a board of at least three good men. The present law should be changed at the earliest possible moment.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov 19, '97.

It is not surprising that Mr. McKinley should be worried about what to say in his annual message to Congress about the Dingley tariff, which was according to its supporters, to be such a revenue producer that the receipts of the government were to speedily exceed its expenditures. The facts are unsatisfactory enough to worry him and every other supporter of the Dingley law. Since the first of July the Treasury deficit has been more than $43,000,000. The right thing for Mr. McKinley to do would be to come out like a man and say that the present tariff had failed to provide a sufficient revenue, and to ask Congress to provide other means of raising revenue, either by amending the tariff law or by imposing additional taxation, but he will hardly dare to do that, as it would be an acknowledgment of error upon the part of himself and those who imposed the Dingley tariff upon the country. It is probable that he will wind up by sticking to the original Dingley tariff, that the tariff will, in time, produce revenue sufficient to meet the public expenditures, and let it go at that, trusting to time, circumstances and luck to furnish some way of getting himself and party out of the tariff hole.

Ex-Secretary Foster met the full expectations of his enemies, who had predicted from the beginning that he would make a mess of the sealing negotiations, so far as England was concerned. He has done that very thing, although he is charged with having made some questionable statements about reciprocity, and other things to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, in order to try to get that gentleman's consent to the negotiation of a treaty binding England, Canada and the U. S. to a cessation of open sea sealing for a time. Sir Wilfrid declined to consent to such an agreement, unless he was given tariff and other concessions for Canada which this administration would not dare to give, and now the whole business is off, and the killing of seals wherever found will go right along, by Canadians, although citizens of the U. S., Japan and of Russia are prohibited by Foster's recently negotiated treaty from doing the same thing. Mr. Foster is as mad as a wet hen because the public is on the fizzle he has made after all the months he spent chasing all over the world, drawing a fancy salary and traveling expenses, and has issued a statement endeavoring to keep himself in his fat position by making it appear that the negotiations were not broken off, but merely suspended until the Canadian Government can do a little thinking.

According to a statement emanating from official circles, and evidently given out as a feeler, Mr. McKinley will not send the correspondence with Spain, concerning Cuba, to Congress until it is asked for, and may not do so then if he doesn't consider it advisable. All the summer and fall friends of the administration were saying, "Oh, it will be all right when Congress meets; then Mr. McKinley will make all the correspondence public and his course will be endorsed." What has brought about a change of mind? The most plausible cause is that Mr. McKinley believes that if the correspondence was made public while Congress was in session that it would bring about Congressional action in less than 48 hours, and that is just what he doesn't want. He desires to give Spain more time, and if he doesn't undergo another change of mind before his message goes to Congress he will tell Congress so.

The office seekers have a new grievance against Mr. McKinley. On the same day that it was stated that Mr. McKinley had arranged to give one hour every morning to a sculptor who had been engaged to make a bust of him it was officially announced that only those callers who were sent for would be seen by Mr. McKinley until he has finished work on his message to Congress. The office holders want to know what urgency exists for the making of that bust, and why the hour a day to be devoted to sitting for the sculptor could not have been given to hearing what they had to say.

Hon. J. P. Newman, of Newport, Ky., who is visiting Washington, says of his State: "Kentucky is back into the Democratic column to stay, and it will be many a year before the opposition will be able to get control again. There is no doubt in my mind of the election of a free silver Democrat to succeed Senator Lindsay, but I will not undertake to predict who will be given that honor. Mr. Bryan's popularity in our State has not waned; in fact, I think he is stronger today than ever."

Representative Berry, of Kentucky, who was one of the party of Congressmen recently in Hawaii, is enthusiastic in his praise of the climate, soil and products of the islands. Upon the subject of annexation he says: "If there was a certainty that the people of the island could be secured in their right of self government, as now enjoyed under the Dole administration, I would be in favor of a policy of non-intervention by the United States, but the danger is that if we do not act some other country will, and this country could not tolerate the acquisition of Hawaii by any foreign power. These are the grounds upon which I favor annexation."

Yellow Fever Germs

breed in the bowels. Kill them and you are safe from the awful disease. Cascarets destroy the germs throughout the system and make it impossible for new ones to form. Cascarets are the only reliable safe guard for young and old against Yellow Jack. 10c, 25c, 50c, all druggists.

Danger in Postage Stamps.

One of the newest diseases is the "postage stamp tongue." The credit of discovering it is due to a London physician. It appears that the mucilage itself is injurious, and that, further, it is an excellent cultivating medium for germs, of the worst character. In the ailment called postage stamp tongue the latter becomes sore and covered with red spots. A bad sore throat is likely to follow if great care is not taken. Apart from the specific disease of the tongue, any contagious disease may be acquired through the medium of mucilage. Never lick a postage stamp with your tongue. It shows a great lack of cleanliness and hygienic knowledge.—Exchange.

