BAD DAY FOR SPIES.

Seven Captured on a Sloop and One in a Fort.

TRAITOR ON THE PURITAN.

Spanish Fleet Sails from Cape Verd but Part of it Put Back in Port—Troops at Tampa Preparing to Invade Cuba—Clara Barton's Nurses go to Key West—Engineers Leave West Point to join Invasion.

Spied Once Too Many.

Fort Eads, April 28.—A Spanish spy who has been trying to get information around the post here, was captured today. General Graham is here to appoint a court martial and the spy will undoubtedly be shot.

Sloop With Spies Captured.

Key West, April 29.—A small Spanish sloop was captured by the Newport last night three miles off Havana and was brought here this morning. She had a cargo of fish and seven Spanish spies aboard and was trying to sneak in Havana harbor by the blockade when captured. The spies were trying to reach Gen. Blanco with information they had obtained on the American side.

Spanish Fleet Sailed

St. Vincent, Cape Verd Island, April 29.—The Spanish fleet sailed from here this morning in a southerly direction, destination unknown. The fleet is well provisioned with coal and supplies.

St. Vincent, April 29.—This afternoon two Spanish transports and three torpedo boats returned to port here from some cause as yet unknown. If they remain here twenty-four hours, under the neutrality laws they will not be permitted to leave.

American Consulate Attacked.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 29.—A report has reached here that a Spanish mob attacked the American consulate at Santiago. Full particulars of the attack and extent of damage not yet received.

Paris Not Sighted

Queenstown, April 29.—The Captain of the Cunard Line steamer Campania, arrived here this morning from New York, says the steamer Paris was not sighted on his trip.

Portugal's decree of neutrality, made public today, forbids the equipment of privateers in Spanish waters.

Army Deficiency

Washington, April 29.—Secretary Alger today submitted the deficiency army estimate. He places the figures at $34,000,000.

The Senate has adopted the conference report on the naval appropriations bill.

Convicted of Treason.

Key West, April 29.—This morning a sailor aboard the Monitor Puritan was convicted of treason by a court martial and condemned to death. He will be shot. His family is at Matanza and he was caught filing a lock of one of the Puritan's magazines. It seems his purpose was to get revenge on the monitor by blowing her up for the part she took in the late bombardment.

France in Fighting Trim

Paris, April 29.—There is an extraordinary display in naval and military activities here. All ships are being rapidly put in thorough fighting trim.

He is a Nuisance

Charles Dupree opened business near Henry Hooker's corner today and drew the crowd. He drew blood as well by striking another colored man in the mouth with a bludgeon. He is one character who ought to be kept out of town.

Orders for Invasion

Tampa, April 29.—Orders were issued to-day to the troops here to prepare for the invasion of Cuba. Everything is bustle and activity about the camps and the troops are ready for orders to move.

Pontoon Bridges

West Point, April 29.—A force of engineers with adequate equipment of pontoon bridges left here today for Tampa to join the army in invading Cuba.

Sails for Key West

Tampa, April 29.—Clara Barton's force of Red Cross nurses sailed from this port for Key West this morning on the steamer Mascot.

SPANISH NEEDLES

Latest Grape Vine News from The Reflector's War Reporter

Potato bugs are organizing and recruiting.

There are some scared soldier boys in this old town.

Company H, attention! Be ready to march Monday

There are plenty of volunteers in last year's potato patches.

We heard somebody asking "Who is that fellow Uncle Sam the folks are talking so much about?"

Just think of some of the scenes when the soldier boys go to tell their girls good-bye Sunday night. They won't be fishing smacks, you bet.

Talk about stirs, but the orders that came Thursday evening for Company H to move to Raleigh caused one. There was a shout when Capt. Smith read his telegram on the street.

Warehouse Change.

Mr. C. D. Rountree recently sold his interest in the Star tobacco warehouse to Mr. S. T. White, and the firm name of that house will hereafter be Coward, Brown & Co. Mr. Rountree will continue to be identified with the tobacco market and will be in business next season.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1898.

The Voters Will Not Have it.

An eastern North Carolina Democrat, through the medium of a letter to a relative here, sends a message of thanks and encouragements to The Observer on account of its position on the subject of Democratic-Populists fusion. He says his county will go up to the State convention "with but one plank in her Democracy; "anti-fusion," with a codicil attached to guillotine at once all who favor fusion. I haven't seen a Democrat," he adds, "who favors it, and I hope I never will again. Butler is offering fusion plans to the Democrats—and has no doubt already arranged fusion with the Republicans—just to make bigger fools of them than he did two years ago."

We hear a great deal of talk of this general character. One of the very best informed men in Charlotte said yesterday that he did not know of a Democrat in the city or county who favors fusion. The Observer knows of but one. One of the members of the State committee, for this county, a few days before the last meeting of the committee, made it a matter of business to take the views of at least fifty Democrats on the subject and without leading them, found every one opposed to fusion. Ninety-five per cent, of the Democratic press of the State oppose any trading and we have abundant reason to believe that it is representing Democratic sentiment. This much may be given as a matter of news, that however many or whatever sort of trades may be made, the Democratic goods cannot be delivered. Party lines are resting lightly enough as it is, and if a fusion is fixed up it will amount to throwing the reins on the neck of every Democrat and the party will disintegrate.

We hope the leaders will listen to the voices of the boys in the trenches—the people who do the voting and have no aspiration to any of the offices—and not commit the party to this most fatal policy. There is a lot of talk about the desires of "the plain, honest people" in this matter. There is no trouble about "the plain, honest people"—they will get together again, if left alone, for that which is best for North Carolina. It is the politicians of all parties who are playing the mischief. But speaking specifically of Democrats, it can be said as a verity, that they cannot be traded off to a party which fuses with one party or the other, or both, according as the interests of its corrupt and treacherous leaders suggest.—Charlotte Observer.

Our Armies

A month ago the army of the United States consisted of 25,000 men. Within a few more days the army and navy will number close to 200,000 men. The enormous land force of 185,000 soldiers will be one of the most formidable fighting organizations ever mustered. It will, as things look now, be divided into three great divisions, the regular army, which will be made 61,000 men, if the present intention is carried out; the National Guard, or that portion of it which volunteers under the order recently issued, probably about 90,000 men, and the volunteers, who will enlist to serve three years, unless sooner discharged. The National Guard is enlisting for one year.

At least one month will elapse before any troops will be transported to Cuba, and they will be taken from the regular army. The next troops to be sent over, if there is need for more, will go from the points where the National Guard is to be mobilized—Richmond and Atlanta. If there is need for still more fighting men to whip Spain the volunteer troops will be put into action. This does not mean that idleness is to prevail among the soldiers. All will be put in discipline at once, and there will be drilling and instruction daily.

If the troops being mustered now should prove too few, doubtless another call will be made, with a bounty provision attached. Then the terror of the un-martial—the draft—will come into action.

Of course the navy and the naval preparations have up to this time attracted most attention, as it went first into action. But the army will be the machine to win the victory and drive Spain out of Cuba, and the preparations in view of this have been enormous, though just begun.—Charlotte Observer.

JUST FOR FUN.

"Talk about patriotism," say the Frogtown Kid, "even de babies is up in arms out our way."

A dispatch from the seat of war says that since the capture of that rumladen merchantman Spain has lost much of her good spirits.

Hoax—"I see an account in the paper of at least one of Spain's soldiers who is sick of the Spanish colors." Hoax—"Deserted, eh?" Hoax—"O, no. He simply has a combination of the yellow and scarlet fever."

The Dons are striving to be gay, But they'll learn to their sorrow We're simply putting off to-day What we can do to Morro.

When President McKinley makes his requisition upon North Carolina for her quota of the troops supposed to be needed to successfully wage the war against Spain, the response is prompt and cheerful. The case was different thirty-seven years ago this month—the last time before this that a President of the United States requisitioned North Carolina for soldiers. Then President Lincoln called on Governor Ellis for 1,500 troops to aid in the suppression of the "rebellion." The reply was somewhat elaborate, but prompt and emphatic, and it closed with the notable words: "You will get no troops from North Carolina." This letter was the most historical and perhaps the strongest of all of Governor Ellis's public papers.—Charlotte Observer.

Rebuilt in one Day.

In the account given in yesterday's News of the serious wind storm that visited Clear Creek on last Saturday afternoon it was noted that Mr. Mike Hagler's house was blown down. Mr Hagler has a large family of children who were left without shelter. He is well advanced in years and is a veteran of the late war. His means for meeting the necessities of his family under these circumstances were limited and yesterday he was given a happy surprise by about fifty of the citizens of Clear Creek township who gathered early in the morning and began rebuilding his house. They worked diligently all day and at sundown yesterday evening the house was completed, except the chimney, and the family were sheltered under its roof last night.—Charlotte News.