Yellow Jack Preventative.

Guard against Yellow Jack by keeping the system thoroughly clean and free from germ breeding matter. Cascarets Candy Cathartic will cleanse the system and kill all contagious disease germs.

Apostrophe to the Dollar.

An editor has been inspired, after looking over his list of delinquent subscribers, to compose the following: "How dear to our heart is the silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seem so new; the wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well; the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well."

NOVEMBER FASHION NOTES.

This Column is For The Ladies.

Checked velvet is an ideal fabric for the winter shirtwaist.

In velvets and silks there is a revival of the mulberry and mahogany shades. Deep purple velvets are also very popular.

Yellow satin broche forms the lining of some elegant evening cloaks of gray furs.

Gay plaid velvets for trimming cloth gowns are most effective when cut decidedly on the bias.

Double faced black satin ribbon is recommended for the belt and sach ends of the modish house gown.

Besides the new light vivid greens in satin duchesse for evening wear one sees this rich material in cream, white, yellow, turquoise, mauve and pink.

Many of the choice outer garments of the season are of fine black velour du nord.

Venetian red is a favorite color for the finishing touches on London made evening gowns
White gowns have crepe or silk sash ends in this brilliant, rich tone.

The costume having skirt and sleeves of cloth, with bodice of velvet, is coming into style again.

Exquisite designs are seen in separate yokes of embroidered net.

Coats and jackets perceptibly lengthen as the days shorten, until we now know definitely that the little bob-tailed jacket of last winter has no part in this season's dress parade. In its place we have the coat of generous length.
These are acknowledged to be the garments above all others for winter wear.

Many of the medium length coats have the box effect fronts, especially those of velvet. These latter are frequently richly trimmed with passementerie, fur or ostrich feather bands.

The new evening bodices of lace and silk upon which is noted the most lavish use of expensive laces, embroideries and bits of passementerie demand an infinite amount of time, trouble and expense, and require the care of a first class modiste.

An embroidery of jet spangles with pink satin ribbon is an exquisite garniture on a gown of black satin, and comparatively few of this season's black gowns are made up without a touch of color.

Cotton at present prices is not worth fooling with. And prices are likely to be even lower next year. Our farmers can not afford to raise it at such low prices.
Make plenty of home supplies.
Plant some tobacco and handle it nicely. This is the finest section in the world for bright tobacco.
We believe it is the best money crop for our farmers.—Kinston Free Press.

A Chance for a Boy.

Are you a boy? Do you want a pair of fine shoes free? Then read what Ricks & Taft say in today's paper. Don't allow any other boy to get ahead of you; all of Greenville will know that you are a hustler if you win. It will be easy to find people who take THE REFLECTOR—you can't throw a rock in a crowd without hitting a subscriber. All of them will treat you nicely when they know what you want; nobody refuses to help the boy who is helping himself. Get a hustle on you and win the shoes.

Our Soldiers Can Play Ball.

Private W. J. Hemby, in the U. S. Army at Fort Monroe, Va., in a letter to the REFLECTOR says they have a foot ball team at the Fort which is the second best in the South. Every member of the team is from North Carolina and three of them from this county. They have so far played four games this season and won all of them. They play in Wilmington, Del., on Thanksgiving Day.

A PAIR of Fine SHOES Free.

Ages 5 to 12 Years.

Boys, Listen!

Do you want to earn a Pair of Fine Shoes for yourself? This is how you can do it: Commencing with Monday, November 22nd, we will run this advertisement for six continuous days including Saturday, November 27th; and the boy bringing us the greatest number of this advertisement, neatly clipped from this paper, will be entitled to a Pair of Fine Shoes, Free of Charge.

Don't depend on your own paper for the advertisement, visit your neighbors and friends and get them to give you our advertisement from their paper.

Remember, it is a Pair of Fine Shoes for one week's work, so you must hustle. You can afford it. The prize will be awarded Monday, November 29th, at 4 o'clock P. M., at our store. Now, Boys, be there on time and get the Shoes free.

OVEROATS! May be you are ready to buy now, and may be not. Makes no difference. You want an Overcoat sooner or late. If you come now and inspect our stock, the chances are two to one you will buy from us. Man, boy or child, don't care how large or small, just so he wears pants.

Notice.

This is to notify my friends and patrons that I have this day withdrawn from the partnership of The Greenville Supply Co. and have connected myself with R. L. Davis & Bros' under the firm name of Speight & Co. and will continue to buy cotton and produce as before under said firm name. Thanking my friends for their past patronage, I assure them that their interests will always have my careful consideration. I think I am better prepared to handle their business than ever before and solicit a continuance of their patronage. This Nov. 16th, 1897. JESSE SPEIGHT.