Two Kind of Mens.

The American Machinist of New York sends out a card which reads: Some men won't advertise when times are dull—think the crack of doom is just about to the city line.

Some men won't advertise when they're busy—think it will last forever.

There are others who advertise all the time. The latter attract inquiries and orders, and in good times can pick what they want.

In dull times they get all there is going—the other fellow is out of business.

One is an optimist in prosperity, a pessimist in adversity, and a narrow-gauge weakling all the time.

The other is just a plain, common sense business man.

What kind are you?

The announcement from Madrid that many French ship owners and not a few private Frenchmen have applied to the Spanish Government for letters of marque against the United States may be taken as an indication of the adventurous spirit of the applicants rather than as a forecast of Spanish policy in this direction. Such marauders would fall clearly within the definition of pirates and piracy laid down in the seventh clause of the Spanish royal decree of April 24, which brands as pirates "vessels which, not being American, shall commit acts of war against Spain, even if provided with letters of marque issued by the United States."—Philadelphia Record.

The Hornet Nest Rifles, of Charlotte the reputed crack military company of the State, refused flat out to volunteer.

INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

Of an Iowa Lady Why Was Cured of Dyspepsia After Suffering for Twenty-five Years.

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, an estimable lady residing at Lynnville, Jasper Co., Iowa, was for twenty-five years a sufferer from Dyspepsia, and her complete restoration to health is so remarkable that we present the facts in the case for the benefit of our readers, many of whom have doubtless suffered in the same manner and will, therefore, be interested in learning how stomach troubles may be avoided and cured. Mrs. Skeels says: I used only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact it has been six months since I took the medicine and I have not had one particle or distress of difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was incurable as I had suffered for twenty-five years. I want half a dozen packages to distribute among my friends here who are very anxious to try this remedy.

Truly yours,
MRS. SARAH A. SKEELS.

The reason why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so successful in curing indigestion and stomach trouble and the reason why it never disappoints those who need it and use it is because nothing is claimed for it except what it will actually perform. It is not a cure-all and no such claims are made for it. It is prepared for the sole purpose of curing Dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion.

There is scarcely a patent medicine made but what is claimed to cure dyspepsia as well as a hundred other troubles. When as a matter of fact a remedy to cure Dyspepsia must be prepared especially for that and nothing else; and among all the remedies patent nostrums, bitters, etc., so extensively advertised you will find that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only one advertised as a cure for dyspepsia and nothing else. The remedy is prepared by the Stuart Co. of Marshall, Mich., and for sale by all druggists at 50 cents per package, and if you suffer from any form of stomach derangement or indigestion a trial will not disappoint you.

A little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Why He is Not Going.

A good story was being told on the streets yesterday of a negro's idea of modern warfare.

An old negro was asked if he was going to Cuba to fight.

No sah dis chile ain't er gwine no whar. Ain't you heerd about dem big guns what dey got now? No what about them?

Why dey's de most powerfullest guns you ever saw. They shoot fifteen miles, then the ball rolls six miles and blows up and it rains rocks and bullets fer three days. Umph um! Dis chile ain't gwine to no wa.

Madrid brags of the "awakening of the Spanish lion." We have Sampson for their lion.

Natural Allies and Friends

The restoration of harmony or good feeling between England and America is a consummation so devoutly to be wished that no difficulties or obstacles should be allowed to stand in its way. England has plainly recognized, at last, that America is her best and only natural ally and friend. We believe the most enlightened Englishmen have long felt this and tried to show it. The trouble has been that there has been no practical way of proving that England was sincere. The Cuban war has happily furnished one of which even the most savage Jingoos acknowledge the sufficiency. It may be said, of course, that this newly formed friendship is very likely to be more valuable to England than to us, in view of the attitude of the Continent toward her. But what of it? Wise statesmen do not inquire too closely into motives. The sole questions for us are: Is it a good thing for us? Is it a good thing for liberty and civilization? No one who sees now things are going in the great Continental States can well help answering these questions in the affirmative.—New York Evening Post.

A New Theory

A schoolboy was asked to explain the formation of dew. His answer was: "The earth revolves on an axis every twenty-four hours, and in consequence of the tremendous pace at which it travels it perspires freely."—Tit-Bits.

It is interesting to know just at this time that in the United States Senate there are twelve Senators who served in the Union army, and twelve who served in the Confederate army. There are fifty-seven Representatives who served in the Union army and thirty who are ex-Confederates.
